"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The Mutual Union Telegraph Co.'s office at Gloucester, Mass., is opened for business.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H. as second-class matter.]

Pensions.—Arrears of Work.

Congressman Ray says that Commissioner Dudley recently informed him that it would require five hundred additional clerks in the pension office, work being pushed night and day for three years, to dispose of the claims now pending. Without this extra force it will require more than six years to consider the applications.—Exchange.

The cause of this is perfectly apparent to any congressman who will take the trouble to investigate it. Take a common case, an every-day occurrence as illustrative of the process by which a thing is not done in the pension office:

There was an old lady who lived in a neighboring state, whose husband was a soldier in the war of 1812, and obtained a land warrant several years ago. The evidence required to establish her claim was of course retained and easily examined at the pension office. Under an act passed in '78 the widow became entitled to a pension beginning in March, 1878, and continuing until her re-marriage or death. She applied for this in April, '78, and the certificate was issued about the close of the year. The widow died in very poor circumstances in August, before her certificate issued, and by the law a re-imbursement could be made to any person who paid her funeral expenses, and the expenses of her last sickness. These were paid by a son, who had no property, and who after the pension was allowed, applied for the repayment, there being about forty dollars due up to the time of the widow's decease. Evidence was filed of the date of the woman's death, that she left no property, that of the expenses of the undertaker, etc., and also as to other payments for burial, doctors' bill, etc.

For three years the pensions clerks have had this claim, which a competent judge of probate, who is paid a few hundred dollars yearly salary in New England, would have scrutinized and audited in a few hours, and perhaps have personally known all the witnesses to the facts, and as to their credibility, and the amount would have been allowed and paid; but the government employs clerks at the rate of from twelve to eighteen hundred dollars annually, to hold these claims and not allow them. They are passed upon by men not competent to weigh evidence, oftentimes superannuated, lazy, or deficient save to while away the time till office hours are over.

Once in six months, forgetting all about the case, too indolent to examine the papers on file, they send for proof already forwarded, which has to be made out and sent with postage paid,—for although this is a vested claim, an obligation of the government is much as a bond or a coupon, the claimant must furnish required proof often duplicated, at expense of witness fees, travelling, magistrates' fees, clerks' certificates, postage, etc., and all because no one is personally calling up the case as would be the course before a local tribunal. In fine, they suffer these cases to simmer and wait. In the case referred to, the cost of testimony, time spent, correspondence, etc., has amounted to about as much as the sum likely in the dim future to be allowed.

Now, why is this? Simply because the pension office needs weeding out of its fossils, and the adjudication of these kinds of claims should be by a local tribunal, which should take evidence at the homes of claimants,—that is, at convenient places in the states where they reside,—and certify facts found; and yet such a measure seems not to have found favor with congressmen who know the injustice of the present mode of procedure, and who are asked, under the so-called civil service plan, to enact laws that inefficient men in office shall stay there, and a healthful and needed rotation shall not be observed.

Of course it will take three years to dispose of the claims, simply because claims are not disposed of in the business like way in which a claim would be established before a justice court in the Coos region. It is not the extra force that is needed, so much as it is to have younger men with legal education appointed to act in the pension business; and at the same time that competent, honest and educated men should be selected in the various states to take evidence in a proper mode which is now sent in exparte affidavits, and upon which much time is wasted, which might be saved if a more economic and judicious system of collecting evidence relative to claims for pensions, etc., could be inaugurated.

On Tuesday Feb. 21st, a villianous attempt was made to wreck a train from Dover to Alton Bay. When the train passed over what is known as the Meeting House crossing, between Farmington and New Durham, the engineer felt a violent jarring of the locomotive, as if it had passed over an obstruction. He brought the machine to a stand, and with some of the train hands went back to make an examination, when they found that four railroad ties had been put in position to wreck the train, three crossways and one stuck up endwise in a culvert at the crossing, and from the way they were wedged in it is a wonder there was not a fatal wreck. The locomotive cut through the obstructions without sustaining any injury whatever. Seeing that no clue could be obtained in the darkness, the train left for its destination. Early next morning Sheriff Greenfield of Strafford county discovered a man's tracks through the snow, and believes that the perpetrator of the outrage, after placing the obstruction, moved away to an adjoining tree, near which he remained to watch the result, and probably left for home in the darkness after seeing the fruitless results of his work. The matter is to be thoroughly sifted, and it is earnestly hoped the perpetrator will be speedily brought to justice.

A later report says that Sheriff Greenfield arrived in Dover on the 23d, having in custody Arthur Huntoon, arrested in Farmington for attempting to wreck the train. He is seventeen years old, confesses the crime, and says he was drunk when he committed it. Twenty years or so in state prison would probably work well in his case.

The highways in Newington were more completely blocked by the snowstorm of Feb. 21st and 22d, than at any previous time this season. The milk pung of Henry Bean on the 22d took two horses to draw to this city, harnessed tandem, one good animal not being able to do the work. Five yoke of oxen were required in breaking out the roads in the lower districts.

The tide on the morning of Feb. 22d was a foot deep in the basement of the north mill—the highest tide recorded there since Jan. 27th, 1867, when the water reached one inch higher. There are but six higher tides marked there, the grand one of all, in 1830, having beaten the late one by a foot.

Cuticura

STATEMENT UNDER OATH.

I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and, in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in a form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there could be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of the winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Spring. I reached Detroit, and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One doctor treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs, feet badly swollen, toe nails came off, finger nails dead and hard as bone, hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! how I did suffer!

My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small piece of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Soon was applied on one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the wound go. They immediately got the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier), Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures). I commenced by taking one teaspoonful of Resolvent three times a day, after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura morning and evening. Result, returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, Feb. 23d, Mayor Sise in the chair:

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Several small bills against the city were ordered to be paid.

Notice was given that Moses Yeaton declined serving on the board of assessors.

The report of the chief engineer of the fire department was approved, and ordered to be printed.

It was announced that the account of receipts and expenditures for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1881, would be ready for the printer next week.

The committee to whom was referred the claim of Mr. Walsh for injuries occasioned by a fall, requested further time to report.

Adjourned for one week.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Washington's birthday was observed in this city by a general cessation of business in the afternoon, quite a respectable number of stores not opening at all during the day. The bells were rung morning, noon and evening. Private citizens celebrated by shovelling the snow off th-ir sidewalks, and the street laborers of the city were kept busy in levelling big drifts on the most travelled thoroughfares. A salute was fired on the navy yard at noon.

The weather clerk did his share toward making the celebration a memorable one, he having gotten up the worst storm of the season, commencing on the 21st, and keeping it up until daylight on the 22d; the snow-fall was not so heavy as one or two previous ones, but it flew around in such style that the night was the worst of the year to be out in. The tide at two o'clock A. M. on the 22d was higher, according to the gauge and record at the north mill, than on any previous date since Nov. 10th, 1871; Capt. Trefethen, of the steamer Mystic, thinks it was higher on the river front than at any time since 1870, the steamer's landing in Portsmouth (Broughton's wharf) being eight inches under water, and the piers at the navy yard partially covered. The elevator of J. Brooks & Co., at the Concord railroad station, which was supposed to be effectually guarded against any tide that could come along, was flooded in the basement, causing some annoyance and delay when it was attempted to start up work At Newcastle the water extended about half-way across the road in front of the Prescott estate.

Flags were of course displayed from the city building and the custom house, but not a flag could be seen along the north end wharves; and of all the fishing vessels lying at the wharves off Water street, but one (the schooner Addie & Hattie, owned by Randall & Caswell,) had up the stars and stripes. Messrs. Randall & Caswell displayed the national ensign from their place of business on shore, as did also Messrs. George Herbert & Co., John Nutter, Thomas J. F. Varrell and Eben N. Odiorne; but the liberty pole at Liberty bridge was without a flag throughout the day.

MORE TRAINS NEEDED.

Patrons of the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, which extends forty-one miles between Manchester and Portsmouth, have determined to urge upon Manager Sherburne the propriety of placing a smoking-car upon the morning passenger train from Portsmouth. They also maintain that trains which would take passengers from Concord and above, on the arrival of trains over the Boston, Concord & Montreal and Northern railroads in the forenoon, would greatly accommodate the large number of sojourners on the sea coast adjacent to Portsmouth, and allow passengers to go from Plymouth and White River Junction to Augusta, Me., via Portsmouth; and that a train leaving Portsmouth after the morning train had arrived from Augusta would not long be found to be remunerative, and at the same time remove the most forcible argument which could be adduced for chartering the "Lake Shore road."—Boston Advertiser.

There are very many men who travel for business or pleasure, who will smoke, and we have heard constant complaints of the short-sightedness of the railroad managers whose accommodations are in such contrast with those on the Eastern road. One would suppose that a train either way on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, as indicated above, would pay. Facilities afforded, increase patronage. The Concord road now runs the same number of trains as when it opened, thirty years ago. In the meantime the trains on the Eastern road have increased from three to six a day from Boston, and all of these are well patronized. Manchester's population has doubled almost since the road ran to that city, but there is no increased accommodation to those who wish to go to Manchester and the north, and not expend a day when half a day would suffice. Additional trains, in summer at least, would sooner or later show an increased traffic, which would add to the net revenue of the Concord railroad.

AN UGLY BUMP.

Irving Brooks, a young son of Mr. Langdon Brooks of Newington, while attending school in that town on Monday of this week received a severe blow on the head. He was running around the schoolhouse, and in making a turn slipped and fell, striking his head against the corner of the building, tearing a portion of his scalp loose from the skull. The little fellow got up, rubbed the sore place, and took off his hat before he found out how badly he was injured; on removing the hat a triangular piece of the scalp came with it, dropping down over his ear. There were two cuts, starting from the same point on his forehead, one extending straight back for six inches, and the other four inches long, extending back of his ear at an acute angle. The lad was taken home and a doctor called to sew up the wound.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 22; Batchelder, J.

George W. Brackett, charged with the larceny of a horse-collar from James R. Eaton, was discharged. There was no dispute as to Brackett taking the collar from Eaton's premises, but it was done in daylight without any attempt at concealment, there being a dispute as to the ownership of the property.

THURSDAY, Feb. 23; Batchelder, J.

George O. Emerson, for vagrancy, was sent to Brentwood for sixty days; costs $6.90.

James Morgan, vagrant, sixty days at Brentwood, costs $6.73.

AROUND HOME.

Hon. Daniel Marcy, accompanied by his wife, left this city for New Orleans on Thursday last.

Rev. John B. Richmond, of Dover, will hold lenten services and deliver an address at St. John's chapel this (Friday) evening.

On Tuesday of this week Messrs. Elvin Newton & Co. sent to Boston nearly 40,000 lbs. of fish—28,000 lbs. with the heads off.

Rev. Father Sweat of the Church of the Advent, Boston, officiated at St John's church in this city on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 22d.

Rev. C. A. Holbrook, rector of St. John's church, has arrived at Fayal, Azores islands, per barque Sarah, fifteen days from Boston.

We understand that Mr. A. C. Amazeen, of the stone stable, has sold his black colt "Danville Boy" to parties in Boston, for quite a large price.

It was reported on the 23d inst. that Mr. C. Morris Tredick, late of this city, was lying very ill in Malden, Mass., and that serious fears were entertained that he might not recover.

The Times came out on Thursday evening last in a new dress of reading type, and very much improved in appearance thereby. The advertising type will be renewed as fast as the work can be done.

A new shaft, weighing about three tons, was brought here on Tuesday, Feb. 21st, to be put into the Little Giant dredging machine, which is lying up at Russell & Odlon's wharf for the winter.

The Fostelle dramatic company played "Mrs. Partington" in Music hall on the evening of Feb. 21st, to a very small audience—the only wonder being that there was any audience at all on such a night. The piece is quite amusing.

Rev. C. J. Fowler of Bethlehem, well known in this city, where he has holden revival services, has been suffering severely of late with inflammation of the eyes. His condition has been such as to prevent his usual public labors for some time, but he is now very much improved.

The present owners of the schooner Cochecco are so well pleased with her performance since they purchased her of the former Portsmouth owners, that they have communicated with this city relative to the building here of another similar schooner.

Travellers who had occasion to pass over the Newcastle highways on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, say that the manner in which the roads were broken out after the big storm of the previous Tuesday was most creditable to the town authorities.

Many of our citizens will remember Mr. Merrill, who for a long term of years has filled so acceptably the position of chief clerk of the Crawford house at the White mountains. That gentleman has accepted the offer of Hon. Frank Jones of Portsmouth, to assume charge of the Rockingham house in that city and the Hotel Wentworth at Newcastle.—Dover Republican.

The historical discourse delivered in the North church in this city by Rev. George B. Spalding, D. D., of Dover, at the 100th anniversary of the Piscataqua Association of Congregational Ministers, with reminiscences and remarks by Rev. Drs. Robie and Quint, and others, has been published in pamphlet form.

A telegraphic despatch was received in this city on Thursday from Washington, D. C., announcing that the naval committee of the senate had reported favorably on the nomination of Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson, of this navy yard, to be chief of the bureau of construction and repair.

A Haverhill shoe manufacturer, since the fire in that city, was invited by one of our citizens to establish himself in Portsmouth, where he could find a convenient building and plenty of rentable houses for his help. "What," said he, "do you think I could be permitted to do business where your authorities are said to be opposed to having an appearance of vitality in their streets, by the erection of telegraph poles? I could not get my workmen to stay over night in such a place."

The schooner Mayor Jones, of this port, Goodwin master, arrived at Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 21st, from Tusket, N. S., bringing as passengers thirty-two men who will enter the fishing business, sailing out of Gloucester. The schooner Cochecco, formerly of this port, Capt. Richard Seaward of Kittery Point master, arrived at Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 19th, in four days from Baltimore, having made the run from Cape Henry to the Frying-pan Shoals lightship in thirty-two hours.

Mr. Samuel Peyser of this city left town on Wednesday of this week for New York city, where he enters the employ of an extensive wholesale clothing house on Canal street. Mr. Peyser will start out on the road about March 1st. His route will include nearly all the larger cities and towns of New England, and is considered one of the most desirable of the eastern routes. The name of the firm employing Mr. Peyser is A. & J. Levy.

A gang of young hoodlums nightly congregate in front of the Franklin buildings, near the Vaughan street corner, as soon as it is dusk, and remain there until nearly eight o'clock, about the time the police come along. These boys are of the lowest class, and insult and disgust every decent person with their profane and obscene language. It would not be a bad idea for an officer to drop around there a little earlier evenings, and start the gutter-snipes along.

A large number of gentlemen representing the various insurance companies which had risks upon the property destroyed by the fire in Haverhill, Mass., are busily at work adjusting the losses. At the organization of the visiting brethren, John Sise, Esq., of this city, was chosen chairman. The work of ascertaining the loss is assigned to various committee-men, representing different companies that have issued policies, and in that way settlements are more speedily arrived at.

The Veterans' ball at Manchester was attended by Mr. O. G. Sawyer, secretary to the commandant at the navy yard, Dr. Andrew P. Preston, and Messrs. R. E. Rider and Arthur W. Walker of this city. The description of the toilets of the ladies present fills columns of the local papers, and the readers are delighted with the description of the "galaxy of wealth, beauty and fashion" present on that occasion. Among the long list of toilets described we find that of Mrs Gov. Bell, Mrs. Col. C. E. Lane of Exeter and Mrs. Col. Chas. H. Sawyer of Dover. Those of Mrs. Moody Currier of Manchester and Mrs. Ex-Gov. Cheney seem to our untutored information to be superb, but any ordinary dress-maker's last-employed assistant could give us a hundred points, and then beat us out of sight in describing properly those arrayed in purple and fine linen, which gave so much tone to the "grandest ball ever held by the Vots."

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup." It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfect y safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the ol est and best female phy-icians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan23

CAUTION.

LA NORMANDI CIGARS

Are being imitated by many manufacturers, and put up in a manner likely to deceive consumers. Many dealers are also selling a spurious and inferior Cigar, putting on a La Normandi card and selling them as such. To those who wish to buy Estabrook & Eaton's genuine "La Normandi" we would say, the only genuine goods have our signature on the end of each box, and the words "La Normandi" on the ribbon round each bench; no others are genuine.

We hereby notify all parties making or selling imitation Cigars under the La Normandi brand, that we shall prosecute them to the full extent of the law.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Adams-Hecla Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—par is assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. PAR VALUE $100.
Thomas J. Gifford, President;

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 3,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

Amputation of the Leg.

The old family Physician at Fault—Dr. David Kennedy the Successful Surgeon.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. His family physician refused to amputate the limb—asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who was consulted, held a different opinion, and amputated the limb. The Doctor then administered freely his great blood specific Favorite Remedy to afford tone and strength to the system, prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's Favorite Remedy purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your Druggist has it. One Dollar a bottle. New Hampshire Items.

Great Falls is to have a new passenger depot.

Twenty-two male residents of Peterborough are each more than eighty years of age.

The spring term of the New Hampton Institution has an attendance of nearly 200.

The Congregationalists of Henniker are taking active measures toward the remodeling of their house of worship.

There are 124 inmates at the Strafford county farm, besides twenty-two inmates of the insane asylum.

Col. T. H. Wood, formerly of Nashua, is now general manager of the Texas & Great Western railway, with headquarters at Denton, Tex.

Nearly 6000 barrels of apples have been shipped from the depots in Rochester during the past fall and winter. Nearly all were grown in Rochester or its immediate vicinity.

The officers of the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar of the state of New Hampshire are to pay an official visit to St. George's Commandry, Nashua, on Thursday evening, March 2d.

A wild engine was thrown from the track at the depot in Charlestown, Feb. 11th, by the misplacement of a switch by some irresponsible person. A freight car was badly smashed, and other slight damages caused. No one was injured.

Charles Hurley, a man of twenty-five or thereabouts, a bartender, was found on the street, a few rods from his home, in Laconia, at six o'clock Saturday morning, Feb. 18th, frozen stiff. It is supposed that he died in a fit. He had a wife and two children.

Arthur Dexter of Troy, a lad of sixteen, on Feb. 15th was riding upon a sled with both hands resting upon the muzzle of a gun, when it accidentally went off. The charge passed through both hands, and upward, badly injuring his face and causing it is feared the loss of one eye. The fingers were all torn from the left hand, and the middle finger from the right.

Capt. Winburn A. Sanborn of Laconia died at his winter home in Fernandina, Florida, Feb. 16th, aged about seventy-one years. Mr. Sanborn was the captain of the first steamboat on Lake Winnipesaukee, and has had command of the Lady of the Lake for many years, even to the time of his death. The deceased was widely and favorably known to the travelling public. He leaves one daughter, the wife of Capt. J. P. Wadleigh.

—The world belongs to the energetic.

Have you Ever

Known any person to be seriously ill, without a weak stomach or inactive liver or kidneys? And when these organs are in good condition do you not find their possessor enjoying good health? Parker's Ginger Tonic regulates these important organs, makes the blood rich and pure, and strengthens every part of the system. See other column

There was a large anti-polygamy meeting in Concord, Feb. 22d.

Be Careful!

No matter what disease you may have. Be sure that the medicine you take is reliable. Such a medicine you will always find Sulphur Bitters. They are not a cheap rum drink but are made of the choicest roots and herbs to be found in the vegetable kingdom.—Daily Argus.

A son of Solomon Richardson of Charlton, Mass., is under arrest, having confessed the murder of his father by shooting. It was previously supposed to be a case of accidental shooting.

"What Alexander Might Have Done."

The late czar of Russia was eminently a great man, as his action in liberating thirty-six million serfs from slavery qualified him to be. Yet with all his greatness, Alexander left it to Dr. Swayne, to liberate the world from the annoyance and pain of scores of skin diseases, by producing Swayne's Ointment. Think of the tens, hundreds, thousands, it has cured, and then remember it is economical, effective, reliable, and pure, and if will only try it you will have a cure.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BAWTON SEARS.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. H. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Co.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—HANSON LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROTRA, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils, draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a sack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21 of the universal success of Brown's Iron Bitters is simply this: It is the best Iron preparation ever made; is compounded on thoroughly scientific, chemical and medicinal principles, and does just what is claimed for it—no more and no less.

By thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood, it reaches every part of the system, healing, purifying and strengthening. Commencing at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health—in no other way can lasting benefit be obtained.

79 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, Nov. 7.
I have been a great sufferer from a very weak stomach, heartburn, and dyspepsia in its worst form. Nearly everything I ate gave me distress, and I could eat but little. I have tried everything recommended, have taken the prescriptions of a dozen physicians, but got no relief until I took Brown's Iron Bitters. I feel none of the old troubles, and am a new man. I am getting much stronger, and feel first-rate. I am a railroad engineer, and now make my trips regularly. I can not say too much in praise of your wonderful medicine. D. C. MACK.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not contain whiskey or alcohol, and will not blacken the teeth, or cause headache and constipation. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, &c.

Use only Brown's Iron Bitters made by Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore. Crossed red lines and trade-mark on wrapper.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

Daily Chronicle.

Salvini in a Straight Jacket.

Salvini had a funny experience at Sumosa, in Italy. He took, under an assumed name, some lodgings in an out-of-the-way street, for the purpose of quietly studying a new role. The day after he moved in he began to rehearse his part. The part was a tragic one, and some passages were exceptionally thundering. The landlord was out, and his wife and daughter became alarmed at the noise the new lodger was making. They listened at the door, and heard him howling something to this effect: "Miserable coward! Thy hand is, then, strong enough only to plunge the steel into the bosom of an innocent victim! Thou hast not the courage to kill thyself. Wilt thou, then, await the hatchet of the executioner?" The two women became terrified, rushed to the police office, and in a few moments the great tragedian was put in a straitjacket and locked up as a lunatic. It took several hours, with the aid of the local magistrate and the local physician, to clear the matter up.

A San Francisco Dodge.

A Philadelphia visitor in San Francisco was walking along a quiet street of residences about two weeks ago, when he observed a seedy-looking youth stoop eagerly and pick a shining object from the pavement. "What a lucky find!" exclaimed the youth, turning to the Philadelphian, "she's a twenty dollar fellow, isn't she?" The latter eyed the object and saw that it was a gold nugget pin, similar to small nuggets frequently carried by miners and others on the Pacific coast. "It's a windfall to me, for I'm dead broke," said the youth, "I'll run right down town and sell her." "What do you want for it?" asked the unsuspecting victim, who thought he had a chance to turn an honest penny. "I am so hard up I believe I'll take ten dollars," and the Philadelphian, as he afterward discovered, got his penny's worth of brass. The dodge is said to be the most troublesome on that coast.

When a man has to neglect his work because of rheumatism, and fails to apply the great German remedy, we have very little patience with him; unless of course mitigating circumstances should present themselves: For years David Ainsworth suffered with rheumatism, and notwithstanding the best medical attendance, could not find relief. He came to the Scioto County poorhouse, and had to be carried into and out of bed on account of his helpless condition. After the failure of all the remedies which had been applied, the directors of the poorhouse resolved to use the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, and this was a fortunate resolution; for with the trial of one bottle the patient was already better, and when four bottles had been used upon him he could again walk about without the use of a cane. The facts, as above stated, will be verified by the editor of the Portsmouth (O.) Cor.

—A man went into a drug-store and asked for something to cure a headache. The druggist held a bottle of hartshorn to his nose, and he was nearly overpowered by its pungency. As soon as he recovered he began to rail at the druggist and threatened to punch his head. "But didn't it help your headache?" asked the apothecary. "Help my headache!" gasped the man. "I haven't any headache. It's my wife that's got the headache!"

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

—"I wonder," said a young hopeful of seven, who had been to a grand wedding in a stylish church—"I wonder why the organ Lo-he-grins?" "How very stupid, Freddie!" was the prompt reply of his young sister. "It wasn't Lo-he-grins; it was Lo-he's green."

Debilitated persons, and suffers from wasting diseases as consumption, scrofula, kidney affections, will be greatly benefited by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

—"I don't mind the pi-anner much," said a fond but perplexed mother recently, "but when Marier gets to sailyin' around in front of the lookin'-glass and disputin' in French with her own shadder, it makes me right nervous."

The Nation's Characteristics.

Shrewdness and incredulity are the predominant characteristics of the American people. They will take no stock in an article unless it is meritorious. When Dr. Swayne launched his Ointment for the piles, that itch so intensely at night, on a sea of human suffering, the physicians laughed, but the people tried it all the same and manifested their approbation in a national endorsement. Now the allopaths and homeopaths are laughing the other way. This world is full of reverses.

—It appears that the Gainsborough hat has been successfully crushed in New Orleans. Now and then, the Picayune says, a young lady from the country who has no other hat wears one to a theatre, but this seldom occurs.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It by its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is colorless; contains neither oil nor dye; and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an agreeable perfume.

Terrible itching and scaly humors, ulcers, sores and scrofulous swellings cured by the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally. Ask about them at your druggists.

—A funny story is told of Belva Lockwood, the female lawyer of Washington. A witty fellow was once her opposing counsel, and when he desired to refer to the Hon. Belva he was perplexed. He didn't like to say "my sister," out of respect to that expression. He sent a smile over the room by referring to Belva as "my sister-in-law," but she certainly looked daggers at him.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!
LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.
A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, and having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will SEND FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little is may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poi-onous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

An Indian guide named Sockalikis, of Greenbush, Me., shot himself accidentally, Wednesday, Feb. 22d, at La Grange. He died.

Only two Bottles.

Messrs. Johnson, Holloway & Co., wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of Gen. John C. Fremont, Governor of Arizona, had been cured of catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—You have struck a bonanza in your Cream Balm, for the cure of catarrh, hay fever, etc., and it justly merits it. The sales are constantly increasing. Yours truly, M. A. LYON & BRO., Druggists, Montrose, Pa.

Price fifty cents.

The trial of Dr. Wm. H. Bowen, on indictment for burning his buildings in Cranate, R. I., ended Feb. 22d in a verdict of not guilty. The case has excited great local interest, and occupied sixteen days.

BOSTON, Jan. 3d, 1879.

F. W. KINSMAN, ESQ.—Dear Sir: Adam-on's Botanic Cough Balsam seems to give universal satisfaction, both as to quality and price. We sell more of it than of all other cough medicines put together, and have yet to hear of the first instance in which it has failed to give satisfaction. Yours truly,

RUST BROS. & BIRD.

Miss Annie Louise Cary says that she has no idea of withdrawing from her public career, and says that there is no truth in the report that she is to marry.

A New Lobster Law.

The Massachusetts legislative committee on fisheries have reported a bill for the preservation of lobsters. The taking of any seed-bearing lobsters in that state of July, is punishable by a fine of from $10 to $100, or by imprisonment of from one to three months, but catching such a lobster, if taken while fishing for male lobsters and returned at once to the water, shall not be punishable. One having such a lobster in July shall be liable to a fine of from $10 to $50. Local authorities will enforce the law, and fines will be divided equally between the complainant and the municipality.

A Young Thief.

A little girl, only eleven years old, who has been raiding stores in Troy and West Troy, N. Y., all winter, has at last been detected. Her name is Minnie Hayes, and she is the daughter of respectable parents. Recently, she went in J. S. Saunders' crockery store, and soon after she left $38 was missed from the safe. The young thief squandered $13 of this money at another store in valentines, which act led to her detection. She accuses another girl of the theft, but the evidence against Minnie is pretty conclusive.

Excursion.

The advertisement in another column of Raymond's California excursion the coming spring deserves the attention of all who are inclin d to make a trip to the Pacific coast. The Congregationalist of Boston, speaks of the trip as follows: "We speak from personal knowledge of the managers, and with the feeling that we may be doing many of our readers a real service, in saying that we have the strongest confidence that they will carry out all the proposed arrangements in good faith, sparing no effort to secure the comfort of those under their charge. The trip includes almost two months, the party going out via Colorado, New Mexico and the Southern Pacific, and returning via Salt Lake. Ladies need have no hesitation in joining the company without a gentleman as escort. The season of the year is the most favorable, and the fact that all who go in this excursion are saved a vast amount of care in planning the details of the trip during its entire length, affords a strong inducement to join the Raymond party." A pamphlet giving a full programme for the journey may be secured at No. 240 Washington street, Boston.

AROUND HOME.

Numerous dancing parties have been held at Kittery Point this winter, Mr. John Foss of Rye being the violinist.

Rockingham Lodge of Good Templars' held a pound party at their hall on Friday evening. A general good time was indulged in by all present.

Mr. Keen's little steamer, the Fearless, had made her trips between this city and Kittery Point all through the bad weather, and has been well patronized.

The schooner Storm King came in on Friday with 800 lbs. of fish, and reported a very heavy sea outside, in consequence of which she lost a large part of her fishing gear.

Mr. Henry Moulton of York, the extensive manufacturer of ladders, will greatly increase his business in York this spring, and in addition will establish a large ladder-manufactory in Somerville, Mass.

Mr. T. C. Cole the well known milkman, residing on the Boyd road, claims to have an eight day clock which formerly belonged to the Duke of Kent, Queen Victoria's father. It has been in the Cole family for sixty years.

We are pleased to learn from Mr. N. F. Mathes who has lately returned from Boston, that Mr. C. Morris Trodick has entirely recovered and is now as well as usual, he had taken a bad cold and had a severe attack of pleurisy.

The funeral of John H. Gilligan took place on Friday at the Catholic church and was well attended. He was known as a sprightly and pleasant lad, and recently in the employ of Butler & Laighton.

Capt. Philpot hauled from his farm in Rollinsford, on Thursday of this week, a stick of pine timber sixty-five feet long, which will be made into a foremast for the schooner Northern Star, Jameson master. The log now lies at Commercial wharf.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown of Kittery were the recipients of a surprise party on Wednesday evening of this week, who left with them a handsome parlor set of furniture, and other articles of use and value. A clam chowder was served to the company.

Albert Moulton, who resides on Water street, has sold his horse to two young men from York, for a fair price; Mr. Moulton has hired of Russell & Odion a small part of the wharf in the rear of his house, and will commence raising hens.

Investors will do well to examine the benefits offered by the preferred stock of the "Old Judge Gold and Silver Mining Company." An annual dividend of seven per cent is guaranteed for a series of years by the United States Loan and Deposit company, of Boston, who will furnish all information regarding this investment.

Mr. Edward E. Vaughan resides on Gates street in the Marshall house, where his father slept as an apprentice boy, in 1814, about which time he worked upon Fort Washington, and started for Rye at the time of the attempted landing of boats from a British man-of-war at Rye beach. The house has been in the name of Marshall ever since.

The schooner Martha C., of Gloucester, Capt. Charles Martin, arrived at Boston on Friday, Feb 24th, from a Georges haddock trip, and weighed off 93,000 pounds of haddock, stocking $1943, the crew sharing $91, the result of two-and-a-half days' fishing. Absent ten days. This is the largest catch ever reported in the haddock fishery.

A despatch was received in this city on Friday containing the information that Naval Constructor Theodore F. Wilson, now attached to this naval station, was confirmed by the senate as chief of bureau of construction and repair. Mr. Wilson has for a number of years been on duty at this navy yard, and has won the good will and respect of all who knew him, and his many friends who will be pleased at his good fortune will also be sorry to loose him, as he is a pleasant and agreeable companion.

The Biddeford coroner, Abel Jellison, deemed the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Palsifer of Kennebunkport, upon whom it was alleged that an abortion had been committed, sufficiently suspicious to warrant the empanelling of a jury to investigate the affair. He accordingly summoned a jury, which will meet to-day to take testimony on the case. The body of the deceased woman has been taken to Biddeford, and Dr. F. G Warren of that place made an examination, but with what result is as yet known only to the jury.

News and Notes.

A bill was reported in the senate on Feb. 23d by Mr. Anthony from the committee on naval affairs, fixing the relative rank and pay of certain officers on the retired list of the navy, provides that any medical, pay or engineer officer, or naval constructor, who has served, or may hereafter serve, a full term as chief of a bureau, and whose name has been borne on the navy register thirty years, shall when retired, have the relative rank and pay of commodore on the retired list.

Rear Admiral Balch, commanding the Pacific station reports that the United States steamer Lackawanna, having on board the members of the South American mission, arrived at Valparaiso, Chili, on Jan. 4th. The Alaska arrived there on Jan 19th and the Pensacola on Jan. 20th. He states that the Alaska and Lackawanna are at Valparaiso in readiness to promote the interests of the government in connection with Mr. Trescott's mission.

On Wednesday night, Feb. 22d, for the first time in the history of Chicago, not a gambling saloon was open. Al Hankins's saloon, one of the largest, was closed by the police in the afternoon and the paraphernalia confiscated.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

PORTSMOUTH BUILT SHIPS.

Ship William H. Marcy, recently sold in London for 12,000 pounds sterling, was owned in part by Messrs. Daniel Marcy and John R. Reding of this city, and Joel Wilson of Kittery. This ship was commanded by Capt. J. Touro Marcy. She goes under the German flag, having been sold to a firm in Bremen, who have before purchased ships built under the supervision of the senior Capt. Marcy, and are especially satisfied with the quality of our Portsmouth-built ships. It seems that ships built on our river are bound to last. Every now and then the sale of some old vessel, which from its age seems to have existed long after vessels contemporaneously built have gone to Davy Jones' locker, is announced as having been built on the Piscataqua, years long gone.

It is a pity that this industry has not been kept up in Portsmouth, but while mechanics will prefer to work even a third of their time on the navy yard, to constant employment at private shipyards, at fair wages, or upon contracts for doing portions of a ship's work, there can be but little inducement for the master builder to let us hear the sound of the axe, hammer and tool of iron resounding, where now all is in a state of peaceful quiet and repose.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

The Portland Press of Feb. 24th, has the following interesting facts concerning a York county man: "A short time ago a South Hampton, Va., gentleman coming across an advertisement of W. P. Merrill, formerly of this city, the sewing machine agent, and learning that he was located in Newburyport, went to that city for the purpose of seeing Mr. Merrill on a matter more fully explained below, of which the following letter furnishes the theme:

To the Selectmen of Wells, Me. Railroad Station:

KENTUCKY, Aug. 20, 1864.

Dear Sir—I promised a soldier that was killed near me when he was dying that I would do him a favor. He said he enlisted to fill the quota of Wells, Me., and was paid by a minister. The minister paid him twice by mistake, and he kept it; and he wanted me to write to somebody that knew him and tell him that he was sorry, and ask forgiveness. He had no money or he would repay him. He said there was a tall man with the minister named Goodwin. Don't fail to tell the minister. I suppose you know him. The man did not give his real name. I believe it was Jones—I mean when he enlisted. I send this by a comrade who goes to Pennsylvania, and will mail this letter there. Do tell the minister because it haunted the dying man so he would scream right out and beg for mercy. Yours respectfully,

PATRICK MORAN.

The minister referred to in the letter is the Rev. W. P. Merrill, formerly of this city, from whom the Newburyport Herald learns the following interesting and peculiar facts: At the request of the assistant provost marshal general, Mr. Merrill had accepted recruiting papers, and was engaged in filling up the broken regiments of Maine, and also in getting up the second Maine cavalry. The tall man was George Goodwin, of Wells, Me., who was the town agent of Wells to fill her quota. Mr. Goodwin came to Merrill to get him to recruit for Wells, and was with Mr. Merrill at the time this man with others was paid off, and kept the memoranda of the payments. It seems he did not record the payment made to this poor fellow, as announced at the moment, and in reading over the names of the men paid off did not find his among them; and so Mr. Merrill, trusting to Goodwin's minutes, paid this man the second time. The men went into camp, and Messrs. Merrill and Goodwin, looking over the account that evening and summing up the amount paid and comparing it with the number of men put in, found they were out the sum of $350, which was more the fault of the town agent than his. There was some dispute as to the money unaccounted for, and Mr. Merrill drew from his pocket $350 and paid it over to the town agent. And now, after nearly eighteen years, this letter with the facts as named reaches Mr. Merrill through Samuel M. Clark, now of South Hampton, who was one of the selectmen of Wells at the time. We think if the town agent had not the manliness even to let Mr. Merrill know of this wrong, when he learned of it, as he must have long ago, then there should be honor enough in the old town to reimburse Mr. Merrill with both principal and interest."

OSGOOD LODGE SOCIABLE.

We had the pleasure of being present at one of those famous sociables of Osgood Lodge I. O. O. F. on Thursday evening, Feb. 23d, and all agreed it was the most enjoyable time they had had for many a day. After satisfying the wants of the inner man from its bountifully spread tables (on which there is always an abundance,) we had the great pleasure of an hour's entertainment by Prof. McIntire with his "stereoptican views," which was heartily enjoyed by all. We were then invited to the upper hall for the purpose of more effectually digesting our hearty supper. We were first entertained with a song by the quartette—who deserve much praise for their fine singing. "Cousin Jeddediah" was sung and acted in an artistic manner.

Miss Brown's songs and recitations were excellently rendered.

The next on the programme was a pantomime. Oh, my! one would think Charley Hatch was hung on wires; he acted the clown to perfection, keeping the audience in a continued roar of laughter, by his contortions, evolutions and sleight-of-hand performances. And every part was well sustained by the company.

The entertainment concluded with the farce, "Turn him Out" which was finely rendered.

During the evening a very nice cake was presented to Mrs. Neal for her many kindnesses to the lodge, which was received by her with unfeigned astonishment and many thanks to the donors. Much credit is due the committee of arrangements for the whole affair.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Feb. 24; Batchelder, J.

Samuel Horton was brought before the court charged with stealing coal from a passenger car belonging to the Eastern railroad. From the evidence produced he was held in the sum of $400 for his appearance at the April term of the supreme court to be held at Exeter.

Edward Moore, a hotel keeper of Trenton, N. J., who was bitten by his dog recently, is dying with hydrophobia.

Since November 1st, the export of wheat from the Atlantic ports has fallen off 26,000,000 bushels, corn 17,000,000 bushels, flour 1,380,000 barrels, compared with the same period last year. This has been due to the fact that the crops in Europe last year were much larger than in 1863. But the principal reason of the great falling off in exports has been the unholy alliance of speculators which forced the prices of cereals up to an extravagantly high rate, and kept them up until about a week ago. The bursting of that boom has reduced prices of grain to rates nearly proportional to the amount on hand in this country and Europe, and the amount needed until the next crop is put upon the market. In other words, the explosion of the speculative bubble has restored the law of supply and demand. Therefore we look for largely increased exportations of grain for the next few months.

STATEMENT UNDER OATH.

I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and, in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in a form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there could be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half an inch in the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of the winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Spring. I reached Detroit, and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One doctor treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs, feet badly swollen, toe nails came off, finger nails dead and hard as bone, hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! how I did suffer!

My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give it, saying, "Wait till my husband comes." It was applied on one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier), Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures). I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Resolvent three times a day, after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura morning and evening. Result, returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly a entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan22

CAUTION.

LA NORMANDI CIGARS

Are being imitated by many manufacturers, and put up in a manner likely to deceive consumers. Many dealers are also selling a spurious and inferior Cigar, putting on a La Normandi card and selling them as such. To those who wish to buy Estabrook & Eaton's genuine "La Normandi" we would say, the only genuine goods have our signature on the end of each box, and the words "La Normandi" on the ribbon round each bench; no others are genuine.

We hereby notify all parties making or selling imitation Cigars under the La Normandi brand, that we shall prosecute them to the full extent of the law.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountains over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 ki own silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make a fortune for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are selling for a short time, Ten Dollars only, at $3.00,—no ness scale. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in tunneling the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay no royalties. Its success is assured, and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

Amputation of the Leg.

The old family Physician at Fault--Dr. David Kennedy the Successful Surgeon.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. His family physician refused to amputate the limb—asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who was consulted, held a different opinion, and amputated the limb. The Doctor then administered freely his great blood specific Favorite Remedy to afford tone and strength to the system, prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's Favorite Remedy purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your Druggist has it. One Dollars bottle. Bear in mind the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Henry H. Huse, of Manchester, has been engaged to deliver the oration, before the Grand Army Post on Memorial Day, at Exeter.

The Franconia iron property has been purchased by a syndicate of Boston and New Hampshire capitalists, and operations will soon be commenced.

The Unitarians of Nashua held a series of "liberal religious meetings" recently. The meetings were largely attended, and several distinguished divines were present.

The grantees of the Dover Horse railroad, organized on Thursday evening, Feb. 23d, with the following officers: President, Mayor Charles M. Murphy; treasurer, Harrison Naley; clerk, Thos. J. Smith. Enough money has already been pledged to make the building of the road assured.

The case of Cross vs. Grant, in the Coos county court, at Colebrook, has been attracting considerable attention of late. The parties in litigation are Harlan Cross, of Stewartstown, and Dr. James H. Grant, of Lancaster. Cross claiming $10,000 damages for the seduction and enticing away of his wife. It seems that Cross sent his wife to Lancaster, placing her under the medical treatment of Dr. Grant, and while there she was irretrievably alienated from him, as he claims, through the perfidy of the physician.

The Eagle hotel property on the east side of Main street in Keene, has been purchased for the Boston & Lowell and Concord railroads, which combination now controls the Manchester and Keene road. The price paid is reported as about $18,000. This purchase of real estate, together with that by the Cheshire railroad, recently reported, on the opposite side of Main street, of the Gen. James Willson estate, is taken to indicate some extensive railroad improvements the coming season. A creditable union passenger depot is much needed, and will probably be forthcoming.

The Concord Monitor has this item: A seventeen years old girl from Henniker, who had been visiting her sister in Goffstown, ran away last week with a fellow of Canadian birth, to Manchester, where he sold her to another man for $10. The purchaser took her to a boarding house and paid her board a month in advance. The two went to a ball Wednesday evening and returning at 11 o'clock to the house officers took them in charge. The girl was returned to her mother the next day and the man was released, as there seemed to be no complaint on which he could be held.

The President sent to the senate on Friday the nominations of Hon. Roscoe Conkling to be associate justice of the supreme court, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Judge Hunt, and Hon. A. A. Sargent of California as minister to Germany. It is surmised that the next cabinet appointment will be Hon. William E. Chandler of this state, as secretary of the navy.

Now they speak of crude petroleum as a remedy for consumption; better not try it, but take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup,—the standard cough remedy of our age. It is agreeable to the taste, never fails to cure, and costs only 25 cents a bottle.

The fishing schooners Edith M. Pew, Capt. Corlis-, and Paul Revere, Capt. Bently, both of Gloucester, Mass., about which much anxiety has been entertained, have not yet been heard from and many of the fishermen give up all hope of ever hearing again from them.

Not to be Sneezed at.

That pure, sweet, safe and effective American distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold and clover blossom, called Sanford's Radical Cure for catarrh. A few doses instantly relieve the most violent sneezing or head cold, stop all watery discharges from the nose and eyes, cure headache and nervousness, and banish all danger of fever. Complete treatment for one dollar.

Joseph Lefier, alias Joseph Stone, was arrested in Manchester on the 24th inst. charged with breaking and entering the pawn shop of John D. Glidden, in Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 6th, and stealing a large amount of goods.

Bed-Bugs, Roaches,

Rats, mice, ants, flies, vermin, mosquitoes, insects, &c., cleared out by "Rough on Rats." 15c. boxes at druggists.

Brain and Nerve.

Wells' Health Renewer, greatest remedy on earth for impotence, leanness, sexual debility, &c. $1, at druggists. Depot at Thacher's.

At Pine Bluff, Ark., on the night of Feb. 19th, Mrs. McAffee beat out her husband's brain with a gun, on discovering him in improper relations with his stepdaughter and her child. Mrs. McAffee is in jail.

"What Alexander Might Have Done."

The late czar of Russia was eminently a great man, as his action in liberating thirty-six million serfs from slavery qualified him to be. Yet with all his greatness, Alexander left it to Dr. Swayne, to liberate the world from the annoyance and pain of scores of skin diseases, by producing Swayne's Ointment. Think of the tens, hundreds, thousands, it has cured, and then remember it is economical, effective, reliable, and pure, and if will only try it you will have a cure.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROOKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SHEMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—Geo. D. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FONDE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Washington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmchtf

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 13, 1882.

I HAVE this day disposed of my Job Printing Office, located in the Chronicle Building, to Mr. RICHARD I. WALDEN, who has been for a number of years Foreman and Job Printer in the office of the Portsmouth Journal.

Mr. Walden is well known to the public as a careful and skillful printer, and I can conscientiously recommend him to my patrons and to the public generally as a good mechanic and a worthy young man.—As such, I bespeak for him the patronage that has been so generously accorded to me.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

At the annual auction rental of pews in the church of the First parish in Dover, (Dr. Spaulding's) held last week, Col. Charles H. Sawyer paid the highest premium, securing a pew at $90 rental, at a premium of twenty dollars.

The city of Dover will have to pay $1750 and costs, by reason of Clarinda Leighton's fall on a slippery sidewalk, whereas if Clarinda had fallen down in some of the country towns her lawyers probably would have told her she would recover next to nothing. The county juror has no mercy for the cities, but let it be a small town that is sued, and the result is different. The hardest part of this case is, that now it is said it could have been settled once for from $100 to $300.

The Concord Monitor says that Samuel Fletcher of Charlestown, a close geological student, who possesses one of the finest collections of minerals and curiosities in the state, has recently discovered a fine specimen of lava from Ascutney mountain, which establishes conclusively the theory of its volcanic origin. The specimen is upwards of twenty-five pounds in weight, and in comparison with specimens from Vesuvirus and other volcanoes, bears traces of great antiquity.

Rev. Harry Brickett, of Hillsboro' Bridge, has been called to the Congregational church at Thetford, Vt.

Experience the Best Guide.

The reason why women everywhere use Parker's Ginger Tonic is, because they have learned by experience—the best guide—that this excellent medicine overcomes despondency, periodical headache, indigestion, pain in the back and kidneys, and other troubles of the sex.—Home Journal.

In the supreme court at Knigston, R. I., Feb. 20th, the divorce petition of Katharine Chase Sprague against William Sprague was called, but counsel stated it would not be pressed. It is understood that efforts are progressing favorably for a settlement of the case. Mrs. Sprague's petition will be granted, a decree of divorce entered giving her the custody of her three daughters, the boy to remain with his father. The question of alimony will probably not be mentioned in the decree.

Faded Colors Restored.

Faded or gray hair gradually recovers its youthful color and lustre by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam, an elegant dressing, admired for its purity and rich perfume.

Miss May Hastings, employed at the Peabody mills, in Newburyport, Mass., met with a severe, and painful accident on Wednesday, the 22d inst. She was endeavoring to put a belt on a pully, from whichhad it slipped, when her right arm was caught by the belt, and drawn into the shipper. One part of the iron was forced competely through the arm, and another part inflicted another painful puncture.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

A young negro girl of Little Rock, Ark., was recently arrested by her former lover for witchcraft. The victim testified he had loved the girl, but was horrified to observe blue-fire jets occasionally come from her nostrils, and gave up the idea of marriage because she was a witch. Martha swore vengeance, and that night he awoke with a choking sensation and an unseen power forced him to the door, where he found on a doorstep a rabbit foot. When he picked it up he was answered by a laugh. On similar occasions he found birds' claws and horses' hoofs. Then he became crippled, and a total wreck. The colored justice, after deliberation, settled matters by declaring they must marry, and closed the trial by joining them in matrimony.

Debilitated persons, and suffers from wasting diseases at consumption, scrofula, kidney affections, will be greatly benefited by using Brown s Iron Bitters.

Congressman Cox shows that in eleven years the life-saving service has saved vessels and cargoes valued at $15,000,000; has rescued 11,964 persons, and succord 2,610. Between Nov. 1, 1871, and June 30, 1881, there were on the New Jersey coast 315 disasters, in which 2,754 lives were imperilled, and only twenty-nine were lost, owing to the efficient efforts of the life-saving crews.

The Nation's Characteristics.

Shrewdness and incredulity are the predominant characteristics of the American people. They will take no stock in an article unless it is meritorious. When Dr. Swayne launched his Ointment for the piles, that itch so intensely at night, on a sea of human suffering, the physicians laughed, but the people tried it all the same and manifested their approbation in a national endorsement. Now the allopaths and homeopaths are laughing the other way. This world is full of reverses.

Minnie Madden and Grace Crary, Illinois girls of about eighteen and nineteen years respectively, are making a tour of the west on bicycles. They started early in the fall, and when cold weather had set in at the north they had reached Texas. They do it for health and diversion. A man servant attends them, and they carry a small quantity of baggage, their trunks being sent ahead by express. They intend to cross the country to Florida in the spring, and then move up along the coast.

Mr. C. L Divine, superintendent of the composing and printing department of the Indianapolis, Ind., Journal values the great remedy beyond all curative agents. He has been subject to rheumatism of a very painful character, and has passed many sleepless nights while enduring the agony of it. Physicians have prescribed for him, and he has employed remedies which were advertised as specifics for the disease, but none with satisfactory results. When he bought a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, however, and began its use, he speedily realized that he had at last found the remedy he had been looking for. It relieved him with remarkable quickness and gave him great comfort. He now feels great satisfaction in the knowledge that he has a remedy which will control all rheumatic pain, from which he has no future guarantee of immunity. Believing, as he does, that the St. Jacobs Oil will cure all forms of pain, he freely recommends it to his friends and advises its use.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

An unknown man fell down an elevator well on Washington street, Boston, Friday afternoon, receiving injuries from which he died shortly after.

Stop and Think

How much money you have thrown away buying worthless medicines, prepared by unprincipled parties, who care not what harm they may do to your system. You can depend on every bottle of Sulphur Bitters as being a reliable medicine. It searches out and cleanses from the blood all impure matter, and makes you feel like a new person.—Boston Daily Globe.

Judge Conkling.

Mr. Conkling's appointment as associate justice of the United States supreme court evokes general comment from the press of the country. It is conceded that Conkling is a man of great ability, but as a judge (if he accepts the nomination, which is by no means certain, as he refused the nomination as chief justice tendered him by President Grant) he will probably be found deficient in the control of his temper, his ability to consider both sides of a case, and his lack of legal training. He has been a politician at the expense of his professional growth. As an end man on the bench he must walk humbly, and hard study will be necessary to enable him to keep apace with the requirements of the position he has been tendered. His integrity is acknowledged at all points, but he is regarded as too much of a partisan to be selected for a position on the bench of a court against which the minority in politics have suppressed intentions—a tribunal which should of course be made up with regard to the ability of its members, and no as an asylum for those rejected elsewhere.

News and Notes.

The Mormons are hard at work getting up petitions to Congress asking to be let alone. Gentiles in Utah are threatened with ostracism unless they sign. They decline to be bulldozed, however, and in public meeting have thanked Congress for the Edmunds bill. Bishop Sharp is cast striving to get the railroad interests to take a hand in favor of the Mormons.

A lady who knows the Arthur family well says that reticence is one of their characteristics. She went to school with one of the sisters, who was so close-mouthed that she would not even tell what was her middle name. Only the initial letter was known to her teacher and comrades.

A snowslide near Salt Lake swept away a house occupied by a Mr. Taggart, his wife and five children.

Wm. Leet, aged twelve years, employed in a needle factory in Newark, N. J., was working at the rollers Saturday morning, passing a coil of wire through, when the wire broke and coiled around him, cutting him in two and killing him instantly.

The body of a boy baby, eleven months old, was recently found in a hole in the cellar of the house of Mrs. Glynn in Hampden, Me. The child had been missing for some weeks. Mrs. Glynn has been arrested, and will be arraigned on the charge of murder.

An action for divorce on the ground of adultery has been commenced in the supreme court of New York by Rose E. Butler, otherwise known as Rose Eytinge, the actress, against her husband, Geo. H. Butler, a nephew of Gen. Butler.

A fire occurred on Tuesday night, Feb. 21st, at the Berlin terminus of the Stettin railway in Germany. It was caused by the explosion of an infernal machine concealed in a box which had been insured as containing valuable dress goods. The sender of the box has been arrested.

Saturday, Feb. 18th, Frank Robinson, of Southwest Harbor, Me., went with his team to Bar Harbor to peddle fish, and returning at night intoxicated, got on to Long pond and fell from his pung and lay all night on the ice. His legs and arms were frozen stiff. Should he live he will probably lose all his limbs. He is a horrible sight, and is suffering terribly.

Prof. Jackson, proprietor of the pyrotechnic factory which recently blew up with such terrible effect at Chester, Pa., and Van Horn, his assistant, are in custody.

Mrs. Zoa Thompson, a widow, of Wales, Me., aged ninety years, was burned to death recently, her clothes having caught fire from a stove.

Another polygamist is reported from Aroostook, Me.,—one Charles Banks of Annapolis, N. S., who is said to have married and deserted three women within a short time.

Mary Glynn was arraigned in the police court at Bangor, Me., Saturday morning, for the murder of the infant son of her daughter, Mary Glynn, sixteen years old, and committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury in August.

Three hundred and twenty-five Jewish refugees arrived at Philadelphia on the 23d inst. They are mostly from the province of Kieff, and from Odessa and Warsaw. A committee appointed for the purpose, conducted them to the Pennsylvania railroad depot which had been fitted up for their accommodation. Every effort is being made by the citizens' committee and the corps of volunteer physicians to minister to the health and comfort of the unfortunate refugees.

A few months ago the mother of Cornelius Shay of Newport, while in anger, threw a fork at him. The fork lodged in the boy's heel, inflicting a slight wound, which however, finally resulted in gangrene. He was taken to the hospital, where he died recently, in great agony, both legs being drawn out of place. The authorities will probably take action.

At New Carlisle, Ohio, Feb. 22d, the boiler of a portable sawmill blew up, killing five men and fatally wounding a sixth—all there were to kill. The boiler had long been known to be dangerous.

Charles W. Stickney, who purposely killed M. T. Campau for seducing Mrs. Stickney, and accidentally killed a woman while shooting at Campau, was last week found "not guilty by reason of insanity."

Carl Hollen of Worcester, Mass., was killed by a train on the northern division of the Old Colony railroad, near Pratt's junction, last Friday morning. It is probable that suicide was intended.

Brakeman Edward Delaney of Swanton, while coupling freight cars on the Central Vermont railroad at Alburgh, Vt., Friday afternoon, was crushed between two cars, and died in fifteen minutes.

Governor Littlefield of Rhode Island has offered a reward of $1000 for the detection of the person or persons who set fire to the house and barn of Dr. Bowen in Scituate, R. I., on the night of August 8th, 1881.

Sarah Taylor, a prepossessing lady of Waynesville, Ohio, aged forty-eight, is on trial in that place for larceny and burglary.

Owing to the freshets in the Ohio and upper Mississippi it is thought that the river at Helena, Ark., will rise yet higher, and inflict great damage. There is great suffering below Helena, hundreds of houses being inundated and families without means of support. Plantations are under the water, crops ruined, and cattle drowned.

The Albany (N. Y.) Argus prints a letter from a correspondent at Saratoga, N. Y., in which he says: "Here, where the family of Hon. William H. Clement of Cincinnati is well known (it being his birth-place,) the statement of the Biddeford, Me., correspondent of the Boston Post, which was printed in the Argus, Tuesday morning, that the marriage of his daughter with the late Antonio M. Soteldo was an elopement that was consummated by a marriage at Saco, Aug. 11, 1881, is known to be the veriest tissue of falsehoods, even though the correspondent gave the name of Rev. Dr. Nichols as the officiating clergyman. The marriage between Mr. Soteldo and Miss Carrie Clement was contracted nearly nine years ago, and their eldest child is now about seven years of age."

Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, one of the greatest of Shakespeare's plays, is published by the Useful Knowledge Publishing Co., New York. It is well printed, and bound tastefully, making a neat little book of 148 pages, and is sold for the trifling price of twenty cents. It is a marvel of excellence for the cost. This company announces a large number of standard and exceedingly valuable publications, excellent in quality in every way, at prices such as the world has never before seen. Specimen pages and catalogues will be sent upon application by postal card to The Useful Knowledge Publishing Company, 162 William street, New York city.

Rug Making.

The women of the country are now very busy hooking and braiding rugs. They have knit their husbands' stockings and mended their mittens; they have lengthened the sleeves of their boys' jackets and patched the knees of their pants; and now they have picked from the accumulation of the past year bits of cloth, bright, grey, brown or black, which will help form the patterns of their rugs; the used-up garments of their own wardrobes do not go amiss; if they purloin a coat or a pair of pants that they have been repeatedly called to set stitches in, they take a good deal more pride in them as a part of their rugs than as articles to be worn.

They cannot tell of their hunting, fishing, or slaughtering of mighty pigs; but their efforts to add to the comforts of home are just as important. They will not tell of the plans laid for the coming year, nor of the fancies woven by their busy thoughts as their fingers fly this way and that weaving in the gay or sombre coloring, but when their rugs are finished and fill just the places needing them, they will take more real satisfaction in their work accomplished, than their city neighbors in their choicest tapestry from foreign looms. THE

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessments. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. WEEKLY FISH REPORT.

The receipts of fish at this port for the week ending Feb. 25th, show a considerable increase over the supplies previously landed in the same length of time during this month, twenty vessels bringing in 89,300 pounds, mostly cod, against fifteen arrivals with 36,500 pounds of cod and haddock the week previous. The entire supply (except a small portion for the local retail trade) was shipped off, one firm sending about 40,000 pounds to Boston in a single day, and also 200 barrels of alewives. Only one cargo of frozen herring, 90,000, was landed during the week. About 400 pounds of smelts were brought in. Prices have been steady and firm for all kinds of fish.

TELEPHONE-POLE WAR.

There was a telephone-pole war in Kittery on Saturday, something after the pattern of Portsmouth's telegraph-pole war. The telephone construction gang, in setting poles through the main street of the Foreside village, to carry the wires to the navy yard, planted a pole where one of the residents was displeased with it, and he threatened to cut the obnoxious stick down. This proceeding the telephone men very naturally objected to, and for a while there was quite an excitement. Our informant says the selectmen of the town were called on to settle the matter if possible, when somebody poured oil on the troubled waters by suggesting that as this particular telephone line was being erected on the order of the United States government, and the street (Government street) was laid out, paid for and built by the said government, and has ever since been kept in repair in summer and broken out in winter by it, that probably the town had really but little to say as to where the poles should be located on it, it not being a public highway at all except by courtesy of the government.

ASHORE AND AFLOAT.

The schooner Sea Queen, of Ellsworth, Me., 80.19 tons register, brick laden, went ashore on Clark's island in the lower harbor, early Saturday morning; she laid easy at low water, and at high tide in the afternoon was hauled off by the steamer James Sampson, and towed to the marine railway at Kittery. How much damage she received, if any, we did not learn.

PERSONAL.

Chief Constructor Wilson, of the navy, has received many congratulatory calls since his confirmation.

"Judge" Wm. L. Putnam, of Maine, passed Sunday in this city.

Hon. Daniel Marcy was in Washington last week, looking after the chances for favorable legislation regarding the Geneva award fund.

"Mitchell's Pleasure Party" will appear in Music hall on Friday evening, March 3d, in "Our Goblins: or, Fun on the Rhine," a musical extravaganza which includes a burlesque on the "Banker's daughter," and is said to be sparkling, and full of innocent fun. The advertisement will appear to-morrow.

Not for many months have there been so many people and teams in town from York, Eliot, Kittery, Rye and Greenland as on Saturday last.

A snow slide from the residence of Mr. A. C. Hoyt on State street, Saturday afternoon, struck a woman who was passing, and knocked her into the snowbank at the edge of the sidewalk. Although not seriously injured, she was rendered partially insensible, and had to be assisted to her home.

Mr. Walter L. Chesley, who was injured some weeks ago at Hayes' cut on the Eastern railroad, and at the time was supposed to have no chance of recovery, is reported as steadily improving.

The Improved Order of Red Men are reported as intending to have a ball on Friday evening, March 3d.

Mr. James Adams will give an entertainment in the south wardroom on Wednesday evening, March 8th, to which all reputable citizens will be welcome without regard to color, provided the city government will grant the use of the wardroom.

Mr. Fred O. Ellis will deliver a lecture in Franklin hall on Thursday evening, March 2d, upon "The West, and what it offers to the Home Seeker."

Mr. J. S. James lost a valuable draught horse on Friday night last, by death.

The schooner Triton, which has been laid up for the winter alongside of the draw-pier of Portsmouth bridge, had her cabin fire started up on Saturday, and will at once fit out for the spring business. She is one of the brick-carrying fleet.

Mr. Edward A. Miller of Concord, contractor for building the Hotel Bartlett at York beach, and six others, were at the Gibson house in this city on Saturday, returning to York in the afternoon.

Mr. William Caswell, of Rye, eighty-five years old, in going from his house to a neighbor's a few days ago fell on the ice, and dislocated one of his hips.

About 19,000 feet of lumber has been taken from Call's wharf to the Marshall house at York harbor recently, to be used in building a bath house.

Mr. Charles W. Cottle of Kittery, who has been confined to his house for several weeks by illness of a serious character, has so far recovered as to be able to sit up for several hours each day. Mr. Cottle has a widely-extended circle of friends who will be pleased to learn of the improvement in his condition.

The Wentworth hotel at Newcastle, and the boarding houses at Foss' beach, Rye, have filled their ice-houses this winter with ice of excellent quality and good thickness, cut from Foye's pond in Rye.

Mr. Edward S. Marshall, proprietor of the Marshall house at York harbor, has stored four hundred tons of ice for shipment, in addition to an abundant supply for the hotel. The ice was cut from Hutchins' pond, near York Corner.

A levee was held in South Newmarket for several days last week, to raise funds in aid of building the new Catholic church in that town, and was quite successful. Rev. Mr. Powers, of Exeter, conducted.

Mr. George W. Damon, road surveyor in district number twelve of Kittery, is credited by travellers from this city with having had the roads under his charge broken out quicker and better after each snowstorm this winter than has been the case in any other district.

The recent storms threw a large amount of seaweed on shore at Rye beach, near where the dead whale was stranded last year.

In the Sandy Beach district of Rye, where fifteen ox-teams used to turn out in winter to break out the roads after a heavy snow-fall, a dozen years or so ago, nearly all the work is now done by horses, but one yoke of cattle being owned in the district—by Mr. J. Sheridan Remick. Mr. Remick is building a new barn, the lumber for which was cut on his farm, and sawed at a mill in Greenland; the cellar and foundations of the building were put in by Mr. Joseph R Holmes of this city. A large new stable has been put up on Straw's point, and a summer residence is in course of erection there for a Concord gentleman.

The school in Dist. No. 1, of Kittery, taught during the late term by Mr. Charles A. Shannon of Portsmouth, closed Feb. 22d with an examination and special exercises; a large number of visitors were present, and much gratification was expressed at the exemplification of the many improvements in methods of teaching introduced in the school by Mr. Shannon, who has given the highest satisfaction to the parents of the pupils and the agent of the district, Mr. George W. Damon. It is asserted by many of the parents that Mr. Shannon's school has been the best ever kept in the district.

During the high tide on Tuesday morning of last week, Saltwater brook, at Rye, ran a foot deep over the road, landing ice on it and making it impassable until cleared.

The depot at Ashuelot, on the Ashuelot railroad, was burned Feb. 24th. Loss on freight, $1200; loss on building about $1000; cause of fire unknown.

Cuticura
STATEMENT UNDER OATH.

I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and, in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in a form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there could be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of the winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Spring. I reached Detroit, and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One doctor treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs, feet badly swollen, toe nails came off, finger nails dead and hard as bone, hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! how I did suffer!

My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was supplied on one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier), Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures). I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Resolvent three times a day, after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura morning and evening. Result, returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper.

CATARRH

Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent sneezing or head colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures nervous headache and subdues chills and fever. In chronic catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus, restores the sense of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of catarrh towards consumption.

One bottle Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and one Dr. Sanford's Inhaler, in one package, of all druggists, for $1. Ask for Sanford's Radical Cure. WEEKS & POTTER, Boston.

100 times more effectual than any other plaster or electric battery for pain and weakness of the lungs, liver, kidneys and urinary organs, partial paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, hysteria, female weakness, nervous pains and weaknesses, malaria and fever and ague. Price 25c. Sold everywhere.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup." It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfect'y safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. cod&wtjans2

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.
CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.
Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.
Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.
This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.
The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machine multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.
Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.
We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.
A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

Amputation of the Leg.

The old family Physician at Fault—Dr. David Kennedy the Successful Surgeon.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. His family physician refused to amputate the limb—asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who was consulted, held a different opinion, and amputated the limb. The Doctor then administered freely his great blood specific Favorite Remedy to afford tone and strength to the system, prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's Favorite Remedy purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your Druggist has it. One Dollars bottle. Bear in mind the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.

Naval Affairs.

Asst. Naval Constructor William Varney, is to be promoted to the vacancy in the list of naval constructors.

The senate committee on naval affairs have voted against the confirmation of Pay Director Watmough to be paymaster general of the navy, and of Paymaster Stevenson to be pay director.

The house naval committee has at last agreed upon its bill, and there is good ground for believing that it will be acceptable to the house. The result of the examination given the matter by the advisory board has been to convince congress that new ships are greatly needed, and that the kind of ships recommended by the officers is what the navy ought to have. If the bill is considered at all, and it probably will be before the session ends, it stands a very good chance of passing.

The secretary of the navy has issued a general order calling the attention of commanders in chief and commanding officers to that portion of the United States navy regulations which permits the junior officers to take the deck at sea under charge of the officer of the watch, as every opportunity should be given them to familiarize themselves with the handling of ships and to gain experience in performing duties which prepare them for emergencies.

Captain Robert F. Bradford has been ordered to duty as a member of the board of inspection, relieving Commander John Lee Davis, who is placed on waiting orders.

Secretary Hunt having received a communication from the authorities at Hampton, Va., complaining of the presence of the United States flag-ship Tennessee near that place, on the ground that it may result in the introduction of small-pox among the residents, the secretary has ordered that the Tennessee go to sea and join the North Atlantic squadron.

Commodore Stephen B. Luce, commanding the training squadron at Newport, expects to start on the annual cruise with the vessels of the squadron early in May. The commodore is engaged in the compilation of a book of sailors' songs "for the exclusive use of the American navy, and designed to encourage manliness of thought and independence of action in all the branches of the service."

Patrick Corcoran was fatally stabbed at his residence in Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 23d, by John Haley, with a pocket-knife. Haley was suffering from delirium tremens, having been drunk since a funeral a few day ago. He was arrested. Corcoran leaves a wife and seven children.

The publishers of the Richmond, Va., Enquirer heartily recommend Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and say: "It has been well tried in our office and composing room, and has cured our city editor of a very bad case of bronchitis."

Despatches from various points in the Ohio and Mississippi valley, state that the floods are subsiding. The losses will foot up many millions of dollars.

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs; 15 cts. boxes.

Insist upon obtaining Floreston Cologne. It is pre-eminently superior in permanence and rich delicacy of fragrance.

Lillian L. Degan has recovered a verdict of $6000 against Frank Deveaux, in New York, for breach of promise of marriage.

Have you Ever

Known any person to be seriously ill, without a weak stomach or inactive liver or kidneys? And when these organs are in good condition do you not find their possessor enjoying good health? Parker's Ginger Tonic regulates these important organs, makes the blood rich and pure, and strengthens every part of the system. See other column.

Eight persons are on trial at Vienna, Austria, for contributing by their negligence to the Ring theatre catastrophe.

Be Careful!

No matter what disease you may have. Be sure that the medicine you take is reliable. Such a medicine you will always find Sulphur Bitters. They are not a cheap rum drink but are made of the choicest roots and herbs to be found in the vegetable kingdom.—Daily Argus.

Mrs. Walter Grant and Mrs. John Montgomery, of Ipswich, Mass., have been arrested for stealing goods from tables at recent fairs.

"What Alexander Might Have Done."

The late czar of Russia was eminently a great man, as his action in liberating thirty-six million serfs from slavery qualified him to be. Yet with all his greatness, Alexander left it to Dr. Swayne, to liberate the world from the annoyance and pain of scores of skin diseases, by producing Swayne's Ointment. Think of the tens, hundreds, thousands, it has cured, and remember it is economical, effective, reliable, and pure, and if will only try it you will have a cure.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—R. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROGERS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and remember it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after using a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: YOUR PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. The fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

Physicians

Have Signed or Endorsed the Following Remarkable Document:

Messrs. Seabury & Johnson, Manufacturing Chemists, 21 Platt St., New York:

Gentlemen:—For the past few years we have sold various brands of Porous Plasters. Physicians and the Public prefer Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster to all others. We consider them one of the very few reliable household remedies worthy of confidence. They are superior to all other Porous Plasters or Liniments for external use.

Benson's Capcine Plaster is a genuine Pharmaceutical product, of the highest order of merit; and so recognized by physicians and druggists.

When other remedies fail get a Benson's Capcine Plaster.

You will be disappointed if you use cheap Plasters, Liniments, Pads or Electrical Magnetic toys.

SURE REMEDY AT LAST. Price 25cts. BEAN'S Medicated CORN and BUNION PLASTER.

FANCY DRESS PRINTS

The EDDYSTONE PRINT WORKS is one of the largest and most complete establishments in the country.

THE EXPERIENCE OF HALF A CENTURY

has enabled them to attain such perfection that they can with confidence ask you to test the quality of their work. They carefully avoid all poisonous drugs, make only fast colors, which are thoroughly washed in hot water and soap, thereby removing anything which would stain underclothing.

Those who buy and wear their prints will, they feel confident, find them superior in durability, artistic style and finish. Be sure and ask for their goods, and see that their marks and tickets are on them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgertics, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.
Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.
JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR BULL'S

SULPHUR BITTERS

The Greatest Blood Purifier ON EARTH.

This Great German Medicine is composed of Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Gentian, Dandelion, Juniper Berries, etc., combined with the Extract of Sulphur, which makes it the Greatest Blood Purifier known. Do not ever take BLUE PILLS or arsenic, they are deadly. Your Kidneys are your guide in health. Keep them healthy and you will have no sickness. SULPHUR BITTERS, the purest, most perfect and best medicine ever made. If your blood is thick, sluggish or impure, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If you have a dull pain in the shoulder, or high-colored, or sediment after urine settles, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If your tongue is coated with a yellow sticky substance, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If your breath is offensive, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If your stomach is out of order, use SULPHUR BITTERS. Don't wait until you are unable to walk, or the SULPHUR BITTERS are out on your back. SULPHUR BITTERS will cure you immediately. If your blood is thick, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If your system is low, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If you have a dull pain in the shoulder, or high-colored urine, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If you are sick, use SULPHUR BITTERS. If you are well, use SULPHUR BITTERS. Remember what you read here, it may save your life. It has saved hundreds. Don't wait until to-morrow, but commence to-day. Try a Bottle To-Day! PRICE, ONE DOLLAR.

A Sagacious Cat.

A woman in Bath, Me., suggested in the presence of the house cat recently that the latter's two kittens be drowned, whereupon the animals suddenly disappeared. Two days later the cat brought a mouse into the kitchen, and laid it at her feet. "Now, puss," said the woman, "if you'll take that mouse out of the way, and will keep your kittens from under my feet, you may bring them back to the house." Puss trudged away with the mouse, went to a hole under the barn, and soon came toward the house, the two kittens behind her.

MESSRS. Johnson, Holloway & Co., wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of Gen. John C. Fremont, governor of Arizona, had been cured of catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—You have struck a bonanza in your Cream Balm, for the cure of catarrh, hay fever, etc., and it justly merits it. The sales are constantly increasing. Yours truly, M. A. LYON & BRO., Druggists, Montrose, Pa.

Neither the president of the United States nor the president of the senate having a wife, Mrs. Keifer, the wife of the speaker of the house, is the "first lady in the land," and has the privilege of entering a drawing-room before any other.

Centaur Liniment.

Invaluable to families, and owners of horses Sold everywhere.

A fashionable young lady at Zanesville, Ohio, astonished a den of gamblers by walking into their keno-room with a policeman. She found her young brother, for whom she was in search, and marched him home. She also during her brief stay gathered enough solid facts to cause the arrest and conviction of the proprietors.

Castoria.

For sour stomach, constipation, and fretfulness of children. Pleasant, safe and cheap. 900 drops; 35 doses, 35 cents.

In Boston, Sunday, while two young men, John Keefe and Richard Collins, aged nineteen and twenty years respectively, were snowballing, Collins threw a piece of brick by mistake for a lump of ice, striking Keefe on the side of the head. The latter fell on his side upon the curbstone, and died soon after. Collins was arrested.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and nervous derangements attendant upon debility. For symptons indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

A family swept off in a snow-slide at Big Cottonwood, Utah, have been dug out from under forty tons of snow, and were found lying naturally in bed—the husband, wife and infant in one bed, and two boys and two girls, the eldest eleven years old, in another, smothered instantly in their sleep.

Of all the theatres in the country, says the New York Dramatic News, the People's theatre, now building in St. Louis, Mo., will have one of the best appointed stages; in fact, none will surpass it in finish and completeness. This is being conducted by Mr. H. C. Raymond, at present in St. Louis, and his interest in the work has been demonstrated by his devoting labor to night and day in order to insure its completion in time for the opening. Mr. Raymond was much exposed to night damp, naturally incidental in the erection of an enormous new building, such as the People's, and the result was the contraction of a severe case of rheumatism in the left leg. A single application of St. Jacobs Oil brought relief, and in a very short time the pain disappeared entirely. Mr. Raymond keeps a supply sufficient in case of a recurrence of a similar trouble.

Madame Ermenia Rudersdoff died at her residence in Boston on Sunday morning, after a long illness. She was born in Ivanowsky, in the Ukraine, Russia, in 1822, her father, a distinguished violinist, being located there at that time. She was a soprano singer of great success, making her first professional appearance at Leipzig in 1840, and subsequently filling engagements in opera in all the prominent cities of the Old World. She came to Boston ten years ago to participate in the Peace Jubilee, and had since taken an active part in the musical interests of that city, devoting much time to teaching. She leaves two sons. She gave instructions for an unostentatious burial.

Debilitated persons, and suffers from wasting diseases as consumption, scrofula, kidney affections, will be greatly benefited by using Brown s Iron Bitters.

The Brockton (Mass.) Enterprise says that the wife of Linus Batchelder, a character well known about Brockton, was arrested in Boston recently for using insulting and indecent language on the street, and was sent up for thirteen months. Since that time Linus has been on the lookout for another wife, probably thinking that his spouse's imprisonment was equivalent to a divorce. Being told that they had several females at the North Easton almshouse whom they could spare he walked over there and put in a request for one. He was informed that at present their stock of eligible fair ones was low, but that they expected an invoice in a few days and would notify him. He is patiently waiting for the notification.

BOSTON, Jan. 3d, 1879.

F. W. KINSMAN, Esq.—Dear Sir: Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam seems to give universal satisfaction, both as to quality and price. We sell more of it than of all other cough medicines put together, and have yet to hear of the first intimation in which it has failed to give satisfaction. Yours truly,
RUST BROS. & BIRD.

The house bill which proposes to appropriate $2,500,000 to subsidize American ocean steamers carrying mails, has been ordered printed and recommitted to the committee on post offices and post roads. It has been amended so that of third-class steamers a speed of eleven nautical miles, instead of twelve, is required.

The Nation's Characteristics.

Shrewdness and incredulity are the predominant characteristics of the American people. They will take no stock in an article unless it is meritorious. When Dr. Swayne launched his Ointment for the piles, that itch so intensely at night, on a sea of human suffering, the physicians laughed, but the people tried it all the same and manifested their approbation in a national endorsement. Now the allopaths and homeopaths are laughing the other way. This world is full of reverses.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

If you are wasting away with Consumption or any disease, use the Tonic to-day. It will surely help you. Remember it is far superior to Bitters. Ease 75 cts of Ginger and other Tonics, as it builds up the system without intoxicating. 50c. and $1 sizes, all dealers in drugs. Beware of genuine without signature of Hiscox & Co., N. Y. Send for circular. LARGE SAVING IN BUYING THE DOLLAR SIZE.

CAUTION.
LA NORMANDI CIGARS
Are being imitated by many manufacturers, and put up in a manner likely to deceive consumers. Many dealers are also selling a spurious and inferior Cigar, putting on a La Normandi card and selling them as such. To those who wish to buy Estabrook & Eaton's genuine "La Normandi" we would say, the only genuine goods have our signature on the end of each box, and the words "La Normandi" on the ribbon round each bunch; no others are genuine.
We hereby notify all parties making or selling Imitation Cigars under the La Normandi brand, that we shall prosecute them to the full extent of the law.

Testimonials.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successfu practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, October 25, 1876.
R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1860, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues, and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!
LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.
A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

A young man named Deering, under arrest on suspicion of horse stealing, was taken from an officer at Gatesville, Texas, a few days ago, by a mob, and hanged. A second mob, composed of a hundred of the young man's friends, all well armed, on Sunday last entered Gatesville and compelled the sheriff to arrest a number of the lynchers on the charge of murder.

Revitalizing the blood is absolutely necessary for the cure of general debility, weakness, lassitude, &c. The best enricher of the blood is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

TUESDAY, FEB. 28, 1882.

Garfield's Memorial.

Congress observed Monday as a memorial day for the late President Garfield, a brilliant eulogy being delivered before both houses, the president, cabinet ministers, foreign diplomats, army and navy officers, and others, assembled in representatives hall, by Hon. James G. Blaine. No business was done by either house.

News and Notes.

John C. New, assistant secretary of the United States treasury, has been chosen a director in the Mutual Union Telegraph Co., in place of J. O. Evans, deceased.

By a recent coal mine explosion in Daben, Hungary, 150 lives were lost.

Dora Avery, alias Higbee, twenty-three years old, housekeeper of a place of ill repute in Providence, R. I., last week attempted to murder all the other inmates of the den, half a dozen in number, by putting arsenic in the coffee prepared for breakfast. The intended victims were made very sick, but it is thought they may all recover.

The Vizina Consolidated Mining Co., of Tombstone, Arizona, has declared dividend No. 6 of $20,000, making total dividends since November last of $120,000. The product of this mine has been 6,059 tons of ore, yielding $557,716.98 bullion value, or an average of $92 per ton. The company has a cash surplus in hand of about $100,000.

Polk Wells and Bill Norris, bank robbers and horse thieves, were captured Feb. 26th, at Randolph, Wis., after a desperate struggle, during which Wells was shot three times, and the sheriff twice.

Lawyer D. J. Murphy was fatally shot, Feb. 25th, in the San Francisco police court, by John Marony, a witness for the government in a case in which Murphy was counsel for defendant. Murphy's strictures upon the character of Marony caused the trouble. Marony was locked up, and attempted to kill himself while en route to prison.

Five students of Williston seminary at Easthampton, Mass., have been held in $1000 each to answer for a "hazing" outrage, and three others have quitted the country to escape punishment for the crime of kidnapping.

The grand jury in Washington returned indictments against Augustus C. Soteldo for the murder of his brother, A. M. Soteldo, Jr.; also one charging him with assault with intent to kill Clarence M. Barton.

A six-days go-as-you-please foot-race began in the Madison square garden, New York, Monday morning at twelve o'clock, the contestants being Rowell, Sullivan, Hazael, Vint, Scott, Hughes, Noremac, Panchot, Fitzgerald and Hart, all of whom have figured in similar races before. The betting was heavily in favor of Rowell, the English champion.

It is officially announced at Vienna that the Austrian troops encountered 1000 insurgents at Kirstac on Thursday last, and after nine hours fighting defeated them. The insurgents carried off a large number of dead. Two Austrians were killed, and six wounded.

United States Senator Sewall, of New Jersey, is reported to be dangerously ill.

Mrs. Clara N. Bisbee was ordained pastor of the Free Church at Dorchester, Mass., last Sunday, Prof. C. C. Everett of Harvard preaching the sermon.

Those who oppose vaccination may find something to reflect upon from recent operations at the Riverside hospital, New York. During the month of January 166 cases of small pox were treated there, and there occurred forty-eight deaths. Of those who died, only one had been vaccinated; forty-four had not been; and concerning three no history could be obtained. Of those who recovered ninety-five are known to have been vaccinated.

J. H. Hughes, known as the Fakir of Ava, was bitten in the thumb recently by a pet raccoon, and now lies in a critical condition at his home in Troy, N. Y.

Rebecca Reiss of New York was burned to death Saturday night by her clothes taking fire from a stove. She was sixty years old, and suffering from a paralytic stroke.

A circular has been issued to the governors of the Mexican states, notifying them of the spread of smallpox in the United States, and advising compulsory vaccination and other precautionary measures.

A careful Connecticut legislator looked under his bed at a Hartford hotel the other night before retiring, and found there a well-dressed woman of twenty-five years. She had skeleton keys, etc., in her pockets, and was evidentaly a professional hotel thief, who had stolen $27 from another legislator boarding at that house the night before.

A woman is under arrest in Albany, N. Y., who confesses that she stole a six-months-old-babe from her sister in Fitchburg, Mass., and took it to Troy, N. Y., with the intention of blackmailing a wealthy Trojan. She was found drunk on the streets. The babe is likely to die from the effects of drugs and exposure.

Edward Moore has died from hydrophobia, at Trenton, N. J.

A colored cook at Clinton, Ia., put arsenic in milk and poisoned a dozen boarders at the Central hotel, none fatally.

J. A. Weldon, who killed John Bullock, was lynched the other night by a party of men at Mineral Park, Arizona.

Herbert Spencer's journey to America is now definitely fixed. He sails August next, and intends to visit Canada and also possibly California. He has refused all proposals to lecture, his design being solely to see the country and people.

Naval Affairs.

The navy department is informed of the sailing of the flagship Lancaster from Messina, Italy, for Alexandria, Egypt.

The naval affairs committee of the house have reported a bill providing for the erection of a monument to the officers and men lost in the Huron the monument to be placed at the naval academy, Annapolis.

The steamer Yantic, Commander Woodward, sailed from Panama Feb. 14th for the Central American and Mexican coasts. The Vandalia, Capt. Meade, is now at Aspinwall.

AROUND HOME.

Elvin Newton & Co. on Monday forwarded to Boston nearly 50,000 lbs. of fish, for which they paid an average of $4.50 per hundred. The arrivals that day were heavier than for a long time previous. The schooner Addie & Hattie brought in nine fish which aggregated 500 lbs., one of them weighing 108 lbs.; she netted $260 for her fare. The Nettie Adams, Orren Caswell master, netted $216. one of her fish weighing 108 lbs. George Staples and another man arrived from Wells, Maine, in a "flat," with the result of one day's fishing, and realized $50.

Andrew J Jenness of Rye, who died a few weeks ago at the age of sixty-seven, had been in the employ of George G. Lougee for sixteen years.

George Herbert & Co. on Monday sold a large part of the cargo of frozen herring recently landed at their wharf; they also sold about 15,000 lbs. of market fish.

The schooner John Lenthall was on Monday towed from Seavey's island, Kittery, with a cargo of ice, to the Isles of Shoals, by tug Clara Batemep.

The Biddeford Union and Journal talks as follows about our neighbor across the river: "Kittery has no cooper; formerly there were three at the point. It has no baker; seventy-five years ago there was a bake shop at the point, which supplied not only this town, but Newcastle opposite, in New Hampshire. It has no tailor, although thirty-five years ago there were two—one in each village. It has more voters, more politics, more indebtedness, more meeting houses, but probably less intrinsic wealth and less religion than it had half a century ago."

Mr. Samuel Caswell, an old fisherman of Rye, was on Monday reported to be very ill at his home at Sandy Beach in that town, with little hope of his recovery.

The pupils in school districts two and eight, of Eliot, and their friends, have during the winter had a series of genuine old-fashioned spelling schools, for mutual benefit, the contests being held sometimes in one district and sometimes in the other; much friendly rivalry has been developed, each side striving hard to "spell down" the other, but district two came out ahead with flying colors. At the close of the school in district two, Feb. 24th, the pupils presented the teacher, Mr. Leonard P. Foster of that town, with a very handsome gold ring, Miss Loretta Nason making on behalf of the scholars a neat presentation address, to which Mr. Foster responded in appropriate words. The school has been taught during the term to the entire satisfaction of the parents in the district, who express decided approval of the agent, Mr. Joshua Frye, for securing so competent and painstaking an instructor.

The cantata of "Esther, the Beautiful Queen," will be given in the town hall at Greenland on Friday evening of this week by a company of twenty-five singers. The performers will be suitably costumed.

A social dance will be given by the young people of South Eliot, in Brooks' hall in that town, on Friday evening, Mar. 3d. Turner's quadrille band, of Portsmouth, will furnish the music.

Schooner Mary, of New York, bound east, was spoken near the Isles of Shoals on Monday, and reported that on the day previous portions of a human body were picked up off Cape Ann by some of her crew, but nothing to identify the same was found.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00,—no assessments. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

THE PISCATAQUA ASSOCIATION.

More than a century ago the Piscataqua Association of Ministers was formed. Of a meeting held at Kittery-West, now Eliot, Oct. 24, 1781, the record is extant, and it has been taken for granted that this was the date of organization. Dr. George B. Spalding, of Dover, who preached the anniversary sermon at the North church in this city on the 26th of October last, asserts that, as there was a group of churches in this vicinity, some of which had been in existence for a century and a half, and seventeen or more of which dated as far back at least as more than a half century before 1781, therefore it is probable that the association originated at an earlier date. Be that as it may, the Piscataqua Association is one of the ancient and venerated bodies of the land. The discourse of Dr. Spalding is confined principally to gleanings from the records during the past century, and certainly here was field enough for one address. Dr. Buckminster, who was ordained minister of the North parish Jan. 27, 1779, was chosen secretary pro tem. at the meeting of the association referred to.

The association had for its members the many eminent Congregational ministers who, in this earlier settled part and most populous section of the state, did so much not only in regard to the spiritual education of the people, but in the diffusion of general knowledge and culture. Indeed, in the early days, the impression by a leading minister upon a whole region was unmistakable. Instances of this kind are numerous, such as the general growth of culture, thought, and education, seen in Tamworth under the hand of "Priest Hidden," once a famous man of that town, as compared with that of towns beyond the circle of his "diocesan" influence.

It is for this reason that we incline to turn from the recital of recorded doings of the ministers in their association gatherings, to the more interesting phases of this history which we find in the appendix,—in Rev. Mr. Haines' remarks, for example, in the sketch of his eminent predecessor Parson French, of North Hampton, who was ordained as minister of the church in that town in November, 1801, and continued in the pastorate for more than half a century, during which term he was prevented by sickness from attending public worship only eight and a half Sabbaths,—and we would have been glad to have some accounts of Parson Litchfield of Kittery, Huntington Porter of Rye, Abbot of Hampton Falls, and many others of the olden time. Rev. Mr. Robie's account of Dr. McClintock is interesting; while Dr. Quint, who always holds up the Hilton patent by the "neck," was as ever, fluent and graphic in his reminiscences.

The discourse, remarks, and accompanying papers make a pamphlet of eighty-three pages of valuable historic matter. We are sorry not to have more than an abstract of Judge Bufford's remarks, which are referred to only by Rev. Mr. McGinley, because from the long line of ministers of the North parish who have been members of the association, much of interest may have been said on that occasion. But this was a ministers' meeting, and it was the clergy and not the laymen who were expected to furnish the feast of reason. The proof reader was somewhat remiss in not seeing that the names of some of our former clergymen were correctly spelled on the sixty-third page, and we are slow to believe that a scholar who has written so much for the press as has the learned D. D. who preached the discourse means to be understood as writing "some twenty of these," etc. It is argued that because Bacon, Shakespeare, Prior, Thackeray, Dr. Holmes and others may have used this term, that it is a sin against the English language committed in good company, i. e., with other like sinners who use the word carelessly. It is a handy word, but justified by no authority, and we conclude it is a misprint.

The book is well produced from the press of the Morning Star office at Dover, and has especial value inasmuch as it furnishes as much as it does (we wish it was more) of information concerning the men who for a century past have labored so constantly in this field of usefulness in this region, the results of whose efforts the present generation are now enjoying.

SILVER WEDDING.

The silver wedding of Mr. Charles N. Osgood and wife was celebrated on Monday evening, Feb. 27th, at their home on Salter street. A large number of friends congratulated them on their completion of a quarter century of wedded life, and many handsome and appropriate reminders of the occasion were contributed—the contribution of the wedded pair themselves, in the shape of eight or nine sturdy boys, attracting more attention than all the rest.

A HARD CASE.

"Rattle his bones over the stones,
He's only a pauper, whom nobody owns."

A man apparently about sixty-five years old, and so crippled from the effects of rheumatism that he could not walk, was left in the Boston & Maine railroad station in Dover on Friday evening of last week by a passing train. Having no money, he was sent to the police station and taken care of for the night. He could not be induced to tell his name or anything about himself, and appeared to be entirely oblivious as to his past history; but the city marshal believed he was shamming, and that he had been turned out of doors by his relatives in some other place, and simply hoped to get to the Strafford county farm. Investigation by the marshal on Saturday developed the fact that the old man arrived at Newmarket on Friday morning by rail from some unknown quarter, refused to tell anything about himself there, and had his fare paid to Dover by the Newmarket authorities; so he was shipped back to Newmarket again by the Dover marshal, under the advice of the county commissioners.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Feb. 27; Batchelder, J.

Emma Gould was before the court on a charge of selling lager; case nol. pros'd.

Emma Gould, for selling lager, was fined $10, costs $5.76; paid.

Emma Gould and Martha Kearney, for keeping lager for sale, were jointly fined $10, costs $9.18; paid.

Martha Kearney, on a charge of selling lager, was discharged.

James Dougherty, for an assault, was fined $5, costs $9.18; paid.

James Clark, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs $6.90.; Brentwood in default of payment.

Edward Wilson, charged with drunkenness, was allowed to leave town.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

Members of New Hampshire Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at Odd Fellows hall, Wednesday, March 1st, at one o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral of our late Brother Charles E. Willey. Per order, THORNTON BETTON, Sec'y.

N. H. S. P. C. A.

The New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals continues to prosecute vigorously all cases of cruelty that are reported at headquarters.

The state agent visited Berlin Falls, Coos county, last week, to prosecute an alleged offender for cruelty to a horse. The accused was defended by an able lawyer, R. N. Chamberlain; the trial attracted a great deal of attention, and many citizens of Berlin and vicinity attended. The hearing began in the afternoon, and continued until two o'clock in the evening; the officer of the society conducted the prosecution, and though the case was warmly contested, the charge was fully sustained, and the man was adjudged guilty and ordered to pay fine and costs.

On the evening of Feb. 22d the agent of the society delivered a lecture on "Cruelty to animals," in the public hall, to an audience composed of the better portion of the population of the town. An encouraging interest in the humane cause was manifested, and at the close of the lecture a meeting was organized for the formation of a branch society, to be known as the Berlin S. P. C. A. A board of directors, consisting of thirteen ladies and gentlemen, was chosen, with full power to perfect the organization of the society at an adjourned meeting to be held on Monday evening, Feb. 27th.

Of "Our Goblins," as performed by the "Mitchell Pleasure Party," the Boston Globe says: "The entertainment is of the sort that makes every one laugh and leaves no room for chronic fault finding, or long features. The party consists of Mr. Wm. Gill, Mr. Francis Wilson, Mr. Wm. Forrester, Mr. J. M. Norcross, Miss Elinor Deering, Miss Emma Carson, Miss Mira Barrie, all well known artists in this city, and the piece is full of bright dialogue, comical situations, good songs, and taking music, and much good 'business' is done, especially by Messrs. Gill, Forrester and Wilson. The piece is very cleverly acted, and the singing is very acceptable."

Osgood Lodge, I. O. O. F., will give a ball on Fast night in Franklin hall. Members of the other lodges in the city are to be invited.

Riggers commenced work on the schooner Hattie Lewis, Monday, to fit her for the coming season's work.

Mr. Joseph A. Meloon, who has been home from Washington on a brief vacation, started on his return to that city, Monday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Nellie Meloon.

Robert L. Harris, civil engineer, was home for a brief visit on Sunday. He left on Monday morning, accompanied by Arthur Gerrish, for San Antonio, Texas.

A carpenter's gang in the employ of the Eastern railroad last week commenced making the frame for a large building which is to be erected over the tanks of the wood-preserving works on Noble's island.

Our friend William P. Walker has temporarily vacated his City Clothing Store on Market square, while improvements are to be made in the building by a new front being added to the store. Mr. Walker has a chamber at the next door west, and hopes soon to greet his customers in a renovated store at the old stand where, for so many years, he has been constantly found ready to supply the wants of the outer man.

Miss A. C. Morgan of this city proposes another summer vacation trip to Europe, visiting Scotland, England, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France, leaving New York on June 21st, and arriving back there on Sept. 21st.

The statement in some of the papers that Mr. Merrill of the Crawford house, White mountains, was to take the management of the Wentworth, was premature. The Barrons have given Mr. Merrill an interest in their business, and he remains at the Notch. The last report is that Mr. Comee, formerly of the Revere and Parker houses, in Boston, and now keeping the Cooledge, is to be the man. We trust that whoever is selected, will be found suitable for the position. The man who can properly keep up the reputation of the Wentworth is not found every day in the week.

The schooner Sea Queen, which was towed to the Kittery marine railway on Saturday, after having been aground on Clarke's island, sailed on Monday for her destination, Boston, without making any repairs.

Large quantities of logs are being hauled to Bartlett's saw-mill in East Eliot, to be cut into lumber.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat
Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan22

Wallace Hackett, Secretary.
Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.
This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.
The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.
Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.
We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.
A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

Amputation of the Leg.

The old family Physician at Fault--Dr. David Kennedy the Successful Surgeon.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Fort Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. His family physician refused to amputate the limb—asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who was consulted, held a different opinion, and amputated the limb. The Doctor then administered freely his great blood specific Favorite Remedy to afford tone and strength to the system, prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's Favorite Remedy purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your Druggist has it. One Dollar a bottle. KNOW THYSELF. The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.
The book for young and middle-aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.
The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le Don Lanet.
The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.
Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.
The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in very instance.
Thousands of Copies are sent by mail, securely sealed and post-paid, to all parts of the world, every month, upon receipt of price, $1.25. Address

Mormonism in New Hampshire.

A writer in the Congregationalist recalls memories of the attempt of Mormonism to gain a permanent foothold in New Hampshire. The mother of Joseph Smith was a native of the town of Gilsum in this state. Naturally, therefore, efforts were early made by the "apostles" to convert their relatives there. Accordingly Smith and some of his associates labored there for some time, but without success. But in 1841 certain "elders" from abroad held a protracted meeting in the town, the result of which was a small band of converts from that and surrounding towns, who were organized into a "branch" of the Church of Latter Day Saints. This had an existence of a few years, with meetings held in various places, and then had to pass through the fire of internal dissensions over the matter of discipline. In 1849, a new branch was formed, one of the elders of the parent church coming here for the purpose. It was made up largely of those who had been excluded from the original branch. In 1855 this was reorganized by one of the elders from Utah. But these Latter Day Saints never have been very active or harmonious, and so never have gained many to their belief. However, for forty years, at times, they have contrived to act as a thorn in the flesh to the little Congregational church in the place. Of the original members some went to Utah, a part perishing on the way, and some became apostates, so that now only a very few open believers are known to remain. One of these was ordained to the eldership in Peterboro' in 1844, by Brigham Young and Orson Pratt, and to the high priesthood in Philadelphia, in 1856, by John Taylor and N. H. Felt.

The free library at Washington, comprising 1,451 volumes, has been opened to the public.

Farmington has got the lottery and "grand drawing" fever. At almost every church and society entertainment, chances of winning valuable prizes are given to ticket holders.

George A. Ober, of Nashua, was arrested in Boston on Saturday for disposing of a worthless certificate of stock to F. Henshaw & Co., for $450.

A new manufactory for the construction of agricultural implements and the making of pails is to be built by Jonathan Hall in Keene.

The forge shop of the Cole Manufacturing company in Lake Village is in operation day and night, turning out caraxles, requiring two gangs of workmen. An old building connected with the company's shops caught fire from an overheated stove, Feb. 19th, and was nearly consumed. The building was of little value, and the entire loss did not exceed $200.

The store of Aaron D. Hammond in Gilsum was broken into a few nights since, the thief or thieves breaking out two large squares of glass and entering through the back store. The money drawer was emptied of its contents, and several articles of value were taken from a show case. The burglars evidently left in haste, as pieces of money and other articles were scattered about the floor.

Walter S. Standley, a Rochester merchant who recently failed and in whose store Deputy Sheriff Hurd was placed as keeper, has now sued Sheriff Greenfield in the sum of $10,000 for illegal arrest.

Mrs. Howard Henderson, while passing along the street in Dover a few days since, stopped to adjust an umbrella which she was carrying, and in doing so slipped and fell, breaking her left leg.

A doctor at Richmond says that if people will take a bath in hot whiskey and rock salt twice a year they will never catch a cold. Until somebody has tried this new remedy we would say:—Stick to the old and reliable Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The house of Mrs. Samuel H. Stevens in Concord was entered by burglars recently, and silver-ware, velvet, silks, shawls and paintings stolen. The family is out of the city, so the exact amount is not known, but the value of the articles known to be taken amounts to more than $500.

"What Alexander Might Have Done."

The late czar of Russia was eminently a great man, as his action in liberating thirty-six million serfs from slavery qualified him to be. Yet with all his greatness, Alexander left it to Dr. Swayne, to liberate the world from the annoyance and pain of scores of skin diseases, by producing Swayne's Ointment. Think of the tens, hundreds, thousands, it has cured, and then remember it is economical, effective, reliable, and pure, and if will only try it you will have a cure.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—S. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—SAMUEL Lewis, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. HOUPE, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man's he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he will continue the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21 health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters: I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

Foolish Girls.

In New York, Feb. 27th, a lady who introduced herself as the wife of a physician in Providence, R. I., called upon Superintendent Walling and asked him to take steps to arrest her two daughters, who had run away to New York, taking with them a quantity of silks and silver belonging to their parents. The detective detailed to look up the girls found them in a store applying for positions as saleswomen. They went with him to police headquarters, where a scene ensued when they were confronted by their mother, who made a formal charge of theft against the older of the two. The younger sister came to the rescue, declaring that she herself had taken the silver. Superintendent Walling decided to send the three women before a magistrate in order to let them fight out their battle in court. The girls are nineteen and seventeen years of age respectively. The names are not given.

From the cradle to the grave all are subject to coughs and colds. Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a certain cure in the most obstinate cases. New trial size, 10 cents.

Look at Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Weekly Sun.

George R. Ober, the Nashua broker arrested in Boston on Saturday last for forgery and fraud in connection with the sale of worthless stock, appeared before the police court in Lowell, Mass., Feb. 27th, waived examination, and was ordered in $3,000 bonds to the superior court.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Edward J. White, a confidence man, with many aliases, was arrested Monday at Hooksett. White had victimized a number of firms in Manchester, and people in surrounding towns. He began operations in Concord last Friday, which led to his detection. White was taken to Manchester and locked up. When charged with the offences he admitted them, but would give no history of himself other than he belonged in Augusta, Me. He is about twenty-eight years of age, and of good address.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

The South Boston Ice company shipped 2,000 tons of heavy ice from Milton last week, and the Boston Union is at work with a large force, making four large companies operating there. The Drivers' Union of Boston is cutting at Wolfeboro' Junction, thus making ice business brisk in the eastern part of New Hampshire.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

Chester Ballard, for a long time employed at the manufactory of Eaton & Ayer in Nashua, had his right hand completely severed from his arm by a saw on Friday afternoon, Feb. 24th. Mr. Ballard had his other hand mutilated a few years since.

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My a ms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

George M. Cook of Exeter was among the victims of the late fire in Haverhill, Mass., where he sustained a loss of $10,000.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Dover Democrat says that on Friday last, "at the Eastern railroad depot in Great Falls, on the arrival of a passenger train for Boston, it was discovered that one of the locomotive truck wheels was broken in two. Luckily it was discovered in season to avoid any accident."

When men, women and children receive extensive benefit from any special means or source, we do not wonder that it stands foremost in their opinion as an ever present subject for unstinted praise. W. H. Woodward, a well-known and respected citizen of New Haven, Conn., residing at No. 23 Audubon street, testifies to the healing powers of the St. Jacobs Oil. Mr. Woodward says he took cold sometime ago. It settled in his left shoulder and neck in the form of a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism. He suffered a great deal from it, and is not particularly desirous of receiving another such a visit. Having heard much about the great German remedy, he bought a bottle and gave his neck and shoulder a good rubbing with it. The night he made the application he could scarcely move his head, because of the extreme pain and soreness. The next day all the trouble had disappeared.

Wreck Record of 1881.

The actual shipwrecks which occurred throughout the world during 1881 numbered 2,030, and the estimated value of property lost was $1,400,000,000, of which Great Britain and its colonies lose $900,000,000. Compared with the previous year, there was an increase in wrecks of 359, and an increase of about 000,000 in the value of property lost last year having been an exceptionally for gales and storms, and for vessels of large tonnage with exceptional value.

Harvard's Professor Ko was a poor man, and left his widow and six little mandarins in need. The college will continue his salary till the family are safe in China, but to keep them in comfort there and educate the sixteen year old boy a trust fund is desirable. The pittance of $300 a year, it is said, is enough, and President Eliot invites contributions from all who feel for these "singularly helpless and interesting strangers."

Proceedings will be begun to recover for the government all land in the Missouri land grants believed to have been acquired by fraud.

The friends of good government in Philadelphia achieved a sweeping victory in the late election. The creatures of the defiant and thieving rings were beaten in most instances. The republican managers have been taught a lesson they will not soon forget, and "bossism," which is most venal and offensive in Pennsylvania, has been signally rebuked. The anti-ring republican papers like the Press have been most zealous in the opposition to republican ring candidates, and are among the most jubilant of the victors.—Boston Journal.

Mr. Conkling comes of good judicial stock His father was one of the most sturdily upright, accomplished and honored judges of New York. He is himself, it is needless to say, a man of great intellectual ability and force. His character, in all that relates to the dignity and purity of the bench, is above reproach. He has been arrogant, domineering and offensive as a politician, but he has not soiled his hands with jobbery, nor exposed his good name as a public servant to the breath of suspicion On all public questions that are likely to come before the court his views are well known to be on the side of the country's good faith and honor.—Boston Herald.

Driven Mad by a Practical Joke.

Henry Waters, a young man living in Youngstown, Ohio, who was somewhat prone to superstition, and of a rather timorous nature, had been in the habit of keeping a pistol at the head of his bed where he could reach it upon the slightest warning. For the purpose of enjoying an exhibition of his terror a party of young fools secretly drew the the bullets from the cartridges, leaving the powder undisturbed, and one of them, wrapped in a sheet, entered his room at midnight, while the rest waited near by. He awoke in great alarm, and, after a warning, fired at the figure. The bullet was thrown back at the headboard of the bed. This operation had been repeated until the cartridges had all been discharged, and then the victim of a practical joke fell upon his pillow with a scream. When lights were brought the jokers found their friend a raving maniac, and he is likely to remain one for the rest of his life.

What War Vessels Cost.

In view of the growing demand that the United States should build up a navy, says the New York Hour, it is interesting to learn what the building of war vessels costs. According to a report of the British Admiralty, the Minotaur cost £480,000 to build, and £170,000 has been already laid out in repairing her; the Black Prince cost £380,000 to build, and has since cost £273,000 to repair; and the Warrior cost £380,000 to build, and £205,000 to repair. Of unarmored vessels, the Himalaya cost £130,000 to build, and her repairs and alterations have since cost £327,000; the Antelope, built in 1847, at a cost of £40,000, has since cost £80,000, to repair; the Salamander, built in 1833, at a cost of £35,000, has cost £106,000 in repairs; while the store-ship Industry, built in 1854 for £23,000, has cost the disproportionate sum of [illegible] to repair.

—A retired whaling captain of New London occasionally makes a trip to Block island for codfish. He returned from one of these trips the other day, and stated to a friend: "I put out a fishing line Thursday with eighty hooks attached thereto, and when I hauled it aboard there were 120 large codfish on it."

The Moody house at York beach was temporarily closed to the public on Tuesday, Feb. 28th, the proprietor and late landlord, Mr. S. E. Grant, having with his family removed to Limerick, where he has purchased the Limerick hotel. Mr. Alva Trafton and wife have taken charge of the Moody house for the summer.

Capt. Frank Emerson of York will not cut any ice this winter from the old millpond which he some time ago purchased, and last season dammed up. The trout with which he stocked one of the springs which help feed the pond, appear to find the temperature of the water satisfactory, and are thriving well; and if nothing unfavorable occurs, he will in a few years be able to furnish considerable quantities of these fish for the markets.

THE
Mutual Life Insurance Co.
of New York,
F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Fortunes in Colorado.
ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
March 1, 1:30 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—Warmer, cloudy rainy weather, southerly wind, lower pressure.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, registered 24 degrees above zero.

Raining.

PROBABLY A MISTAKE.

The ship Constantine, built at this port, sailed from New York for London on Nov. 14th, having on board twenty-two persons, including the captain's wife and two children, and 390,750 gallons of refined petroleum. Her owner, John Zittlosen of New York, on Feb. 26th received a despatch saying the vessel was abandoned Feb. 14th, in latitude forty-two north, longitude twenty-nine west, and that the crew had landed at Falmouth, England; but the despatch probably refers to some other vessel, as it is impossible a ship could have been three full months on the way from New York to London without getting much more than half way across the Atlantic, and without being spoken during all that time.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, Feb. 28; Batchelder, J.

Edward Wilson was brought before the court on a charge of drunkenness; worse still, the evidence offered proved the charge to be true. Mr. Wilson was before the court on the previous day, charged with a similar offence, but pleaded so earnestly to be let off, promising to leave the city if allowed, that he was dismissed. His second appearance led to the imposing of a sentence of six months at the county farm, costs being taxed at $6.90.

"DON'T SIGN!"

The above advice, given by the papers to farmers all over the country time and again in years past, if it had been followed would have saved to many a hard-working husbandman of Rockingham County, and York county, Me., the savings of years of toil; but they would keep on signing "agreements" and documents of various kinds when presented by well dressed and plausible strangers, and in consequence many of them to-day cherish bitter memories of the trouble they had to raise money for the payment of notes unwittingly given to "Granite Agricultural Works" or "Mowing-machine knife-sharpener" swindlers, and for which they never did and never will receive any equivalent. But the farmers got so shy at last that the note swindlers talked in vain, and for a year or two back is part of the country has not been invested with them.

Now, however, we are informed that the old game, revised and improved, is again being played—but this time on the merchants in the towns and villages, the farmers being exempt so far as we have heard. The mode of operation is given us as follows:

Agent No. 1 comes along with some kind of an article for household use, say a patent mop wringer, the local agency for which he wishes the intended victim to take; and after the usual amount of talk the latter accepts the agency, as there appears to be no risk in so doing, and signs an agreement to so act, the agreement also containing an order on an apocryphal manufacturing company for so many of the machines as the merchant concludes to take on the start, it being specified that they shall be sold at $1 each, and paid for at sixty cents each. In a few days a second "agent" appears, produces a railroad bill of lading apparently showing that the goods have been shipped to the merchant, and presents a note which the merchant is to sign in payment, merely as a matter of form, the note of course not to be collected until the close of the contract, when the patent articles not then sold are to be taken back by the manufacturers' agent," and allowed for.

If the merchant smells a rat, and refuses to sign, in spite of the "agent's" pester, he is all right; if he signs the note, he is in a few days notified by a bank that his paper has been discounted, and he had better make provision for taking it up. Our informant says that a man in South Berwick, Me., has been victimized by this dodge, and has had to mortgage his property for $600; also that a hardware dealer in Great Falls fell into the trap, and will have to pay for his experience. A storekeeper in Kittery, who talks with painful plainness and emphasis concerning the "agents," and a well known merchant on Market street in this city, are among those on whom the trick has been unavailingly attempted.

MORTON'S SUITS.

Marcus P. Morton, a lawyer of Troy, N. Y., seems to have struck a good thing. He purchased of one Bixby, an inventor, the patent for the application of a valve now in use on cylinder steam fire engines, and is now suing cities using the patent for royalties back to 1868. He began with his own city of Troy, which settled the suit for $53,000. He then brought suit against New York, and got judgment for a sum to be hereafter determined. He now sues Boston for about half a million dollars. Gen. Butler is his leading counsel, and he is said to have retained all the prominent patent lawyers in the country, in readiness to sue all the cities in their order.

We are informed that the patent valve was tried by the fire department in this city, but it did not give satisfaction and was not adopted for permanent use, so Mr. Morton cannot make much of a haul out of the Portsmouth treasury, should he make the attempt.

With the gentlemen in the play we exclaim that "we do not hesitate to say, and we say it boldly," that "Our Goblins" is the funniest and most skilfully constructed of all the pieces or extravaganzas of its school, that have been presented to a New York audience during the year. In many respects it is marvelous, and though the unwinding of the strange story occupies more than two hours, not one minute of the whole time is lost or wasted by either actors or auditors. Indeed, the people who witnessed the "Goblins" on Monday night, went home with sides aching from laughter and hearts lighter for the merriment they had enjoyed.—N. Y. Telegram.

At Music hall next Friday evening.

The new foremast of the schooner Northern Star was finished Tuesday.

The ship Grandee, Jacobs master, arrived at Yokohama, Japan, Feb. 26th, from New York, which port she left Sept. 13th. Mr. Thomas S. Gay of this city went out in the Grandee as a passenger, and the captain's wife and family are also on board.

The telephone line to the navy yard was completed and tested on Tuesday. It worked well, and talks were had with Haverhill and other places. The wire is introduced at the lieutenant's office in the lower story of the office building.

The Knights of Pythias have a social entertainment at their hall this evening.

An entertainment and supper will come off this evening in Franklin hall under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the Middle street church. A small admission fee will be asked, and refreshments will be served at reasonable rates from 6:30 to 8:30, the entire proceeds to be devoted to swell the new chapel building fund. The stage in the hall has been enlarged to afford necessary space for an entertainment which is to open with a kinder-symphony performed by amateurs under the direction of a local professional gentleman. Then at intervals will be miscellaneous tableaux and music, the entertainment closing with a colloquy in costume and with scenic effects, entitled, "David Copperfield and His Friends," the hero holding a reception where are ushered in twenty of his associates, characters all taken from Dickens' novel David Copperfield. Much pains have been taken to make this the most enjoyable affair of the season, and it will undoubtedly be a success.

Mr. John R. Holbrook is making new sails for the schooners Mary Willey and Mayor Jones.

The schooner D. K. Ham, Capt. Garland, will commence her trips in the brick-carrying trade between this city and Boston, about the middle of this month.

The schooner Hattie Lewis, which has been laid up for the winter alongside the wharf at the Raynes shipyard, was on Tuesday hauled over to Call's wharf to load with lime, boards, shingles and corn for Asahel Goodwin of Cape Neddick, Me. She is commanded by Capt. James S. Brewster of York, formerly mate of the schooner D. K. Ham; her agent is Mr. George Scott of this city. At Cape Neddick she will take on board a cargo of firewood for Boston.

Elvin Newton & Co. on Tuesday shipped to Boston fifty-six boxes of fish, 500 lbs. to the box—28,000 lbs. in all.

At the close of the late civil war the town debt of Stratham was $24,000. Since that time a town hall has been built at a cost of over $4000, a new cemetery has been purchased and laid out at an expense of $600, and a law suit which cost the town $2000 has been disposed of, and the original debt completely wiped out.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

A Lucky Miller who will Grind Saturdays.

Mr. I. M. Davis of Morning Sun was the holder of ticket No. 76,096, the capital prize January drawing in The Louisiana State Lottery. It is a severe shock to receive information that $30,000 is subject to command. He was arranging his mill machinery, but it did not unnerve him, however. He took it coolly and made use of the oft quoted maxim: "Fool for luck," etc. Mr. Davis is fifty-two years of age; has been a citizen of the county forty-one years; has a family—wife and six children—and is a useful and honorable citizen of his neighborhood. He farms; keeps a small stock of merchandise, and runs a steam gin and mill at Morning Sun, Tenn. When asked if he would "grind" Saturday he replied, "as usual." He is receiving numerous letters asking loans as high as $5,000. Well, old fellow, we never bought when we drank buttermilk (?) out of the same canteen eighteen years ago with you that such a fate awaited you.—Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche, J. 15.

Cuticura

Geo. W. Brown, 48 Marshall St., Providence, R. I., cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) of a Ringworm Humor got at the barber's which spread all over his face, neck and face, and for six years resisted all kinds of treatment.

SKIN HUMOR,

F. H. Drake, Esq., agent for Harper & Bros., Detroit, Mich., gives an astonishing account of his case (eczema rodent), which had been treated by a consultation of physicians without benefit, and which speedily yielded to the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

SCALD HEAD.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.
The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.
The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—La Sou Lancet.
The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.
Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.
The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Ostskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Light and Color as Affecting Vision.

Dr. Croft, in discussing the question of color as affecting weak or deficient eyesight, expresses the opinion that in some cases, spectacles fitted with yellow glass afford more relief to the wearer than do those provided with blue glass. Tests made with the Argandburner show that it affords the steadiest and best light, and it is believed that the arrangement which is least trying to the eyes is to be obtained by the interposition of a shade so placed as to screen all direct-light rays from the eyes,—at the same time, of course, that adequate illumination is obtained at the place required for work. In the pursuit of literary work, a tinted paper is found less fatiguing to the vision than if the paper is of a pure white color.

Male and Female Longevity.

The recent official returns in regard to the health and mortality of the population of Europe have supplied the statistical department at Vienna with the means of making some interesting determinations in respect to longevity. It results from this, that of 102.831 individuals who had exceeded the age of ninety years, 60,303 were women, and 42,528 men. Again, the superior longevity of women is exhibited by the greater chance, it seems, in the cases of women, of exceeding the hundredth year. Thus, in Italy, there are found 241 female centenarians for 141 male, and in Austria 229 women for 183 men. There are also, in Austria, 1,308,358 sexagenarians, or 7.5 per cent of the total population.

The "Granite Monthly" for March has a brief sketch of Benning M. Bean, who was a member of Congress from this state, serving with Franklin Pierce nearly fifty years ago. Mr. Bean was chiefly noted for being an old-fashioned democrat, though coming from a family of federalists, and as the father of John Q. A. Bean, known all over the country from his connection with the C. B. & Q. Railroad. Mr. Bean was standing beside Gen. Jackson when Jackson was attempted to be assassinated in the rotunda of the capital. Rev Isaac Willey writes recollections of the Piscataqua Association of Ministers, etc.

"Our Little Ones." The March number of this magazine for the youngest readers is at hand. The pictures are numerous and very expressive—illustrating stories of Slyboots, The Wasp, The Nest Stealer, Rover and the Cats, How the Teakettle Went to Paris, About a Queer Man, and other things. Published by the Russell Publishing Co., Boston, at $1.50 a year. Sold at the bookstores.

—A new map of Boston has a certain open space designated as Hayputsmallm square. A printer would readily see how the error occurred. The square was marked on the original draft "Haymarket," but in printing it was changed to "Hay Market." In correcting the proof the reader marked it "put small m," and the printer followed his copy literally.—Traveller.

Colds yield to onions like magic, but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a still better and by far more agreeable means of curing a cold or cough. You can buy a bottle for 25 cents at any drug store, and we are sure it will do the work every time.

Take Warning

And don't let the germs of that vile disease, catarrh, take root and flourish in your system. Sulphur Bitters will prevent this and will make you strong and healthy.—Editor.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

A large number of the Russian refugee Jews who recently arrived in Philadelphia have been provided with situations by the merchants and manufacturers of that city.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superadduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT
AN UNFAILING REMEDY FOR ALL SKIN DISEASES SUCH AS TETTER, ITCH, SORES, PIMPLES, ERYSIPELAS, RING WORM, BLOTCHES, &C.
OINTMENT
THE GREAT CURE FOR
ITCHING PILES
Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching; worst at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. An pleasant, economical and positive cure. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps, 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila. Pa.

Diphtheria.
A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, but if prompt remedies, to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.
A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:
PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have found it to fail in effecting a cure.—E. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.
For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.
Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—REV. R. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.
I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—O. D. FORD, Lowndes, Me.
Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.
I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Dunreith, Oneida, N. Y.
For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. F. ROUTH, Liberty Mills, Va.
For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.
I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.
Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.
MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.
For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.
Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.
All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.
PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.
For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.
FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR
—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—
ELYS' CREAM BALM
Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.
Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.
Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.
While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. 1mchsl health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the King of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

Dr. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

SONNET.

Twilight's golden lamp hung low
To gild the gorgeous west,
The sun, departing, left aglow
The ocean's heaving breast—
At the helm of my winged boat
I stood, her way to guide
Where happy islands seemed to float
In glory on the tide.
Beyond the beacon gleaming red
We sailed far o'er the lea;
The starry heavens, from above
Bent down to kiss the sea—
O, maiden with soft, lustrous eyes,
Could I do less by thee?

—"THEODORE," in Portsmouth Journal.

The democrats of Biddeford held a "citizens" caucus on the evening of Feb. 28th, and nominated William H. Hanson as their candidate for mayor.

The democrats of Portland, Me., in caucus on the evening of Feb. 27th, were compelled to adopt as their nominee Capt. John W. Deering, whom we believe has always been a republican, but who had previously been put in nomination for the office of mayor by a "Citizens" committee, composed of course largely of democrats. L. D. M. Sweat in the convention opposed this going after other idols, but he was told that the democracy in Maine were nothing without fusion. The election occurs on Monday, the 6th inst.

The water commissioners of Concord have awarded the contract for supplying and laying a new water pipe from Long pond, to Goodhue & Birney of Springfield, Mass., their bid being $44,900.

The only scientific iron medicine that does not produce headache, &c., but gives to the system all the benefits of iron without its bad effects, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Concord Horse railroad company has petitioned the city government to lay out an extension from West street to the junction of Turnpike and State streets, a distance of about a fifth of a mile.

Only two Bottles.

Messrs. Johnson, Holloway & Co., wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of Gen. John C. Fremont, governor of Arizona, had been cured of catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—You have struck a bonanza in your Cream Balm, for the cure of catarrh, hay fever, etc., and it justly merits it. The sales are constantly increasing. Yours truly, M. A. LYON & BRO., Druggists, Montrose, Pa.

Thomas Brown, an employe of the Page Belting company at Concord, has become insane, the result, it is believed, of religious excitement.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptoms indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal says that Hon. Moody Currier, LL. D., of Manchester, Hon. Samuel W. Hale of Keene, and Hon. Dexter Richards of Newport will be candidates for the republican nomination for governor. The convention will be held early in September.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Wm. H. Hunt, Jr., son of Secretary Hunt of the navy department, is collector of customs for the territories of Idaho and Montana. He is to marry Miss Upshur, the daughter of Commodore Upshur of the navy.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. eod3wfy&c

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Advices from St. Petersburg say ten of the nihilist prisoners, including one woman, who have been on trial for some days past on various charges, have been sentenced to death. The remainder of the twenty-one prisoners were sentenced to various terms of penal servitude.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Four Fishing Schooners Given Up.

The Gloucester fishing schooners Paul Revere, Edith M. Pew, Charles Carroll and Bessie W. Somes are given up for lost, with all hands.

The Paul Revere was seen on Georges, Saturday, Feb. 4th, and is supposed to have gone down in the great gale of the 5th; she registered seventy-six tons, and carried fourteen men, of whom ten were married and had families.

The Bessie W. Somes was spoken on the Grand banks Feb. 2d, ready to come home, and is supposed to have foundered in the same gale as the Paul Revere; she registered ninety-two tons, and carried fourteen men, only two of whom were married, and only one of whom left children.

The Edith M. Pew, of sixty-nine tons register, carried fourteen men, who leave ten widows and nineteen children; she was last seen on Georges by the schooner Noonday, Feb. 3d.

The Charles Carroll left Gloucester Jan. 12th on a Georges trip, was seen on Feb. 5th, and has not since been heard from; she registered fifty-eight tons, and carried eleven men, two at least of whom leave widows and orphans.

The Salmon Falls Shooting Case.

In Dover, Feb. 28th, case State vs. George L. Wentworth was put on trial. Wentworth was indicted for an assault on Ebenezer S. Nowell, with intent to kill. The evidence of the witnesses examined, one of whom was Wentworth's brother, shew that Wentworth on last Thanksgiving day, while drunk, went to the railroad station in Salmon Falls and fired a pistol at Nowell. The latter's son immediately shot Wentworth, but no bill was found against him, as it was evident he acted solely in defence of his father's life. Wentworth displayed a revolver to a woman, before he went to the station, and threatened to have satisfaction from the Nowells.

News and Notes.

E. Malley's dry goods store in New Haven, Conn., was burned Feb. 28th; loss $175,000; insurance $160,000.

There is a lady at Pittsfield whose hair on one side of her head curls beautifully, but on the other side is perfectly straight.

Daniel Moray and James Linnehan are missing from Fall River. The former is believed to have been drowned, and the latter lost in the woods and dead from exposure.

George Barry Wall, a lawyer of Brooklyn, N. Y., was shot by his wife on Sunday, Feb. 26th. The woman, who is under arrest, claims that the shooting was accidental; she was formerly an actress, and is twenty-six years old.

Two tramps were killed and eight others fatally injured by the ditching of a freight car on which they were stealing a ride, near Joliet, Ill., Feb. 27th.

Dr. J. W. Nuckols was shot and killed at Springfield, Tenn., Feb. 28th, by S. B. Hobkins of Nashville, his brother-in-law. The killing was the result of family troubles.

Sergt. Liebmann of the Boston signal service office has been transferred to Thatcher's island, and his place in Boston filled by Mr. O. B. Cole, promoted to the rank of sergeant.

William A. Colby, dealer in groceries and general merchandise at Tilton, has failed. Full amount of liabilities not yet known.

The spring term of the Limerick academy commenced Monday, Feb. 27th, with W. E. S. Preston, A. B., in charge. The winter term of the Limerick high school closed on the 10th, having been taught by E. C. Burbank, a graduate of Bowdoin and a brother of H. H. Burbank, Esq., late county attorney of York county.

A Worcester, Mass., woman has given birth to five children in fourteen months—twins, supplemented by triplets,—and all are well and lively.

AROUND HOME.

It took the whole forenoon, Wednesday of this week, to get the schooner Hattie Lewis through the draw of the Noble's island bridge; the workmen had an awful job to get the draw raised, and after it was up there seemed a certainty that it could never be got down again. It is suspected that there is something antiquated about the structure.

As Mr. Joshua M. Vaughan was on his way to Greenland, Wednesday, 1st inst., his horse slipped on the ice, and fell, breaking a shaft of the vehicle.

The fishing schooner Northern Star, Jameson master, was on the 1st inst towed by the steamer Mystic to the navy yard, where she went under the sheers and had her broken foremast taken out and a new one stepped. She lost her foretopmast and the head of her foremast on Jaffrey's in one of the heavy gales early in February.

The board of assessors have organized by the choice of Benjamin F. Webster as chairman, and D. J. Vaughan as clerk.

The fishing schooner Mayor Jones, Dunphy master, sailed for the banks on Feb. 28th.

The schooner John Lenthall, Hoyt master, arrived in from the Shoals on Tuesday evening, Feb. 28th, and made fast to Union wharf. She brought in about fifty tons of ice, (the amount left after filling the ice-houses on Appledore and Star islands,) which has been placed in C. L. Brown's ice-house at Puddle dock.

The vessels fishing in Ipswich bay during the last week in February were generally successful in making fair catches, most of the fish being taken in the daytime, by under-running the trawls. The theory which had been generally accepted by the fishermen, until quite recently, was that the most fish could be caught by setting the trawls, and letting them remain over night before hauling; but the "new found out," under-running by daylight after the trawls have been down but a short time, seems to give the best results at present. Whales are reported as having seen abundant in the bay during the mild days with which February ended, the moderate weather seeming to make them especially lively, much to the disgust of the fishermen, who feared the huge cetaceans would interfere with their gear—an apprehension that would seem to be not without foundation, for a whale on a trawl would certainly do mischief.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 1st inst., as the schooner Northern Star was being towed over from the navy yard by the steamer James Sampson, she touched on the ledge between the spar buoy and Oyster island, abreast of Long wharf. The steamer in her attempts to haul the schooner off, also got aground, but the flowing tide soon liberated both vessels, neither being badly damaged.

A pair of chickens weighing between nine and ten pounds were stolen from the door of Junkins & Smith's store at the north end of Market street, between seven and eight o'clock on Tuesday evening.

The arrivals of fishing vessels on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were numerous, though they brought in but small quantities of fish, the following being the fares: Eva May, 2000 lbs.; Addie & Hattie, 2000 lbs.; Rover's Bride, 4000 lbs.; Sylph, 2000 lbs.; Flying Cloud, 1800 lbs.; Grace Choate, 2000 lbs.; Albert Woodbury, 1000 lbs.; Eldorado, 1500 lbs.; Cora Lee, 5000 lbs.; Emma S. Osler, 5000 lbs.; Morrill Boy, 3500 lbs.; Storm King, 1500 lbs.; Christie Campbell, 2000 lbs.; Ev. Nichols, 1500 lbs.; E. A. Williams, 1500 lbs.; Daniel C. Baker, 1500 lbs.; Breeze, 2000 lbs.; Mary E. Smith, 1500 lbs.; Nettie Adams, 2000 lbs.; Flying Eagle, 2500 lbs.

It is announced that Col. Andrew H. Young of Dover, collector of internal revenue in this district, will tender his resignation to take effect March 31st. He has filled the office for thirteen years.

The semi-annual dividend on the Wolfeborough railroad will be paid at the office of Gov. Goodwin, on Market street, Friday, March 3d, from eleven o'clock A. M. TO TWO P. M.

The barque Constantine, a Norwegian or German vessel, commanded by Capt. Baun and bound from New York for Dantzic, was abandoned Feb. 14th in the mid-Atlantic, and her crew were landed at Falmouth, Eng., by a steamship, Feb. 25th or 26th. It was this circumstance no doubt which gave rise to the report that the ship Constantine, built at this port in 1850, and which sailed from New York for London on the 14th of November last with a cargo of refined petroleum, was abandoned in mid-ocean Feb. 14th, the crew, and Capt. Coldrey's wife and two children, being saved and landed at Falmouth. The ship will probably never be heard from; a large number of barrels (over twelve hundred, if we remember right) of refined petroleum were picked up at a point on the southwest coast of Ireland along toward the last of December, and vessels reported sailing through hundreds of barrels and the wreckage of a large ship near the same point; the Constantine should have been nearing her destination at that date, and it is more than possible that the unidentified wreck stuff came from her.

"Our Goblins," which is to be presented in Music hall on Friday evening by the Mitchell Pleasure Party, is put down as a "side-splitting play from beginning to end," and claimed to be one of the most laughable productions ever put upon the stage.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00,—no assessments. There is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

SERGEANT HOYT.

Sergt. Franklin C. Hoyt, who died in this city on the 27th of February, was born in Utica, Oneida county, New York, on the 28th day of February, 1800.

When thirty-one years of age he enlisted in the 2d Regt. U. S. Infantry, and was assigned to duty in Company "D," 1st Regt. of Artillery, commanded by Capt. Churchill. At that time Lieut. (afterward General) Justin E. Dimick was second lieutenant, but soon rose to the command of the company. Company "D" was sent to Fortress Munroe, where Sergt. Hoyt received a thorough training in the school of practice, and became an excellent artillery man, and a well drilled infantry soldier as well.

He served with bravery and credit in the Florida, Black Hawk and Mexican wars. During the Black Hawk war he saw and made the acquaintance of Abraham Lincoln, who was then a young volunteer officer in Col. Dodge's mounted regiment of Illinois troops. At that time Chicago, near which they encamped, consisted of three log houses and a population of a dozen or fifteen people.

In the year 1835 Sergt. Hoyt and a detachment of his company went to Algiers in the U. S. S. Delaware, Commodore Preble, as a part of the marine guard of the ship. At the conclusion of the Algerine war he was ordered to New Orleans.

From 1840 to 1845 his company was stationed at Fort Constitution, Newcastle. While serving there he married a young lady of the island town.

In 1845 he accompanied his old commander to Mexico as a sergeant in Capt. Field's company, and served all through the war, participating in fifteen pitched battles and numberless skirmishes without receiving a single wound, although his cap was once shot off his head, and his uniform was riddled with bullets. He believed that he had a charmed life, and that no leaden missile could touch him.

He was desirous of enlisting to fight in the Union army during the war of the rebellion, but an infirmity of his eyes prevented.

For many years, up to within a few months, the old soldier's tall and erect form was a familiar object on our streets and in the neighboring towns, as he peddled fruit for a livelihood; and in even his advanced years he maintained the martial bearing due to his long service as a soldier.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

The Washington Sunday Herald has the following: "A letter from Portsmouth, N. H., February 21st, says: 'One of the most enjoyable hops of the season came off last evening at the quarters of Commodore and Mrs. C. H. Wells, of the navy, and was attended by the officers of the station, in uniform, and by the elite of Portsmouth. The toilets of the ladies surpassed anything yet seen in this part of the country, and showed off to great advantage the beauty and grace of Portsmouth. The dancing music was led by Professor H. L. Harlow, and continued to a late hour. Some eighty invitations were issued. The following is a partial list of those who were present:

Admiral and Mrs. Beaumont, Capt. and Mrs. Benham, Miss McGregor, Miss Baker, daughter of Chief Engineer Baker, Capt. and Mrs. Bradford, Commander and Mrs. Yates, Commander and Mrs. Cromwell, Commander and Mrs. Barclay, Chief Engineer Macomb and Mrs. Macomb, Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Lieutenant D. Whipple, Miss Mamie Hatch, Miss Annie Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Larkin, Miss Ball, Miss Mabel Storer, grandaughter of Governor Goodwin, Capt. and Mrs. Dwight, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett, Mr. Sawyer, secretary to the commandant, Miss Sisc, daughter of the mayor of Portsmouth, Major Butler, of the marine corps, Lieut. Reid, marine corps, Lieut. and Mrs. Winslow, Lieut. and Mrs. Niles, Miss Eastman, Mr. and Miss Foster, Paymaster and Mrs. Guild, Mr. Guild, Mr. Stephen Decatur, Pay Inspector and Mrs. May, Mrs. Paymaster Putnam, Miss Morgan, Mrs. Oliver, Mr. McGinley, Miss Macomb, Lieut. and Mrs. Reeder, Mr. James B. Parrott, Mr. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hackett, Miss Hackett, Miss Jones, and Miss White.

Of all the belles the acknowledged ones were Mrs. Alfred O. Larkin, Miss Hatch, Miss Storer, Miss McGregor, niece of Capt. Benham, and Miss Macomb, daughter of Chief Engineer Macomb.' "

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Instruction was held on Wednesday evening, the 1st inst.; present, Mrs. Wilson, Messrs. Newton, Goodrich, George, Vaughan, May, Gardner and Pender.

Reports of the several grade committees and of the high school committee, were read and accepted.

It was voted that the subject of giving the schools one session on account of stormy weather be left with the secretary, with power.

Voted that the secretary be directed to call the attention of the chairman of district one to the vote passed in October, 1879, as follows:

Voted, That the half-holidays usually given to the schools having highest per cent of attendance be dispensed with.

The petition of Miss Newton for an increase of salary was left with the committee on salaries.

The secretary was directed to ask of the city councils the sum of $19,500 for the expenses of the school committee for the year 1882, in addition to the literary fund.

Adjourned.

EASTERN RAILROAD NOTES.

The summer arrangement for trains on the Eastern railroad it is stated will be about the same as that of last year, which afforded so much satisfaction to the patrons of the line. The fast early train between Dover, Portsmouth and Boston, which has run through the winter months, has been highly appreciated and liberally patronized.

A party of Eastern railroad officials, including the president and several of the directors, inspected the Salem tunnel and its approaches on Tuesday, Feb. 28th, with a view to the proposed widening. It is believed that the company will do all that it can to retain its present location through the tunnel, and the prominent real estate owners in its vicinity desire that the tunnel should remain open, for a removal to the outskirts means a removal of business in time, and a consequent depreciation of what is at present the most valuable business property in the city. There seems nothing to prevent the construction of the proposed new tunnel, as no opposition has developed as yet on the part of abutters.

The new legislation sought for in Massachusetts, by stockholders of the Eastern railroad, aims at securing such action as will enable all the debt above $10,000,000 to be made a preferred stock, thus enabling the stock to secure dividends should the future earnings leave sufficient for that purpose after meeting interest and other fixed charges.

Mr. Henry L. Brown, who was at one time head brakeman on the Conway freight train under Conductor Hooper, but of late has been in the employ of the Old Colony railroad, was struck on the head by a bridge in Quincy, Mass., while on the top of a freight train on the night of Feb. 28th, and received injuries from which he died soon after. He was twenty-five years of age, and belonged in North Conway.

Three shifting engines are being made for the Eastern road, at the Blood Locomotive Works in Manchester.

PERSONAL.

Dr. F. E. Potter and wife arrived home on Tuesday evening, Feb. 28th, after an absence of several weeks in the south.

Mr. Thos. S. Gay, who arrived at Yokohama, Japan, Feb. 26th, in the ship Grandee, will return by steamer from Yokohama to San Francisco, and from the latter city by rail. He is expected to arrive home in April.

Mrs. Admiral Murray was one of the committee to distribute prizes to school children for compositions upon the subject of kindness to animals, under the direction of the S. P. C. A., at Washington, D. C., recently. Rev. Edw. E. Hale of Boston was present on the occasion of the reading of the essays, and made an address.

Miss Laighton, of the census office, who has been so seriously ill with typhoid fever for many weeks, is now recovering.—Washington Herald.

Rev. I. P. Quimby, of Carlton, Mass., will preach in the Universalist church on Sunday.

[For other Local Matter see 2d Page.]

—The following amusing incident recently occurred in Berlin. A tragedian occasionally gave a passage in his handiady. She was sitting with her little girl in the pit of the theatre when the heavy villain was about to stab the tragedian in the gizzard. The child, seeing her friend's danger, instantly started up, and, with tears streaming from her blue eyes, shrieked out: "Oh, please don't kill him, or he won't give us any more tickets for the theatre!"

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat
Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan28

PAR VALUE $100.
Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.
Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.
This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.
The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.
Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.
We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.
A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Naval Affairs.

Passed Assistant Engineer T. J. W. Cooper is ordered to the receiving ship Franklin.

Lieut. Commander George R. Durand is detached from the command of the iron-clad steamer Lehigh.

The Enterprise arrived at Beaufort, S. C., Feb. 27th, en route to the West Indies.

Commodore John L. Davis has been ordered as a member of the naval examining board at Washington.

Chief Engineer P. A. Rearick is detached from the Franklin, and granted leave of absence for three months.

Commodore John Upshur has been ordered to hold himself in readiness to command the navy yard at New York on the 1st of April next.

Passed Assistant Engineer U. H. Landin is detached from duty connected with the iron-clads off City point, James river, Virginia.

Passed Assistant Engineer William A. Mintzar is ordered to duty in charge of the machinery of the iron-clads at City point, James river, Va.

Rear Admiral George H. Cooper is detached from the command of the navy yard at New York on the 1st of April, and ordered to hold himself in readiness for sea service.

The house naval affairs committee have decided that the new ships to be built under the construction bill agreed upon, should be of "open hearth steel" instead of Bessemer steel. The amount of steel required will be about 25,000 tons, whose estimated cost will be $120 a ton; the steel will be more desirable than Bessemer. This decision is an important one. It is half expected that the Bessemer men will visit Washington to secure its reversal by the house. It is evident that, while "open hearth" steel men, and those who make both Bessemer and "open hearth" steel, will be eligible to participation in this $3,000,000 contract, those who are manufacturers exclusively of Bessemer steel will be excluded.

The public debt of Canada is steadily increasing, and still the government of the Dominion seeketh to ascertain why its people emigrate to the United States.

In tearing away the other day a part of the wall of the old Baltimore home of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, the workmen made an interesting discovery. This was the massively built and hidden vault in which Mr. Carroll once stored his papers and valuables. It contained an oak cabinet, all its drawers and pigeon-holes labelled by Carroll's own hand.

Mr. Longfellow's unmarried daughter returned from Washington to her Cambridge, Mass., home a few days ago. Her father needs the most attentive care at present, although he is not positively ill. He does not use his pen at all—not even to sign his name. The poet's daughter, with her rosy cheeks and bright eyes, looks very much like him.

—The recent cost of life by fire has induced the people of Hamilton, Ont., to try dropping from upper windows into sheets held below by way of practice. A policeman was badly hurt by a trial leap from the roof of a three-story house, but a girl performed the feat several times successfully, and offers on a wager to double the height.

The first American inscription upon the obelisk, now standing in Central Park, New York, will be: "Use Dr. Hull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents."

In skirmishes with the insurgents in Herzegovina from Feb. 16th to the close of the month, the Austrians lost 116 killed and wounded, including ten officers.

Mr. F. W. Fisk, money clerk at the American Express office, Kansas City, Mo., was interviewed by the reporter. Mr Fisk said the St. Jacobs Oil is known to about every express manager and employee of the company, and is used by them for a variety of ills, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, etc. Mr. Fisk stated that he had been using it for a long time for sprains and bruises, and always found relief. Upon one occasion, while getting off a train, he slipped and hurt his knee very badly. The hurt was so severe that it laid him up. He applied St. Jacobs Oil and was restored very soon. Mr. Fisk says the Oil is the best thing he knows for taking soreness out of one's limbs after violent exercise. When in college he used to be a boating man. All the college crew used St. Jacobs Oil for the above-mentioned purpose. It seems to be understood generally as the quickest and surest remedy for all soreness of the flesh, and pain arising from sprain or muscular contraction. He also recommends it to all sufferers of rheumatism.

A family in Sharon, Vt., have drunk eleven barrels of cider in four months. One of the members drank four barrels without any assistance from the others.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

SWAYNES

OINTMENT

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. An pleasant, economical and positive cure. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is a vegetable preparation, free from poison, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps. 3 cans, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended, to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in affecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—REV. S. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Me.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LYONS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Tyngsdal, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment, as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 2000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitution of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. 1mch21 health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. I can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

WILD WEATHER OUTSIDE.

Wild weather outside where the brave ships go,
And fierce from all quarters the four winds blow—
Wild weather and cold, and the great waves swell,
With chasms beneath them as black as hell.
The waters frolic in Titan play,
They dash the decks with an icy spray,
The spent sails shiver, the lithe masts reel,
And the sleeted ropes are as smooth as steel.
And oh that the sailor were safe once more
Where the sweet wife smiles at the cottage door.

The little cottage, it shines afar
O'er the lurid seas, like the polar star.
The mariner tossed in the jaws of death
Hurls at the storm a defiant breath;
Shouts to his mates through the writhing foam,
"Courage! please God, we shall yet win home!"
Frozen and haggard and wan and gray,
But resolute still; 'tis the sailor's way.
And perhaps—at the fancy the stern eyes dim—
Somebody's praying to-night for him.

Ah me, through the drench of the bitter rain,
How bright the picture that rises plain!
Sure he can see with her merry look,
His little maid crooning her spelling book;
The baby crows from the cradle fair;
The grandma nods in her easy chair;
While hither and yon, with a quiet grace,
A woman flits, with an earnest face.
The kitten purrs, and the kettle sings,
And a nameless comfort the picture brings.

Rough weather outside, but the winds of balm
Forever float o'er this isle of calm.
O! friends who read over tea and toast
Of the wild night's work on the storm swept coast,
Think, when the vessels are overdue,
Of the perilous voyage, the baffled crew,
Of stout hearts battling for love and home
'Mid the cruel blasts and the curdling foam,
And breathe a prayer from your happy lips
For those who must "go to the sea in ships;"
Ask that the sailor may stand once more
Where the sweet wife smiles in the cottage door.

Harper's Magazine.

—The Ledger, of Easton, Md., says that a valentine sent by a youth in Washington to a girl in Easton recalls the story of a name of note in American history. The name of the sender of the missive is Return J. Meigs, and the same Christian name has been in the Meigs family for several generations. Many years ago, in ante-revolutionary days, Jonathan Meigs courted a young lady who rejected his addresses. Meigs continued to love the girl, and, though too proud and sensitive to try a second time to win her, he determined never to marry any one else, and to live and die a bachelor unless she, of her own volition, relented. After a few years the lady did relent, or perhaps got to know her own heart better, and sent a letter to her former suitor. Meigs got the letter and found in it only the two words, "Return, Jonathan." It was enough. Jonathan did return and made her his wife. Their first child was baptized "Return Jonathan," to commemorate the brief letter that saved the Meigs family from extinction, and from that day to this there has been a Return J. Meigs in every generation. The sender of the valentine referred to is the grandson of M. C. Meigs, late quartermaster general.

The grand jury in Washington on the 1st inst. returned another batch of indictments in the straw-bond and star-route cases, including two against John W. Dorsey for perjury, and one against John R. Miner for the same crime.

The only scientific iron medicine that does not produce headache, &c., but gives to the system all the benefits of iron without its bad effects, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

China is steadily increasing her armament. A Shanghai paper says this is in view of imminent war between China and Japan.

Take Warning

And don't let the germs of that vile disease, catarrh, take root and flourish in your system. Sulphur Bitters will prevent this and will make you strong and healthy.—Editor.

The foreman of the jury at Pittsfield, Mass., before which suits were begun on Tuesday, Feb. 28th, to recover from Franklin county farmers on notes said to have been fraudulently obtained in lightning-rod transactions, was taken seriously sick in the court room next day, and the cases were continued until the June term.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

A warrant has been issued at Brussels for a German merchant named Peltzer, who is believed to have fled to San Francisco, charged with the murder of M. Bernays, a barrister of Antwerp.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

The remains of Mrs. Sophia Bowen of Bennington, Vt., were found in a deserted house four miles north of Petersburgh, by a farmer, Feb. 28th. Rats had eaten the flesh, and only the skeleton remained. The woman was demented, and probably starved to death.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit, A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Elijah Partridge, a well-to-do farmer of Orland, in Hancock county, Me., shot himself through the head, Tuesday afternoon, 28th ult., with a gun, and died. Insanity was the cause of the act. His age was sixty-five years.

Mr. John Wood, with the American Pottery Co., Trenton, was cured by St. Jacobs Oil of an attack of rheumatism, which had confined him to his bed for seventeen weeks, and his case was thought worthy of mention by the Trenton (N. J.) Gazette. He praises it unstintedly everywhere he goes.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will SEND FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. cod&wly

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Mrs. Betsey Moody of Cash's Corner, Me., celebrated her 100th birthday March 1st. She has three children living, and has good use of her faculties.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1882.

Queen Victoria Shot At.

A despatch was received from London, March 2d, as follows:

The Press Association says Queen Victoria was fired at, at the Windsor Railway station to-day. She escaped unhurt.

Later—The Press Association despatch reporting that the queen was fired at says: "The shot was fired this evening."

Wouldn't Accommodate Him.

A despatch of March 2d from New York says: "In the suit of Pliney F. Babbett, seeking to restrain the Mutual Union Telegraph Co. from issuing certain stock, Judge Blanchard of the United States court to-day refused his application to have the offices of the company examined, or to compel the production of the company's contract in court. The evident object of Mr. Babbett in making the application was to get an insight into the company's business, to which he, as the representative of rival interests, was not entitled."

The Salmon Falls Shooting Case.

The hearing in this case occupied the day on the 1st inst., and it was given to the jury in the afternoon. The verdict was that Wentworth was guilty of committing an aggravated assault. Possibly the jurors may have considered that Wentworth had already been somewhat punished by the two bullet wounds he received.

Floating Coffins.

In the British house of commons, one day this week, Mr. Caine called attention to the missing steamers City of Limerick and City of London, and pointed out that they had both been lengthened. He asked that the board of trade should order the survey of any similar steamers of the same line. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, president of the board of trade, said he had written to the owners of the City of Limerick, but his letter remained unanswered. The vessel, he said, was not insured at Lloyds. He had no official information as to the ownership of the City of London. The board of trade have already once had damages adjudged against them for detaining the City of Limerick, but they nevertheless would still consider it their duty to detain such steamers whenever sailing from the United Kingdom.

News and Notes.

The total number of widows made by the loss of the four Gloucester fishing schooners which are supposed to have gone down in the great gale of Feb. 5th, is said to be twenty-two, and the number of children made fatherless sixty-two. Many of them are in destitute circumstances.

A large collier has been wrecked off Yarmouth, Eng., and twenty-three persons drowned.

In some parts of Canada it is stated that the ground is frozen to the depth of seven feet.

Herbert Lawrence, the oldest shipbuilder in the country, died at New York on Tuesday, 28th ult., aged 104 years. He built near the Battery, in 1817, the steamer Bellona, which was commanded by Cornelius Vanderbilt.

While unloading cans of nitro-glycerine from a wagon at the magazine near Bolivar, N. Y., Tuesday night, Feb. 28th, an explosion occurred, killing John Grant and William Orcutt. The wagon was torn to kindling wood, and two horses killed. The whole front of the magazine, containing 1,000 pounds of glycerine, was torn off, but the compound did not explode.

In the six-days foot-race in New York, at one o'clock P. M. on the 2d inst, Hassel overtook and passed Rowell, the champion, who had previously led by a long distance, the score then standing: Rowell 392 miles, Hazael 392. At three o'clock Hazael's score was 402, Rowell's being still at 392.

Rev. Edward E. Hale will soon sail for Europe. He is going to Spain with his artist daugher, who intends to copy there some of Velasquez's pictures.

The house committee on coinage has reported a bill relative to the coinage of gold and silver coins, and to provide for the issue of paper certificates for bullion. The principal changes in existing coinage laws proposed by the bill are, first, the one dollar and three dollar coins are stricken from the list of gold coins, and the trade dollar from the list of silver coin; second, the standard silver dollar, coined as now provided by law, is made the unit of value; third, the subsidiary silver coins are made of full standard value, and all the gold and silver coins authorized by law are made a legal tender for all sums at their nominal value. The bill also proposes an extension of the plan of issuing silver certificates based on deposits of silver bullion.

At the Biddeford republican caucus, Wednesday evening, 1st inst., Elisha E. Clark was renominated by acclamation as the republican candidate for mayor.

A grocery clerk in this city, seeing some men going up the stairs leading into city building last evening, followed them, thinking that there was some entertainment or lecture in the hall. The gentlemen were going to the Masons, it being regular lodge night, and the unsuspecting young man followed them into their rooms. What happened to the young man while there will never be known, only to Masons, for he will never tell. It is known that he came down stairs and hurried away, with a look on his face bothering between fear and perplexity.—Biddeford Times.

Ex-Senator Aaron A. Sargent, who has been nominated as minister to Berlin, began the work of life as a journeyman printer.—Exchange.

He began well up. Most printers begin their professional life as "devil;" and only get to the honors of a "jour." after several years of service.

Bart Harte's Complete Works.

Houghton, Mifflin & Co. have in preparation for early publication a new and complete edition of the works of Bret Harte. It will consist of five volumes, crown octavo, printed from entirely new plates with attractive type, on paper of choice quality, and the books will be bound in the best and most tasteful style of the Riverside Press.

The contents of these volumes have heretofore been distributed through fourteen different volumes, varying widely in form and typography. The many admirers of Bret Harte will be glad to procure his works in this new and very desirable library style. The arrangement of these volumes has been made by Mr. Harte himself, who prefixes to the edition an introduction. A fine portrait of Mr. Harte forms the frontispiece to the first volume.

The first volume, now issued, contains Poetical Works, (including, with many new poems, the volumes originally published under the titles of "Poems," "East and west poems," and "Echoes of the foot hills,") and the dramatic piece "Two men of Sandy Bar." Mr. Harte, in the introduction, gives some account of his first publications, and tells us of the first reception of the "Luck of Roaring Camp," which shocked the ideas of a California publisher, but which called forth from a house of cultured Boston, then noted for its refined notions, a request for a similar story for the Atlantic Monthly. The poetical works and drama make a book of four hundred and fifty pages.

The poems of Bret Harte have been read in newspapers and magazines all over the country. He has been a popular writer at home, while in England his books have been regarded as prominent among the most distinctively national products of American literature.

The price of this edition will be $2.00 a volume, ten dollars for the complete set. Sold by Willis G. Myers, Congress street.

Bracing Up a Society Belle.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal thus describes the course of grooming and diet necessary to keep life in a society belle during "the season:"

The institution of lent brings rest for the weary, swollen feet which last week danced day and night from Monday to Saturday. "How does your daughter stand it?" I asked of a mother whom I met at the Bachelors' german last Friday night. She answered by telling me that the same woman who took charge of her daughter when an infant still had the care of her, and always waited until her young mistress returned from a ball; then she undressed her, gave her a sponge bath, rubbed her well, and, after administering a cup of hot beef tea, tucked her in bed and left her to sleep until noonday, or longer, if she was so inclined. As soon as the young lady awoke she was fed with beef tea, or some food equally nourishing; in short, she was treated as she would be if seriously ill, and in that way she kept fresh for the afternoon dancing receptions, and the germans at night. Nothing was expected of her but to enjoy herself and rest when she was tired, so she could continue to participate in the gayeties while the dancing season lasted.

AROUND HOME.

The Biddeford Times says that "Mr. F. Philbrook, of Portsmouth," is to open a store in Biddeford for the sale of boots, shoes, hats, caps and furnishing goods.

Rev. Mr. Gardener, of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will officiate in St. John's church Sunday.

Mr. A. T. Goodrich, the veteran of the Great bay smelt fishermen, has this season paid close attention to the industry he has followed for so many winters, and is undoubtedly "high line of the smelt fleet," having taken many more fish than any other smelter on the bay.

The Board of Instruction calls for $19,500 for the current year. This is $500 less than last year, a retrenchment that is not only gratifying but might well be imitated by other branches of our city government.

Mr. Theodore Keen, proprietor of the ferry line to Kittery Point, is visiting New York for the purpose of purchasing a steamboat larger than the Fearless, to be placed upon the route from this city to Newcastle and the point.

Joshua L. Foster, Esq., of Dover, has been admitted a member of the board of trade of that city, and the branch railroad to Barrington, to connect with the Nashua & Rochester railroad, the Rochester end of which line is controlled by the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroad companies, will be speedily—written up.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessments. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, March 2d, Mayor Sise in the chair:

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

A letter was received from the Alta Manufacturing Co., asserting that Ald. Slater had not received the slightest personal benefit from the company's sale of street lamps to the city.

The mayor reported that the committee on the north mill-pond question had held their first meeting; the general opinion of the committee was that something should at once be done, but one member thought the tax-payers were not ready to approve of a large expenditure. A petition for a large sewer through the pond had been circulated by the city messenger, and had been signed by a large number of the heaviest tax-payers.

Ald. Hartshorn moved that an engineer be employed to estimate the cost of such a sewer.

Ald. Caswell asked if this had not already been done, and suggested that the city had no money to spend needlessly. It would be necessary to dredge the pond.

After some further talk, Ald. Hartshorn's motion was agreed to.

Met the Common Council in convention, to elect an assessor to fill a vacancy. President Anderson of the council nominated Lewis G. Davis; Ald. Green nominated Samuel Barrett. A vote was taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	19
Necessary for a choice	10
Samuel Barrett had	7
Lewis G. Davis	12

And Mr. Davis was declared elected. The convention then rose.

The mayor reported that the street commissioner had not as yet received from the Eastern railroad authorities any answer to his communication concerning the fencing off of Russell alley.

A message was received from the council, calling the attention of the board to Chapter 48, Sec. VI, of the city ordinances, and to Sec. XVI of the joint rules, relating to expenditure of money in excess of the appropriations, and asking that their provisions be adhered to. The mayor read the sections referred to. On motion of Ald. Vaughan, seconded by Ald. Martin, the subject was laid on the table.

The mayor said that for several months there had been vacancies in the council, and the council was at fault in not having them filled.

In answer to a question by Ald. Green, the mayor said he thought it would be best to correspond with Prof. Folsom fo Boston, a Portsmouth boy, relative to the expense of his coming here to examine the pond, and make an estimate.

Ald. Stavers, from the committee on claims, reported recommending that W. J. Welsh have leave to withdraw his claim for damages. Adopted.

Ald. Green asked for information concerning the prospective removal of the Wilson house on Vaughan street.

Ald. Stavers said he and Ald. Hartshorn had called on Mrs. Wilson, who demanded $125 as damages; this was considered too much, but the alderman thought an agreement might be made by spring. [How about the $75 already paid by the city on account of this property?]

Notice of intended adjournment was sent to the council; the council gave notice of further business, and the board took a recess.

On resuming, a message was received from the council, asking that committees of the board on the several departments act with the similar committees of the council, to ascertain the amount of money that will be necessary in each department during the ensuing year, preliminary to drafting of the appropriation bill.

The mayor said it was usual for the finance committee to do this duty, and this was a very unusual proceeding; during the seven years he had been connected with the city government, nothing of this kind had taken place.

Ald. Noyes moved that the message of the council be laid on the table for one week, which was agreed to.

The committee on claims reported in favor of refunding to Wm. L. Dwight the sum of $63.51, taxes paid under protest in 1870. After discussion, the report was accepted and tabled.

Adjourned for one week.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

At the fifteenth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of New Hampshire, held in this city recently, Comrades A. S. Twitchell, W. H. D. Cochrane and J. C. Linehan, as a committee on resolutions, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Since our last annual encampment, besides many of our own state comrades, the muster-out roll has added to its long list of heroes the names of Gen. James A. Garfield and Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, two of our most eminent comrades, one stricken by the bullet of the assassin, and the other mustered suddenly out by the Grand Commander of us all, both being in the height of their usefulness, and honored as only the brave soldiers are honored by a grateful people; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we gather around our camp-fires in gladness because of our glorious land we have helped to save, and in happy greetings of the living, we will not forget our greater duty to our fallen comrades, but bear our faithful tribute to their memory; and especially, at this most fitting time, to these two dead heroes, whom not only soldiers delighted to honor while living, and now mourn as dead, but around whom the multitudes gathered in life to pay grateful homage, and over whose untimely graves the whole world bows in grief, and

Resolved, That while cherishing their memories always in our hearts, we will enter this tribute on our records, that it may be seen as well as felt, and that a copy be forwarded to the family of each in token of our sympathy, and with the assurance of our undying fidelity to them as wards of the Grand Army of the Republic.

THE CHAPEL-FUND LEVEE.

The social entertainment given in Franklin hall on Wednesday evening, March 1st, by the young people of the Middle street Baptist society, proved to be an entire success in every respect; although the receipts fell a little short of what was anticipated, (owing to the stormy evening,) yet by its complete arrangement the funds for their new chapel will be increased by a number of dollars.

The hot oysters, hot coffee, cake and ice cream were served by the polite and attentive waiters in a manner that was highly appreciated by all. The beautiful and fragrant button-hole bouquets which lent their perfume to the scene were from the hot-house of Hon. Frank Jones. The music lending its charming influence made it a scene long to be remembered.

The exercises of the evening were opened by a symphony concert under the direction of Prof. McIntire, which had its effect upon the audience, its merits being appreciated by continuous applause; great praise is due the entire orchestra for the music so finely rendered. The singing by Mrs. Chas. A. Sinclair and Mrs. Williams was of that character and sweetness of tone so prevalent with these ladies. "Summer Shower," as sung by Mrs. Sinclair, was extremely delightful, and "Suwanee River" was sung by Mrs. Williams to perfection.

The whole concluded with "David Copperfield's reception," every character being well sustained by the company. Much credit is due the committee of arrangements for the whole affair. By request it was announced that the entertainment will be repeated at no distant day.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Recent transfers of real estate in this vicinity, as left for record in the office of the register of deeds:

Portsmouth—Sophia J. Moran to John S. Treat, land and buildings on Creek street, $2000; Hannah J. B. Marden to Charles S. Whidden, land, $1; Mary O. Larkin et al. to Alfred O. Larkin, land and buildings, $5000.

Hampton—Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth to Wm. A. Lewis, land, $100.

North Hampton—Simon H. Leavitt et al. to John Leavitt, land, $1050.

Of "Our Goblins," which is to be presented at Music hall this evening, the Manchester Union of Thursday says:

Mitchell's Surprise Party played to a light audience at the opera house last evening, and gave a pleasing entertainment. The piece is a sort of medley of drama, comic opera and burlesque, and with Mr. Wm. Gill, the author, in the title role, was creditably performed. The dialogue, though slangy, was lively, and the burlesque on the society drama, grand opera and tragedy was clever. It presented some good singing, especially that of Miss Emma Carson. A Spanish air in which she sustained a high note for a remarkable length of time with ease and clearness, was heartily and deservedly encored.

The lecture advertised to be given by Mr. Fred O. Ellis in Franklin hall on Thursday evening last, on "The west, and what it offers to the home-seeker," was not delivered, owing to the smallness of the audience. We have heard that Mr. Ellis is a very pleasing lecturer, and that the advantages which the great west holds out to the thrifty emigrant from the Atlantic coast are set forth by him in a very interesting manner.

An inch and four-tenths of rain fell between 7:25 o'clock A. M. on the 1st inst. and 3:30 P. M. on the second, according to the rain-gauge at the navy yard.

The price of eggs has dropped five cents a dozen within a few days. The hens are evidently settling down to spring business.

Mr. A. K. Brown's teams during the month of February hauled from Newton's fish wharf to the Eastern railroad station 480 boxes of fish, averaging 500 lbs. to the box, a total of 240,000 lbs. Nearly the whole of this quantity was hauled at night, and placed on the cars in time to arrive in Boston early in the morning.

Commodore Theodore D. Wilson, chief constructor of the navy, in obedience to a call from the navy department left this city last Thursday afternoon for Washington, to enter upon his new official duty as chief of the bureau of construction and repair of the navy.

Col. A. H. Young, on retiring from his long service as collector of internal revenue, will devote his energies to his large agricultural interests in Madbury, and to the development of the new telegraph company of which he is resident director. Hon. Emmons B. Philbrick, of Rye, is said to be the coming man for deputy collector in this part of the state.

Wm. H. Alexander, formerly of this city, and for several years conductor on the Concord railroad, has been appointed fuel agent of the Concord railroad and branches.

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 5,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Naval Affairs.

Rear Admiral George H. Cooper, who has been in command of the Brooklyn navy yard since May, 1880, and who was lately promoted from the grade of commodore, has been ordered to relieve Rear Admiral John H. Wyman of the command of the North Atlantic squadron on April 1st. He will hoist his flag on the Tennessee. Great efforts have been made by his friends to have Admiral Cooper remain in command of the navy yard, but it was his own desire to have sea-service. Admiral Cooper was appointed to the navy August 4th, 1837; and he has seen twenty-three years and one month sea-service, and eighteen years' other duty. He will retire on account of age in 1884, and will probably command the North Atlantic squadron until that time. He will be relieved by Commodore John H. Upshur. The admiral, while a lieutenant, was on duty at the Kittery navy yard.

The president on the 1st sent to the senate the nomination of Assistant Naval Constructor William H. Varney to be a naval constructor.

New Hampshire Items.

The Lexington mills at Laconia have been bought by a man from Philadelphia, who will manufacture worsted goods.

Senator Bayard has accepted an invitation to make the address at Dartmouth college on the 28th of June, the centenary anniversary of Daniel Webster's graduation.

There is talk of placing a steamboat on Long pond in Concord.

J. W. Norris, a merchant and postmaster at Rice, Texas, was assassinated Feb. 14th. He was a native of Nottingham, and left a widow. Mr. Norris was a brother of Maj. W. B. Norris, late of the confederate army, and now a heavy lumber merchant in Lake St. Charles, La.

Maj. Francis Flanders, who died at Sturgis, Mich., Feb. 8th, was born at Colebrook, Dec. 22d, 1820. He served in the Florida and Mexican wars.

James B. Scott, dealer in liquors, tobacco, etc., at Manchester, has been attached, and his stock is to be disposed of at sheriff's sale.

On the 18th ult., in Dover, Annie Ashworth, daughter of William Ashworth, slipped on the sidewalk near Cocheco block, and those interested say she was seriously injured. A day or two ago notice was served on the city clerk by Mr. Ashworth that he will sue the city for $5000, if the city does not pay him $300 within thirty days for damages done his daughter by the accident.

Samuel Strickland has been examined at Hillsborough, charged with selling mortgaged property, and with mortgaging property without admitting a previous mortgage. The case was continued. He was also charged with selling liquor, and was committed for trial.

A Western paper says: Nothing will cure some sick men more quickly, than an office, properly applied.—This 'cure' may be very successful in many cases, but we would say: If a man suffers from a cough or cold, give him Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Col. B. H. Corning of Lancaster, who has been for some time in charge of the upper sections of the Montreal railroad, has been appointed superintendent of the line from Woodville to Groveton, and from the Wing road to the base of Mt. Washington.

Look at Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Weekly Sun.

Ira Husted and B. Toby, two counterfeiters who had been successfully plying their trade for fifteen years, were arrested at Belle Plaine, Iowa, Feb. 28th.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

Shumway, Burgess & Co.'s iron works at Chicago, Ill., were demolished on the 1st inst. by the explosion of a boiler; loss $6,000. Only one person was injured.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

Poke Wells and Bill Norris, noted train robbers and burglars, attempted to escape from officers on a train near Riverton, Ia., on Tuesday, Feb. 28th. Wells was shot six times, and Norris five. They will probably die.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended, to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials prad as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. COCHRAN, Williamsburg, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. R. EVERETT, Dickerson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—D. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Drugist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation known. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, Del.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed, I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

DR. WALTON writes from Cosheocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was better on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For chills and fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical—

ELY'S CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased potency as a rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 2000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

has enabled them to attain such perfection that they can with confidence ask you to test the quality of their work. They carefully avoid all poisonous drugs, make only fast colors, which are thoroughly washed in hot water and soap, thereby removing anything which would stain underclothing.

Those who buy and wear their prints will, they feel confident, find them superior in durability, artistic style and finish. Be sure and ask for their goods, and see that their marks and tickets are on them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 13, 1882.

I HAVE this day disposed of my Job Printing Office, located in the Chronicle Building, to MR. RICHARD I. WALDEN, who has been for a number of years Foreman and Job Printer in the office of the Portsmouth Journal.

Mr. Walden is well known to the public as a careful and skillful printer, and I can conscientiously recommend him to my patrons and to the public generally as a good mechanic and a worthy young man.—As such, I bespeak for him the patronage that has been so generously accorded to me.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

The New Congressional Districts.

The new apportionment bill has been approved by the president, and after the present Congress is at an end this state will have but two representatives. In anticipation of this action, the legislature last June redistricted the state.

The counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Belknap and Carroll, and the towns of Allenstown, Canterbury, Chichester, Epsom, Hooksett, Loudon, Northfield, Pembroke and Pittsfield, in the county of Merrimack, and Bedford, Goffstown, Merrimack, Hudson, Litchfield, Manchester and Pelham, in the county of Hillsborough, constitute the first district.

The counties of Cheshire, Sullivan, Grafton and Coos, and the towns of Andover, Boscawen, Bow, Bradford, Concord, Danbury, Dunbarton, Franklin, Henniker, Hill, Hopkinton, Newbury, New London, Salisbury, Sutton, Warner, Webster and Wilmot, in the county of Merrimack, and Amherst, Antrim, Bennington, Brookline, Deering, Francestown, Greenfield, Greenville, Hancock, Hillsborough, Hollis, Lyndeboro, Mason, Milford, Mont Vernon, Nashua, New Boston, New Ipswich, Peterboro, Sharon, Temple, Weare, Wilton and Windsor, in the county of Hillsborough, constitute the second district.

Pinkeye has broken out among the horses at Toronto, Can. In the stables of the street railway company forty horses are laid up with it.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet, balsamic specific.

On Monday, Feb. 27, half a dozen employes in the card room of the Monadnock Blanket company, at Marlboro, were taken sick, and on the following day nearly all the help in the mill were suffering from similar symptoms, which a physician pronounced to be those of metallic poisoning. The cases all yielded to antidotes in a few hours. It is supposed the poison was inhaled from a bale of rags used for shoddy.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; Parsons' Exterminator. Barns, granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

Capt. James Andrews, a native of Sutton, died at Memphis, Tenn., on Sunday, Feb. 26th. He was engaged in steamboat and grain business. Capt. Andrews was an energetic and upright merchant, and had many friends. His age was about forty-six years, and he was unmarried.

The only scientific iron medicine that does not produce headache, &c., but gives to the system all the benefits of iron without its bad effects, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Col. Charles Sanborn, a prominent and much respected citizen of East Kingston, died very suddenly Wednesday evening, March 1st, while sitting in a chair reading a newspaper. He was a colonel in the old New Hampshire militia. He represented the town in the legislature in 1840 and 1842, and was state senator in 1849 and 1850. His age was seventy-six years.

Only two Bottles.

Messrs. Johnson, Holloway & Co., wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of Gen. John C. Fremont, governor of Arizona, had been cured of catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—You have struck a bonanza in your Cream Balm, for the cure of catarrh, hay fever, etc., and it justly merits it. The sales are constantly increasing. Yours truly, M. A. LYON & BRO., Druggists, Montrose, Pa.

Chief Engineer John H. Long died in New York on the 2d inst. He entered the service in June, 1861, and was commissioned chief engineer Nov. 10th, 1863. He has been stationed in New York on special duty since 1878.

Our correspondent was favored with the following from C. H. Wood, Esq., of the C. & T. railroad, Port Huron, Mich. After suffering for nearly a year with rheumatism, receiving treatment from the best physicians of Michigan and the west, I happened to try a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. Upon the first application I used fully half a bottle, and its effect was almost instantaneous. I immediately dropped all other treatment, and confined myself to its use alone. After the use of three bottles, instead of being driven to my business, or moving about on crutches, I walked from one to three miles daily about business, and have been free from this horrible disease for over a year, not having the slightest twinge of it. Hence I say that all medicines known to me are useless when compared with the old German remedy. Use this statement when and where it suits.

By Universal Accord,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use, by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative Pill that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use, and being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other Pills can be compared with them; and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effectual, they are especially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild but effectual cathartic is required.

For sale by all druggists.

Paymaster S. D. Hurlburt has been sentenced to suspension of duty for five years, on three-quarters pay, for conduct unbecoming an officer.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette !

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a week's invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local circles whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Moses Rogers of Kingston was arrested in Lake Village, by Deputy Sheriff Lang, on suspicion of stealing a horse and sleigh. The accused, owned he took the team in or near Haverhill, Mass., Monday night, 27th ult., and did not know the owner.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Attempted Assassination.

Despatches received on the 3d give the name of the would-be assassin as Roderick MacLean, with particulars as follows:

There was a large crowd of spectators awaiting the queen's arrival at Windsor. The queen walked across the platform of the railway station to her carriage, which was waiting to take her to the castle, and John Brown had already ascended to his seat behind the carriage, when a man standing at the entrance of the station yard, among a number of spectators, pointed a pistol at the carriage and fired. To judge from the report, the pistol was not heavily loaded. The queen was immediately driven to the castle, but before she passed, the man had been seized by superintendent of borough police, who was standing near by. He was also violently seized by the crowd, and was only rescued from them when three or four policemen came to the superintendent's assistance. The pistol was captured by one of the crowd. MacLean, who was miserably clad, was conveyed to the police station in a cab.

As soon as the queen arrived at the castle she ordered an equerry to proceed to the depot to inquire if any one had been hurt. The report of the pistol was sharp, but not loud. MacLean apparently intended firing again, when the revolver, which seemed to be a new one, was knocked from his hand by a bystander, and handed to the police. MacLean is twenty-seven years old, and says he is a grocer's assistant. The doctors pronounce him sane. The revolver is a six-chambered Colt's, American make; two chambers were found loaded, and two had been recently discharged. Fourteen ball cartridges were found on the prisoner. MacLean says hunger actuated the crime.

The Leg Match.

The sudden drop of Rowell, the champion long-distance runner, to the second place on the list, on the 2d inst., greatly increased the interest in the match, and the attendance of spectators that afternoon and evening was greater than at any time since the race commenced. At half-past six in the evening Fitzgerald passed Rowell, whose score was then 398. At 11:15 Sullivan and Hart caught up with Rowell, who dropped to 5th position, and the score at midnight was as follows: Hazael 433, Fitzgerald 413, Sullivan 409, Hart 409, Rowell 406, Noremac 392, Hughes 382.

On the 3d Rowell retired from the contest, his tremendous score of the first day having ruined his chance of winning, by breaking him down. The score at three o'clock in the afternoon was as follows: Hazael 503; Fitzgerald 479; Hart 460; Noremac 456; Sullivan 440; Hughes 430.

Mr. Conkling Confirmed.

In the United States senate, March 2d, Hon. Roscoe Conkling was confirmed as associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. The vote on confirmation is said to have been thirty-nine yeas to twelve nays, the latter being composed of eight democrats and four republicans. There were no formal speeches, and nothing was said against Mr Conkling's fitness for the supreme bench. The four republicans voting against his confirmation were Hoar, Dawes, Morrill and Hawley.

A Murderer Commits Suicide.

Nelson L. Fuller, awaiting sentence in prison at Windsor, Vt., for the murder of Mr. Witham at Reidsboro', hanged himself with his suspenders in his cell on the 2d inst. He was found and cut down ten minutes later, but could not be rescusitated. He left a note for the superintendent, telling him not to blame him, for he could not help it, that he was obliged to do it; also requesting that his body be sent to his wife. Melvin Witham was shot through a window while going to bed, on the night of Aug. 22d. Suspicion was first attracted to Fuller by threats he had made against Witham, and he was convicted on very strong circumstantial evidence.

News and Notes.

The Malleys of New Haven, Conn., claim that their loss on goods and building by the late fire was between $125,000 and $200,000. The Hartford Courant hints that there was over insurance (there is known to be $132,000) and that the mystery of the fire should be investigated.

Terrible overflows were on the 2d inst. reported along the lower Mississippi. Nearly the whole of Mississippi county, Ark., was under water. At Carson's Landing, La., the levee gave way on the night of the first, drowning three persons; another crevasse, at Riverton, Miss., one hundred and fifty miles above Vicksburg, drowned several persons, and a large is district under water. The Memphis & Little Rock railroad is damaged to the amount of $500,000.

Alderman Jones of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been held to bail in $150,000 to answer to a charge of receiving a portion of the enormous sum, nearly $300,000, stolen by the late secretary of the board of education, who is Jones' brother-in-law. The stealings extended over a period of nine years, and the secretary and Jones were prominent members of the democratic ring which so long ruled that city.

J. Rowley shot Sheriff Hopkins dead at Verona, Mo., Feb. 27th, to settled an old feud.

H. C. Cabot, late city clerk of Carthage, Mo., has been arrested charged with setting fire to the city hall, which was burned ten days ago. Many of the records were destroyed.

The Baptist church in Dodd City, Texas, was demolished, a two-story dwelling destroyed, and several residences removed from their foundations, by a cyclone on the 1st inst. No one was killed, but several persons were injured.

Hon. Aaron A. Sargent was on the 2d inst. confirmed as minister to Germany, without a division of the senate. Mr. Sargent is a representative New Englander, who started in life without any advantages save those contained within himself, and by his own unaided energy and ability long ago forced himself into prominence and influence.

Three men who were guarding non-union workmen from attacks of strikers at the Bessemer steel works in Homestead, Pa., on the 2d inst., were set upon by a mob and fatally beaten.

Small-pox is raging at Port au Prince; the schools and churches are closed, and the Protestant residents solicit the prayers of all Protestant churches. On Sunday, Feb. 5th, there were thirty-six deaths, on Monday forty-five, on Tuesday fifty-three, and on Wednesday sixty-three.

Francis Reilly, known as "Fiddler Reilly, the Fair Haven hermit," who lived many years in an old boat moored at Fair Haven, Conn., died on the night of the 2d inst. under suspicions of foul play. The police are investigating. The deceased was reported to be immensely wealthy, but no money was found among his effects.

Ex-Senator Sharon lost his eldest daughter, Mrs. F. G. Newlands, of San Francisco, about a week ago. She was a brunette, slight in figure and winning in manner, of a retiring disposition, shunning rather than coveting display.

Dr. Vidal having resigned the presidency of Buenos Ayres, the chambers have elected Senor Santos to succeed him. Tranquility prevails.

The local authorities of Danbury, Conn., apprehending trouble in consequence of a strike and "lockout" in the hat factories, and the attempts of the strikers to prevent other persons from working, on the second inst. notified the governor of the state that they were likely to need help, and he ordered the first regiment of militia to be ready to move at once.

In the Parliamentary election at Northhampton, England, March 2d, Mr. Bradlaugh received 3798 votes, and Mr. Corbett 3687. Mr. Bradlaugh is the man who has so often been elected a member of the house of commons, and as often refused a seat on the ground that he is an atheist.

A train ran off the track at Parkersburg, W. Va., on the night of the 1st inst., ran into a store and set it on fire, and the whole train was burned. The engineer and fireman were killed.

The first proof of the new five-cent postage stamp, bearing a vignette of President Garfield, is to be presented to Queen Victoria by the American Bank Note company. The stamp is set in a frame of ebony, containing a mat of sterling silver, upon which is engraved an exquisite border of fine geometric lathe work. This is surrounded by a rod of solid gold nearly a quarter of an inch in diameter, cut in barley-corn work of new design with brilliant facets. This rod is between the silver matting and the royal purple velvet on the concave portions of the frame. A French plate glass, with bevelled edges, covers the picture and matting, and the whole is enclosed in a fine cedar box lined with royal purple velvet.

A despatch of the 2d inst., from Littleton, was as follows: "The rain of the past two days has raised the streams, breaking up the ice and doing great damage. An abutment under one railroad bridge here was taken out. At Franconia one bridge is carried away and another seriously damaged, while the streets are covered with water and broken ice. At Bethlehem Junction water is two feet deep over the railroad track, and has driven some parties out of their homes."

—When a Buffalo man asked a thief to tell him how to prevent being robbed on a sleeping car the reply was: "Make the porter think you are deaf."

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—par assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

I. F. WATERHOUSE.

Rev. Ivory F. Waterhouse died on Thursday, March 2d, in Belmont, Mass., of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks.

Mr. Waterhouse was born in Auburn, Me., in 1832, and when twenty-five years of age was ordained pastor of the Broad street Christain church in Providence, R. I., from which place he was called to the pastorate of the Christian church in this city. For a short time he served as chaplain of a New Hampshire regiment, and later he was the New England agent of the denomination with which he had previously been connected as a minister. From 1869 to 1873 he was the pastor of the Unitarian church of Clinton, Mass. During the latter year he removed to Boston, and became a missionary for the Children's Mission. His life there was saddened by the sudden death of his two children. After a service of four years at the mission, Mr. Waterhouse was called to Belmont by the Unitarian society of that town, of which he was pastor at the time of his death. He leaves a widow.

GARFIELD.

The Garfield Monument fund committee are anxious to complete the work of raising $250,000 required to erect the proposed monument to the martyr President.

Residents of Cleveland have paid nearly $75,000. Ohio will raise not less than one-half the required sum, and a like amount is asked to be raised outside of that state. Of this, but $25,000 had been subscribed at the begining of the present year. It is now arranged that the required sum shall be apportioned to the different states and to local committees within the states, and immediate action by such committees is desired.

The sum designated to be raised in Portsmouth is not large, and the subscription may be regarded as a popular contribution. The Cleveland committee in furtherance, and in aid of suggestions made by His Excellency Gov. Bell and in conference with Hon. Wm. E. Chandler, have designated Messrs. William H. Hackett and Elbridge G. Pierce, Jr., as the sub-committee in this city to receive donations. Such contributions, however small, as persons who may in no other way be called upon than through the medium of the papers are disposed to make, can be left at the post-office with the clerks, or placed in envelopes directed to the committee.

THE MILLPOND TROUBLE.

Mr. Editor: It is encouraging to me, after having lived for years within easy nose distance of the north millpond, to know that the city government is talking in earnest of doing something to abate the high flavor of that beautiful but oftimes unsavory sheet of water. Dr. Parsons, in his paper on the health of our city read before the local medical society, expressed disbelief in the theory that the foul odors from the pond are productive of zymotic diseases; the doctor also said, however, that the odors are mighty unpleasant, and yearly grow worse, (which I knew before, and so did many others,) and should be at once abolished.

The plan proposed to effect this end, viz., a sewer to run from the upper end of the pond to the tide of the river, picking up by the way all the sewerage of the south side of the pond, must be carried out before any permanent relief from the perennial annoyance can be effected; but even if this is done it will not give immediate relief unless the pond is dredged of its accumulated mass of filth, at least in its upper part. The mere dredging of the pond I have no doubt would give immediate relief, but it would be only temporary, for without the sewer the causes which have brought the pond to its present condition would do the same thing again. If objection is made to dredging the pond for the Eastern railroad to fill up again, the answer is that the railroad has no right whatever to fill the pond, or any part of it. Let us hope that something will be done in the premises—drain, or dredge, or what not—before the hot weather of next summer sets in.

The Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. have just paid through W. C. Robinson, their agent in this city, $5062.99 to Mrs. Aaron Akerman, being in settlement of a policy on the life of the late Aaron Akerman for $5000, and the dividend on the same for last year.

"Blue birds have come," is what a Newington contributor wrote us on the 3d inst. We hope the coming weather will not be such as to convince the birds that they are "too previous" this year.

The seventy-fifth birthday of Leavitt H. Yeaton, of Rollinsford, occurred on the 27th ult., and a large number of his friends met at his home in Rollinsford and gave him a surprise. In behalf of his visitors he was presented with an elegant gold-headed ebony cane. The old gentlem n is remarkably vigorous for a man of his years, hale and hearty, and has the present winter had the entire care of twenty-three head of cattle. Mr. Yeaton is a brother of Moses Yeaton, Esq., of this city, and has long enjoyed the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends in Strafford and York counties.

The Newington school will keep open until the first of April, instead of closing as usual on the Friday before town-meeting, as the school has a good teacher this winter, and the selectmen have plenty of money to carry them through.

On Friday forenoon last a young urchin, anxious to dispose of his wares, while passing through the different rooms on the second floor of Mechanics' block descried a second flight of stairs, which he promptly ascended, and flinging open the door of Smith's Academy announced in a voice like a steam calliope, "Man'ster mornin' papers," to the surprise and amusement of pupils and teacher alike. The patronage received by the young news-dealer was not such as to induce him to call again very soon.

Mr. Charles Hodgdon of Newington, while cutting wood on Tuesday of this week for Mr. John A. Hodgdon of Portsmouth, living on Gosling road near the Newington line, was in the act of splitting his last stick when the axe glanced, cutting through his boot and penetrating his foot on the instep to the depth of an inch. He will probably be laid up for some time, though fortunately no cords were cut.

From the large quantity of ice which came down the river on the 2d and 3d insts. with the ebb tide, it was apparent that the ice on the creeks and Great bay was breaking up.

On Thursday evening, March 2d, the Newington folk had a nice supper and sociable in the town hall, a large number being present. In the early part of the evening there was speaking, reading and singing by the older and younger people of the town; supper was served at half-past ten o'clock, and dancing was next in order, music being furnished by the Newington band. Dancing was kept up until midnight, when the gathering dissolved.

Hon. Thomas L. Tullock, assistant postmaster of Washington, has been in town for a brief visit. It is said that a portrait of the Ex-Secretary of State is soon to be found suspended in the State House at Concord, and that the visit of our former townsman was paid principally at the studio of Tenney.

Jos. V. Knights, son of Mr. Jos. G. Knights, superintendent of the Portsmouth shoe factory, has been granted a patent on a burglar-alarm which it is claimed surpasses anything of the kind now before the public. Master Knights is but seventeen years old, and is supposed to be the youngest patentee in the country.

Portsmouth is rapidly declining in population since the destruction of its large cotton mill, and there seems likely to be no revival of industry beyond navy yard employment, in that region. Recently, there was an attempt made to introduce competing telegraph facilities, by establishing an office of the Mutual Union Telegraph Co., whose lines pass through the city; but severe opposition was shown by the collector of the port, Sheriff Kent, Mayor Siee, and several of the "representative" men, who were opposed, last summer, to increased railroad facilities. One would suppose that if the fish business did not require the use of a telegraph line, the summer visitors might appreciate it; but the "sleeping beauties" on the Piscataqua long opposed the erection of telegraph poles in the streets, until a compromise resulted in the poles being placed in some back streets, so that the quiet aspect of the city might remain undisturbed.—Belknap Tocsin.

A Quaker's "Friendly Scuffle."

When Lee's graybacks were making their way through Pennsylvania towards Gettysburg, two infantry men belonging to Pickett's Virginians raided into a Quaker's house in search of something to eat. They were met at the door by the owner of the premises, who asked:

"Are ye rebels?"

"You bet we are!" was the blunt reply.

"And what do you wish here?"

"Fodder, old man; and don't keep us waiting for it!"

"If thee wishes for something to eat thou canst have it," said the Quaker to the spokesman, "but I trust that thee will take nothing from the house."

It was a poor trust. After the boys had finished their meal one of them pocketed a watch which was hanging on a nail, and the other seized upon a silver cream-pitcher as a token of remembrance.

"Are ye thieves as well as rebellious citizens?" indignantly demanded the old man as he confronted them.

"Stand aside and let us out, or we'll damage you!"

"Verily, I will not! Thou must not rob my house."

"Never mind him, Bill—Quakers don't fight," called the one in the rear. "Hit him a clip on the chin, and then run for it."

"Truly, I shall not fight," calmly observed the disciple of Penn as he pushed up his sleeves and spit on his hands, "but if in a friendly scruffle to recover possession of mine own the robbers should get injured, I shall not have to answer to my conscience."

There was a "friendly scuffle" in the next minute, and one of the trio, who is now a resident of Richmond, vividly remembers having the jaw-ache for a week after, while his companion complained of sore throat, dizziness, lame back and depressed spirits. All the remarks made after the scuffle commenced were simply a few words dropped by the Quaker to the effect that:

"I am sorry to put thee out, and sorry to damage thee, but it is better that thou should go thy ways up the pike towards destruction."

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, giving immediate relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. cod&wtjan22

Geo. W. Brown, 48 Marshall St., Providence, R. I., cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) of a Ringworm Humor got at the barber's which spread all over his ears, neck and face, and for six years resisted all kinds of treatment.

SKIN HUMOR. F. H. Drake, Esq., agent for Harper & Bros., Detroit, Mich., gives an astonishing account of his case (eczema rodent), which had been treated by a consultation of physicians without benefit, and which speedily yielded to the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

SCALD HEAD. H. A. Raymond, Auditor F. W., J. & S. R. R., Jackson, Mich., was cured of Scald Head of nine years duration by the Cuticura Remedies.

ECZEMA. Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST. Mrs. Bowers, 163 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust (eczema) externally, which completely resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR. Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT. The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, the Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

A GOOD DIVIDEND-PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, is as much as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, saving no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, stitched by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Congressmen on a Naval Cruise.

The members of house committees on naval affairs, appropriations and commerce, accompanied by several United States senators and naval officers, the latter representing the navy department, left Washington on the 3d inst. for Philadelphia, to visit the League Island navy yard for the purpose of determining whether it is expedient to undertake the work of finishing the double-turretted monitors there, or whether the work can be better accomplished by private shipbuilding establishments at Wilmington, Delaware, or Chester, Pa. The party intended to stop at each of these last-named places en route to Philadelphia, for the purpose of visiting the private ship yards.

Information Needed.

The London Times and Standard, in their comments upon the assassination of President Garfield by Guiteau, asserted that the crime was the legitimate offspring of a democratic theory of government, and the naturally-to-be-expected fruit of a century of democratic rule. Perhaps they will now explain to us what theory of government is responsible for the attempt to assassinate the queen of England, after many centuries of monarchical and aristocratic rule.

A Book for Canvassers.

Judge Tourgee of North Carolina, the famous author of "A Fool's Errand" and "Bricks without Straw," has added to his series of striking historical studies another work, entitled "A Royal Gentleman." In dramatic power, in romantic interest, and in literary finish, it is the author's masterpiece.

When we consider that in a little more than one year, hundreds of thousands of volumes of this author have been put in circulation among the reading and thinking people of America—books dealing with the deepest and most important problems of our natural life, and yet popular, because set forth in the blazing, fascinating light of fiction—we know that the author must be making a profound impression upon his day. There is scarce an instance in literary history of so sudden a rise to so proud an eminence. Judged by the sale of his books, which has been one of the most rapid in the history of book-publishing, Judge Tourgee stands to-day the most popular of American writers. A book from his graphic pen is therefore a literary event.

It is safe to say that all who have read "A Fool's Errand" will desire to read "A Royal Gentleman;" and as it is to be sold exclusively by subscription, thousands will welcome the coming of the canvasser. The book is handsomely illustrated. For particulars address D. L. Guernsey, 61 Cornhill, Boston, Mass.

Perry's reservior in Dudley, Mass., covering about forty acres, washed out on the 2d inst., carrying off forty rods of the embankment of the New York & New England railroad.

The little daughter of the editor of the Tiffin, Ohio, Daily Star was immediately and permanently relieved of a severe cough by three doses of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. A twenty five cent bottle of this valuable remedy will cure the worst cough.

Mr. Morse's "Life of John Quincy Adams," the first volume in Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s series of "American Statesmen," will be issued shortly. Mrs. Amory's biography of her ancestor, John Singleton Copley, will appear at the same time.

From the cradle to the grave all are subject to coughs and colds. Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a certain cure in the most obstinate cases. New trial size, 10 cents.

Mr. Habberton has again opened the nursery door, and is soon to publish through T. B. Peterson & Brothers a domestic story called "Mrs. Mayburn's Twins."

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My a ms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

A new novel by George Parsons Lathrop is about to appear from the press of J. R. Osgood & Co. The title is "In the Distance," and it is entirely an American story, with strong situations and decided contrasts of character. The scene is laid around and upon Monadnoc, which may almost be rated one of the characters of the story. An English edition will be brought out about the same time by Sampson Low & Co.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after gettingwarm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. As a pleasant, speedy and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. stamps, 3 boxes, $1.35. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this inestimable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—I. R. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARNES SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Me.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—SYMON Lewis, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—R. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. F. ROTHER, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance, the fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. I was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday her fever was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Dealers are cautioned against a bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing it thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as proved will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effect.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 1000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

FANCY DRESS PRINTS

The EDDYSTONE PRINT WORKS is one of the largest and most complete establishments in the country.

THE EXPERIENCE OF HALF A CENTURY

has enabled them to attain such perfection that they can with confidence ask you to test the quality of their work. They carefully avoid all poisonous drugs, make only fast colors, which are thoroughly washed in hot water and soap, thereby removing anything which would stain underclothing.

Those who buy and wear their prints will, they feel confident, find them superior in durability, artistic style and finish. Be sure and ask for their goods, and see that their marks and tickets are on them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

Salem and the East India Trade.

The arrival at Salem of three vessels from Calcutta—the ship Mermon and barques Chalmette and Rambler—this spring, with the probable arrival of two or perhaps three others in the following summer and autumn, has revived once more the interest in Salem commerce. There are still abundant facilities for handling foreign cargoes in Salem, if the capital is forthcoming for the construction of wharves along the water front of Winter island, which abuts directly upon the channel, and affords ample opportunity for the dockage of vessels of the largest draught, with deep water at all stages of tide. Vessels drawing twenty feet are now accommodated at the Pennsylvania pier, where the steamers of the Philadelphia & Reading company discharge cargoes of coal averaging over sixteen hundred tons each. On the Beverly side the opportunities are even better, with an amount of filling to the extremity of Beverly bar less in amount than that required for the North river improvements which are to be carried out. The vessels expected there are all laden with jute butts for the Nevins Bagging company. No better means of shipment could be desired than that already afforded directly from the wharf to the interior by the Eastern and Boston & Lowell railroad lines.

—There is a very general demand for a reception for Mr. Sullivan when he returns to Boston. The best people want him received by the grand jury.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters

Are a cheap and simple remedy for dyspepsia and billiousness in all their worst forms. It is a well known preparation, and has been known and endorsed by physicians for many years, and has been used by thousands of sufferers in all parts of the world as a standard and reliable remedy.

A twenty-months-old child of Martin Woodman of New Hampton fell into a kettle of hot water on Friday last, and died in a few hours.

Wheat Bitters are not an intoxicant or another name for whiskey, but are a perfect blood, brain and nerve food.

The engine house at Fisherville, (ward one, Concord,) with Pioneer engine, hose, furniture, etc., were destroyed by fire on the night of the 3d inst. Loss about $2,000. The city has an insurance on the property. The fire was incendiary.

Mr. P. D. Etue, Kansas City, Mo., one of the proprietors of the Commercial Indicator, says he knows the St. Jacobs Oil to be a most valuable remedy for rheumatism. Last winter, Mr. Etue says he had this disease in his left shoulder. The pain was excessive at times, and so severe while attacks lasted as to cause a strong desire to have it speedily eradicated. After vainly resorting to several remedies for relief, without success, he at last hit upon the great German remedy. He experienced decided and immediate relief from its use, and was entirely cured with the fourth application. Since then he has entertained a very high respect for the curative powers of the Oil. This respect is not at all lessened by its happy action in the case of his wife, who subsequently suffered with inflammatory rheumatism. She contracted the disease while visiting in Colorado. Upon arriving home the St Jacobs Oil was used in conjunction with prescriptions for internal administration, and materially aided in her restoration to health.

Frank Cable, aged twenty-three years, belonging in Chesterfield, was drowned at Milltown, N B., Friday, while at work on a dam of the St. Croix cotton mill. His body was not recovered.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

Messrs. Saunders of Lowell and Lawrence, Mass., and others of the Gratton County Lumber company, own 60,000 acres of heavily timbered land among the White mountains, a large part being contained in the town of Livermore, where the company's mills are located. At the present time two locomotives are kept busy night and day, and two gangs of men are employed transporting lumber. Over 300 men are employed, the employes and their families making up the population of the town—about 500. About 12,000,000 feet of lumber will be sawed the present year.

From the cradle to the grave all are subject to coughs and colds. Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a certain cure in the most obstinate cases. New trial size, 10 cents.

Rev. W. C. Dawson, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal church at Hanover, has accepted a call from St. Paul's church, Burlington, Vt., and will enter upon his duties there after Easter.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

Over one hundred men are employed on the new Pemigewasset Valley railroad cuts and bridges at Plymouth, Campton and Thornton. Five hundred new steel rails have been unloaded at Plymouth for the road.

Take Warning

And don't let the germs of that vile disease, catarrh, take root and flourish in your system. Sulphur Bitters will prevent this and will make you strong and healthy.—Editor.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

And now it is hinted that there was foul play attempted — only attempted, mind—in connection with the New York six-days' race. Harry Hill, the New York sporting character, says he knows it as a fact that a certain sporting man offered Madden $5,000 to poison Sullivan. Another well known sport offered $4,000 for the same object.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

At Kennebunkport, Saturday, the coroner's jury returned a verdict that Mrs. Pulsifer came to her death through criminal malpractice.

There is untold suffering among the fair sex, which Wheat Bitters will relieve, and turn weakness into strength.

The Leg Match.

At midnight on the 3d the six tramps left in the contest had the following scores to their credit: Hazael 540, Fitzgerald 513, Noremac 496, Hart 488, Hughes 470, Sullivan 462.

The sixth and last day of the race commenced with Hazael more than twenty-six miles ahead of Fitzgerald, the second man. At two o'clock A. M. the score was: Hazael 541, Fitzgerald 519, Noremac 501, Hart 495, Hughes 470, Sullivan 468.

The race closed in the evening, the distances made being as follows: Hazael 600 miles, Fitzgerald 577, Noremac 555, Hart 542, Hughes 535, Sullivan 525.

News and Notes.

MacLean, who shot at Queen Victoria's carriage, was at one time confined in the lunatic asylum at Wells, Eng., and afterward in the Weston-Super-Mare asylum. It is said that he was also at one time an inmate at the insane asylum in Dublin.

Barque Mary Lawton, from Liverpool for Baltimore, was struck by a sea Feb. 2d, completely wrecked, and six of the crew drowned. The captain and four others were picked up by barque Norma, and landed in Philadelphia on the 4th inst.

An amusing mistake was recently made at Bangor, Me., by a newspaper editor. He was invited to "a feast of reason and flow of soul," and, mistaking the occasion for a republican mass meeting, he made a speech in regard to the "state steal."

A gross outrage was perpetrated in the cemetery at Birmingham, Conn., last Thursday. The grounds were despoiled by wholesale, twenty-five slabs being pulled down and broken. The damage is estimated at $1,000. The borough is greatly excited. As a crowning act of the outrage, the marauding gang of ruffians stole an oil street lamp on Cemetery avenue and threw it into an unoccupied barn, but it did no damage.

After much debate the Iowa state senate has agreed to a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. The measure now goes before the people.

Statistics show that the shipping arrivals and clearances at Chicago during 1881 were nearly two thousand more than those at Baltimore, Boston, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Portland and San Francisco combined.

At Cleveland, Ohio, two robbers of a freight car on the Lake Shore road Thursday night were captured after a revolver fight, in which twenty-eight shots were exchanged. One of the robbers was fatally wounded. None of the train hands were hurt.

A sculling match has been arranged between Edward Hanlan of Toronto and Edward Trickett of Sydney, N. S. W., for £500 a side, to take place on the Thames on the 1st inst.

New Hampshire Items.

Pat Fitzgerald, the second man in the late six-days' race in New York, was the winner of a ten-mile race at Granite State park in Dover on July 4th, 1879, when he was entered under the assumed name of T. L. Young. There was considerable growling among the local sporting men, but Fitzgerald won the stakes easily, and his backer, who of course knew he was a professional pedestrian, made a good deal of money by betting on him against the field.

The faculty of Dartmouth college have suspended, until June 1st, four members of the sophomore class who had most to do with abducting the freshman on Feb. 21st.

Deacon Joseph Ham, the oldest man in Canterbury, is dead, aged ninety-three years. He was a deacon fifty years.

Miss Grace Babcock of Lewiston, Me., a local violinist of some note, has hung up the fiddle and the bow, and the stage will know her no more. She bade farewell to Lewiston on Wednesday morning of last week, and in company with her intended visited Dover, N. H., where she became Mrs. Ernest Rische. Mr. Rische and his wife will reside in Texas, where the husband is treasurer of an opera house.

A SUGGESTION.

Mr. Edior: I see by your paper that the Wilson house on the extension of Vaughan street is a veritable "lion in the way" of the aldermen's finishing the street,—or perhaps I might say, a bear, which the aldermen have seized by the tail, and now find it difficult to hold on to while not daring to let go. If your reports of the city government meetings have been correct as to this matter, the sum of $75 was some months ago paid by the city as damages to the Wilson property, that being the award of the county commissioners; and now we are told that the widow of the late Mr. Wilson demands $125—whether in addition to the previous payment or not the public are not informed. Now I have a suggestion to make, by acting on which the board of mayor and aldermen can get out of the jammed-up position in which they seem to be at present as regards the Wilson property. It is this:

Don't move the house at all, nor try it, for it will tumble to pieces if stirred; let it stop where it is, and use it for a lamp-post. The new street needs lighting, for on dark nights it is not used at all by teams, though in daylight nearly the whole traffic between Christian Shore and the main portion of the city passes through it. The payment of $75 must have given the city some claim in the premises, and the placing of a gaslight on the ridge-pole of that end of the house which sticks out in the street would serve the double purpose of lighting the rest of the street, and warning travellers not to run into the at present dangerous obstruction. Then if anybody's team or neck should be broken by collision with the house, the city could plead the lighting-up of the obstruction in mitigation of damages.

Charles W. Gerrish, son of Capt. Edwin A. Gerrish, and clerk with Mr. J. Albert Walker at the Portsmouth coal-pockets, died in New York on Saturday last, of scarlet fever. Deceased was a youth of much promise, and was best liked by those who knew him best.

Mr. E. B. Rundlett, son of Gideon H. Rundlett, Esq., in company with a family formerly of Newburyport is carrying on a large farm in Cherokee, northern Iowa, the market town being Sioux City. Forty horses are worked on the farm.

Hon. Frank Jones has secured the services of Mr. George F. Thompson as manager of the Rockingham house, Portsmouth, and the Wentworth house, Newcastle, N. H. Mr. Thompson is the son of the late J. M. Thompson, so many years the popular proprietor of the Glen house, White mountains, and brings to his new position great experience in the business. Under his able management, as heretofore, the Wentworth will prove one of the most popular of New England seashore resorts.—Boston Post.

Mr. Asa Brown, of Raymond, was in town last Friday with a view to getting up a company to work mineral deposits recently discovered in Raymond. He had with him specimens which it is said assay $40 of gold to the ton, with some silver; the vein has been traced for twenty miles. A gentleman named Shaw, of Kittery, an old quartz miner in the western territories, on being shown the specimens said they looked very promising.

Persons passing near Market square late Saturday evening might have supposed from hearing the sharp fusillade going on in the rear of the police station that a pitched battle was raging. It was only the police shooting unlicensed dogs. Many other canines will emigrate to another world within the next month, unless their owners walk up to the captain's office and settle.

We are pleased to learn that Wm H. Gardiner, son of Jos. H. Gardiner of this city, has been appointed chief clerk in the bureau of education at Washington, at a salary of $2500 per year.

THE RED MEN'S DANCE.

Newichewannock Tribe, No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, had their first annual sociable in Franklin hall on Friday evening. Harlow's orchestra furnished the music, and dancing was kept up until two o'clock next morning; the attendance was large, there being quite as many dancers as could get around with comfort, and a considerable number of spectators in the gallery. Messrs. Joseph F. Berry, Edward E. McIntire and Thomas E. Call, Jr., were the managers of the affair.

The grand march was led by Gen. Josiah G. Hadley, who though long ago noted as a manager of assemblies and grand balls, had not for thirty years attended a dance previous to this one. Mr. E. P. Johnson and wife, and Mr. Eliot and wife, of Manchester, were present, both the gentlemen named having belonged to Newichewannock tribe up to the time a wigwam was set up in their own city; while a member of the Portsmouth tribe, Mr. Johnson attended nearly every council fire that was kindled for three years. Postmaster Pierce, Calvin Page, Esq., Alderman Slater, Ex-Alderman Norton and many other prominent citizens were among the guests.

WEEKLY FISH REPORT.

The receipts of fish at this port for the week ending March 4th show much the best results for a long while, forty-nine vessels landing 381,900 pounds of fish from off-shore grounds, against twenty arrivals the week previous with 89,300 pounds. The wholesale prices averaged $4.50 per hundred for the best. Herring have been plentiful, but there have been no halibut or smelts in the market. A summary of the fish receipts for February gives a total of 440,178 pounds, against 136,700 pounds in January.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 to $1 75 each.

The quality of the western cattle in market during the past week has not been of so good a grade as those in one week ago. Cattle c st higher at the west, but drovers said it was impossible to sell beef cattle as high by 1-8c per lb as they realized for the same grade of beeves last week. Most of the beeves were sold at prices ranging from 5 3-4 to 6 3-4c per lb live weight. The supply of cattle was light and most of them were sold out early upon arrival at the yards.

Working Oxen—Not in very active demand. We note sales of 1 pr, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight 2200 lbs, at $117; 1 pr, girth 5 ft 8 in, live weight 2700 lbs, at $125; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight 2400 lbs, at $125; 1 pr, girth 5 ft 8 in, live weight 2700 lbs, at $125.

Milch cows and springers—Good cows are in demand and sold at a fair prices. We note sales of 1 extra new milch at $70; 1 do $75; 1 do at $60; 2 springers for $70; 2 do for $90; 1 new milch cow at $50; 1 Jersey at $42.

More Cattle—Only a few in market. Prices for small cattle depend much upon their value for beef. We note sales of 14 three-years-olds at $34 per head or 4c per lb live weight.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from the west were all owned by butchers and cost from 5 1-2 to 7 1-2c per lb landed at Brighton.

Swine—Fat hogs cost, landed at the slaughter houses, from 7 to 7 3-4c per lb, live weight.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safer and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends—safer than savings banks. Most durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00.—Very desirable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

THE NEW LANDLORD.

Mr. George F. Thompson, son of the late J. M. Thompson, widely known as a former proprietor of the Glen house at the White mountains, has been appointed manager of the Rockingham and Wentworth hotels.

We are pleased that so judicious a selection for this important place has been made. Mr. Thompson possesses traits which admirably adapt him to successfully fill the new position. He is a good business man, and thoroughly familiar with the many requisites for the successful management of an establishment like the Wentworth. He is of gentlemanly bearing and agreeable manners, and has a very extensive acquaintance. His experience in the Glen house, and as agent for the Eastern railroad in the White mountain region have constantly made him familiar with the wants and tastes of the large number of visitors who come to New Hampshire every season for enjoyment, rest and summer sojourn; and we think we but reflect the sentiment of a very large circle of acquaintances and friends of the new manager when we assert that he will prove to be the right man in the right place.

Mr. Jones, whose sagacity has never permitted him for one moment to lose sight of the fact that in filling the position now to be assumed by Mr. Thompson a man possessing many accomplishments was needed, has had many suggestions as to the desirability of different gentlemen for the place, but after giving the subject full consideration, he offered the situation to Mr. Thompson.

The new manager is by no means a stranger to our people; at one time he filled the position of ticket agent at the Eastern railroad station in this city; subsequently he was placed in charge of the general ticket business of the line at the White mountains; and these duties were discharged to the entire satisfaction of the railway management. Again, many of our residents have known him when he was connected with the Glen house,—and here we will say that there is no part of the varied duties in a large hotel like the Glen or the Wentworth, where must be gathered for the season a large corps of employees, and the details of the duties of whom must be arranged for a season's operations oftentimes at a short notice, where Mr. Thompson can be found at all unfamiliar.

When we are entertained at a magnificent summer hotel, and everything seems to be served with as apparent little effort as is seen in similar places in the large cities, we are not apt to think of the vast amount of preparatory organization which has preceded the service we are enjoying. But for this especial duty there can be no doubt as to Mr. Thompson's capacity, any more than in the belief that each guest entertained by him will receive that courteous treatment which in places like the Rockingham and Wentworth is never to be lost sight of.

The success of a leading hotel like the Wenwtorth, none the less than the acceptable manner in which the Rockingham house should be kept, is something in which we all have a deep interest. Nature has been lavish in attractions around our city, and the manner in which our summer visitors are to be entertained is a concern of no small import to all our people. We have not only every hope, but all confidence in the ability of Mr. Thompson to abundantly maintain the high repute of the Wentworth, as well as to make the Rockingham one of the most attractive and enjoyable places of sojourn in New England; and while we feel like congratulating Mr. Jones upon his display of good judgment in the selection, we will not omit to felicitate our community that in the new manager they will find a gentleman in every way worthy of their confidence, esteem and hearty support.

ALBERT R. HATCH

Died at his residence on Livermore street in this city on Sunday afternoon. For some time past he has been in failing health, but until quite recently he had been attending to his professional duties, and only for a comparatively few days since had he been confined to his home.

Mr. Hatch was born in the neighboring town of Greenland, and received his earlier education at Brackett Academy. He subsequently graduated at Bowdoin college, and read law with the late Ichabod Bartlett in Portsmouth. After his admission to the bar of this county, in 1841, he began the practice of his profession in this place, and since has had a very large practice. In his studies as well as in his legal labors he was untiring. No case, large or small, in which he appeared, was ever presented save with the most careful preparation, and a thorough knowledge and investigation of the law pertaining to it, as well as a familiarity with the evidence to be adduced upon the side upon which he was engaged.

For him the law had attractions, and though fond of miscellaneous reading and of the social circle, and at times interested in political and other engagements, he never allowed his professional labors to cease, or in any way to be curtailed by other pursuits. He was devoted to the interests of his clients, and believed that the trial of a cause was the best solution of a legal conflict. The lawyer who had Mr. Hatch for an opposing counsel always found him on the alert, prepared at every point to contest every inch of ground at the trial.

Mr. Hatch was by no means a man who sought positions of honor or trust. He believed that such distinction should come to a man without being solicited on his part. In politics he has ever been an uncompromising democrat, and while that party was in power in state and nation he frequently filled positions of honor and responsibility. Under the town government he was repeatedly chosen town agent, and after the adoption of the city charter he was the solicitor of the city. He served more than one term as county solicitor. During the erection of the custom-house building in this city, he held the office of disbursing agent, a position tendered to him by his lifelong friend, President Pierce.

He was prominent in masonry, being a past master of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, F. & A. M.; past high priest of Washington Chapter, No. 3, R. A. M.; past eminent commander of DeWitt Clinton Commandry, K. T., (of which he was chosen eminent commander for twenty five years in succession,) and a past eminent grand commander of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of New Hampshire; a member of Ineffable Grand Lodge of Perfection: Davenport Council, Royal and Select Masters; Council of Princes of Jerusalem; New Hampshire Chapter of Rose Croix; Consistory of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, 32d degree; and also of the 33d degree, the highest degree of the Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite of the Northern District of the United States.

On the fifteenth of July, 1848, Mr. Hatch was appointed by Judge Woodbury as clerk of the circuit court of the United States, a position he filled to the entire satisfaction of the court and the bar down to his resignation of the office on the first of June, 1873. He was also clerk of the United States district court from July, 1848, to 1867.

Several years ago Mr. Hatch removed to his late residence, the well known Livermore house, then in ward three, and in 1873 and 1874 he was one of the representatives to the legislature from that ward. He was chosen speaker for the latter session, and discharged the duties of the position with no small degree of ability. This service, added to his extensive legal practice, caused him to be largely known throughout the state, and he was strongly urged to allow his name to be used for the appointment of judge of the supreme court, but he always when this subject was broached to him asserted his preference for the bar, rather than the honors of the bench.

In our city affairs, Mr. Hatch has done his share of public service, as good citizenship required. He was many years a member of the school committee, serving with distinction and with great fidelity in the office of chairman of the high school committee until relieved of the duty at his own instance. He has also been an alderman, and notwithstanding his political friends were in the majority he bodly and constantly advocated a reduction of expenditures by a decrease of officials and salaries, even when many expectant office-seekers persistently represented that it was their turn to enjoy the results of a municipal victory.

For many years he served as a director on the Portsmouth Athenæum and he was one of the trustees selected by Hon. Frank Jones when that liberal gentleman attempted to devote his salary as mayor towards the establishment of a public library. At the time of his decease he was a director of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, in the construction of which he ever evinced a decided interest, and was quite instrumental by his pen and voice in procuring the enactment of the requisite legislation, state and municipal, by which the cities of Dover and Portsmouth were authorized to subscribe for stock in the enterprise.

In all these positions, and in others which we do not at present recall, Mr. Hatch never lost sight of the interests of his clients, and his attendance at courts in Rockingham and Strafford counties was constant. Here he appeared in a very large number of cases which were to be tried by the jury, and he never left a session of the court, however distant from his home, until the last detail of business had been properly attended to. After his resignation as clerk of the circuit court his practice in the Federal courts was large. The last equity case which was tried at the October term of the circuit court was ably argued by him, though at the time his voice was much weakened, and those who listened feared he was overtaxing his waning powers.

His friends advised rest and attempted recuperation by a total abstinence from business, but Mr. Hatch insisted that he preferred to "die in the harness" than to attempt late in life to be an idle man. This he never could be. If he took relaxation, it was in visiting his lands in Greenland, where he always shew a great interest in agricultural affairs, out-of-door exercise in his garden, or in mechanical pursuits, for which he shew a decided taste.

Mr. Hatch has for forty years filled a prominent place at the bar, and in business and social circles in Portsmouth. Decided and outspoken as to his opinions, while he had in political contests many fierce opponents, he nevertheless had hosts of personal and professional friends, all over the state, who have regretfully witnessed his declining health, and will now deplore his departure not only as a personal, but as a public loss.

THE "ACUSHNET."

The screw steamer Acushnet, having received a new boiler, had her engine extensively overhauled, and in other ways been greatly improved since she was taken off the line between this city and Boston last fall, will recommence her trips on Thursday, the 9th inst., leaving Congress wharf, Boston, for this port, at ten o'clock in the forenoon on that date. It is confidently expected that her speed will show a great increase over what it was last year, in which case her passenger patronage will show an increase to correspond. She was a safe and comfortable boat before.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Montreal Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—London Times.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Greene County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slight est faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The "United Service" for March contains, among other papers of interest, the concluding numbers of "Superstitions and Legends of the Sea," and "The Artillery of England; the "Personnel of our Ships' Companies," by Lieut. Todd, U. S. N.; "The Uniform of the Navy;" "Is a Court-Martial a Criminal Court?" "The Bermuda Floating Dry Dock;" "Something of the navy fifty years ago," and other contributed articles, with the usual editorial notes and reviews of "service literature." Published by L. R. Hamersly & Co., Philadelphia; price $5 per year, postage paid; fifty cents per single number.

The "Art Amateur" for March has the usual array of designs for china painting, needlework and other art work, including a striking frontispiece design for a portrait plaque. The Water Color Exhibition is pungently reviewed by Clarance Cook, and some of the more notable paintings are handsomely illustrated. Interesting illustrations of Greek vases, Limoges enamels, mediæval ironwork and stained glass, Arabic decorations, French jewelry, and old furniture and needlework are also given. Among the numerous valuable features of this number are "Hints to Young Artists," by President Huntington of the National Academy; instructions for "Photographic Painting in Water Colors;" suggestions for the "Decorative Transformation" of a commonplace apartment into an artistic one; directions for furnishing a "Doctor's Consulting Room," and instructive articles on painted enamels, embroidery for bedrooms, underglaze painting, and woman's dress. The Art Amateur's claim to be best practical art magazine is admirably sustained. Price $4 a year; single numbers, thirty-five cents. Montague Marks, publisher, No. 23 Union square, New York.

Then and Now.

In ante-war days farmers would bring us potatoes in payment for the Union at twenty-five to thirty cents per bushel. The paper was $1.50 a year. At the present time the price of the Union being two dollars and potatoes ninety cents; formerly five bushels for a year's subscription, now but a little more than two bushels. As between printers and farmers the latter have the best of it. When potatoes were thirty cents, eggs were ten cents, butter twelve to sixteen cents, beef, pork and other farm produce at like rates. The rise or advance in price is largely against the newspaper man, as will be seen by comparison.—Machias (Me.) Union.

—So long as Guiteau is kept in jail, there is no danger that he will have another "inspiration."

—In a trial before a justice at Dodge City, Kansas, a witness who was being bullyragged by a cross-examining lawyer called on the court for protection. The judge handed him a pistol. "I have no further questions," said the lawyer.

Life is too short to try half a dozen different kinds of "sure cures;" when one suffers with a cough or cold, stick to the best and use Dr. bull's Cough Syrup; it will cure your cough and never disappoint you. All druggists sell it at twenty-five cents a bottle.

At a recent meeting of citizens of Bangor, Me., a plan of subscription for the purpose of raising $200,000 to aid the Shore Line railroad from Bangor to Calais was adopted, and a committee appointed to raise the money, which will be placed in the hands of trustees until paid over to the corporation.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

A coroner's jury has found that John Miramble, aged eighty years, who was recently found dead near his home at Woodbury, Vt., came to his death from exposure on account of his wife's neglect.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

C. J. Lansing of Eureka, Nev. a prominent lawyer, shot his wife dead last Thursday evening, and then gave himself up to the police.

Look at Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Weekly Sun.

Bob Jones (white) and Bill Miller (colored) were hanged at Aberdeen, Mass., Friday, for the murder of three brothers named Walker near Aberdeen on the 26th of November last.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

SWAYNE'S

OINTMENT

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. Any ointment, ignorantly and improperly called a Pile Ointment is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in Stamps. 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, Dr. Swayne & Son, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For twenty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—MARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. H. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORD, Lavendon, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM Lewis, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. E. HOUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOVER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKESON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: YOUR PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his fever was cleft. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased potency as a stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgorities, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tuch21

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 28th.
For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing Brown's Iron Bitters advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
Mrs. L. F. GRIFFIN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

In the supreme court at Dover at the late term there was tried the case of Gen. Alfred Hoitt vs. Tax Collector Burnham, of Durham. It came out at the hearing that the plaintiff refused to fill out the inventry blank, and the result was the selectmen "doomed" him four-fold under the law. Upon refusal to pay the tax the collector seized the general's horse, and sold it, taking from the proceeds the levy, and paying over the balance to Hoitt. The jury was out a short time, and returned a verdict the the collector.

Geo. W. Hutchins of Dover has been granted a patent for a lasting-jack. Adams T. Peirce of Dover has a patent granted for a driving-rein.

Hon. Warren Clark has been elected superintendent of schools in Concord.

John J. Williams and William Egan, both of Boston, were arrested in Nashua Sunday, for numerous burglaries in the latter city and vicinity. Some of the stolen property was recovered, and the thieves acknowledged their guilt.

Mrs. Mary E. Henderson, widow of Howard Henderson, has filed a claim of $10,000 against the city of Dover, in consequence of her having broken her leg in two places, Feb. 22d, by a fall on the sidewalk.

Don't Throw Stones.

A little girl named Lucy Cutter, daughter of Mr. L. F. Cutter, of West Somerville, Mass., died on Thursday last from the effects of a blow from a stone thrown at her by another little girl, several months ago. This is the second death which has occurred from stone-throwing in Somerville, besides the serious wounding of a ten-years-old girl named Jesse Finlay a few days ago, by a stone thrown by a boy of her own age.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit, A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

The Iowa legislature has appropriated the sum of $150 to purchase a gold medal for Kate Shelley of Boone, the young girl who saved a train load of passengers from death a couple of years ago by crawling across a trestle in a furious storm on a dark night. A medal is well enough in its way, but Miss Shelley ought to have a pension.

There is much speculation as to what St. Jacobs Oil really is; it comes not from the promptings of curiosity alone, but because its virtues are such as to amaze all who use it. Mrs. Hamet, No. 1684 Third avenue, New York, gives her opinion of St. Jacobs Oil substantially as follows:—"For a number of years I have been a great sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism. It was chiefly confined to my right shoulder, but would sometimes extend to the extremities. Often the attacks would be so severe and the pain so intense that I became completely prostrated and unable to use my arm, which seemed to be paralyzed. I tried every remedy I could hear of as likely to afford relief, and more than one doctor, but nothing did me any good until some weeks ago, as a last resort—but an almost hopeless one—I was persuaded to use St. Jacobs Oil, and one bottle of it has effected a complete cure.

Some time ago Mrs. Brown of Allen county, Ky., gave birth to twins. Notwithstanding there is but four minutes difference in their ages, one was born in 1881 and the other in 1882, one in December and the other in January, one on Saturday and the other on Sunday.

I have had a troublesome cough for more than five years, and have had advice of three of the most skilled physicians, but I found nothing to relieve and cure me till I used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. MRS. GEO. A. ROBBINS, Riverside, Me.

In Dawson county, Georgia, a few days ago, a man eighty-five years old ran away with a girl of sixty-five, and married her. The old folks eloped from their children, who opposed the marriage.

Only two Bottles.

Messrs. Johnson, Holloway & Co., wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of Gen. John C. Fremont, governor of Arizona, had been cured of catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—You have struck a bonanza in your Cream Balm, for the cure of catarrh, hay fever, etc., and it justly merits it. The sales are constantly increasing. Yours truly, M. A. LYON & BRO., Druggists, Montrose, Pa.

In Lanesboro, Mass., on the night of the 3d inst., Edward Lyons, nineteen years old, fatally shot himself in a fit of despondency.

The only scientific iron medicine that does not produce headache, &c., but gives to the system all the benefits of iron without its bad effects, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
—THE—
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.
TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local cities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Testimonials.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, October 19, 1870.
R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!
LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.
A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will SEND FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The sexton of the High street church, in Lowell, Mass., some time ago built roosts in the belfry for English sparrows. The birds accepted the proffered hospitality, and now swarm around the belfry, perching upon the hands of the clock in such numbers as to stop their movement around the dial. The sexton has lost his love for the birds.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Mr. Pullman, who is the author of a work called the Pullman palace car, bound in black walnut, and rented to the travelling public at $2 a snore, is worth $10,000,000.

Future Naval Shipbuilding.

The naval officers and naval committee-men, after being lunched by the contractors on the Delaware, admitted that "they were highly gratified with the inspection of the ship yards." It is quite natural that the yards and their surroundings should appear attractive, seen through the bottom of glass vessels presented by Roach's hospitable hands; but what the country needs is, not that its future ships should be built by private parties who will make a fat job of the contracts, but that suitable apparatus should be provided at the government dockyards, for the building of iron ships, and then in case of their needed construction the government would be independent of the contractors, able as heretofore to build its own ships in its own yards, while the Delaware ship-builders could exert themselves in developing iron-ship building for the merchant service.

Portland's Election.

The municipal election in Portland, Me., took place on the 6th inst. At nine o'clock in the evening it was reported that Libbey, the republican candidate for mayor, had 600 plurality over Deering, citizens' candidate; the temperance candidate, Littlefield, had 510 votes, and the result of the election was in doubt.

News and Notes.

At Cleveland, Ohio, on the 4th inst., Alice Wright, aged eighteen years, an actress with the Harrison "Photos" company, was killed by falling from a fourth-story window of the Striebinger house. Her skull was crushed and her brains scattered upon the stones. Miss Wright was an English girl, and her only relative in this country is an aunt who resides in Providence, R. I. It is thought by some that the girl threw herself out of the window.

The banking house of Charles A. Sweet & Co., Boston, suspended on Monday.

Scoville has abandoned Guiteau's case, and gone home. It is rumored that Gen. Butler will take up the case, and endeavor to get the full bench to grant a new trial.

The steamer City of Berlin, overdue at New York, was picked up at sea, disabled, on the 28th ult., by the steamer Samaria, and arrived off Boston light on Sunday night, March 5th. The steamer had broken her crank shaft, and was first assisted by the French steamer Ville d'Alger, and afterward by the Samaria.

Mr. James H. Foss of Newburyport has left for Florida. He has been commissioned by Dr. Loring to report upon the agricultural resources of the state, and especially upon the result of experiments in tea culture which have been made there.

Hon. Roscoe Conkling has declined the proffered judgeship.

The ocean steamers report immense quantities of ice off Newfoundland, in the track of vessels passing between Europe and America. Several steamships have had to run from eighty to one hundred miles south of their course, to escape the ice.

Ah Chee, a young Chinaman, was baptised in the People's Baptist church, Boston, last Sunday evening.

Newport, R. I., has a small-pox scare.

The Tennessee sailed from Hampton Roads for New Orleans on the 3d inst., with a clean bill of health.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. George T. Vaughan and others of this city have bought of owners in Wells, Me., the schooner Chilion, of about eighty tons register, now lying in port at Wells, loaded with box-boards for Lynn, Mass., and with another similar cargo under engagement. She will be continued in the general freighting business, under command of Capt. John J. Call, formerly of the schooner Mystery, and late of the firm of Cole & Cobb, stone workers, of this city.

"Have you the notes of a piece called the Song of Solomon?" asked a man from one of the country towns, at Montgomery's music store recently; "our minister said in the pulpit last Sabbath that it was an exquisite gem, and my wife wants to get it to practice on her melodeon." David always has a supply of psalms, but was out of this particular piece just then.

Mr. William R. Lavender of Melrose, Mass., who has for some time been the efficient New England agent of the associated railroad lines, has been tendered the position of travelling passenger agent on the Eastern railroad, just vacated by the resignation of Mr. Geo. F. Thompson, the new manager of the Rockingham and Wentworth houses. Mr. Lavender has accepted the office, and will enter upon his duties on March 10th.

John May, of Newmarket, committed suicide on Wednesday of last week, by taking laudanum. He had been on an excursion, during which he squandered about $1000, the greater part of a pension payment he received a few months ago. Deceased was a carpenter, and worked in this city for years. The remains were brought to this city on Saturday for burial.

Mr. J. W. Norris, who was assassinated in his store at Rice, Texas, on the night of Feb. 14th, was the youngest son of Wm. Norris, Esq., formerly of Nottingham, and now residing at Hampton. He leaves a wife, but no children. Two brothers, W. B. Norris, a prominent lumber dealer and cotton broker in Galveston, Texas, and Abbott Norris, a merchant at North Hampton; also one sister, Laura Norris, a well known teacher in Hampton, survive him. The deceased formerly resided in Newmarket, and visited there about two years ago. He was postmaster and a trader in Rice, and on the evening of the 14th ult. had closed his store and was about to go home, when he was accosted by a stranger, who said he wished to purchase something. Mr. Norris returned to the store, and upon entering it the stranger suddenly pulled out a revolver and shot him, then turned and fled; his object is unknown. His victim lingered a short time, but was unable to identify his assailant.

Mr. Charles Bird, a prominent citizen of Revere, Mass., and largely interested in the improvements at the Point of Pines, died on Saturday last. His wife was Miss Almira Caswell, of Rye.

The excavator "Little Giant" is going on the marine railway at Kittery for repairs. The scows will also be hauled out and examined.

Mr. Oliver Bracey, proprietor of Bracey's mill, York, and well known in Portsmouth as an extensive dealer in charcoal, was one of the persons injured by the Boston & Maine railroad accident at Cole's Corner, Wells, and was confined to his house for twenty days. He has settled with the company.

Mr. Melvin P. Welch, of the Spruce creek district, Kittery, recently lost three horses with the pinkeye.

Messrs. Gunnison, Moulton & Co. are turning out from their shop in East Eliot one thousand ladder rounds daily, which they ship to Mr. C. W. H. Moulton's ladder works at East Cambridge, Mass.

A paper at Rockland, Me., having recently stated that the ship "Gen. Knox," of 2217 81 tons register, built at that port, was "the largest ship ever built in Maine," a Kennebunk paper says: "This is a mistake. To this town belongs the honor of having sent from its yards the largest ships ever built in the state. One of them, built in 1874, exceeds the 'Gen. Knox' in size by three hundred tons government capacity. The 'Ocean King' measured 2516.15 tons, and the 'St. John Smith' measured 2220.44 tons. There have sailed from Kennebunk other ships exceeding 2000 tons—the 'Philena Winslow,' of 2117.41, tons and the 'Pharos,' of 2001.91 tons."

PAYING THE ASSESSORS.

Portsmouth's board of assessors numbers nine persons, who get $26 a year each, a total of $225. Dover's assessing of taxes is done by a board of six, and last week the compensation of the board for 1882 was fixed at $800, the sum of $200 for back pay being also voted to the assessors of 1881, at the commencement of which year the compensation was fixed at $600. The Democrat makes the following comment:

We are glad the pay of the assessors of taxes was placed at $800 by the aldermen last night. It is cheap enough for the services they render, and we never knew why it was cut down to $600 last year. We do not like the looks of voting "back pay," as they call it, although we have no doubt the assessors earned the $200 additional they asked for and obtained last night. It would have been better if it had been voted at the other end, or the beginning of the year 1881. Our idea is that the full $800 is small enough pay for six men who do the tax-making business and all incidental work therewith connected for the year.

—Judge Sterret, the man in whose office Horace Greeley learned to stick type, is still living at the ripe old age of eighty-two. He says he thought the first time Horace applied for work that he was a runaway apprentice, and he refused him rather abruptly, but afterward learned who he was from a neighbor near the state line, and sent for him and took him home to board

Fortunes in Colorado.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

A COMMENDABLE LOCAL CHARITY.

We are emerging from a "hard winter," so far as the poor people of our city are concerned. The loss of the factory, the small amount of work done at the navy yard, and a far from successful season in fishing, are among the circumstances which tend to cause many of our people, just at this season before spring work begins, to be in want. But charity is stimulated by the need of its exercise, and very many among us require only to be informed of an occasion for judicious charitable donations to see that they are forthcoming.

It is not always the prominent charities that are the most deserving. It often occurs that much is being done in a quiet way by those who do not sound a trumpet when they do alms, but who nevertheless do much good, almost unknown to those on the left hand. The systematic, organized efforts of a few persons will often accomplish praiseworthy results in new fields of labor, and when the results are seen, the wonder grows that the effort had not before been exercised.

Of this class of well-considered charitable effects may be reckoned the "Chase Home for Children," projected a short time since for the purpose of sheltering and caring for young children otherwise practically homeless. In a seaport town, the need of such an asylum is especially recognized. Fathers at sea, leaving motherless children to be provided for; widows, whose husbands may have suddenly been taken away in voyages upon the deep, add to the number of persons who find in the "Home" the opportunity of having their children properly cared for, in health, food, clothing, morals and education.

Recently in this city there came into the possession of a large number of persons, heirs to an estate, the large dwelling house at the corner of Court and Washington streets—one of the famous old houses in which Washington entered when he visited Portsmouth. It had been in the Chase family, one of the ancient families of our old town, for a long series of years. It was sold at auction by the heirs, and purchased by George B. Chase, Esq., of Boston, whose uncle, William Chase, was the last male occupant of the estate. Mr. Chase, whose father, the late Theodore Chase, was formerly a merchant of Portsmouth, with a counting-room on Portsmouth Pier, and who afterward was widely known as one of the substantial merchants and shipowners of Boston, had a veneration for the old estate, and gave it for a permanent charitable home for children; and not only that, but has endowed the institution with a liberal donation, which will afford an annual income for its use.

Other kindly-disposed contributors have shown their appreciation of the project for a permanent home for children otherwise homeless. Mr. Alfred S. Wentworth, now abroad in Europe, gave $400 toward the renovation of the purchased house. Hon. Daniel Marcy and Ex-Gov. Goodwin are among the benefactors, as well as many others whose names have readily been placed upon a subscription paper to this end. The funds being gathered are carefully preserved in the hands of Mr. Joseph Hiller Foster, treasurer of the Portsmouth savings bank, who has kindly consented to serve as treasurer; and the expenditure will be made under the direction of a competent committee from the board of trustees.

The object is to put the house in a good state of repair, convenient for its intended use; and to this end donations are solicited. The want of such a place of refuge is acknowledged by all, who have investigated the subject. Its projectors and patrons are confined by no denominational or sectarian boundaries, but are limited only by the broad field of liberal and generous contributions by persons of every age and degree of means. In fact, it is confidently hoped that many who may not be especially invited by personal calls to contribute, will appreciate the worth of the project, and send either under their signatures, initials, or even anonymously to the treasurer, such contributions as they can spare, all of which will be acknowledged in the columns of our paper, unless a special request for a personal acknowledgment is made.

The beneficial results of the home have already been seen in many instances, some of which, had we space, we might relate, but if there is any one who hesitates in the exercise of this charity, and who would personally investigate its beneficent workings, let him or her visit the present home, question the matron in charge, talk with the happy little inmates, or confer with the trustees (of whom Gov. Goodwin is president,) and be informed in regard to the workings and the wants of the home.

It is well to give such affairs proper investigation, because then one's charities are more advisedly bestowed, and a greater interest follows the exercise of the benevolence. That there is ample room for such an institution in this city, there can be no doubt; that the gentlemen who have thus far aided in the project have unselfishly devoted themselves to encouraging a good work, no one will question; and that all reasonable aid, countenance and support of a substantial character should now be forthcoming cannot better be stated than in the words of the Master—

"Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did unto me."

BARREL IT UP.

Complaint is made that the coal-tar from the gas works is again allowed to run into the river, to the serious detriment of boats, and the great annoyance of boatmen. The same complaint was made last year, but the nuisance—for it is no less—was at length abated. It is not merely that the offensive stuff defaces the outside of boats against which it floats, but it sticks to the oars and is taken in with them, defiling the hands and destroying the clothing of whoever may come in contact with it; it also clings to the piles of the wharves, and the steps leading down from the wharves, making it very difficult for ladies to embark in boats at low tide without ruining their dresses. Some other method of getting rid of the coal-tar should be devised, than pouring it into the river.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, March 6; Batchelder, J.

Mary Lafave, charged with drunkenness, was dismissed with some excellent advice from the magistrate.

A REMINISCENCE.

On Saturday the schooner E. M. Reed, Parker master, was lying at the Concord railroad wharf, in readiness on the advent of favorable weather to sail for Isleboro', Kennebec river, to load ice for Baltimore, from which latter place she brought to this port a cargo of coal. This was Capt. Parker's second visit to this port, and recalls the loss of a Portsmouth vessel many years ago.

On the 7th of January, 1849, the schooner Merchant, of this port, Stewart master, was abandoned in a disabled and sinking condition, off Georges; she left Portsmouth with the wind northwest, had her sails blown away and boat washed overboard, and was otherwise so badly shaken up that her speedy abandonment became a necessity, the only question with the crew being as to how the abandonment could be effected without a boat, in a cold snow storm and with a tremendous sea running. In this dilemma the schooner Ashland, of Madison, Conn., Parker master, hove in sight, and by means of skillful seamanship, backed up by coolness and daring, the Ashland was actually laid so close alongside the sinking vessel that the latter's crew were enabled to escape to the other craft, their own vessel sinking shortly after. The Merchant's crew numbered four men, as follows: John Stewart, (captain,) Albion Wilson, Daniel Broadhurst and William H. White, all of whom are now living except Broadhurst. A medal was voted to Capt. Parker in recognition of his courage and humanity by citizens of Portsmouth, and sent to the Humane Institute of Boston, but it was never received by him.

One day last week Capt. Parker, now commanding the big three-master E. M. Reed, while passing along the street met Capt. Stewart, and though so many years have elapsed (the two shipmasters not having met before since the wreck and rescue) immediately recognized him. Capt. Stewart did not at first recognize Capt. Parker, though of course his recollection was clear enough the moment Capt. Parker told who he was. Mr. White, another of the Merchant's crew, called on Capt. Parker on Saturday, having learned that he was in the port.

This evening at eight o'clock, in the Common Council room, will take place the meeting which a committee appointed at the banquet given to Hon. Frank Jones recently by the young men of the city, were authorized to call. We believe the object of the meeting is to discuss the propriety of organizing a Young Men's Board of Trade, or something of that kind, to supplement the active and persistent endeavors of the old Board of Trade to resuscitate the industrial interests of the city, and if such a movement is decided to be advisable, to take the preliminary steps for effecting a permanent organization. It is especially requested that all the young men interested be present this evening.

The schooners Mary Willey, George W. Raitt, Satellite and Active, and the tug Ann, are all getting ready to commence business after the winter haul-up. The Satellite, which wintered at Portsmouth bridge, is nearly ready for a start, and the others will all be off in about two weeks.

"Spring cleaning," which we believe includes the renovating of defaced or torn wall-paper, is close at hand. Persons having paper hanging which needs doing can get it done in the best manner and at reasonable rates, by applying to James M. Locke, No. 30 Union street.

The gondola Edgar Weston is on the beach at Peirce's island, to be caulked.

The special attention of those interested in fine pianos is called to the elegant "Knabe" instruments at Montgomery's music and art store, among which just received is a three-unison square grand, and a cabinet grand upright.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST,

Mrs. Bowers, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR,

Frank A. Benn, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT,

The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machine multiplies, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I know to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

UMBRELLAS AT A DISCOUNT.

Wherefore take an umbrella, my fair lady, when your new summer hat will spread out in a radius almost as extended? Certainly if you do carry one, it is needed not so much to shelter yourself as that bit of feminine vanity which you will wear sometimes on the top of your head, sometimes falling back like the halo of a pictured saint, sometimes having the broad brim turned this way, that way and every other imaginable way,—since, for unidable in size as the winter hats have been, those of the summer will be still more so. The picturesqueness, too, of wide felts and feathers will now be, from the nature of things, excelled by that of straws and flowers. But pray remember that I am now addressing my more youthful friends; not the very youthful exclusively, but those whose faces are still in a first freshness. Where traces of Time appear, while yet something fanciful is wished for, the poke comes in acceptably, and now seems to rise higher and higher. Within you can wear your hair in an ecstacy of æsthetic fluffiness if you wish, for with the broad brimmed hats, and the pokes, these remarkable front pieces are often seen. For the large class of ladies who desire something unobtrusive, we find all manner of moderate sized shapes both in hats and bonnets, while in the latter, an important position is assigned the wide capotes which really seem as if they never would go out of fashion. In millinery of all kinds, the

COLORINGS

Are very noticeable. Wide, narrow brimmed, all, are constantly dyed in some new shade—chiefly red, green, olive or bronze, with something of garnet, while of "yallery" there is no end. Not yellow, if we except the Leghorns, but yellowish; many of them looking as if they had been hung out on a pole all winter in some cornfield, and were now gathered in for our belles to wear. 'Tis Mr. Oscar Wilde and his colleagues who have done all this; (these shades are dear to æsthetic hearts;) they it is who have brought about the remarkable prominence of green, and 'tis to them that we owe the existence of red hats in summer—not to say the immensely picturesque possibilities of a broad-brimmed red hat set at the right angle on the right sort of a young lady's head, at the right time and place, and with the right kind of a costume. I can only say to masculines of all descriptions—"Beware." As a hint to my lady friends, I will remark that I have so often repeated the adjective "right," because if a mistake should be made and the wrong sort of beauty should wear one at the wrong time, what a terrible wrong it would be! Æsthetic colors have notably likewise affected

SPRING MATERIALS.

The family of ginghams will be a numerous one, while for dressier cotton goods, batiste and satine vie with each other. A most charming novelty is batiste in plain colors—chiefly some delicate shade, having a wide border of embroidery on one side of the breadth, and a narrower one for the corsage and sleeves. This idea of embroidery extends to fine wools, where lovely outfits will show embroidery of silk; usually self-colored, but sometimes in contrasts. Furthermore as this embroidery though fine is done by machine, it will not be very expensive.

Among the notable discoveries of science in the application of magnetism none are of so great importance as those made by our best physicians. There is scarce any disease that may not be benefitted or cured by magnetism, and how to apply most effectually this invaluable agency, may be seen in the "Wilsonia" magnetic corset manufactured by Thomson, Langdon & Co., patentees of the well known glove-fitting corsets, and one of our most reliable firms. Remarkable cures have been effected, especially in cases of nervous prostration and general debility, since the current of electricity flowing from the body, is retained; thus converting such currents into a reservoir of magnetism which must result in elasticity of muscle and general invigoration of the system. Prices are $3, $12 and $15 per pair, according to the number of clock-spring-steel magnets, ranging from 50 to 300 each, which are inserted in each pair of corsets. LUCY CARTER.

A triple source of happiness:—A good business, a contented mind and a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

One of the articles in the Rochester town warrant is to see if the town will vote a sum of money, not to exceed $30,000, for the purpose of buying a lot, and erecting thereon a town hall. The Rochester Courier says the old town hall is a wretched affair, and ought to be abolished.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. An pleasant, economical and positive cure. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is sent to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. stamps. 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended, to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—E. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—G. O. FONCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rapidity as a stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

—It is remarked that hack-drivers wear the same expression of countenance as a wedding that they do at a funeral. Of course they do. Can a man get rid of a red nose the same as you can pull off a boot?

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

—Dear girls, whenever you see a young man so soft that he can be dipped up with a spoon, the best thing you can do is to dip him up and pour him over the back fence.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologné.

—"Young man," said the landlord, "I always eat the cheese-rind." And the new boarder replied, "Jess so; I am leaving this for you."

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our doctor advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

—This is a boy's composition on girls: "Girls are the only folks that have their own way every time. The Concord Fight.

A decision in the matter of the contract of Aug. 19th, 1881, between the Concord and the Boston, Lowell & Nashua railroads, by which these roads were to be worked under one management, was rendered Tuesday by the supreme court. The court refuses to accede to the request of the roads to transfer the case to the United States courts; but in the matter of the injunction sought to restrain the roads from carrying out the contract, there is a decided difference of opinion, the counsel for each of the parties claiming a victory.

Municipal Elections in Maine.

A number of municipalities in Maine held elections on Monday. It was evident from the preliminary movements that these elections were regarded as the "first gun" in the approaching state campaign, and the democrats made especial endeavor to secure favorable results, the "labor," "temperance," and "citizens" dodges being inaugurated in many republican towns and cities. The general result, so far as at present appears, cannot be called a democratic victory.

In Portland the democrats and citizens nominated Mr. Deering, a republican; the republicans nominated Mr. Libby, and the prohibitionists Mr. Littlefield. The vote was as follows: Libby, 2719; Deering 2259; Littlefield 483; scattering 47; no choice. The republicans elect all the school committee, five aldermen and fourteen councilmen. The democrats elect one alderman and six councilmen; no election for one alderman and one councilman.

Hallowell gave James H. Leigh, republican, 252 majority for mayor, and elected the straight republican ticket in every ward, a result not attained in that city before for many years.

In Rockland the candidate of the "citizens" and "labor" organization was elected by six plurality, the greenback candidate having sixty votes. The republicans elected aldermen and councilmen in every ward but one.

David Farrar, republican, was elected mayor of Lewiston by a vote of 1548 to 900 for Garcelon, fusionist. The republicans elected five aldermen, and the democrats two; the republicans have councilmen in four wards, the democrats in two.

In Ellsworth the republicans elected their candidate for mayor by 100 majority over the fusion ticket, and carried three wards out of five.

James C. Ledyard, republican and "citizen," was unanimously elected mayor of Bath. The city council is entirely republican, though several members elected were also on the citizens ticket.

William Perkins, republican, was elected mayor of Gardiner by 247 votes over all others.

In Kennebunk last year's officers were re-elected; they are all republicans except two.

In Saco the republican candidate for mayor was elected by 104 majority, the republicans carrying five of the seven wards. Last year, when there was no contest, the republicans carried all the wards.

Deering elects a mixed ticket. Cape Elizabeth is democratic. Buxton, Paris, Gorham, Norway and Standish are republican.

That both parties in Maine should regard the election next September as a very important one is not to be wondered at, when the importance of the offices to be filled is considered. A governor is to be elected for two years, to succeed the little fellow who at present rattles around in the gubernatorial chair. A legislature is to be elected for two years, which legislature will have the selection of a United States senator for six years. Four congressmen are to be chosen, probably on the general ticket; and besides all these officers, nearly double the usual number of county officers are to be elected throughout the state. Furthermore, the next governor will have the appointment during his term, of four members of the supreme court; these judges will hold office for seven years: the court, at present, is composed of eight judges, all of whom, with the exception of Judge Libby, are republicans, and the political character of the court depends entirely upon the popular vote this fall.

Ice in the Atlantic.

Immense fields of floating ice on the Banks of Newfoundland have been reported by nearly every trans-atlantic steamer that has arrived on this side of the water within the last three weeks. Generally the first report of ice and icebergs on the banks comes in early June, but in 1880 great masses of ice were encountered by steamers in April. Its appearance in such quantities in February and March is unprecedented.

The Leyland steamer Istrian, which arrived at New York from Liverpool on the 5th inst., reports that on the 1st she had to run fifty miles to the southward to get clear of a field of ice, which extended about fifty miles east and west. On the 2d she passed through an ice field forty miles long.

The steamer Rotterdam, at New York on the 6th, reports on the 1st passed seventeen large ice-bergs, and had to cross an ice-field of which the cakes were fully five feet thick.

The steamer Rialto, from Hull, arrived at New York on the 6th with her bow stove in on both sides with ice, and her fore compartments filled with water. On Feb. 27th she ran into a large ice-field, with large icebergs here and there, and had to steer southeast for two hundred miles before getting clear, receiving damages as before stated. She saw three steamers apparently fast in the ice.

News and Notes.

Mr. Conkling is perhaps the best advertised lawyer in New York, and can refer to the recent appointment of judge as a certificate of ability. But the thing has been slightly overdone. When so much has been said by the Conkling admirers as to his virtuous incorruptibility, it will be found that he will not do for the New York arena, where such material in a great legal man seems to be at a discount.

The vacant judgeship of the United States supreme court has been offered to and refused by Senator Edmunds.

Mrs. Harriet Bell, a tailoress living at No. 5 Kirtland street, Boston, was followed into her house on Tuesday morning by an unknown stranger, and fatally stabbed in the throat, dying in a few moments. The murderer after committing the deed walked leisurely away, and escaped. Mrs. Bell was about thirty-six years old, a widow with one child; she was industrious and of good reputation, and the motive for the murder is unknown.

Adelina Patti is announced by Mr. Henry E. Abbey to appear in three Grand Italian operas, at the Grand Hall of the Mechanics' building in Boston, as follows: "La Traviata," Monday evening, March 20th; "Il Trovatore," Thursday evening, March 23d; and "Faust," Saturday matinee, at two o'clock P. M., March 25th. The orchestra will number between seventy-five and 100, the chorus in proportion, and taken altogether the affair will be one of immense proportions. Those wishing to attend should send their applications for single or subscription seats to "Horace Vicker, care of Abbey's Park Theatre, Boston," before the sale opens on the 11th inst. Owing to the immense number of seats available, the prices for the operas will be $5 less than in New York, namely, reserved seats $2 and $3; admission, $1; subscription seats for the three operas, $7.50. Arrangements are being made for excursion trains on all roads leading to Boston.

By a recent enactment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., after the first of July next all work in the subordinate lodges will be performed in the scarlet degree, and the acquirement of that degree will be necessary to enable a member to attend the meeting.

The series of articles on the Christian religion, by Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Judge Jeremiah S. Black and Prof. George P. Fisher, which appeared recently in the "North American Review," has been published in pamphlet form, in response to a very generally-expressed demand. Readers of the Review will be pleased to see these remarkable papers collected into one handy volume, and the general public, who have learned of the articles through the comments of press and pulpit, will be gratified to learn that a reprint has been issued. The price of the volume is fifty cents, and it is for sale at all news-stands and bookstores.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan22

The Luck of a Denverite.

In the lively city of Denver, Col., resides one Sebastian Lehman, a wood worker, at No. 730 Larimer st. In a recent interview, published in the Denver News of the 19th ult., he describes himself as a native of Baden, aged fifty-four, a resident of Colorado over two years, and hence he is not a tenderfoot. He also tells how he bought a ticket, No. 19,006, in the January drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery for $2 sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., and on January 10th he drew $10,000. It is a simple story, but seems to resemble many similar occurrences all over the country. The 142d Grand Monthly Drawing will take place under the sole management of Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard and Jubal A. Early on March 14th.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00,—not assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. PARISH MEETING.

The annual meeting of the North Parish was held at the chapel on Tuesday evening. Marcellus Bufford, Newton Johnston, Charles E. Myers, John S. Rand and William G. Billings were re-elected wardens. John P. Sweetser was chosen parish clerk, and Daniel W. Jones and Oliver L. Towle auditors. The annual financial report was presented, and the usual appropriations were made. The parish voted thanks to the committee on music for their services the past year. No appointment of such committee was made, however, and that subject is left to the wardens as in former times. The parish is in a satisfactory condition:

YOUNG MEN'S MEETING.

About forty of Portsmouth's young men met in the Common Council room on Tuesday evening to consider the feasibility of forming an organization with a view to promoting the business interests of our city. Wm. Russell Foster, Esq., was chosen temporary chairman, and Mr. Frank L. Pryor secretary pro tem. Enthusiastic remarks were made by many gentlemen, and much real interest in the subject was shown by all. The following committee on permanent organization was appointed, to report at a meeting to be held on the evening of the 21st inst.: E. C. Stimson, W. A. Hodgdon, Gustave Peyser, W. C. Robinson and W. R. Foster.

DANIEL AUSTIN'S ESTATE.

In the supreme court of Massachusetts, this week, a decision was rendered in the suit of Mary Emery vs. Samuel Batchelder, Jr., et al., executors. This was a bill in equity against the executors of the will of Daniel Austin, late of Kittery, Me., to require said executors to invest for her an annuity fund sufficient to raise for her $400 a year, as provided for in Mr. Austin's will. The answer of the defendants was that the estate was not large enough to pay all the legacies. The rescript is as follows:

Bill dismissed with costs. All the estate of the testator having been transmitted to the executors in Maine, they are accountable in the courts of Maine, and this court has no jurisdiction to construe the will and marshal and distribute the estate.

This is a peculiar decision. The assets as was first supposed were at one time sent to Boston, where the executors reside, but the courts holds that the litigation should fellow the domicile of the testator and not that of the executors.

Mrs. Mary Emery was the wife of F. C. P. Emery, of Neponset, Mass., and Mr. Austin in his will, dated March 23d, 1871, directed his executors to reserve and invest a sufficient sum of money to produce a net annual income of $400, and to pay the same in quarterly payments of $100 to Mrs. Emery during her life, at her death the sum to revert to his residuary legatees.

THE HARRIMAN WILL CASE.

Before the probate court in Boston, last week, the hearing in the contested Harriman will case was continued. Harriman died in a hotel at South Newmarket, where he had boarded some time, leaving property said to amount to about $13,000 in the hands of Charles T. Wiggin. Gen. Butler is counsel for the heirs; and Mr. Wiggin, who testified at length at the late hearing, was cross-examined by him.

Relative to the removal of Harriman to South Newmarket, Mr. Wiggin testified to ample provision for Harriman's comfort and convenience, for which Mr. Wiggin's sister—the tavern keeper—was to receive $25 per week. This sum was also intended to include the use of horses, two of which were kept on the place, and were at Mr. Harriman's disposal. Harriman's food was always of the best quality, and was bounteously served. Mr. Wiggin denied that the house bore a disreputable name; no liquor was sold there in a quiet way, as at most country taverns. The house was patronized and visited by the best people of the town and the locality. It was the Wiggin homestead, and had been occupied by his family since 1835.

Owing to the illness of Ex-Gov. Gaston, principal counsel for Mr. Wiggin, the farther hearing of the case was postponed.

At the funeral services of the late Albert R. Hatch, in St. John's church at half-past two o'clock this afternoon, Bishop Niles will officiate. The masonic services at the tomb will be conducted by the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar of New Hampshire, Nathan P. Hunt R. E. G. C., Eminent Grand Prelate Daniel C. Roberts officiating. The interment will take place in Greenland at a later date.

Surgeon Thos. Walter Leach, U. S. N., on duty in this city, has been granted a months' leave of absence.

Next Monday evening, at Music hall, the best German dialect actor and comedian on the American stage, Gus Williams, will appear as "Prof. Conrad Keiser," in a comedy drama written by two well-known newspaper men, and well supported. "Prof. Keiser" is not a mere sketch "of the Tourists class," but a drama with a distinct and continuous plot, in which all the good persons finally triumph and all the bad ones come to grief, just as a good play should end, because it is often not so in real life.

The schooner Thomas R. Pillsbury, from Wilmington, N. C., arrived at this port on Monday, and hauled alongside the Concord railroad wharf to discharge a cargo of 346,000 feet of lumber, of which part is for Mr. Wm. F. Fernald, part for C. E. Walker & Co., and the remainder for Newburyport. Mr. Fernald's portion will be rafted alongside the schooner, and floated up to the shipyard on Freeman's point; and the lot for Newburyport will be put on the cars. The cargo is being discharge by Mr. Harry Kiggins.

Mr. George Atkins has leased the premises near the Spring market where the late Samuel Staples once kept a retail fish stand, to Mr. John Caswell of South street, who will carry on the retail fish business there, and buy and boil lobsters for the local trade.

The deck of the schooner Adeliza, which has been laid up for the winter near Spring market, was cleared of snow and ice on Tuesday, and the vessel pumped out for the first time since she was hauled up; sixty-three strokes brought the pump to a "suck." The Adeliza will fit for sea immediately.

Letters from New Orleans to relatives in this city of Capt. Samuel Laighton, say that he left his home in New Orleans to go on board his steamer one night some time ago, and has not since been heard from. It is feared that he was drowned, a cap having been found in the water and recognized by some of his friends as his.

The schooner Arcola, Campbell master, arrived on Tuesday from Boston, where she has passed the winter, and proceeded up the river to Eliot, to take on board a cargo of bricks. She is the first of the brick fleet to make a start. The river is entirely free of ice up as far as Dover point, and there is a channel open up to the Dover and Eliot bridge.

Mr. Editor: Mr. E. B. Rundlett of this city, associated with a Boston gentlemen possessing capital, (not "in company with a family formerly of Newburyport,") has purchased land in the northwest part of Iowa, near Cherokee City, erected the necessary buildings thereon, and is now busily employed in otherwise preparing to engage in the wheat-raising business as it is carried on in that section. In embarking in this enterprise, Mr. Rundlett and his associate have the experience and counsel of Boston friends located near them who for several years have been very successfully engaged in the same business, to guide and assist them. This matter is not of course deemed of absorbing public importance, but inasmuch as it has been mentioned in your columns it is thought desirable to have it correctly stated. COM.

George W. Philbrick of Dover has been appointed ticket seller and telegraph operator at the Eastern railroad station in North Hampton, and entered upon the duties of the position on Monday.

Two elderly and prominent citizens of Kittery, residing at the point, had a personal encounter on Tuesday, and their friends had to interfere to separate them.

Horace Blake and wife, of the Bra' Boat Harbor district, Kittery, received their friends on Tuesday evening of last week, and on Thursday evening there was a social gathering at the house of Mrs. Mary Ann Hill. Both parties were numerously attended, and highly enjoyable social entertainments were had. Foye & Odiorne's band, of Rye, N. H., furnished the music both evenings.

The school in district three, East Eliot, taught during the late term by Mr. Leigh Hunt, closed on the 3d inst. In the evening the scholars gave an entertainment which drew together a large number of their parents and friends. The exercises consisted of dialogues, reading of selections by Misses Raitt, Goodwin and Lapham, reading of an original paper by Misses Goodwin and Raitt, which was greeted with much mirthful applause, and vocal and instrumental music by Sewell Merrill and Joseph Butler, (the latter of whom on this occasion made his first public appearance as a vocalist,) both of whom were well received. It was a very pleasant occasion.

Joseph Liberty Milliken, Esq., city clerk of Saco, died at his residence on Sunday afternoon, at the age of sixty-two years and eight months. Mr. Milliken was a native of Scarboro', and went to Saco about 1843.

M. M. Duke's bakery at Old Orchard was burned by an incendiary fire on Tuesday morning; loss $1200. A confectionery shop owned by E. A. Voter of Biddeford also took fire, and was destroyed; loss $700; insurance $600.

Mr. Wm. P. Hooper, formerly of Biddeford, whose comic pictures have been seen in many pictorial publications, at present has his studio in Philadelphia. We notice a good thing of his in Andrews' Bazar for March.

Railroad travel has increased in a large proportion during the past dozen years. In 1879 the Eastern railroad carried 2,417,258 passengers to and from Boston, and the Boston & Maine 2,804,687. In 1881 the Eastern road carried 3,718,337, and the Boston & Maine 3,907,471. Of the totals the season ticket passengers in 1881 over the Eastern amounted to 780,000, and over the Boston & Maine 1,157,767.

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST,

Mrs. Bowers, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for nearly years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR,

Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT,

The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, lasting no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Naval Affairs.

The secretary of the navy has decided to send the training ships Portsmouth and Saratoga for a summer cruise in European waters. They will start from Newport, R. I., early in April, and will be absent about five months. The Portsmouth, which is now at the Washington navy yard, has been ordered to join the Saratoga at Newport the latter part of this month.

Naval Constructor Samuel H. Pook has presented to the committee room of naval affairs a beautiful model of a steel cruiser, designed by himself two years ago. The vessel is (proposed) to be 350 feet long on the water-line, forty-four feet beam, to draw twenty-one feet of water, displace 4500 tons, and is calculated for a speed of eighteen knots per hour, the design for the engine being that of Passed Assistant Engineer Baird.

Fashion Notes.

Ecru, white and tinted batistes will be worn.

Yokes on night gowns are going out of vogue.

Voile is the term this season for nun's veiling.

Pink and pale chocolate make a lovely combination.

Plaided and striped white mull muslins will be much worn.

Tinted mulls will not be so fashionable as cream and white.

Dotted and plain mulls are both brought out again this season.

Voile Virginie is a lovely crapy form of the favorite nun's veiling.

Kilt pleatings and tucks in clusters, shirrings and puffs all appear on street costumes.

The fine hand-tucked shirt fronts on night gowns are preferred to any other trimming.

The large poke Dunstable and Directoire bonnets will be worn tip-tilted far forward on the head.

Manufacturers are making purer silks, of better and softer texture and finish, this sea-on than for years.

A new lace embroidery imitates old Venetian point admirably. It is found upon the selvages of nun's veilings.

Tan, chaudron or copper shades, and buff, are the leading colors in gentlemen's kid, goat skin, and chevrette gloves.

In spring costumes there is a tendency to use lengthwise tucks in clusters in the place of kilt pleatings and shirrings.

Monsquetaire gloves are the most popular, but ladies of good taste wear buttoned or laced gloves, if more becoming to their hands and arms.

Open work, wheel, and Kensington embroidery, in Hamburg edgings and insertions, form the bosom trimmings of domestic chemises.

—There is a story of Solomon not contained in the "Book of Kings." Two of his court damsels had a row as to precedence. Solomon looked kindly and said, "Let the oldest go first," and the damsels embraced and went in together with entwined arms.

"How old are you," said an ancient dame to a grinning little tar-pot. "Well, if I goes by what mudder says, I is most ten, but if I goes by de fun I'se had, I'se most a hundred." O! that all could measure their years in this way, but how many measure them by long night watches, and almost fatal coughing spells, which could have been cured by a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup taken in season.

—Baldwin, the Newark cashier, is a gatekeeper at the Trenton prison. It is understood that the gate is securely hung, and would be difficult to dispose of anyway, if he should take it.

Take Warning

And don't let the germs of that vile disease, catarrh, take root and flourish in your system. Sulphur Bitters will prevent this and will make you strong and healthy.—Editor.

—On the meeting of two friends, the following colloquy ensued: "Where have you been?" "To my tailor, and I had hard work making him accept little money." "You astonish me! Why?" "Because he wanted more."

Wheat Bitters are not an intoxicant or another name for whiskey, but are a perfect blood, brain and nerve food.

—Louisville is hoping to found an art gallery. They've already got lithographs of Mary Anderson, Stuart Robson and Sam Devere, and a photograph of the late Spotted Tail, and think they're doing mighty well for the beginning.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet, balsamic specific.

—Tea, which costs in this country anywhere from fifty cents to $1 a pound, can be bought in China for from three cents to ten cents a pound. This may seem a pretty big profit, but just think how expensive the chromos are.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; Parsons' Exterminator. Barns, granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

—The illness that will stop a young lady from going a sleigh riding, when invited, has yet to be discovered.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

OINTMENT

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the vection; the private parts are often affected. An elegant, economical and positive cure. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is adapted to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps. 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this valuable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—A. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—G. S. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—S. D. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—HANSON LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—E. W. DYER, Dryseigle, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For the last five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., Insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing it thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased potency as a rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 8000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

Reporting the Wedding.

"I say," said the police reporter, tipping his hat over his forehead and scratched the back of his head, "I don't know whether this is right?"

"Don't know whether what is right?" demanded the editor.

"This wedding. I went there last night and they gave me a heap about their frocks, but I don't know whether it comes out straight or not. Now, here is Mrs. Isaac Belding. I've got her in a panier silk, trimmed a la gros grain, with black point lace underskirt and box-plaited hair. Does that sound natural?"

"Who sent you to the wedding?" asked the managing editor. "Don't you know that gros grain is a color? That was a gros grain, box-plaited dress, trimmed a la black point lace, and her hair was combed en panier. You ought to know better than to get things mixed that way. Who else did you get? How was the bride dressed?"

"I've got her all right," replied the police reporter. "She wore a white bouffant lace with a Princess of Thule veil; the underskirt cut decollette around the bottom, and trimmed with a basque."

"That's better," said the managing editor. "That sounds something like. How was her hair?"

"Her hair was shirred," replied the reporter. "Shirred at the sides and corsaged on top."

"I don't believe that's right," observed the managing editor. "Read that over again."

"It was corsaged at the sides and shirred on the top," said the police reporter, referring to his notes.

"Of course," smiled the managing editor. "It makes all the difference in the world. You never saw a woman with her hair corsaged on top in your life. What else have you got?"

"Here the bride's mother. She pranced 'round in an iridescent bead, cut low-necked and hoisted up on the side with some kind of plant. I've forgotten the name of it."

"I know that style," said the managing editor, resting his elbows on his desk and his chin on his hands. "It had a big rip down the back, didn't it?"

"That's it, like a V, and tied up with a green shoe-string."

"Of course," grinned the managing editor. "You can't fool me on frocks. You want to say that it was a—what color did you say the shoe-string was? Green? Then the frock must have been red."

"No, it was the color of a clam," said the reporter.

"Oh, yes! Yes, yes, I know. You want to say that it was a gorgeous deep-sea pearl colored business, with a gore on pouf, and caught at the side with a delicate floral design, which was especially rich in its artistic effect. Did you get her hair?"

"Her hair was French. I had it somewhere, but I don't find it. It was either French or Spanish, I forget which."

"You ought to be careful about such things, but we'll call it a ha Pyrenees, and she can take her pick as to the side of the mountains she belongs to. Who else was there?"

"Miss Jennie Smith was a bridesmaid. She wore silk socks, with a streak of yellow tapestry up the outside. Her hair was bumped."

"What do you mean?" demanded the managing editor.

"It was plastered down in front, and stuck up behind like a hen's tail."

"Banged, you mean. How was her dress cut?"

"Well, it was an even stretch from the back of her neck half way up the front stairs. That was one piece. Then she had on a petticoat that showed the whole front, and was trimmed with some cloudy stuff that had dropped down at one end. The back part was the energy, though, and she called it a train, with some kind of a law term in front of it."

"Was it revised statutes?" asked the editor.

"No."

"Did it have anything to do with the alimony and custody of the children?"

"That wasn't it. It was a train with someth ng legal in front of it. I tried to remember because they have it in the city hall."

"Couldn't have been anything about contempt of court, could it?"

"That's it!" exclaimed the police reporter, "a contempt train, and up around the lower part of the top of the—of where it hooked on the body part—you know."

"The bustle?"

"Yes; she had it tied up with broad, white tape and the darndest big bow knot you ever saw."

"Certainly—that is right," said the managing editor. "You want to say that she had a court train looped back with a delicate tape so as to show the contour of the petticoat, which was elaborately trimmed with loops of linen."

"I see," replied the police reporter, making a memorandum. "Her cousin was Miss Mears of Quoque. I only got her hair. It was poached on top with revers, and had a big pair of silver tongs stuck through the bird part. Better say anything about that?"

"Certainly. You've got it right. Did they have a big supper?"

"They had boned head cheese, and candy, and lobster, and some shaky stuff. Lots of wine."

"Eh?"

"You bet!"

"Then give the caterer's name, and say that on this occasion the table fairly groaned under the weight of the excellent provisions, and even the most fastidious appetite succumbed to the charms of his delicacies. How are you going to wind it up?"

"I say that the guests danced until a late, or rather an early hour, in the morning."

"That's business," smiled the managing editor. "If you do it all as well as that last part, you've got a magazine article."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

—The seventeen-years-old wife of the Chinese minister at Washington is described as picturesquely pretty. She is studying English, occupying herself in her strict retirement with this and with her curious lute.

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

—Why don't I go to work? Would you have me imperil my life, sir? No, sir; you can't have seen the statistics. [Reads:] "It is estimated that 10,000 persons are annually killed in England from causes directly resulting from industrial occupations."

Mr. Thomas I. Russell, one of the best known cabinet makers and undertakers in Wilmington, Del., says he contracted an exceedily severe attack of rheumatism this winter. He is subject to the disease, but rarely ever felt it so severely as he did the time now under consideration. The disease located itself in his right leg and foot, rendering that member so stiff and sore that he could not move without enduring excruciating pain. St. Jacobs Oil had been so highly recommended that he concluded to try it. He has every cause to be glad that he did so. Two applications of the wonderful remedy gave him entire relief, and he has not been troubled with rheumatism since. Mr. Russell says he considers St. Jacobs Oil a very fine remedy for rheumatism and now keeps it by him for ready use.

The Railroad Decision.

According to the newspaper accounts, Chief Justice Doe has been able to make a happy solution of the Concord railroad suit. The counsel on either side, with a sort of Mark Tapley jollity, are satisfied. The Pearson wing say a great question has been decided; that the railroad cannot enter a copartnership with another railway without legislative permission, and it will be enjoined if it violates the law. On the other side, the counsel of the railroad say the contracts, appointment of officials, method of accounts, etc., can be easily adjusted to fit the requirements of the law,—only give the companies time to show their high respect for the orders of the court. In fine, everything is lovely, and the goose which the legal lights are willing to pluck still hangs high. It is possible one side or the other may be in error as to the result of the decision, but as at present advised it is a remarkable instance of good feeling and mutual satisfaction.

News and Notes.

Willie P. Burnham, a young man of Gloucester, Mass., while gunning at Chebacco lake on the 7th inst., saw a piece of board floating on the water, and tried to haul it ashore with his gun, holding the weapon by the muzzle, when the piece was discharged, the shot entering his groin and passing completely through his body, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

John Taylor's house at Meadowlea, Manitoba, was burned during a heavy storm on the 4th inst., and his wife and three daughters were frozen to death before they could reach a place of shelter. Taylor's hands and feet were badly frostbitten, and a visitor, Mrs. Reed, was slightly frozen. The storm was the severest ever known there.

A Berlin correspondent says emigration to America this year promises to be very much greater than that of last year.

During January and February, 12,655 emigrants left Hamburg for the United States.

Justice Miller of the United States supreme court is seriously ill, and his family and friends are alarmed. He complains of the premonitory symptoms of gravel, his old trouble, and for which he underwent a painful and dangerous operation some years ago.

James Reynolds of Providence, R. I., was 100 years old last month. He has been twice married, and has a number of children living, the oldest of whom is sixty-five years of age, and the youngest eight.

The secretary of the treasury has ordered the dismissal of the captain, two lieutenants, and the entire force of night inspectors on duty at the steamship City of Tokio, at the port of San Francisco, during the night watch of Jan. 3d last. The reason assigned for this action is, that owing to the negligence of the force in question nearly a ton of opium, valued at about $26,000, was removed from the vessel without their knowledge, and was only accidentally captured by two of the city policemen, who stumbled upon a party of Chinese merchants who were acting suspiciously.

The small-pox, which during the autumn and early winter was alarmingly prevalent in many parts of the country, has ceased to be especially noticeable. There are but five patients at the small-pox hospital in Boston, and of these four are reported well, and they will leave the institution in a day or two; and the other patient is improving rapidly.

In the year 1777 considerable interest was manifested in an announcement that six stoves had been completed in Philadelphia. The annual product of the stove foundries in that city is now valued at $4,000,000, and the industry supports about 12,000 people.

The New York Tribune says: "The venerable Montgomery Blair has startled the public with an energetic letter in favor of the suppression of Chinese imigration. As Mr Blair never speaks except with the ultimate object of helping Mr. Tilden's renomination, this unexpected outburst may mean that the revamped 'reform' platform for 1884 will contain an anti-Chinese plank."

Another step has been taken toward the desirable end of securing standard time throughout the country. The house committee, will report favorably on the bill appropriating $25,000 to enable the secretary of the navy to send to maritime cities and the larger inland towns the standard Washington time every day at noon. It may not be that such a thing as an international standard of time can ever be established, so that people all over the world can be exactly punctual, and this would hardly be desirable; but there is much to be said in favor of widespread correctness in time for ourselves. The country might be well divided into zones of an hour each. One of the most conspicuous practical advantages would be seen in the more exact running of railway trains. Connecticut has a standard time, and requires all railroads to use it. The results are said to be most satisfactory.

New Hampshire Items.

At a meeting of the trustees of the City savings bank of Nashua, to choose a president in place of the late E. P. Emerson, Luther A. Roby was unanimously elected president, and Charles H. Burns of Wilton vice president. Resolutions of respect and appreciation of the late president were read and unanimously adopted.

Clarence L. Chapman, who was reappointed postmaster at Great Falls, has been confirmed by the senate.

An eight-hours go-as-you-please race is advertised to come off in Eagle hall, Concord, March 16th.

The Manchester branch of the land league has recently sent $300 to the national treasurer of the league.

Rev. E. W. Ricker on the 5th inst. announced his resignation of the pastorate of the Charles street church in Dover, to take effect at once.

S. W. Vose of Peterborough recently cut upon his farm a pine tree 104 feet high and five feet in diameter at the stump, which measured 4000 feet, board measure.

Col. D. M. Clough & Son, of Canterbury, have slaughtered 5000 pounds of pork since Dec. 21st, which has found a ready market in Concord at nine cents a pound.

AROUND HOME.

There was a brilliant display of the aurora borealis on Wednesday evening.

Capt. J. Touro Marcy, late master of the ship William H. Marcy, recently sold in England to go under a foreign flag, arrived in Boston on Sunday morning, the 12th inst., in the steamer Atlas.

Mr. John H. Carlton, who lives on Peirce's island, is raising poultry on quite an extensive scale, for the local market. He has about two hundred hens, and fifty chickens a month old.

The flag was flying at half-mast on the liberty pole at Liberty bridge, on the 8th inst., as a mark of respect to the memory of Hon. Albert R. Hatch.

Mr. David D. Badger, the well known ship-builder, is reported as lying at his home in Newington, seriously ill.

Work has commenced at putting down the weirs at Kittery point and Gerrish's island.

Mr. Daniel Bailey, formerly a merchant in this city, is spending a few days here.

There is a pair of large white-headed eagles that have made their home in a grove called "Small-Gains" in the village of Hampton. They have become quite bold, and when lighted on the meadow near, in search of food, do not appear disturbed when teams pass along the road a few rods from them. The neighbors fear that some time they may do some injury to their stock, or children, when very hungry. S. A. Shaw, a naturalist and taxidermist, has made some effort to trap them to add to his large collection of native birds and quadrupeds, but thus far without success.

Mr. John Albee delivers a course of four lectures upon English literature in Washington, commencing the 15th inst.

Capt. Fernald, of the schooner Daniel C. Baker, reports that when on the fishing grounds on the 7th inst. he and his crew caught the schooner Sylph, Hiltz master, in the act of robbing the trawls of the Daniel C. Baker. The Sylph's men abandoned the work when the other schooner came down on them, and pulled aboard their own vessel. Capt. Fernald then attempted to board the Sylph in his dory, but was met with an array of forks and knives, and a bushel basket! Not liking this reception, he returned to his own schooner. Capt. Hiltz has before been charged with having somewhat vague notions regarding the rights of property, though nothing has ever been proved against him in any court, so far as we have heard. He was master of the schooner which was wrecked in York harbor, Me., some months ago, and complained of inhospitable treatment from the dwellers in that region, who in reply said that they knew him too well to be desirous of his company, and hoped he would never get wrecked there again, nor enter the port.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 2000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00,—not assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. A NEEDLESS ANNOYANCE.

There is one needless annoyance and abuse connected with the management of the Eastern railroad trains is this city, which has continued for years, and should at once cease; we allude to the regular practice of stopping evening freight trains from the eastward in such a position that the Vaughan street crossing is blocked to public travel.

When the railroad management some years ago asked the city for permission to use the tracks at the crossing during a certain specified hour in the evening for the purpose of making up freight trains, a promise was given that the work should be done with the least possible annoyance to the public; this promise we believe has been faithfully observed, and the inconvenience occasioned by the shifting of freight cars at the crossing has not been serious.

But it is not at all uncommon for a freight train from the eastward to stop on the crossing in the early evening, and remain there from one minute to five or even longer, cutting off all passing between Christian Shore and the main portion of the city until the train is moved. We have frequently seen a dozen or twenty pedestrians and a number of teams thus halted on each side of a stationary train at that point, and compelled to await, with what patience they might, for the starting up again of the train.

We do not suppose this abuse is due to any fault of the train men or other employes of the road; neither do we imagine it to be the fault of the management of the road, which is certainly not open to the charge of needlessly trespassing upon the public convenience. We presume the trouble lies in the fact that the long trains have not room to run up the yard far enough for their rear ends to clear the crossing, and that the management is not aware of how frequent and how serious the consequent obstruction to travel is.

But whatever the cause, the trouble should be remedied, even though it might cost the road something to relay or alter tracks; even that portion of the people who do not ride by rail have some rights, and the frequent and needless interference with those rights is an outrage.

GETTING READY.

While the brick fleet, the vessels engaged in the general coasting trade which have wintered at this port, and the gondolas, are being put in readiness for the summer's work, the yacht Humbug is not being neglected. A new bowsprit has been secured, in place of the one chopped up last fall to boil clams with one day down river; a handsome patch has been put in the mainsail, where a hole was burned by a spark from the yeoman's pipe last season; the nail which last year projected from the side of the centre-board casing, and twice tore the yeoman's trowsers, has been removed, and a brass screw put in its place; the skipper has nailed a sheet of copper on the port bilge, where the planking was scraped thin by contact with a rock, and has painted the inside of the yacht an æsthetic lead color; a new water-keg, which is expected to hold a six weeks' supply (two gallons) has been procured, and negotiations are in progress for a new mainsheet and four new fishing-lines. The Humbug Yachting & Fishing Association will be ready for business as soon as the weather is.

MR. HATCH'S FUNERAL.

The obsequies of Hon. Albert R. Hatch took place on Wednesday afternoon, the 8th inst., in St. John's church, the remains being deposited in a tomb near by. The services in the church were conducted by Rt. Rev. Bishop W. W. Niles, of the Episcopal diocese of New Hampshire, assisted by Rev. Daniel C. Roberts, vice rector of St. Paul's church, Concord. The masonic services at the tomb were conducted by the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar of New Hampshire, R. E. G. C. Nathan P. Hunt, Grand Prelate D. C. Roberts officiating; the masonic record of the deceased was read by the grand secretary. The pall-bearers were Hon. William L. Foster, Hon. Gilman Marston, Hon. James W. Emery, Geo. W. Haven, Esq., John J. Pickering, Esq., Commodore Clark H. Wells, U. S. N., Wm. Augustus Peirce, Esq., and James P. Bartlett, Esq.

The floral tributes were numerous, appropriate and beautiful—from individuals, the masonic bodies, the members of the bar resident in this city, the sheriff of the county and his deputies, and others. The singing was by the regular quartette choir of the church.

There was a very large attendance of prominent men from all over the state, as well as from our own county and city, including the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar; DeWitt Clinton Commandry of this city, E. C. Calvin Page, of which organization deceased was for twenty-five years eminent commander; members of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, W. M. Howe Call, in which he was made a mason in 1842; city, county and state officials, members of the bar, and others. Among the prominent members of the legal profession present were Hon. Chas. W. Woodman and Hon. Thomas J. Smith of Dover; Hon. Gilman Marston, Hon. Wm. W. Stickney, J. Warren Towle, Thomas Leavitt, E. G. Eastman, Charles G. Conner, Exeter; C. H. Smith, J. T. Dodge, Newmarket; Ex-Judge Wm. L. Foster, Hon. John H. George, Samuel C. Eastman, Concord; Hon. Joseph J. Wiggin, Malden, Mass.; Hon. Charles Levi Woodbury, Boston. County Solicitor Harriman, with Sheriff Kent and seven deputies, viz.: Wiggin of Newmarket, Tilton of Epping, Woodman of Kingston, Cram of Hampton Falls, Odlin and Hoyt of Exeter, and Sherburne of Raymond, were among the county officials present.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Mch. 8; Batchelder J.

John Sullivan, a boy charged with stealing old copper from the ruins of the Kearsarge mill, had his case continued to Monday, the 13th, and was required to recognize in $100 for his appearance on that date, by which time it is expected that two other boys engaged in the theft with him will be in custody.

Of "Prof. Keiser," in which Mr. Gus Williams will appear at Music hall next Monday evening, the Baltimore Herald says: "His new play is not simply an excuse for Gus Williams; it is really a play with a plot, and good, appreciable parts aside from that allotted to the star. Certainly Gus Williams is the life of 'Prof. Keiser,' just as he is the life of anything in which he presents himself; but he has not done as many do—crowded everything on himself, and employed a company of noodles to talk to each other while he rests, and prepares himself for another feat of lungs. There is a great deal of jollity about the play with which Mr. Williams has little to do; but that with which he has to do is drollery of so irresistible a nature that a cynic must needs give way to it. Besides his humor, however, Gus Williams has genuine histrionic merit to fall back upon, and in his recitations he gave evidence of fine reading."

Just about the most desolate-looking place in the city is the Spring market, which has been closed since Messrs. Randall & Caswell transferred their fish business from the ancient market to Water street. Persons doing business in the neighborhood are anxious to have it opened for trade once more.

The Fifth Avenue Comedy Co., of New York, will appear at Music hall on Tuesday evening of next week in the popular drama "East Lynne, or the Elopement." The company recently performed in the Academy of Music at Oswego, N. Y., and the Express of that city says "The play was never better presented, and all the characters were finely sustained."

Mr. Editor: The recent article in the CHRONICLE relative to the "Chase Home for Children" seems to be a little misleading in one particular. Persons unfamiliar with its establishment and growth might not understand that what has been known for four or five years as "The Children's Home" is identical with the "Chase Home for Children," and that the change of name was made in consequence of the donation of the old Chase mansion for the purposes of the home. To those familiar with the fact this statement may appear superfluous, but as the article referred to struck several others as it did the writer, and as the question has once or twice been asked of the writer, "has the 'Chase Home for Children' any connection with the 'The Children's Home,'" it seems desirable to make this brief communication to the public. It is to be hoped that the needed sum for the renovation of the ancient mansion may be soon contributed, and the little flock removed to the more ample quarters intended for them, especially as the number of yearly applicants for admission to the home has always exceeded the ability to accommodate them.

Yours, ——.

—Note. We are glad to learn that our article has caused intending contributors to enquire concerning this most deserving charity; but it seems a trifle odd that the change of name of the institution should not be known to every person in the city, as the change (and the reason for making it) was duly reported at the time it was made, in every local paper.—Ed. Chron.

The secretary of the treasury has transmitted to Congress an abstract of the salaries, emoluments and fees received by collectors of customs during the last fiscal year. The collector at Kennebunk, Me., received $100; York, Me., $263; Newburyport, Mass., $463; Portsmouth, N. H., $1156.

Letters have been received from Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, in anticipation of the regular mail from the Azores islands, the letters having been put on board a vessel that touched at the islands. Mr. Holbrook found at the islands a lady who formerly resided here, but is now at the Azores for her health. The barque Sarah, in which he made the passage from Boston, had boisterous weather all the way, but he was not sea-sick, and enjoyed every waking hour of the trip. His health was so far improved that at the date of writing he anticipated speedily returning to Portsmouth.

Mr. Warren Caswell, of Rye, on the 8th inst., hauled into this city a large lot of fish, which a local dealer purchased.

[For other local matter see second page.]

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Cuticura

Geo. W. Brown, 48 Marshall St., Providence, R. I., cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) of a Ringworm Humor got at the barber's which spread all over his ears, neck and face, and for six years resisted all kinds of treatment.

SKIN HUMOR,

F. H. Drake, Esq., agent for Harper & Bros., Detroit, Mich., gives an astonishing account of his case (eczema rodent), which had been treated by a consultation of physicians without benefit, and which speedily yielded to the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

SCALD HEAD.

H. A. Raymond, Auditor F. W., J. & S. R. R., Jackson, Mich., was cured of Scald Head of nine years duration by the Cuticura Remedies.

ECZEMA,

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST,

Mrs. Bowers, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR,

Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT,

The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's shoes were made on these machines the last year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares, paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Oatskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it, and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

G. J. GREENLEAF.

The Queen and the Doctors.

By the unwritten yet immutable laws of the Spanish court no one but a Spanish physician can attend the queen of Spain. When the illness of Queen Mercedes became desperate her doctors called in their German colleague in consultation, but told him that he must prescribe for Donna Mercedes without seeing her, on their report of the symptoms and conditions only. Dr. Kisbert declared that it was essential for him to examine the patient before he could indicate what remedies would be efficacious. This, however, could on no account be permitted. He then suggested that he might be allowed to see her through some open door or window, without approaching her, or even entering the sick room. That concession, too, was refused. "Then, gentlemen, I can do nothing," was the reply; "I am willing to prescribe, but I can hardly do so with good effect without personally inspecting the patient." He wrote a prescription, and then left the palace. Three days later the fair young queen was dead, but the laws of Spanish court etiquette remained intact.

Worse than a Bull Dog's Grip.

A barn in this city is infested with rats. A day or two since a large steel-jaw trap was set for the pests, and neatly concealed on top of a chopping block. The same day a man was hired to "clean up things" in the barn. He did his work faithfully, and after a while, becoming weary, concluded to take a rest. Looking round he espied the chopping block, an inviting seat, and leisurely planted himself on it, when—snap went the trap, and the cries and yells of the innocent victim of the surprise party could be heard the length of the street. "Murder! murder! Take him off!" These and other fragmentary sentences brought the house servant to the scene, but she was powerless, and further help had to be obtained to release the poor fellow from the jaws of the imaginary animal which had him. He was half frightened to death, and the services of a physician were needed to dress the painful wound.—Newburyport Herald.

—Henry James, while in Washington lately, is wickedly said by the Boston Gazette to have asked a clever young lady if there was not a river near the city called the Potomac. "Oh, yes," said she, "and I should think you would know all about it, because there is a place on it called Mount Vernon, where a man named Washington lived. You are sure to have heard of him, because his father was an Engli hman."

—When Remenyi was playing one of the softest passages in Schubert's serenade at Scranton, Pa., the other night, a man in the gallery took a handful of peanuts out of his pocket and began to eat the same in a particularly boisterous manner, whereupon the fiddler stopped his bow and made a little speech, thus: "Ladies and gentlemen, I now made me a little speech. That peanuts eater me very much annoy, and I think be enjoy himself so much as nobody else in the house. When he get through with his peanut solo I go on." The speech was loudly applauded, and the peanut fiend was crushed for the evening.

To steal an umbrella is at last a crime. But if a man steals a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to cure his cough, can it be called a crime.

—It is said that a Brooklyn landlord never smiles except when he can charge it to his tenants.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Peakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended, to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROWELL, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable family medicine.—REV. E. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have not recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—G. O. FUNCH, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LAYTA, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago, and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—F. WILKINSON.

Dr. WADE writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Epileptic Fits, Spasms, Convulsions, St. Vitus Dance, Vertigo, Hysterics, Insanity, Apoplexy, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases. This infallible remedy will positively eradicate every species of Nervous Derangement, and drive them away from whence they came, never to return again. It utterly destroys the germs of disease by not raising the hereditary taint or poison in the system, and thoroughly eradicates the disease, and utterly destroys the cause.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Female Weakness, General Debility, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Painful Menstruation, Elevation of the Uterus, Internal Heat, Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder, Irritability of the Bladder, For Wakefulness at Night, there is no better remedy. During the change of life no Female should be without it. It quickens the Nervous System and gives rest, comfort and nature's sweet sleep.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the urinary organs. Nervous debility permanently cured by the use of this invaluable remedy. To you, young, middle-aged and old men, who are covering your sufferings as with a mantle by closely locking up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ourselves a society, and jewels in the crown of your Maker, if you will. Do not keep this a secret, but spread it upon your vitals, and destroys both body and soul. If you are thus afflicted, take Dr. Richmond's Samaritan Nervine. It will restore your shattered nerves, arrest premature decay, impart tone and energy to the whole system.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Is for sale by druggists everywhere, or may be had direct from us. Those who wish to obtain further evidence concerning properties of Samaritan Nervine will please enclose a 3-cent postage stamp for a copy of our Illustrated Journal of Health, giving hundreds of testimonials of cure from persons who have used the medicine, and also their pictures photographed after their restoration to perfect health. 37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 18th.
For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing Brown's IRON BITTERS advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.

Why let your blood become impure, and make you feel miserable, when a few bottles of Sulphur Bitters will make you feel like a new person? Why suffer with Pimples and Blotches on your face, when a few bottles of Sulphur Bitters will make your skin smooth and clear? Why suffer with Rheumatism? Why let your nerves go all to pieces? Why let your blood become impure, and your system run down? Why let your blood become impure, and your system run down? Why let your blood become impure, and your system run down

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

At Roundstone, Ky., on the 6th inst., Mrs. Rhoda Sigman and her daughter, Mary Sigman, were assassinated by some unknown person.

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Fun of Speculation.

There is an old saying, "Get money, honestly if you can,—but get it." This perhaps was an amended sentence from Ben Jonson's lines—

"Get money; still get money, boy;
No matter by what means."

It is doubtless a pleasant thing to have plenty of money. The press often treats of subjects of which the writers have no personal knowledge, but a common observer of men and things can hardly fail to notice that it is a good thing to have a plethoric bank account. As the Irishman remarked, "It's no disgrace to be poor, but mighty inconvenient."

Still, we venture to assert, it is not so much the anticipated happiness of the enjoyment of riches, as in the fascination of acquiring them, which induces many persons to seek a short cut to a state of affluence. It is the passion for "making"—that is the word, not earning—money which fires the energy of the speculator, as it nerves the hand of the gay gambolier.

In certain cities men have been reported to have become rich, immensely rich, by operations in stocks or grain, or other similar sources of gain, and the vaunted success of these few has induced the many to step in and try their luck. These people never study arithmetic. They never discover that when one man, or set of men, make, it is at the loss, or expense of, another set; that no wealth is created, but it is simply increased on paper, fictitiously chalked up, or taken from some one else. Why can not all prosper? Everything is sure to win; why should not all go in and get rich? Such is the fascination of speculation.

This is all well enough in its results if, as the tide rises, one floats still higher up the stream of wealth, and with each mile become freighted with increased riches; but the proper thing to do is to get off at the high tide, before it turns and begins its ebb, and leaves the adventurer high and dry with no power to float his securities. This refluent wave of speculation always comes. It may be later at one time than is expected, but it is sure, and all along the shores of the stream where recently floated the fond expectations of many an adventurer, will be seen when the ebb has begun the lame ducks wading pitifully toward the banks, (not the savings banks, however,) and where once was expectant wealth, is now the downhearted, empty-handed adventurer, who has for a time been taught a lesson which he may soon forget without ever recovering from its effects.

We are told that in some of our staid New Hampshire cities and towns, there are many men who give up almost every other pursuit in order to speculate. When a rise occurs, they are happy. Their dish is up. They are credited with having achieved great gains, and are called shrewd, money-making manipulators; but when a short corner has been suddenly turned, when prices in grain have so far outreached the proper range that nothing could be sold save to the unsophisticated speculators, and when sound dividend-paying stocks or safe interest-bearing bonds are contemptuously overlooked for a fancy of the wildcat stamp, which all know is worthless, but of which no one can predict to what giddy heights its market rate may climb, then when the strain can be borne no longer, the man who knows all this and has preserved his cool and unswerved balance pulls the pin, the bottom drops out, and away go the speculative investments, the gilded hopes, the castles in the air, and the deposited margins.

Then the dreams of future golden results are succeeded by the realization of empty coffers. So it goes, repeating itself always. The many suffer, and at their expense the few succeed, while the ingenuous novice who has purchased his experience, gives way in the market to a new and more unsophisticated adventurer.

As a New York correspondent writes, "Wall street is full of bubbles, and all that is wanted is a sufficient number of greenhorns to purchase." A leading brokerage house says, "We have a new crop of speculators every year, but the best of them only last three years, for they are then cleaned out."

Wealthy Candidates.

The Nashua Telegraph, speaking of the gubernatorial nominations in this state, says:

Give us a poor man of talent, character and devotion, and a rich man of less character, talent and devotion, and the rich man will carry off the gubernatorial nomination in New Hampshire to-day.

There is one thing to be said in reply to the suggestion that rich men are nominated because they are rich and will contribute well to the party's funds. It is a rule that a man who has earned his fortune by the right process, possesses brains to a large degree, and ability which makes both a good campaign combatant and a safe executive. The Telegraph further says:

We do not know of any man in the state doing a living business or possessed of moderate means, who could not afford to be governor of the state just as well as he could afford to be mayor of any city in the state.

True; men "not known" could "afford to be governor," but could the people of the state afford it, or their political friends afford to run them? The evil which the Telegraph seeks to avert is acknowledged by men of both parties; but if there comes up as a candidate now and then, in a state where the relative strength of the parties is so nearly balanced as in New Hampshire, a man who is open to the objection of being a man of wealth, and if he possesses other qualifications, and above all the ability to make a good governor or senator, the chances are largely in favor of his selection,—because people worship success, and results in life, and capacities, are measured very generally by the pecuniary standard.

News and Notes.

Jesse James, the notorious train robber, murderer and thief, was captured on Tuesday night, the 7th inst., in Kansas. He and a comrade, supposed to be Ed. Miller, were surrounded in a log cabin. While trying to force an entrance into the cabin seven of the sheriff's party were killed and three wounded. When an entrance was effected a desperate fight ensued, Miller being instantly killed, and James mortally wounded.

The state museum of California has become the owner of the shell of an enormous bivalve of the tridacna gigas species, which weighs 528 pounds. It was bought in Singapore and is a gift to the museum. A similar shell sent by the republic of Venice to Francis I, now serves as a holy water in the Church of St. Sulpice, at Paris.

A Maine paper states that there are several Mormon churches in the state, and a dozen or more preachers. They are at Jonesport, Indian River and Addison Point. The Maine churches are under the leadership of Joseph Smith, who frequently visits them, and is revered by the members as a prophet. Some of these people followed Adams to the Holy Land, and after the disaster that befell their colony at Joppa, returned to listen to the Mormon preachers. Both at Jonesport and Addison Point there are hotels kept by Mormons.

Among the cases for trial in the Kennebec county, Me., supreme judicial court, is that of the First National bank of Augusta against Samuel E. Spring, a prominent merchant of Portland, who was a surety on the bond of the late Israel Boothby, whose accounts as cashier of the bank show a deficit of $30,000.

At Sebago, Me., on the 6th inst., John Wentworth, aged sixty-five years, committed suicide by hanging in his son's barn. Cause unknown. A sharp butcher's knife was found in his pocket.

Alfred Deseau, aged twenty-one, killed himself with a shotgun on the 5th inst. at Richmond, Me., while his family were at church. He returned from Fall River, Mass., recently, on account of ill health.

Of eighty-two Massachusetts towns which voted on the 6th inst., twenty-three voted in favor of licensing the sale of liquors, and fifty-nine against it.

DOVER'S BOARD OF TRADE.

Dover wants a new court house. A committee of the Dover board of trade, a body which seems to be energetic in the discussion of local enterprises, recommends it, and at a recent meeting the present building was stated to be entirely unfit for court house purposes.

The danger of the removal of the courts to Rochester and Great Falls was referred to by one speaker. The courts and county offices would accommodate Strafford county at Rochester, were it not for the fact that Dover is reached more easily from Great Falls than is Rochester, by reason of the railway facilities, and therefor the presumption is that the courts will remain at Dover. The probate court is held occasionally at Rochester, in about as unclean and ill-fitted a building as the county could furnish, and while Rochester with its excellent railroad facilities shows no more appreciation of its possibilities, Dover need fear nothing from her quiet neighbor.

The board of trade in Dover seems inclined like the Irishmen in the fight, to hit a head wherever one is seen. The Boston & Maine railroad and its resident director, Wm. S. Stevens, come in for liberal criticism. Judge Woodman, who over forty years ago as solicitor for the town of Dover carried on a law-suit against the Portsmouth bridge on the ground that it obstructed the navigation of the river, has something to say about the present bridge piers. In short, the board of trade wants (in the language of Dr. Paul A. Stackpole, who does not intend that Joshua L. Foster shall make all the noise,) a horse railroad, a public library, new court house, and opera house, new shoe establishment, freight billed through from the west at rates of other large cities, and we are inclined to think a general outlay of money which any one will bring to the city. The best we can do for them is to allow J. Albert Walker, when he can afford the time, to build a block of stores on Franklin square, while perhaps Congressman Hall will get an appropriation for a government building for a post-office and board of trade room.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, March 9th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

All present except Aldermen Hartshorn and Slater.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Reports of the several committees of the board of instruction for 1881 were received and accepted. The secretary of the school board announced that $19,500, in addition to the literary fund, would be necessary for the schools during the year 1882.

Bills to the amount of $1760.28 were ordered paid.

The expenses on the streets for the month of February were $513.08, consequent on the heavy falls of snow.

A letter was received from Wm. C. Robinson, a member of the common council and of the committee on accounts, protesting against the payment of any bills by the board of aldermen until the same had been approved by the committees of the council.

It was suggested that if the council wished to be considered, it should meet.

Michael Craig was appointed special policeman in the neighborhood of the Times office, on request of the city marshal.

The mayor made a feeling allusion to the late Albert R. Hatch, after which the board adjourned.

THE "49-ERS."

PORTSMOUTH, March 10th, 1882.

Thirty-three years ago to-day, on the 10th of March, 1849, the first company of gold-seekers left this city for California. The party consisted of twenty-four young men, most of whom were natives of this city. After a voyage of nine days from New York they arrived at Chagres; then a canoe ride up the river, and a tramp of twenty-seven miles, brought them to Panama, where after an enforced residence of two months all but three secured passage in a whale-ship to San Francisco, arriving there in sixty-three days from Panama; the other three took passage in other vessels.

On arriving at San Francisco the company was divided into four small parties, (provision having been made for the three men yet to arrive,) and soon the active, eventful life began in earnest. The history of this *party would be of absorbing interest, and far too long for this notice, the only object of which is to commemorate the event—for an event of decided importance it was, in those days a generation ago.

Many doubtless remember the scene at the railroad station on the departure of the adventurous band. Seldom has there been a largeer crowd of sympathetic spectators assembled there, and such a scene is as unlikely to recur as is the occasion. Of the members of the party eight died in California, and four at home, after various adventures and vicissitudes; and twelve are living, of whom one remains California, one lives in Florida, one in Portland, Me., three in Boston, one in Newington, four in Portsmouth, and the residence of one is unknown.

Thirty-three years! How long to look forward to! How short to review!

J. C. B.

*In accordance with our request, the "49-er" whose initials are signed to the above communication has written a more extended account of that once famous excursion, and we shall publish the same in a few days.—Ed. Chronicle.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Mch. 16; Batchelder, J.

John Duffy, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs $6.90; county farm in default of payment.

Henry Williams, a Great Falls man, up on a similar charge, promised to get out of town in short metre if permitted, and was allowed to go.

Rockingham Lodge, I. O. G. T., had a supper and social entertainment in Good Templars' hall on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., with dialogues, speeches, readings and other literary exercises. On the same evening there was a social dance in Odd Fellows' hall, under the management of New Hampshire Lodge, I. O. O. F.; there was a large attendance, and Harlow's orchestra furnished the music. There was also an assembly in the south wardroom, under the management of Mr. James T. Adams, at which the dance music was supplied by Turner's quadrille band; this was the last of the series of social gatherings given by the colored citizens of Portsmouth, and the attendance was not so large as on former similar occasions.

Mr. E. Fred Owen, formerly of this city but for three years past connected with the Swamscot Machine Works at South Newmarket, has recently secured a position in the machine works of the Builders' Iron Foundry Co., of Providence, R. I.

At the annual meeting of the North Parish the sum of $285 was appropriated for music the ensuing year.

Stephen W. Clarke, Esq., formerly principal of the Portsmouth high school, but now in business in Manchester, was in this city last Thursday on a brief visit. The inland air appears to agree with him, for he looks to be in better health than for some years past.

A commandery of the United Order of the Golden Cross was instituted at Kittery Point on Thursday evening of this week by Deputy Grand Commander Pressy, of Brookline, N. H., assisted by officers of the Portsmouth commandery. The steamer James Sampson made an extra round trip across the river, to accommodate New Hampshire brethren of the order.

The iron pillars which were put in the front of Wm. P. Walker's custom clothing house on Market square, on the 9th inst., were cast by Messrs. Critchley & Whalley in their new foundry on Hill street—the first heavy castings made there. This establishment will prove a great convenience to builders, and others requiring heavy work done in this line, the proprietors being skillful mechanics and having facilities to answer any calls likely to be made.

The Middle street Baptist society are arranging for a fair, at which the symphony concert recently given in Franklin hall will be repeated, by special request of a large number of persons.

Mr. Charles G. Emmons is to be clerk and assistant manager of the Wentworth house at Newcastle, and will enter upon his duties April 1st.—Manchester Mirror.

A large number of fishing vessels came in on the 9th inst., the aggregate fares being quite large.

The steamer Acushnet arrived from Boston at about half-past four o'clock in the afternoon on the 9th inst., having left Boston at ten o'clock in the morning—a very quick trip, when the weather (a fog and thick snow-storm) is considered. The steamer is greatly improved, in speed and other ways, by the alterations made during the winter. She leaves for Boston this morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. George Herbert has sold his cottage in Dow's woods, near Wallis' sands, Rye, to parties from another city.

The first practice game of base-ball was played on Wednesday of this week by the south end nine, preparatory to coming contests with other nines next summer.

The winter term of school in the district in Greenland near the Concord railroad station, closed on Friday, the 3d inst., after an unusually long term of fourteen weeks. The teacher, Mr. T. Manning Hodgdon, resides within the district, and was formerly a pupil in the same school. It is not too much to say that his efforts during the term just closed have been entirely acceptable to committee and parents alike. Mr. Hodgdon has returned to Dartmouth college, and resumed the studies of the sophomore year, which were interrupted during the period of his teaching.

At the car works of the Eastern railroad company in Salem, Mass., are being built a large number of cars for the carriage of coal, of a new model which is claimed to be an improvement over former designs. The method of opening and closing the sides easily and rapidly is a new one, and better than any previously used process. General Freight Agent Berry has been in Bangor recently, in conference with the projectors of the all-rail line from Bangor.

J. Thos. Vose, Esq., president of the Concord railroad, was in town last Thursday, and visited the coal wharves of the railroad with a view to examine their capacity for increased business.

Patrick Hunt, of Niantic, Ill., on the night of March 3d got up for the purpose of going down stairs after something, and fell, breaking his neck and killing him instantly; he was not discovered until morning, as no one heard him fall. It was supposed that he made a false step when near the bottom, striking his head against the wall. He was an old man, and getting feeble; was unmarried, and his folks all reside in Ireland. He formerly lived in Newington.

—"I occasionally drop into poetry," as the man said when he fell into the editorial waste basket.

Mr. E. M. Gifford, of the Norway Iron Works, Boston, Mass., gave the following description to a Boston Globe representative as suggesting the special property of the points he makes in favor of the popular article mentioned below. Mr. Gifford observes: I am connected with the Norway Iron Works, one of the largest manufacturing concerns in the country. There is more St. Jacobs Oil used by the men in the works than I would like to state, lest you would put me down as a romancer. They use it right along for everything, and it does its work every time. I never thought anything advertised in the papers would take such a hold among men. You see those who work in not iron are constantly receiving hurts in one way or another, the most common being burns. Well, there is nothing equal to St. Jacobs Oil for burns. It takes all the fire out instantly—not after continued applications—but instantly. Therefore, you will at once perceive that it is an invaluable remedy to men who are constantly having their flesh singed by red-hot iron. Oh, yes, many have used it in rheumatic affections, and I have yet to hear the first man say it failed to give relief. They keep it in their families too, and all swear by it. At the works the men club in and buy it and place it in the hands of the carpenter, who dispenses it when occasion requires. There is seldom a day when it is not called for. All use it. You must understand that a cut from hot iron is not like a slash with a knife or any other cold instrument. The iron not only cuts, but it destroyes the tissues and leaves a ghastly, quivering wound exposed to the air, and a fainting, agonized wretch writhing with pain. Many a time I have seen a poor fellow thus situated soothed and relieved by the St. Jacobs Oil, as if by magic. Only the other day a boy got frightfully cut with a piece of hot wire rod while at work. The wound was a very bad one. He suffered intensely, and was fainting with pain. As soon as possible, a bottle of the St. Jacobs Oil was brought from the carpenter's chest, and the wonderful liquid was poured into the wound, which was in the calf of the leg. The relief was immediate, and the boy went to work a short time afterward, apparently unmindful of what otherwise would have undoubtedly laid him up.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, March 8.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 1820; Sheep and Lambs 7200; Swine 13,850; Veals 60; number of western cattle 1470; eastern and northern cattle, milch cows, etc., 350.

Prices of Beef Cattle per 100 lbs, live weight—Extra quality $8 75 to $8 12 1-2; first quality $8 00 to $8 62 1-2; second quality $8 2 1-2 to $8 87 1-2; third quality $4 37 1-2 to $5 12 1-2; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, etc., $3 00 to $4 25.

Brighton Hides 8 1-2c per lb.
Brighton Tallow 7 1-2c per lb.
Country Hides 7c per lb.
Country Tallow 5c per lb.
Calf Skins 12 1-2c per lb.
Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 to $1 75 each.

The supply of western cattle brought into market the past week was not as good a grade upon an average as those offered one week ago. Trade was slow and prices, taking quality into consideration, were not so fully maintained. There were not any lots of very extra beeves offered for sale, and the demand for shipping cattle continues light. Butchers say that prices realized at Boston markets for beef cattle are held at, and the trade is confined principally to beeves which sell at 9 1-2 to 9 3-4c per lb for dressed, for 8c per lb live weight, for lots having been sold at the latter price this week.

Working Oxen have been in moderate demand of late, but as the season advances there will probably be a better demand for them. We note sales of 1 pr, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight 2300 lbs, at $120; 1 pr, 6 ft 4 in, live weight 2300 lbs, at $110; 1 pr, 6 ft 10 in, live weight 2600 lbs, at $150; 1 pr, 6 ft 8 in, live weight 2800 lbs, $145.

Milch Cows and Springers—The trade is very fair for extra cows and calves, but common grades sell dull. We note prices of extra cows at $55 to $75 per head; ordinary grades sell at $20 to $50 per head; springers at $48 to $65 per head; farrow cows at $15 to $29 per head.

Veal Calves sold quick at 4 to 6 1-2c per lb live weight.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from the west were all owned butchers and cost, landed at Brighton, 5 3-4 to 6 3-4c per lb for sheep, and 7 to 7 1-2c per lb live weight for Lambs.

Swine—Store pigs sell at prices ranging from 6 to 8c per lb live weight, or from $3 to $4 per head for small pigs. Western fat hogs cost, landed at the slaughter houses, from 7 to 7 3-4c per lb, live weight.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of you rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup." It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfect y safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan22

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The Proposed National Bank Act.

The national bankruptcy bill reported to the United States senate from the judiciary committee by Senator Ingalls is very brief. It is a bill of principles. The court sitting in equity decides, speaking roundly, all questions, and the supreme court is to make such additional rules in equity as may be required, and to fix all fees and costs for services under the act. The insolvent estate is to be wound up by a receiver. It is a pretty sharp provision that a person who fails for thirty days after it is due to pay an open account may be thrust into bankruptcy, but, on the other hand, the creditor who willfully and oppressively "sought to bring about the bankruptcy of the debtor" may be denied any or every part of his claim. Without going further, it is obvious that the practicability of this law is to be ascertained outside of its own provisions. That is to say, one of the most serious drawbacks to the usefulness of the last bankrupt law was its expensiveness; now nobody can tell as to any one particular what will be the cost of going or being put into bankruptcy under this bill. The supreme court is to arrange all that. It is easy to see, also, that under the almost illimitable discretion of the court, various constructions and decisions are likely to arise in the several states. The first impression of the bill is that the correct theory is very indefinitely carried out.

The New Hampshire club dined at Young's hotel in Boston on Wednesday, the 8th inst.; 125 sat down at table. The feasts of the club heretofore have been noted for exercises gustatory rather than intellectual. It is said that the attempt will be made to have oratorical efforts succeed the exercise of the knife and fork, at the future banquets of the club.

It is now stated that the chief justice of the supreme court of the state, when he came to see it in a proper light, did not relish having his name used without being consulted, as a candidate for the supreme bench of the United States. One of his decisions was passed around as a specimen, of which it was remarked in Washington that it was more noted for its length than its depth. Recently the C. J. met one of the foremost advocates of his appointment at the state capital, and in freeing his mind upon the subject those who were within hearing assert that his language was plain, and a trifle outside the peace and dignity of the state.

Dan Hewitt and William Sparrow are held in $1000 each to answer in the superior court to a charge of engaging in a prize fight at North Adams, Mass.

Mr. R. B. Askew, late assistant postmaster at Baltimore, said some time ago: "Having had occasion to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I unhesitatingly pronounce it the best remedy I have ever used. A small bottle relieved me of a severe cold."

A party of Nashua and Manchester gentlemen have returned from lake Winnipesaukee with 254 pounds of pickerel and other fish.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

A man named Howe, of Stark, was run over by his oxen and sled-load of logs while going down a hill on the 8th inst.; one leg and several ribs were broken, and it is feared he is fatally injured.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

A Frenchman named Nedeau, from St. Lambert, P. Q., was instantly killed at the mill in Berlin, March 8th. His clothing caught in a rapidly revolving shaft, tearing off one arm and throwing him several feet.

Look at Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Weekly Sun.

The case of Cross against Grant, for criminal intimacy of defendant with plaintiff's wife, recently on trial at Colebrook, has at last been closed, after a trial of nearly four weeks. The result was a verdict for the plaintiff for $2,167.16.

There is untold suffering among the fair sex, which Wheat Bitters will relieve, and turn weakness into strength.

In the case of Rev. James DeBuchananne of Dover vs. Caroline S. DeBuchananne, libel for divorce, heard at the recent session of the supreme court in Dover, the divorce was denied and the petition dismissed.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this unavailable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. H. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have not recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for several times, I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—SAMPSON LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—R. W. LYON, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. HOUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and charged live, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILCOX, Boston.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills, so many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are loosing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 28, '81.
For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia, and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing BROWN'S IRON BITTERS advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
MRS. L. F. GRIFFIN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

"Col." C. S. Ellsworth, at present lecturing in Massachusetts as "the Good Templar state temperance lecturer of Missouri," and who has announced his intention of coming into New Hampshire, is declared a fraud by the Grand Worthy Chief Templar of Missouri, and all Good Templars are warned against him.

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11, 1882.

Gov. Bell thinks we had better keep Fast Day on Friday, April 7th, while our Massachusetts neighbors are to keep the day preceding. Holidays on different dates in New England states cause much annoyance to business men, and there should be one day selected for the observance of Fast,—a day upon which is simply a cessation from business, with the small possible attention paid to the suggestions of governors as to religious duties, etc.

The Manchester Union regards the nomination of Mr. Conkling as an insult to the senate, and that the senate insulted the country by confirming him. This is not the way the country looks at it. It smiles to see how the democrats, who want a non-partisan court, for the sake of keeping on good terms with the administration "gave themselves away" in their votes for confirmation. Mr. Conkling was always sure of the aid of the democratic senators if he had any private legislation of a non-partisan stamp to expect, but it is to the senators of the republican party only that the credit of expressing a doubt as to the fitness of Mr. Conkling for a place he was not calculated to fill, is due.

News and Notes.

R. S. Scudder is arrested at Burlington, Ia., for practising a fraud through the mails. It appears that Scudder had been sending out circulars calling for money to be used in the defence of Guiteau. He said in this circular that Guiteau had been but a tool in the hands of a political ring, and that if money enough was forthcoming, this fact could be proved, and would lead to the downfall of the party in possession of the government. The money received was appropriated by Scudder to his own uses.

Edward Ladd, a livery stable keeper near Baltic, Conn., committed suicide Monday, the 6th inst., by hanging. Two brothers of Mr. Ladd committed suicide some years ago, one by shooting and the other by poison.

Two buildings at the works of the American Powder company, at Acton, Mass., exploded on the 7th inst., with a terrific crash. The only person injured was Frank Wilson from Maine, who was blown into the canal, but probably not fatally injured. Since the mills of the American Powder company at Acton were first occupied, in 1836, there have been thirteen serious explosions. Twenty men have been killed and many mangled by these explosions.

Alderman Ringwauld, of St. Paul, Minn., was taunted in a recent meeting of the board by Alderman Allen with having kicked his old father out of the house, and thrown him on the public charge. It required the full board to hold Ringwauld in his frantic attempt to punish Allen, who with difficulty escaped from the room.

Three murderers were taken from jail at Los Lanos, New Mexico, on the 7th inst., and hanged by a mob. The mob also took two negroes from the jail, and after beating them terribly allowed them to go.

Charles C. Cunningham, formerly the head cook at Parker's hotel in Boston, has been arrested for attempting to extort by threats $25,000 from Mr. Parker.

Books, Magazines, Etc

"A Royal Gentleman" is the title of another book from the graphic pen of Judge Tourgee, the famous author of "A Fool's Errand." It is to be sold by subscription.

It gives with wonderful power the very color and air of the southern land; the bright and sunny pictures of plantation life; the pleasant relations of white and black; the generous, impulsive, wayward character of the "young southern blood;" the quaint, queer, and yet unmistakably accurate portraits of the "Poor white," "the old lawyer," the antique "county clerk," and other local personages; the growth of the little quadroon darkey into the beautiful woman; the quick blast of coming battle; rapid pen-pictures of war and hospital scenes, with actual incidents in which Abraham Lincoln, Sumner, and other men of note figured during that grand period—and innumerable elements beside, go to help form this brilliant and instructive picture of an era in our country's life that has now passed away forever.

It is the strongest presentation of the blighting effect of slavery upon the master race that has ever been penned, and it takes its place among Judge Tourgee's striking historical pictures as a worthy peer of the best of them, destined to long hold his name in remembrance. The book is brilliantly illustrated; price $2. Where there is no agent for the work, it will be sent, post-paid, on receipt of price. We understand the publishers desire to appoint an agent in this county. There should be no lack of applicants to represent an author like Judge Tourgee, whose books are for the million. For particulars, address D. L. Guernsey, No 61 Cornhill, Boston, Mass.

The January number of the "Magazine of American History" has for one of its historical papers "the New Hampshire Grants, germs of nullification and secession in 1776," with a cut of the seal of Vermont, and a boundary map showing the country on both sides of the Connecticut river, the New York charter, etc. There are other interesting contents, notes and queries, literary and original documents of an important character. The publishers are A. S. Barnes & Co., of New York and Chicago. The price is fifty cents for each number, which makes a readable and valuable periodical of eighty pages.

"Littell's Living Age." The numbers of the Living Age for March 4th and 11th contain Ancient Animals in South America, and the Life of Mr. Cobden, Edinburgh; The Babylonian account of the Deluge, Nineteenth Century; Bishop Thirwall's Letters, Blackwood; Dr. Sheridan, Fraser; A Seventeenth Century Worthy—Sir Simon Harcourt, Macmillan; The Authoress of "Auld Robin Gray," and Marie the Frenche Quene, Temple Bar; Some Old Comedies, Belgravia; The Channel Tunnel, Spectator; A Bear Festival among the Ainos, Nature; and in the way of fiction "Let Nobody Pass," "Lord of all," and instalments of "The Freres" and "Robin," with the usual amount of poetry. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year,) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with "The Living Age" for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

To Put a Gloss on Linen.

Put two ounces of fine white gum arabic powder in a pitcher and pour over it a pint or more of water; then cover it and let it stand over night. In the morning pour it carefully from the dregs into a clean bottle, cork and keep to use. A teaspoonful of this gum water, in a pint of starch, made the usual way, will give to linen, white or printed, a look of newness, when nothing else can restore them after they have been washed. It will also give a fine polish to linen.

—An exchange tells me that women have got big hats on the brain. They don't wear them there when at the opera. —Chicago Rev.

—A young gentleman, an amateur artist, was displaying to his admiring friends a bird that he had made in clay. But his eyelids dropped when the punster said, "If that was baked it would be a very fine brick bat."

—A St. Catharine's, Canada, jury of twelve enlightened and thinking men, were called to judge the facts of a case wherein a murder had probably been done—its victim a woman—came to the fore with the conclusion, "Died by the visitation of God under suspicious circumstances."

—"How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a parson of his landlady one day, during a conversation about the saints and the apostle. "Ah, he was a good, clever old soul, I know," replied the landlady, "for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions for conscience sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."

—An exchange says: "When Farmer Budge read that a bull painted by Rosa Bonheur sold for $5000, he remarked to his wife that he didn't see how a coat of paint could so greatly enhance the value of the animal, but if Rosa wouldn't charge more than $10 he would get her to paint his bull in the spring. And his economical wife replied that she thought he might paint it himself and save the $10. The indications are now that the bull will be painted."

—In the Sandwich islands the natives are excellent barbers, but know, or late did know, nothing of wigs. An Englishman went into a Kanaka barber-shop to get shaved, and after the shave the barber, as a matter of course, proceeded to shampoo the customer. The customer had dropped asleep in the chair, and did not notice the barber; and when the latter started with the shampoo and the customer's wig came off in his hand, leaving a perfectly bald head, he thought he had pulled the man's scalp off, and with howl of terror, fled; his assistants fled also, and staid in the woods a week, not daring to take the responsibility of the awful deed.

NEW DEPOT WANTED.

The people of South Seabrook, N. H., and Salisbury Plains, Mass., are trying to get a depot established at the State-line bridge, about half way between the Seabrook and Salisbury stations, the distance between these two stations being 3 3-10 miles. Petitions were handed to the Eastern railroad officials, on Thursday last, containing 445 names of persons over twenty-one years of age, residents of South Seabrook, Salisbury Plains, Walton road, and the Methodist church neighborhood of Seabrook. South Seabrook has a population of 716, and 193 voters, and the petition had 346 names; Walton road, population 113, had 70 names; Methodist church neighborhood, 107, had 41 names; Salisbury Plains, population 123, had 86 names. In all these is a population of nearly 1100 persons who would be well accommodated by the depot at this point. The railroad officials will shortly visit the proposed location of the station, and decide in regard to it. The railroad track now crosses the upper end of South Seabrook, and by making a station at the bridge, it will save a large number of people from walking two miles from the Salisbury station. One of the articles in the warrant for the annual town meeting in Seabrook is to see if the town will instruct the selectmen to "request the Eastern railroad to establish a station at State-line Bridge." There are 470 names on the check list, more than half living south of Cain's brook, and nearest the State-line bridge where a new depot is needed.—Newburyport Herald.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as now veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00.—no assessments. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. FOR SALE--N. H. REPORTS.

In the warrant for the town meeting to be held in Hampton Falls on the 14th inst., is an article to see if the town "will vote to sell the old New Hampshire Reports to Fred. S. Hatch, for forty dollars."

Shade of Meshach Weare! Has it come to this, that copies of the Reports of Decisions of the Supreme Court, which are sent by law to each town, are regarded as of so little account that the town proposes to sell what is held in trust for the inhabitants, and turn the proceeds into the treasury of the town?

We have heard of one instance where a board of selectmen undertook to sell the copies of these reports in the hands of a town, to some one in Exeter, right under the nose of the governor of the state, and close by the office of the commissary general!

We doubt if the town can legally vote to make such a sale. If the town does not wish the reports,—if they have no room for them in their fine new town hall, let them be returned to the office of the secretary of the state, but let not such a sale be the subject of a vote in town meeting at the home of the first President of New Hampshire.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER OF 1812.

Otis B. Downing, of Newington, died in that town on Friday morning, the 10th inst., at the age of upwards of eighty-five years. Mr. Downing was a native of Newington, and was a member of Capt. Jacob Dearborn's company of the Third Regiment of New Hampshire detached militia, under command of Col. Edward Sise, and stationed for the defence of this harbor in 1814.

Col. Sise (who was the grandfather of Col. Wm. H. Sise, our present mayor,) was born in Castle Lyons, county of Cork, Ireland, and came to this country in 1784 and settled in Portsmouth, but lived here but a short time when he removed to Dover. He was made lieutenant-colonel commandant of the second regiment in June, 1814; in September following he was ordered to report for the defence of Portsmouth, and was commissioned as lieutenant-colonel commandant of the third regiment. The orders of Gov. Gilman for the regiment to proceed to Portsmouth reached Dover by express on a Sunday, and were delivered to Col. Sise while sitting in his pew in church. The colonel arose and quietly went out, and on the following Wednesday the battalion was on the march to Portsmouth. Col. Sise died at Dover in 1842, in the 81st year of his age; he was one of the most efficient officers stationed at Portsmouth during the war.

Mr. Downing served from September 28th to Nov. 10th, in 1814. In the same company were several men from Newington, among whom was "Doctor" Wm. Cutter Hodgdon, who for many years has lived at Knight's ferry; the late Joseph Coleman and the late Thomas Foye were also of the same company. Ephraim F. Rollins, father of the late Wm. Rollins of Newington, was lieutenant of this company. Capt. Dearborn was from Hampton.

Mr. Downing fell while crossing the floor of his house one day last autumn, breaking one of his thighs, and has ever since been confined to his bed, his advanced age preventing recovery. His former comrade, Mr. Hodgdon, who was eighty-nine years of age on the 4th of July last, is still hale and hearty.

The fish arrivals on Thursday, the 9th inst., were numerous, the fares being as follows: Schooner Flying Cloud, with 3700 lbs.; the Storm King, with 1500; Cora Lee, 3600; Champion, 6000; Addie & Hattie, 650; Water Lily, 800; Lizzie D. Saunders, 4000; Golden Rule, 4500; Ev. Nichols, 1900; Flying Eagle, 1800; Martha Jane, 2000; Albert Woodbury, 570; Mary E. Smith, 1100; Ella M. Johnson, 700; Rover's Bride, 3500; Eldorado, 1800; Magellan Cloud, 1800; Nettie Adams, 2500; Northern Eagle, 2500. Mr. Warren Caswell, of Rye, also sent in 950 pounds. The receipts on Friday were brought in from fishermen resident at the Shoals, and were caught in wherries—700 lbs. each from William M. Randall and Henry N. Caswell.

Persons from Haverhill, Mass., were in this city on Friday endeavoring to engage laborers to assist in clearing away the debris of the late fire in that place.

The schooner Christie Campbell is hauled up for the present, preparing gear for fresh-fish fishing, and will run out of Boston.

Elvin Newton & Co bought about 30,000 lbs. of fish on Thursday, the 9th inst., giving about the Boston prices.

Naval Constructor Robert W. Steele is detached from the navy yard at Pensacola, Fla., and ordered to the Portsmouth yard.

The bridge of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad at Cocheco river has been fitted with timber guards, six inches high, on each side of the rails, to obviate as far as possible the danger of a train going into the river in case it should leave the rails. These guards are similar to those used on the elevated railroads in New York, which have been found to work efficiently in practice. All bridges should be thus supplied.

Referring to the death of Thomas Lydston, formerly of Kittery, which occurred at Stuart, Iowa, on Feb 26th, the Locomotive of Stuart says that owing to his age and feebleness he went out but little, and consequently made but few acquaintances while there. It adds: "His life was an honorable one, and in his days of activity and vigor he filled more than the common niche among his fellow men. Before shipbuilding became almost one of the lost arts in the United States he was reputed to have been 'the best liner on the Kennebec river.' For several years he held the responsible position of master builder at the Portsmouth navy yard, and it was under his supervision that the historical frigate 'Constitution' was rebuilt, when saved from destruction by the protest of the American people, voiced in Holmes' 'Old Ironsides.'" Mr. Lydston's remains were brought to Kittery for interment.

David Jenness, Esq., of Rye, who is a great lover of music and always attends the musical conventions held in this city, has just finished a term of singing school in North Hampton, acknowledged to have been one of the best of the kind for many years. Twenty-five evenings were devoted to the work, and nearly a hundred persons were in attendance. David's efforts were crowned with success.

The county commissioners were at Rye on Thursday, and straightened the Sandy Beach road to Foss' beach in compliance with a petition presented by a number of citizens of the town. Hon. Emmons B. Philbrick acted as surveyor.

The Christian society at Newcastle has purchased a house in that town belonging to Elder Joseph W. White of this city, for a parsonage.

An exchange in speaking of Gus Williams, who will appear in Music hall on Monday evening, says: "Mr. Gus Williams as Prof. Conrad Keiser crowded the Academy last night, and before the curtain rose there were no seats left down stairs. Lack of space prevents a critical notice of his performance in this issue, but it is enough to say that the audience was convulsed with laughter throughout. His support is excellent."

Dr. G. B. Loring is said to have offered to give the Eastern railroad the triangle between the Marblehead track and the main line at Salem, if the company will put its machine shops there. The lot comprises about eight acres of land.

—To live in an absolutely fire-proof building in New York is certain death in case of fire, the New Orleans Picayune says.

—Mr. Mill says his church is to be the church of the future, and then he tells us in the same breath that there is no future. What is he giving us?

—The slang expression "tally" was probably coined from the word epitaph, which generally expresses the same thing.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

—A New York tourist, who ate an alligator beefsteak in Florida, didn't get the taste out of his mouth until he had eaten half a peck of onions and four dozen herrings.

—"Pa, why do they call 'em high schools?" "It's because we pay so much for 'em, my son. You'll understand these things better when you get to be a taxpayer."

—A celebrated lawyer said that the three most troublesome clients he ever had were a young lady who wanted to be married, a married woman who wanted a divorce, and an old maid who didn't know what she wanted.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story--A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used this and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can ever need to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Boston Herald.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Cuticura

Geo. W. Brown, 48 Marshall St., Providence, R. I., cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) of a Ringworm Humor got at the barber's which spread all over his arm, neck and face, and for six years resisted all kinds of treatment.

SKIN HUMOR.
F. H. Drake, Esq., agent for Harper & Bros., Detroit, Mich., gives an astonishing account of his case (eczema rodent), which, after being treated by a consultation of physicians without benefit, and which speedily yielded to the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

SCALD HEAD.
H. A. Raymond, Auditor F. W., J. & S. R. R., Jackson, Mich., was cured of Scald Head of nine years duration by the Cuticura Remedies.

ECZEMA.
Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST.
Mrs. Bowers, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR.
Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT,
The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

How Much Land for Each?

The recent census gives the total area of the United States (not reckoning Alaska) at 3,025,600 square miles, of which 55,600 square miles are occupied by water—lakes, rivers, bays, etc.,—leaving 2,970,000 square miles of land, or 1,900,800,000 acres.

The total population is 50,155,783. This land, evenly divided, would give to every man, woman, and child 37 3-4 acres, and an onion patch three by nine rods, over. If we divide the population into families of six persons, each family could be allotted 227 acres. Allowing one quarter of the land to be mountain ridges, sandy and stony tracts, and other "bad lands," there would still be left the regulation "quarter section" (160 acres) for each family.

But the census figures now being made up are for June 1880. Since then over one million people from foreign lands "have come to stay," as American citizens, and the natural increase has been considerable; the total increase from 1870 to 1880 was three per cent per annum. So we have now (March 1st, 1882) nearly fifty-four million inhabitants. As the area of land does not expand, there are now less than thirty-six acres each, or not 152 acres per family, and the average amount is rapidly decreasing.

No cause for alarm, however. With the best culture, one acre will supply plenty of food for one person, and at this rates we can allow more than four hundred million acres for waste land, and still have an acre each left for the estimated entire population of the globe, which is somewhat over fourteen hundred millions. This is a great country! Thanks for the iron sinews of the hundred thousand miles of railway lines, and the nerves of the network of telegraph wires, and the speaking tubes of the postal department, we are, as a people, brought into one closely united family occupying Uncle Sam's Great Farm.—American Agriculturist for March.

A Witty Answer.

The man who travels on the railroad and sits down by the side of lone females, while laboring under the impression that he recognizes a likeness in their faces to his wife's aunt's cousin, met his match on one of the roads in this vicinity lately. He sat down in the half of a seat, the other half of which was occupied by a pleasant-faced young lady. His first question was:

"Pardon me, Miss, but is your name James? I have a cousin of that name whom you greatly reasemble."

"No, sir," was the reply, "my name is not James. But, pardon me, is your name Zinc or Copper?"

"Zinc or Copper? No, ma'am," said the astonished man. "What led you to suppose I had such a name?"

"Excuse me," was the quiet reply, "but I thought you must be first cousin to a brass foundry."

The man fell over two seats and kicked a bird cage half way down the car in his haste to get into the smoker, while the young lady smiled behind her handkerchief.

—What is home without a night key? —Lowell Citizen. It's equivalent to a ticket to a first-class lecture, or a symphony in white.—Boston Post.

—A man in a sleeping car on the Eastern railroad kept people awake two hours, by propounding, about bed-time, the query: "What is the best thing to brush a hat with?" And the crowd staid awake and guessed, and one man who came to his station and had to get off felt awfully. And, finally, after they had all given it up, the questioner said he thought the best thing to brush a hat with was a hat brush. And it was painful to witness the disgust of the crowd.

"One must be poor to know the luxury of giving." That may be so, but we think anybody can enjoy the luxury of giving his fellow-sufferer a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to cure his cough.

At West Paris, Mass., on the 7th inst., Luther B. Bartlett fell on a circular saw, and was cut in two.

A Remarkably Elastic Carpet.

The new cork floor covering—Linoleum—is so rapidly increasing in popularity, that it is superseding all articles used for that purpose. Its remarkable durability is the secret of its success. All first-class carpet dealers keep it. The genuine cloth has the name "Linoleum" on the back of every square yard.

Anson Ford, aged sixty-three years, was crushed to death by a falling tree at Milford, Conn., on the 7th inst.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; Parsons' Exterminator. Barns, granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

Edwin A. Sally, a young man, committed suicide in Mansfield, Mass., March 9th, by shooting himself twice with a revolver.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet, balsamic specific.

Edward H. Ellis, the so-called "clergyman" who is under arrest at North Haven, Me., for alleged criminality with a Mrs. Rose of Thomaston, lives in Neponset, Mass., and has a wife and children. He is not a clergyman at all, but a "lay evangelist."

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

OINTMENT
THE GREAT CURE FOR
ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching; worse at night; seems as if pin worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has yet been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in affording a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BENJAMIN SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. S. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORD, Lawrence, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RUFUS LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation in the world. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTH, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeón Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of his apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 13, 1882.

I HAVE this day disposed of my Job Printing Office, located in the Chronicle Building, to MR. RICHARD I. WALDEN, who has been for a number of years Foreman and Job Printer in the office of the Portsmouth Journal.

Mr. Walden is well known to the public as a careful and skillful printer, and I can conscientiously recommend him to my patrons and to the public generally as a good mechanic and a worthy young man.—As such, I bespeak for him the patronage that has been so generously accorded to me.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S

COUGH

SYRUP

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of consumptive persons in advanced stages of the Disease. For Sale by all Druggists.—Price, 25 cents.

Daily Chronicle.

Humble Origin of Celebrated Men.

Michael Faraday, the greatest philosopher of his time, started from a blacksmith's anvil, and Shakespeare held horses at the door of a London theatre before he held the attention of all stages. The path of life opened for Robert Burns in a ploughboy's furrow; George Peabody endowed a library in the village where once he sawed wood. The shoemaker's last would have been the most appropriate coat-of-arms for William Cary, the millionaire, and Cloudesly Shovel, the admiral and the famous author. The butcher's stall was the starting place of Kirk White and Akenside and Cardinal Wolsey. Herschel played in a brass band ere God called him up to listen to the music of the spheres and the orchestra of the morning stars. A barber-shop was the starting place for Copernicus, the astronomer, and Arkwright, the inventor, and Jeremy Taylor, the ecclesiast, and Tenterden, the Lord Chief Justice of England. A mason's trowel was the weapon with which the learned Ben Johnson and Hugh Miller, the geologist, began to fight their battle of life. With a weaver's shuttle Columbus the discoverer, and Dr. Livingstone the explorer, and John Foster the essayest, and Wilson the ornithologist, began to weave their fortunes and their usefulness.

A widow of North Adams, Mass., some time ago let a man named Edgerton, then in a North Adams music store, but now of Bennington, Vt., have $300, be having promised to marry her. Not keeping his promise, the widow last week went for him with the law, and he settled by giving bonds to pay $350, and all the costs.

What will make a man or woman more cross or illnatured than a severe attack of rheumatism? What will effect a cure as promptly as the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil? Mr. William Davidge, related the following significant facts bearing upon the above query, to a representative of a prominent Philadelphia Daily. "My father, the old comedian, now with Hill's troupe, has been very enthusiastic about the powerful effects of St. Jacobs Oil in rheumatic cases for some time past. He has been a great sufferer from rheumatism for years, and no treatment he received appeared to do him any good. I heard him sometime since praising St. Jacobs Oil, and he appeared to be delighted with the way the Oil acted in his case. Not long after that I had a bad rheumatic attack myself, caused, I think, by exposure while traveling, and remembering what my father had said about St. Jacobs Oil was strictly true, for before I had used much of the remedy my rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have not been bothered in that way since. That Oil is certainly a wonderful discovery, and does a vast amount of good." We should say that Mr. Davidge is the well-known and popular actor.

Much anxiety prevails in Gloucester concerning the safety of the schooner Bellerophon, Capt. Fred Wyman, which sailed on a bank halibut trip on Monday, Jan. 23d, and has been absent seven weeks. She was out in the disastrous gale of Feb. 5th. It is reported that she was seen on the banks, with her windlass broken. There is a bare possibility that she may have been caught in the ice and yet be heard from, although chances are against her, as no tidings have been heard, nor has she been seen, by any one of the fleet since the blow. Fourteen men were on board, including the master. She was owned by Michael Wales & Son of Gloucester.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

Arba Nelson of Craftsbury, Vt., recently tried to cut away the ice on a mill dam at the village, when he slipped and fell over the dam, striking on the ice at the bottom of the dam with such force as to cause instant death.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

Edna Dora Avery was arraigned in Providence, R. I., Friday, on five complaints for attempting to poison, and was held in $7,500 for further examination. She was housekeeper in a place of ill repute, and attempted to murder all the other inmates of the den.

Take Warning

And don't let the germs of that vile disease, catarrh, take root and flourish in your system. Sulphur Bitters will prevent this and will make you strong and healthy.—Editor.

Sergeant Mason, who shot at Guiteau, has been sentenced to eight years' confinement in a military prison. Petitions for a pardon are already in circulation, and receiving numerous signatures.

Excessive use of alcoholic drinks cured by Wheat Bitters, prepared by solution and not by fermentation.

It is proposed to pay a monthly pension of $50 to Mrs. Betty Taylor Dandridge, daughter of President Zachary Taylor, and widow of Lieut. Col. W. W. Bliss, "Old Rough and Ready's" aid-de-camp. It is also proposed to pay a monthly pension of $8 to Mary Wade of Gettysburg, the mother of Jennie Wade, who was killed while baking bread for the Union soldiers during the battle.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit, A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Miss Frelinghuysen, the daughter of the secretary of state, runs over to the White House and directs the steward how to arrange the tables when the President gives a dinner party.

"Rough on Rats."

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs; 15 cts. boxes.

Wells' Health Renewer. Absolute cure for nervous debility and weakness of the general functions; $1 at druggists. Depot at J. H. Thacher.

A Washington paper announces that Harry Garfield, the late President's son, will marry Miss Lulu Rockwell, daughter of Col. C. H. Rockwell, U. S. A., when his college course is completed.

I have had a troublesome cough for more than five years, and have had advice of three of the most skilled physicians, but I found nothing to relieve and cure me till I used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. MRS. GEO. A. ROBBINS, Riverside, Me.

Parties who are yet undiscovered, on Wednesday night of last week chloformed George E. Mattux and family, residing in Prince George county, Va., while they were asleep, and then set fire to the house. The occupants were got out with difficulty. Mattux's store was pillaged and set on fire, and both residence and store were entirely consumed.

Should you be a sufferer from dyspepsia, indigestion, malaria, or weakness, you can be cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "o d home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE -F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. The last compound, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. cod&tuly20

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Maj. Daniel Atwood, an old and respected citizen of Pelham, died suddenly last week while engaged in chopping wood in front of his house. His age was seventy-four years.

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Moses Adams of Manchester, aged fifty-two years, committed suicide Friday evening, at his residence. He loaded a gun, placed the butt on the ground and the muzzle against his breast, and discharged the piece by displacing the trigger with the ramrod. The charge entered his heart, killing him instantly. The cause of the act is in doubt. Adams was in good circumstances, kept a large boarding house, and owned a good farm in Dunbarton. He had been sick some time with asthma. Low spirits is the only way the suicide can be accounted for.

Wheat Bitters have received the endorsements of medical men of the highest standing. These can be shown.

Economy at Harvard.

The students of Harvard college have organized a co-operative society for the purpose of supplying themselves at moderate prices with books, furniture, stationary, coal, wood and various other articles. The Harvard Co-operative society is to begin business as soon as 400 persons connected with the university have subscribed to the articles governing its operations, and paid an annual fee of $2 each. Until such time as the success of the society shall have justified its existence, the business will be carried on by commissions in order to prevent loss.

This will enable good boys to have more money to expend for base balls, boating, and crackers and cheese at the Parker house. The great drawback to Harvard is seen in the number of young men whose fathers give them such unwarranted large sums to spend, to continue an extravagance frequently begun on their first year's absence from home. This oftentimes demoralizes a whole class. If the fathers of to-day expect their sons to be able either to earn or keep large fortunes, they should compel them to begin a little lower down in the scale of expenditure.

Naval Affairs.

Representative Morse, from the committee on naval affairs, has made a favorable report upon the bill to restore to the active list of the navy Thomas G. Corbin, now a captain on the retired list. The bill provides that his name shall be placed on the navy register next after Rear Admiral J. W. A. Nicholson.

The Yantic, Comdr. Woodward, arrived at Pensacola on the 5th inst., from Aspidwall Feb. 4th, and Isle Ruatan Feb. 21st.

News and Notes.

Mr. Baucus, democrat, has been elected from the Saratoga senatorial district in New York, as a successor to the late Senator Wagner. Baucus! is that the way the democrats spell it? we thought it was "Bacchus" that flourished in Saratoga.

Mrs. Harriet Bell was quietly buried from an undertaker's rooms in Boston on Friday, Allan Fairclough paying the expenses. The murderer has not been discovered up to that time. Enough has been discovered concerning the deceased to show that her morals were not of a high order.

Lake Huron is open to navigation, as is also Lake Michigan.

Hop Sing, a Chinaman, was refused naturalization in New York last week, on the ground that he is not a "white person" within the meaning of the statute.

Mrs. Cyntha W. Grant, a widow eighty-six years of age, living alone in a small house two miles from Augusta, Me., was burned to death in her house early Friday morning. It is thought that she lighted a kerosene lamp and started for some portion of her house, and her feeble footsteps giving away, the lamp broke and the oil ignited.

Director Stephen H. Condict, of the Mechanics' National bank of Newark, N. J., was arrested on the 9th inst. in a civil suit brought by Receiver Frelinghuysen. The arrest was made on a writ of nexeant, issued by United States Judge Nixon, bail being fixed at $250,000.

Rev. Thaddeus Salters, the first colored man who has ever been admitted to holy orders in the Episcopal church in South Carolina, was ordained in St. Mark's church, at Charleston, on Friday last.

Nelson Gardner, treasurer of the Baptist church of Plainfield, N. J., committed suicide on the night of the 6th inst., leaving a letter stating that he had used $3,000 of the church money, and committed suicide in consequence.

Mr. Russell, known and loved in this country under the name of "Bull Run Russell," states in a letter in the London Post that Charles Reemelin, author of a book on America recently published in London, is "at present governor of the state of Ohio," having been so "created in 1871 by President Hayes."

AROUND HOME.

By particular request, Mr. Gus Williams will this evening at music hall recite "The Water Mill,"—the beautiful poem which was so warmly appreciated by a large audience when recited by Mr. Williams in the same hall several years ago.

Buffalo Bill is announced to "play" in this city on the 20th inst.

Ladies as well as gentlemen are interested in the card of Call & Tuttle, Boston, which appears in our paper to-day. Established in 1837, for nearly half a century the firm has been noted for the excellence of its work, and its patrons to-day find all that is newest and choicest in goods, styles and workmanship. For ladies' outside garments they have special facilities, which are highly praised by the many who avail themselves thereof.

Mrs. Margaret Ahern, of Stratham, died very suddenly on the 3d inst., in the house of Mr. Joseph White at Exeter. She went to Exeter from her home in the morning, visited several places, and about noon called at Mr. White's, where after sitting awhile she complained of feeling unwell, and died in a few moments from apoplexy.

Naval Constructor Steele, ordered from Pensacola to this navy yard, is said to be one of the best-posted men in the service in the construction of iron ships.

The Fifth Avenue Comedy Co. will tomorrow evening present the sensational drama "East Lynne" at Music hall. The Syracuse Journal says "the company is superior to any that has yet appeared in this play" in Syracuse; and the Columbus (Ohio) Journal, speaking of the performance in that city, says: "Hardly a line of the clearly-pointed dialogue was allowed to pass without good use of its advantages, and every situation was well played and executed, and the company played into each others' hands most effectively and in a manner more common to the French than to the English spoken stage; and their essential understanding raised the performance to a standard which would make a far less meritorious play most interesting."

Mr. Edward Tucker, who lives in Rye near the head of Sagamore creek, lost a fine horse week before last, through the ice breaking while the animal was being driven across the creek. Oxen were procured and the horse pulled out, but he was so much exhausted that he soon died.

Mr. Wm. Baker, engineer at the Eldredge brewery, had a very handsome gold watch presented to him by the Eldredge brothers recently.

Elvin Newton & Co. on Friday night and Saturday sent to Boston by rail forty-two boxes of fish, aggregating over 20,000 pounds.

The fishing schooner Mary S. Hontvet arrived in the lower harbor on Sunday from a Georges trip, with a good fare.

Mr. Levi Bird, painter, of Water street, has recently painted in oils a portrait of the late President Garfield, a milk-maid, and a landscape, which are said to be really meritorious. They will be on exhibition (and for sale) in the window of some store near Market square this week.

The gravel for the roof of C. E. Walker & Co.'s new coal-pockets at the foot of State street was furnished by Mr. Nathan W. Tarlton of this city, and hauled from one of the beaches at Newcastle. This gravel is said by the roofers to be especially suited for the purpose, and has been used on the roofs of buildings owned by J. Albert Walker and Hon. Frank Jones.

The "Little Giant" dredging machine went on the ways at Kittery on Friday, and came off on Saturday. The schooner George W. Raitt was towed across the river from this side on Saturday, to haul out on the railway.

Subscriptions to the stock of the new railroad which is to run from the Boston & Maine railroad station in Kennebunk to the beach in Kennebunkport are now being made, with a prospect that the whole amount offered will be quickly taken up, and the road built immediately. We have not heard that subscriptions to the stock of the hoped-for new railroad from Kittery to York beach and Wells have been started by the parties most interested in having it built.

Capt. H. W. Trefethen took across the river to Kittery in the steamer Mystic, Friday, between twenty-five and thirty fowls of the Langshan and Houdan breeds, the lot being valued at $250. These birds were brought home by Capt. Redford W. Sargent, of Kittery, master of the ocean steamship Indiana, on his last trip from Liverpool to Philadelphia. One of the roosters is tall enough to be able while standing on the floor to eat grain off the top of a dining table of ordinary height.

Mr. Theodore Keen, originator of the regular steamboat service between Portsmouth and Kittery Point, and owner of the steamer Fearless, has returned from New York, whither he went to inspect a side-wheel steamer which had been offered him for purchase, with a view of putting her on the route the coming summer. He found the boat to be a beauty, strongly built and of just about the right size, but her steam power was hardly great enough for satisfactory service on the swift-flowing Piscataqua. Mr. Keen has contracted with the excavating company owning the Little Giant dredge and scows, to deepen the approach to his landing at Kittery Point sufficiently to enable it to be reached without difficulty at any stage of the tide, by any steamer that may be placed on the line.

A skating rink one hundred feet wide and two hundred feet long is to be erected at Old Orchard, not far from the Boston & Maine railroad station.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—non assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of IMPORTANT SALE OF WHARF PROPERTY, ETC.

Henry F. Wendell, Esq., will sell at auction in this city, on the 22d inst., at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, Drisco's wharf, so-called, on Water street; also three-fourths of the fine fishing schooner Rover's Bride, recently re-topped and made better than when new, one dragboat, three mackerel seines, four seine boats, thirteen hundred hogsheads of salt, and other material used in the fishing business, with office-safe, tools, etc. After disposing of the above, the three-story brick house and store at the head of Long wharf will be sold. The sale will be worthy the attendance of buyers, among whom perhaps will be found some from other places, as it is advertised in the Boston and Gloucester newspapers.

WEEKLY FISH REPORT.

A summary of the fish fares from offshore grounds landed at this port during the week ending March 11th by vessels and market boats, shows thirty-five arrivals with 140,800 pounds, against forty-nine fares the week previous amounting to 381,100 pounds. The best fish sold from $2.75 to $3 per hundred weight, being a material reduction over the prices realized the week before, when $4 was in many instances paid, and $4.50 for some. Halibut and smelts have, as usual, been scarce, but were in constant demand, and good prices offered. There are indications that the lobster business at this port is to be largely increased.

MATTERS IN RYE.

RYE, March 11th.

The social enjoyments in our town this winter have been frequent, and far more appreciated than ever. Recently a reception was given by Messrs. Jenness and Balch at the town hall. The evening was agreeably spent, and the spread was worthy of the reputation of the ladies of Rye, in this regard.

At the recent school meeting in district one, Charles D. Garland, Esq., was chosen moderator, and C. E. Sleeper clerk. Twelve ballots were had for prudential committee, before any one would consent to serve. At last Mr. Nathaniel Marden, whose ability in this duty will be equalled only by his popularity, gallantly came to the rescue, and as Shakespeare wrote

"Had greatness thrust upon him."

Why the friends of education in this district, when they saw that the men in that part of the town either would not devote the time, or possessed not the capacity or inclination for this service, did not elect a woman, is to be accounted for only upon the supposition that a change in any public affair in Rye is ever deplored. Rye has many well educated and capable women, who would acceptably serve (if only properly coaxed) on the school committee. In Portsmouth, I learn, women on the school board render most valuable aid. There are many subjects which a female teacher can freely discuss with one of her own sex, concerning which she would be silent to a committee "man." It is proposed to paint the schoolhouse in this district, and Messrs. Chas. D. Garland, Ruel G. Shapley and Chas. A. Drake are a committee to consider what repairs and increased facilities are required, and to make an estimate for the same, to be reported at a future meeting.

The county commissioners have concluded that portions of the Sandy Beach road should be widened and straightened, and have been over the route this week. This is as was anticipated. No one supposed a different result could be reached. The selectmen themselves personally conceded what was perfectly apparent, but they did not choose to take the responsibility.

There is a certain element in Rye which, though growing less and less as the years roll on, yet is entitled to—or at least has always received—great respect as to its opinions. I refer to that conservative element which is satisfied with things as they are. It says to those who want improvements, who seek to please the summer visitors, and add to our attractions to be enjoyed by residents as well as by strangers, "This is well enough now. Our fathers got along with this narrow road, etc.; why can't we?" When told that the elegant turn-outs from the cities can hardly pass other establishments upon some of our narrow ways without danger of injury, they shake their heads with fossil-like-movement, and tell "what folks did when we were young," etc. Against this element, no one dares to assert his independence, if he expects an office in Rye. Rye votes the regular ticket, and reveres the consitution and the ways of its ancestors. While it has, in proportion to the extent of territory within its borders, more summer visitors than any other town in the state, it is as a town reluctant to show its appreciation of this important source of income.

I hear that the government will pay no back rent for the ground used for the life-saving station, and that the building is to be removed to the southerly end of Jenness' beach. The story is again revived that the cable station is also to be removed.

Mr. Samuel Caswell, an old and respected citizen, and a veteran fisherman, died this week, and was buried on Friday. His age was about sixty-four years.

The civil engineers of the Eastern railroad have been looking over the route of the proposed new beach railroad this week; the staking-out is reported to have been done from a point on the main line in Salisbury to this town.

The summer boarding house keepers (by this I mean the ladies of the houses,) will soon begin to "clean house," and have things put in order for the season.

The great success of the "Farmers' club" at the Farragut last year promises to be repeated this summer. The gentlemen at the Farragut were never more contented to stay at Rye, as they found amusement before unknown. At the Ocean Wave, Mr. Knox is to erect a summer house on the rocks in front of the hotel.

We hope for a good season at Rye; the engagements already made for rooms warrant this expectation.

OCEAN SPRAY.

A REJOINDER.

The captain and crew of the fishing schooner Sylph scoff at the statement of the crew of the schooner Daniel C. Baker, relative to the first-named vessel's crew robbing the latter's trawls, and say it savors strongly of the "stop thief" cry of the pickpocket when he would cover up, or escape from the results of, his own depredations. Their story is as follows:

On the occation referred to, one day early last week, the trawls of the two vessels were set across each other; the Sylph's crew had underrun their own trawls, and were returning to their vessel for dinner, when the Daniel C. Baker came down; there was no "running away" or abandoning of work on their part; and they had not troubled the other schooner's trawls. The captain of the Daniel C. Baker pulled alongside the Sylph in his dory, and made charges of trawl robbing, and threats of violence, against the Sylph's men; but instead of being threatened, and confronted with "forks, knives and a bushel basket," he was invited on board, which invitation he declined. The forks and knives were being used only in the ordinary course of work, and the perilous bushel basket was full of herring which one of the men had just brought out of the hold for the purpose of baiting his trawls.

The Sylph's men say further that they had good cause to suspect the Daniel C. Baker's crew of making free with their trawls. On the trip when the Sylph was accused of poaching, she took 1800 lbs. of fish in two days' fishing with seven dories, while the Daniel C. Baker took about 2100 lbs. in one day's fishing with five dories. The Baker's men had previously threatened to cut the Sylph's gear, and it was found badly cut, and to a great extent "skinned" of fish.

Capt. Hiltz, of the Sylph, says this was not the first time he had had good reason to suspect the Daniel C. Baker of indefensible practices; while on "Kettlebottom" last spring, in the schooner Iris, the latter gave her berth to the Daniel C. Baker, and ran into Small Point, Me., for bait, leaving her trawls set; when she got back she found her trawls had been skinned, and the Baker was the only vessel that had been there so far as the crew of the Iris could discover.

Mr. Daniel M. Lenigan, brewer at the Portsmouth Brewing company, entered suit on Saturday against the Eastern railroad in the sum of $1,000 for damages to his horse and carriage in August, 1881, by the animal taking fright at an engine near the station in this city, and running away.

At Music hall this evening "Prof. Keiser" will be presented by Gus Williams and his company, with Mr. Williams as the professor and inventor of the "non-stealable, magneto-electric, torpedo-combined umbrella." Mr. Williams is by a long way the best German character actor on the stage; his support is said by the press to be superior, and the play to be worth seeing independent of Mr. Williams and his special attractions.

The grade of the crossings near the Middle street church could be changed, to the great benefit of pedestrians. The standing water in that vicinity last week shew just what is needed to be done there.

In the Eastern railroad freight yard at Lynn, last Thursday, George R. Wood, a brakeman, had one of his hands badly crushed while coupling cars.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wljanS2

A GOOD DIVIDEND-PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE, $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, clinched by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The Little Children's Watches.

Yesterday an old man entered a Little Rock store, and taking from his pocket an old buckskin pouch, he emptied two coins on the counter, and then, after regarding the silver for a few moments, said:

"Mister, I want to buy some goods to make a dress."

"That money is mutilated, old gentleman. This twenty-five-cent piece has notches filed in it, and this fifty-cent piece has been punched. You see, they have been abused. I can't take them."

"Abused," said the old man. "Abused," and he took up the fifty-cent piece and looked at it tenderly. "And you won't take it on account of the holes. Heaven grant that I did not have to offer it to you. Years ago, when my first child was a little girl, I punched a hole in this coin and hung it around her neck. It was her constant plaything. At night when she went to bed we'd take it off, but early at morning she would call for her watch. When our John—you didn't know John, did you? No? Well, he used to come to town a good deal."

"Where is he now?" asked the merchant, not knowing what to say, but desiring to show appreciation of the old man's story.

"He was killed in the war. I say that when John was a little boy I strung this quarter around his neck. One day his watch got out of fix, he said, and he filed these notches in it. He and his sister Mary—that was the girl's name—used to play in the yard, and compare their watches to see if they were right. Sometimes John wouldn't like it, because Mary's watch was bigger than his, but she would explain that she was bigger than him, and ought to have a bigger watch. The children grew up, but as they had always lived in the woods they were not ashamed to wear their watches. When a young man came to see Mary once she forgetfully looked at her fifty cents. 'What are you doing?' asked the young man, and when she told him she was looking at her watch, he took it as a hint, and went home. After this she did not wear her watch in company. Well, Mary and the young man married. John went off in the army and got killed. Mary's husband died, and about two years ago Mary was taken sick. When her mother and I reached her house she was dying. Calling me to her bed, she said: 'Papa, lean over.' I leaned over, and taking something from under her pillow, she put it around my neck and said: 'Papa, take care of my watch.'"

The old man looked at the merchant. The eyes of both men were moist.

"Do you see that boy out there on the wagon?" he said. "Well, that is Mary's child. I wouldn't part with this money, but my old wife, who always loved me, died this morning, and I have come to buy her a shroud."

When the old man went out he carried a bundle in one hand and the "watches" in the other.—Little Rock Gazette.

Assessors in Kentucky get fifteen cents for every name placed on the registration list of voters. Hence the state authorities have just discovered that there are more voters on the list than there are men above twenty-one years of age in the state, which is preposterous in the extreme. The excess is about 7000, to say nothing of aliens and others who should not to be reckoned as voters, but in that state are. No wonder Kentucky gives a democratic majority just as large as is desired.

Josh Billings says: "Next to a clear conshience for solid comfort cums an old shu." He probably never suffered with a cough or cold, otherwise he would have referred to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup as being also a good thing to secure relief and comfort.

A clock is shown in Burlington, Vt., the frame-work of which is composed of thirty-five different specimens of minerals from Colorado. Among them are gold and silver ore, quartz, crystals, and petrified wood.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

Rev. H. W. Worthen of Northfield, Vt, who was tried recently by an ecclesiastical court and acquitted, on a charge of immorality, is now sued in the county court.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Bad weather at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

Mrs. William Ogden of New Bedford, Mass., was burned to death last week through her clothes taking fire.

Look at Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Weekly Sun.

Six town agencies in Rutland county, Vt., sold 1,249 gallons of liquor last year, at an average price of $4 per gallon. The Rutland agency sold 514 gallons at an average of $4.25 per gallon.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Garrison, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the parts become much inflamed. A speedy, pleasant, economical and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. stamps, 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this household remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. E. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—U. O. FONCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have never since stopped, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Dryseed, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. F. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was better on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER on the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

FANCY DRESS PRINTS

The EDDYSTONE PRINT WORKS is one of the largest and most complete establishments in the country.

THE EXPERIENCE OF HALF A CENTURY

has enabled them to attain such perfection that they can with confidence ask you to test the quality of their work. They carefully avoid all poisonous drugs, make only fast colors, which are thoroughly washed in hot water and soap, thereby removing anything which would stain underclothing.

Those who buy and wear their prints will, they feel confident, find them superior in durability, artistic style and finish. Be sure and ask for their goods, and see that their marks and tickets are on them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. 1mch21

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

for N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. Nine or four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

WHEAT BITTERS.

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to sovereignty it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Mrs. Bessie Kelroe of Boston on Saturday evening attempted to fill a lighted lamp with kerosene, and was burned to death.

A full feeling after meals, dyspepsia, heartburn, and general ill health relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Samuel Lindsay, thirty-six years of age, cut his throat with a razor at Watt Junction, N. B., on the 11th inst., in presence of his wife and four children. He had previously tried to kill himself with a revolver, but his wife got the weapon away from him. He had been partially insane for some years, from pecuniary troubles.

ELY'S CREAM BALM CO., Owego, N. Y. —Please send us at once two gross Ely's Cream Balm. We take pleasure in congratulating you on the success you are having with the "Cream Balm" catarrh and hay fever cure. Its sale is steadily increasing with wonderful rapidity as you can see by our frequent orders. It is evidently an article of great merit. Very truly, JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., 602 Arch st., Philadelphia. March 19, 1881. Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N Y.—I have had catarrh for a number of years in its worst form. Before I had used one bottle of your Cream Balm droppings into my throat had entirely ceased, pain and soreness in my head was entirely removed, as well as deafness. I have used a great many remedies, but nothing that equals yours. It also gives immediate relief for cold in the head. MRS. J. D. HAGADORN, Union, N. Y., Dec. 7, 1878.

Terrible Earthquake.

Intelligence has just reached Panama of an appalling earthquake in Costa Rica. Advices thus far received state that four towns have been destroyed. These are Alajuela, San Ramon, Grecia and Herlia. In Alajuela alone several thousand lives were lost. Those left alive there are homeless.

Affairs in Utah.

The Utah legislature adjourned last Friday evening, and a despatch from Salt Lake says that in the closing speeches there was a tacit recognition of the fact that the day of polygamous legislation was now forever passed, and their final adieu to the halls where, for twenty-five sessions, they had upheld standards of theocracy legally, was not without a certain dignity and pathos. The legislation of the session was unimportant. Both sides agree that the governor exercised his absolute veto power with good judgment. In almost every instance his suggestions were adopted, and his approval thus secured. On one point the governor and legislature could not agree, however. The governor held to his duty under the United States statutes to nominate certain territorial executive officers, whom the legislature assumes to elect under a territorial law, passed when Brigham Young was governor. The legislature requested him to concede the point, declaring that there were no vacancies in said offices. The governor and legislature, however, parted with a mutual exchange of compliments.

News and Notes.

Mrs. Sarah E. Howe, president of the Women's bank of Boston, has been sentenced to three years in the house of correction.

Judge Blatchford of New York was on Monday nominated for associate justice of the United States supreme court.

The trustees of the First Baptist church at Plainfield, N. J., have made an examination into the account of Nelson Gardner, the late treasurer, who committed suicide last week, and left a letter saying that he had committed a great wrong. The church books are found correct, and his accounts as executor of his father's estate have also been found all straight. The wrong to which he referred is believed to have been an unfortunate real estate investment which he made, sinking in it, it is said, some of his wife's money. His inability to obtain a situation for over a year, and his brooding over his losses financially, are believed to have unsettled his mind.

William Krambe, a German, was instantly killed by an electric shock from a Brush electro-dynamic battery, at the Cleveland (Ohio) rolling mill, Saturday evening. The deceased was employed as assistant engineer, and had been repeatedly warned not to touch the machinery.

The Canadian custom house at Niagara Falls was entered by burglars during Friday night. The vault was blown open, and money and valuable papers were stolen.

Madame Etelka Gerster is seriously ill at Chicago.

A canvassing committee in Burlington, Ia., has secured $1,000 for the relief of the southern flood sufferers.

The Mexican press is combining in the denunciation of the importation of negro labor for employment on the branch of the Mexican Central railroad from Tampico to San Luis Potosi. The government is asked to insist on the employment of native labor.

It is stated that a caucus of the Irish Catholic members of the Canadian parliament will be held shortly to draft a memorial to the queen, praying that the "suspects" be released and that Ireland be placed on the same free footing as Canada.

In the United States circuit court, at Milwaukee, Saturday, in a suit of the Northern Transit company of Michigan against the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $111,116. A motion for a new trial was made by the defendants.

G. Frank Wolcott, twenty-one years old, and the adopted son of J. V. Wolcott of Agawam, Mass., was accidentally and fatally shot, Saturday. He was gunning near his home, and received a full charge of buckshot in the breast while trying to draw the gun toward him by the muzzle.

At Greenville, R. I., on Friday, Charles Dexter's left hand was nearly severed from the wrist by coming in contact with a circular saw.

Three women, three men and two children were killed by the explosion of the steamer Sidney near Ravenswood, Ohio, on the 10th inst. Several other persons were injured, some of them dangerously.

Two young married women, one of them being only nineteen years old, and both having young babies, were arrested in Ipswich, Mass., recently, for stealing numerous articles, at a fair and abundant proof of their guilt secured. Their friends now threaten that unless the prosecution is dropped, they will prosecute the managers of the fair for maintaining lotteries.

Dr. Thomas, whose trial and expulsion from the Methodist church for alleged heretical teachings recently attracted much attention, is mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Miln, as pastor of Unity church, Chicago.

John Williams was working under a belt at Dunn's mill, at Saccarappa, Me., last Thursday, and not feeling very well took a dose of Jamaica ginger. Immediately after drinking it, he fell down senseless, and when he came to his tongue was paralyzed. This is the second person who has had a like experience after working under the belting, and it is considered due to electricity.

One concern in Boston advertises forty-four new patterns of wood mantels, and yet the average savings bank hesitates before it will take a mortgage for more than two-thirds the cash value of a poor æsthete's house.

Oscar Wilde's tour of the rural districts of Illinois and Wisconsin has been a complete failure. The people in that section would rather wear cow-hide boots with pants tucked in at the top, than low shoes, long hose and knee breeches.

Information has been received at Raleigh, N. C., that the Mormons have made a lodgment near King's mountain in that state. Numbers of the country people are flocking to hear them, and they have made about fifty converts at that point.

At Nordrup, near Ringstead, Denmark, an interesting discovery has been made. At a depth of only a few feet, in a deposit of pumice-stone, the remains of seven human bodies were found, together with numerous bronze objects, urns, gold rings, Roman glasses, mosaics, glass beads, etc. A similar discovery was made at the same spot some years ago.

An extensive bed of combustible shale is attracting attention in Iowa. It is reported by the Sioux City Journal that the shale had been tried in coal stoves, and that it worked well. It burns freely in the open air, and trial is to be made of it as a fuel for locomotives. It was discovered in a search for coal, near Fort Randall, at a depth of thirty-six feet. The stratum can be traced for miles along the river bluff. The shale contains petroleum, and has a greasy, gritless look somewhat like cannel coal.

Three of the men who recently sailed in the fishing schooner Sylph with Capt. Hiltz, have left her and joined the Dauntless, Capt. Gray.

A man has been humbugging the people of Enfield, Mass., by selling them common salt at twenty-five cents a thimbleful, he claiming it to be an infallible preventive of explosion in kerosene lamps. If such oils as C. E. Laighton & Son and John P. Sweetser advertise and sell is used, there need be no fear of an explosion; and it is the cheapest in the long run, too.

A correspondent of the Newmarket Advertiser says: "Mr. Benjamin Durgin of Kittery, Me., lectured at Lee depot last Saturday, and gave the reasons that impel him to go to Palestine to help restore that 'holy land' to its former glory, and to build up a kingdom and prepare it for the coming of the Lord. He sees only death here, and that caused by sin; and in order to escape sin and go down in the grave he is compelled to go to that ancient country, for he expects to get rid of sin and to be imbued with the old pentacostal spirit, which will qualify him to go forth and preach the word in the same spirit as did St. Paul and the apostles of old. He fully believes in a personal devil, and thinks it necessary to have one, in order to keep the Christian's arms burnished up and ready for the conflict. However much one may question his theory, and of his embarking in such an enterprise as he proposes, no one can for a moment doubt his perfect honesty and sincerity of belief, and no obstacle can turn him back from his purpose."

The 8th anniversary of Dirigo Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Kittery, will be celebrated on the evening of Friday, March 17th, in Trefethen's hall at the navy yard village, by a social assembly and supper.

The Highland house at Biddeford pool took fire about ten o'clock in the morning on the 13th inst., and was destroyed, as was also the Sea View house. Loss on the Highland house about $50,000; on the Sea View about $40,000. [A later report, Monday evening, was to the effect that the Highland house only was burned. It was a new hotel, four stories high, and the fire is supposed to have been incendiary. Insurance $22,000.]

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the SIX years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00.—so accessible. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. THE NEW RAILROAD.

The new branch which the Eastern railroad contemplates building from a point on the main line in Salisbury or Seabrook to this city, will probably come into the city by the following route:

From Rye up along Sagamore road to the junction of that road and the Wentworth house road, where a station will be built; thence across Sagamore creek on a bridge built by the road; through Hall's field, near the south cemetery, passing along the foot of Lincoln hill between the residence of the late Frank W. Miller and Broad street; thence to Wibird street, crossing it near the dwelling of D. Webster Barnabee, across Middle street and the circus field, past Jones' brewery to the main track. As the rise between Wibird street and the circus ground is quite heavy, it is possible a tunnel may be constructed there.

Another route which has been considered, but is not in much favor with the road's engineers, is to strike Mr. Samuel Langdon's place on Lafayette road from Sagamore, and from there strike the main track at or near the foot of powder-house hill.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

Mr. Joseph Hiller Foster, treasurer of the Portsmouth savings bank, on Monday received from Jacob Wendell, Esq., of New York city, a letter in which he says that he has noticed in the local papers "that a subscription paper is being circulated among your citizens for the purpose of raising funds for the repair of the building for a home for destitute children," and adds: "For the occasion, please consider me a citizen, and accept the enclosed check for fifty dollars for that object."

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Mch. 13; Batchelder, J.

Albert Weeks and William Marsden, for the larceny of old metal from the ruins of the Kearsarge mill, were sentenced to three months in jail, and to pay the costs of prosecution.

RESIGNATION OF MR. KNIGHTS.

Our citizens will regret to learn that Mr. Joseph G. Knights, the gentlemanly superintendent of the Portsmouth Shoe company, to whom the credit of the starting this industry in Portsmouth is largely due, on Saturday tendered his resignation of the position he holds in the company, to take effect May 1st.

The company has been employing between two and three hundred hands, and have added to the population of our city twenty-nine families, averaging five persons each. The monthly pay roll shows a disbursement of $10,000, and it is estimated that about 700 persons are either wholly or in part supported by this industry. That the goods of the concern have an enviable reputation in the market is evident from the large force constantly employed to keep the orders filled.

Mr. Knights and his estimable lady have made hosts of friends in this city, and it is hoped that they will continue to reside here.

We learn from outside sources that Mr. Knights contemplates the management of putting upon the market a recent invention of his son, J. V. Knights, bookkeeper for W. H. Trask of Lynn, Mass. In this connection we publish the following from the Lynn Union of the 10th inst.:

Joseph V. Knights, book-keeper in the establishment of W. H. Trask on Central avenue, has just been granted a patent for a burglar alarm which is considered superior to anything now in use in that line. It occupies the smallest possible compass, is of trifling weight, and by a thumb-screw arrangement can be attached to any door or window in a moment of time. It can be adjusted to either the casing or knob of a door; and when once set, the slightest attempt to gain an entrance gives an alarm. Commercial travellers and parties generally who have been compelled to put up in strange places with valuables in their possession, have long felt the need of something of this kind. Arrangements are being completed for its manufacture, and it will soon be brought to the attention of the general public. Mr. Knights, though but nineteen years of age, has displayed in other mechanical devices as well as this, inventive genius of a high order.

Since the foregoing was in type we learn that John P. Tibbetts, one of the recently-burned-out manufacturers at the Haverhill fire, will succeed Mr. Knights in the superindency.

The fifth Avenue Comedy Co. at Music hall this evening, in "East Lynne."

A new shifting engine, the "Hercules," has been put on to do the yard and wharf work of the Concord railroad in this city, in place of the old "Liberty," which has been sent away to be extensively repaired. The Hercules looks like an exaggerated Saratoga trunk on four wheels, the water tank, etc., being on top of the boiler, no tender being attached to the locomotive—an arrangement intended to save fuel by utilizing all the escaping heat from the boiler in warming the water which is to be used, and to increase the power of the locomotive by adding to the weight on the driving wheels. This engine has the most appalling whistle we ever heard—a piercing shriek about half way between filing a saw and the squall of a peacock; any person who would stop on the track long enough to be run over after hearing that unearthly yell, must have mighty queer taste in music.

Capt. Nason's gondola, the Sturgeon, which has been lying at anchor off Mason's sawmill in this city with a load of lumber on board, ever since the closing up of Sturgeon creek, Eliot, by the ice last fall, got under weigh on Monday and proceeded up the river, from which we infer that Sturgeon creek is now sufficiently clear of ice to admit of navigation.

We have received from the author, Mr. Joseph Stringham of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, "Bi-monetism: the money of commerce and the money of the state; an enquiry into their relations to each other, and to gold, silver and paper materials for money." We are not so much interested in the kind of money (provided it is not of the old state bank variety—we lost $75 of hard-earned money once by the failure of a state bank) as we are in the question of how we can get hold of some of some kind; so we have sent the treatise to the Mechanics' reading room.

A liberal donation of books has recently been contributed to the library of the Seaman's Home, the money value of the gift being more than $25.

E. O. Cole, late station agent for the Eastern railroad in Amesbury, Mass., has resigned, and has been succeeded by C. F. Worthen, who formerly held the position.

The schooner Mary S. Honvet, which arrived in the lower harbor on Sunday from Georges with 60,000 lbs. of cod, sailed for Boston and a market on Monday morning.

Orders were received at the navy yard from Washington, Monday, to bring the U. S. S. Plymouth from the anchorage she has so long occupied in the lower harbor, up to the yard.

Mr. G. Ralph Laighton left on Monday to assume the duties of assistant clerk of the Nashua Iron Co., at Nashua. He is succeeded in his clerkship at the National Mechanics & Traders' bank by Mr. Wm. P. Benedict, heretofore a clerk in the office of the Trust & Guarantee company.

Civil Engineer Craven, of this navy yard, is refitting in a superior manner the house on Seavey's island formerly occupied Civil Engineer Chandler, for a residence. It is one of the most beautiful locations on the river, or anywhere else.

We are under obligations to Hon. Thomas L. Tullock for a register of the navy to Jan. 1st, 1882. Mr. Tullock is worth all our congressional delegation combined for remembering his "constituency" in some instances where his thoughtfulness is gently appreciated.

There were a number of fishing arrivals on Monday, among them being the schooners Flying Cloud with 4000 lbs., the Golden Rule with 3500, the Good Templar with 2500, and the Cora Lee with 1000. A large fleet was reported to be in below.

The schooner Adeliza of this port is chartered to take heading from Portland to New York. She was bending her sails on Monday.

The mayor, Aldermen Martin and the city clerk were on Monday inspecting the sewers which empty into the south pond and Puddle dock.

The town report of Newmarket for the year ending Feb. 28th, 1882, shows that the total amount of taxes assessed was $16,866: the fire department cost $766 to maintain, the police department $621.64, and the schools $3,770.99; the salaries paid to town officers aggregated $618.80. The total liabilities of the town are $27,699.65; the cash in the treasurer's hands on the 1st of March amounted to $3,979.36, leaving the net indebtedness of the town $23,720.29, a reduction of the debt during the year of $2,713.99.

In bringing the pain of separation to the home of a devoted husband, death released from suffering the faithful wife who had for many years helped make it the most desirable place on earth to both. Yet in the prime of life, buoyant in disposition, merry of heart and seemingly hopeful of years of continued happiness such as had already attended her married life, the dread change that brought desolation to fond hearts, and sorrow where joy had reigned, came all too quickly. The friendship that sympathetic tears betokes, the utterance of overburdened hearts, the expression of tenderest feeling may not, with well-meant intent, assuage the grief of mother, husband or brother—but the memory of many past days and years of cheerful happiness, of the rare thoughtfulness that illness but made more apparent, and the patience which grew with constant suffering, will shed a fragrance o'er stricken hearts which passing time will never efface—sacred remembrances of a companionship dearly cherished, of a voice that, though stilled to earthly listening, yet speaketh and is heard.

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I can now go about my business as courageous mortal may bear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of consumptive persons in advanced stages of the Disease. For Sale by all Druggists.—Price, 25 cents.

The Coming Easter.

The devout readers of the CHRONICLE, and there are probably many such at this season, may be interested to learn some facts concerning Easter, recently printed in the London Standard. The writer says "the old idea that our Lord's passion and resurrection occurred in A. D. 35, (given in most Bibles which have dates in the margins,) was founded on the traditional belief that he was about thirty-three years on earth, combined with the idea that the date of his nativity was four years later than it really was, (the actual date of that event being, in all probability, B. C. 4.) The only real doubt about the date of the resurrection is whether it was A. D. 29 or 30. Now, astronomy tells us that the full moon, which would be Paschal in the former year, fell on a Saturday, (April 16th,) which is inconsistent with the circumstances narrated. But in A. D. 30 that full moon was on Thursday, April 6th, on which day the Passover meal was eaten, and our Lord suffered the next day (in our reckoning, the same day in the Jewish) on which other observances connected with the Passover were still to be kept. This, then, I have very little doubt, was the true year, and if so, of course the first Easter was on April 9th, on which day we shall this year celebrate its anniversary."

Naval Affairs.

The nomination of Captain Henry Erben, for advancement, which was reported adversely to the senate, has been referred back to the committee on naval affairs.

The flag-ship Lancaster arrived at Alexandria, Egypt, Feb. 14th, all well; would remain two weeks. On the passage from Messina a seaman named Alexandria McLaughlin fell from the main-topsail yard to the deck, and was instantly killed.

Naval Constructor Thomas E. Webb, of the Norfolk navy yard, has been ordered to New York as a member of a board of survey on the Trenton.

The secretary of the navy in his instructions to Commodore Luce, commanding the training squadron, concerning the summer cruise of the Saratoga and the Portsmouth in European waters, directs that the two vessels set sail from Newport, R. I., not later than April 5th next, and visit the following ports in the order named: Plymouth, Portsmouth, (England,) Cherbourg, Brest, Lisbon, Cadiz, Gibraltar, Malaga, Naples, Leghorn, Genoa, Port Mahone, Gibraltar, Madeira, and thence home, and to arrive as nearly as possible about Oct. 20th. The vessels are also under instructions not to remain in any one port for a longer period than five days.

Orders have been received at the Norfolk navy yard to have the dry dock put in order to receive the training ship Portsmouth. She will have her bottom repaired and be generally overhauled before proceeding on her cruise to Europe.

The Vandalia sailed from Havana for Pensacola on the 9th inst.

A majority of the Russian nihilists, recently tried and condemned to death, intend to present petitions to the czar for mercy through their counsel.

They say "a word to the wise is sufficient," but we think it takes about five, "Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup." You can get this article in any drug store for twenty-five cents. Physicians recommend it.

Three Indian scouts, named Dandy Jim, Dead Shot and Eskiticha, were hanged at Fort Grant, Arizona territory, March 3d, under sentence of a court-martial, for treacherously aiding in the massacre of troops in that territory some months ago.

No Doctors Need Apply

To me to get their living. The only doctor I have is Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of dyspepsia when the doctors all failed.—George Paige, Rochester.

The murderer of Mrs. Bell had not been discovered up to midnight on Sunday. Many "clues" had been followed by the Boston police, but none of them led to the murderer.

We have lived to see the old adage, "Two of a trade seldom agree," satirically disproved. St. Jacobs Oil can no longer be considered the bone of contention among the medical fraternity, since druggists whose veracity is not to be doubted, and eminent physicians like A. A. Waite, of Pittsfield, Mass., give and corroborate their testimony cheerfully and without solicitation.—Providence (R. I.) Democrat.

The towns of Waldoboro', Nobleboro' and Newcastle, Me., have voted almost unanimously not to lease the Knox & Lincoln railroad to the Maine Central on the terms proposed by the latter.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—RANSOM SEAVEY.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—G. O. FORBE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and sharp-cut pains, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPES, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

DR. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. The fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgertics, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle-aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to effect a thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le don Lonsel.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

This Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Thousands of Copies are sent by mail, securely sealed and post-paid, to all parts of the world, every month, upon receipt of price, $1.25. Address to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Secretary Folger of the treasury on the 14th inst. issued a call for $5,000,000 of the "continued" six per cent bonds, on which interest will cease May 3d.

Mr. J. W. Mansen, of Waverly, Ill., says: "The St. Jacobs Oil is the grandest medicine for neuralgia I ever saw. I have frequent attacks of this disease and nothing does me good except the great German remedy. I commenced using it about a year ago, and would not be without it for anything! I have a brother-in-law, who, if it be possible, has greater faith in this great curative medicine than myself. It cured him of a terrible attack of rheumatism, and he swears by it."

Jay Gould invited a few of his friends into his office this week, and shew them $23,000,000 of the Western Union telegraph stock which he owned, besides twelve millions of the Missouri Pacific railroad stock.

Paralytic strokes, heart disease, and kidney affections, prevented by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

Daniel Ingham, aged eighty-six years, was burned to death in his house at Bath, Me., on the 14th inst., through his bed taking fire from his pipe.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

John Russell Young is spoken of as the probable minister to China.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

Small-pox is epidemic at South Bethlehem, Pa. Over fifty cases appeared between the 11th and 13th insts., and the schools are all closed. The malady is of the most malignant form.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Mr. L. W. Cobb, night editor of the Portland, Me., Press, has resigned, and his place will be temporarily filled by J. M. S. Hunter.

General Grant has visited every civilized country, yet in all his travels he has never seen a more effectual remedy for coughs and colds than Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Sold by druggists and dealers at 25 cts. Trial size, 10 cts. Large bottles, 75 cts.

Officers Clark and Whitman, of Boston, who were suspended two months ago for shooting to death William H. McLaughlin, a notorious young South Cove rough, have been returned to duty.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; Parsons' Exterminator. Barns, granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

Shin Shu Tseong writes from China to one of his school mates at Norwich, Conn., that the first lot of returned students tried to hide so as to escape from China, and are now in prison.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet, balsamic specific.

At Linkville, Oregon, on the night of the 11th inst., a deputy sheriff was killed and a justice severely wounded while defending an alleged murderer who was in their custody from the attack of a mob of would-be lynchers. After committing the murder the lynchers fled, without getting their intended victim.

Almost Killed.

I was almost killed by the doctors, who treated me for bleeding piles. It cost me over $100 without relief. I took Sulphur Bitters for two months, and now I am well.—Gus Hall, Troy.

One of the hardest woods in existence is that of the desert ironwood tree, which grows in the dry wastes along the line of the Southern Pacific railroad. Its specific gravity is nearly the same as that of lignumvitæ, and it has a black heart, so hard, when well seasoned, that it will turn the edge of an axe, and can scarcely be cut by a well-tempered saw. In burning it gives out an intense heat.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1845, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED!

JUST PUBLISHED, a new edition of the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, the Science coming Exhaustive Debility, Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., being the result of a life long experience, coming from the vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple, certain, and safe remedy, by which every sufferer can cure himself, cheap, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Alonzo D. Wasgatt, a farmer seventy years old, blew out his brains with a pistol at Woodstock, Vt., Sunday.

Excessive use of alcoholic drinks cured by Wheat Bitters, prepared by solution and not by fermentation.

At Greensburg, Ind., on the night of the 11th inst., the house of Wm. Stewart was burned, and his mother, aged 106 years, perished in the flames.

No Doctors Need Apply

To me to get their living. The only doctor I have is Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of dyspepsia when the doctors all failed.—George Paige, Rochester.

Assistant Judge Advocate General Swaim, on reviewing the proceedings of the Mason trial by court-martial, found them defective and they will have to be set aside.

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My a ms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

Elections in Maine.

Several cities and towns in Maine held their annual elections on Monday.

In Newfield the republicans elected their entire ticket by majorities ranging from fifty-five to seventy-three, a clear gain of over fifty voters from last year. This result was mainly due to a good organization and honest workers.

The North Berwick greenbackers made a clean sweep, electing all their candidates by majorities ranging from ten to sixty-three.

In Biddeford the republicans elected all the ward officers in five out of the seven wards, five of the seven aldermen, and a large majority of the councilmen. Mayor Elisha E. Clark, nominated by the republicans for re-election, lacked about eighty votes of a majority over the democratic and "citizens'" candidates. The democrats, who have persistently worked up the "citizens'" movement, hope to get the votes of that party for their candidate at the next trial.

Camden elected a full board of greenbackers, excepting the collector, for town officers. The greenback majority on the test vote (for first selectman) was only twenty, and the republicans talk of redeeming the town in September.

In Bangor the republicans won an overwhelming victory, their candidate for mayor having 1008 plurality over the democratic and "citizens'" candidate, and 484 majority over all; last year the republican majority was twenty-two. Every officer of the city government is republican.

In Augusta the republicans elected every one of their candidates, from mayor to constable; the republican majority on the mayor vote, 458, was the largest for many years.

In Belfast the so-called tax-payers' candidate had 350 majority for mayor. Party lines were entirely ignored—but it will probably turn out that the successful "tax-payer" is a man who believes first, last and always in the necessity of democratic success.

Naval Affairs.

Commodore John James Glasson, on the retired list of the navy, died in New York city on Sunday, the 12th inst. Having a taste for the sea when a youth he went to Washington, and by his personal efforts secured the appointment as midshipman on Feb. 1st, 1823. He was made commodore Sept. 28th, 1866, and soon afterward went on the retired list. He commanded the Brandywine when she was destroyed by fire at Fortress Monroe during the rebellion.

Paymaster John H. Stevenson, nominated to be a pay director in the navy, had his nomination reported on adversely by the naval affairs committee of the senat, but the nominee was so elaborately defended by Senators Voorhees, Rollins and others, that the nomination was confirmed by a vote of thirty-four to seventeen.

A gentleman named Fay, belonging in Boston, committed suicide on board the flag-ship Tennessee on her recent passage from Fortress Monroe to New Orleans. He was a passenger.

The Swollen Rivers.

The great floods in the southwest are still on the increase, the waters extending from sixteen to sixty miles from the banks of the rivers in parts of Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Tennessee and Arkansas. Delta, La., has been abandoned, and it is feared the river at Vicksburg will cut a new channel, leaving the city far inland. The levees continue to break at many points.

Secretary of War Lincoln has given orders for meeting the demand of all official notifications of sufferings from the flood. Registrar Bruce has received a letter from Greenville, Miss., showing an appalling state of affairs, and complaints that relief sent to Vicksburg does not promptly reach the sufferers.

News Items.

Allen Robinson, twenty-two years old, belonging in Pictou, Nova Scotia, on Monday went to a railroad station in Boston and bought a ticket for his home. As he walked away from the ticket office he was approached by a man, who informed him that if he would give him what money he had he would show him how he could get $1.50 for every $1 he had. Inspired with the idea of suddenly becoming rich, he gave the stranger what money he had, since which time he has been diligently searching for his man and money.

The champion office-holder of Vermont is George W. Grandey of Vergennes. He has been justice of the peace, representative, senator, speaker of the house, postmaster, mayor, bank examiner, quartermaster general, court auditor, school superintendent and member of the board of education. He is sixty nine years old, and the total of his terms of office is 124 years. He was also a member of the electoral college in 1868, delegate to the Philadelphia convention in 1872, and has been chairman of the republican state committee for a dozen years.

New Hampshire Items.

Edwin Goodwin, twenty years old, of Lebanon, while at work in a shoe shop in Rochester on the 11th inst. fell through an elevator into the cellar from the third story, and was badly hurt, one arm and one leg being broken.

Charles Stiles died in Dover on the 13th inst. from blood-poisoning, consequent on having his right leg badly crushed while hauling logs in Durham about three weeks previously.

The Nashua Iron & Steel company has successfully forged a shaft for the steamer "City of Berlin" that measures 23 1-2 inches in diameter, and thirty-nine inches diameter at the head. It is a handsome and creditable piece of work, and proves that the management of the company is in competent hands.

Inspector General Wheeler inspected the brigade staff at Concord, Monday forenoon; platoon B, of artillery, in the afternoon; and companies C and E of the third regiment in the evening. The latter was a public inspection, and was largely attended.

AROUND HOME.

The U. S. S. Plymouth was taken from the lower harbor to the navy yard on Tuesday, under the superintendence of Lieut. Comdr. Barclay; she arrived at the yard at three o'clock in the afternoon, and was moored under the sheers. She was towed up by the U. S. S. Leyden, Mate John L. Veunard in charge.

Rockingham Lodge, I. O. G. T., will have a pound party in their hall this evening, when the Worthy Secretary will recite an original poem.

A free public meeting will be held in Mechanics' hall on Thursday evening, the 16th inst., with the object of forming a Grocers' Association "in favor of honest weights and measures, and pure goods." J. C. McCready, of the New England Grocer, and others, will address the meeting. All grocers, market men, and the public generally, are invited to be present.

James Barr's gondola, at Russell & Odion's wharf, is being fitted with new hatch-coamings, and receiving other repairs.

Mr. J. J. McCourt, who has for some time been head-waiter at the Falmouth house, Portland, Me., and before going to Portland occupied the same position at the Rockingham and Wentworth houses, will again take charge of the dining-room at the Rockingham house. He is a very efficient man.—Times.

The South Shore S. S. Co.'s screw steamer "Acushnet" arrived at her wharf in this city at about five o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, having made the run from Boston in the very quick time of six hours and twenty-five minutes, notwithstanding the strong head wind, satisfactorily demonstrating that her average time during the summer months will not exceed six hours, and will probably be inside of that. Her sailing time from this port will be five o'clock A. M. each Wednesday and Saturday, until further notice.

The south-end "mosquito fleet" of whale-boats will shortly be fitted out for the spring fishing, after lying up all winter. One of the boats was put overboard on Monday, and several others are ready to be floated.

Messrs. George Herbert & Co., fish buyers and curers, have this winter done considerable in the line of preparing boneless fish for the market. The prepared fish looks nice and is nice, and commands a ready sale and fair prices.

In the town meeting at Epping, Tuesday, Ex-Gov. Prescott was chosen moderator, and the republicans elected all their candidates for town officers.

It is said that the Highland house at Biddeford Pool, burned on the 13th inst., was undoubtedly set on fire. The first persons who entered the house after the fire was discovered found coal-tar on the beds, carpets and stairs. The hotel had been running two years, but had not been regarded as a very successful venture.

In Newburyport, Monday, the fishermen could only get $1.75 a hundred pounds for their fares—a big tumble from $5 a hundred reported as paid in that market a short time previous.

Three fishing schooners, the Edward E. Webster, Nellie N. Rowe and Ivanhoe, sailed from Gloucester on Saturday, the 11th inst., for the south, in pursuit of mackerel. This is the earliest start ever made in the mackerel fishery. Last year the Edward E Webster sailed March 15th, and secured a fare within a week. The fish taken by the south-going fleet bring good prices, though they are little better than shadows.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan82

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—an eyeopener. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. BUFFALO BILL.

Buffalo Bill, (Hon. Wm. F. Cody,) the noted scout and frontiersman, will appear at Music hall on Monday evening next in a play called "The Prairie Waif," written expressly for him by John A. Stevens, author of "Unknown," and supported by a band of genuine Indians, and all the white performers necessary to the success of the entertainment. The Omaha Republican says the drama "is well written and has a good plot, embracing principally some interesting scenes and incidents in Buffalo Bill's life. The company supporting Bill is a very good one, having been carefully selected with a view of each member being adapted to the part assigned." During the evening Buffalo Bill will give an exhibition of fancy shooting, and the redskins will perform their war, scalp, squaw and other tribal dances, in all the glory of war-paint and feathers. The steamer Mystic will make an extra trip across the river from Kittery on the night of the play, to accommodate those from the Maine side who may wish to attend.

SIMON BROWN.

Mr. Simon Brown, whose death at Lynn, Mass., in his 71st year, has been announced, was born in Rye, and lived there until his removal to Lynn twenty-five years or more ago, his boyhood being spent at the old homestead at Breakfast hill; subsequently he bought a farm near Wallis' sands, and successfully cultivated it until he removed to Massachusetts. On his removal to Lynn he engaged in the livery-stable business, and carried it on with success for fifteen years, when he disposed of his stock and retired from active business life, having secured a competence.

He leaves a widow, and three children, (one son and two daughters,) all married and living in Lynn. He has one brother only left, Capt. John H. Brown, who lives on the old homestead in Rye; Gen. Ira Brown and Mr. Langdon Brown, his other brothers, died several years since, as did also one sister, who was the wife of J. T. Walker, Esq. Three sisters survive, viz., the wife of Hon. T. J. Parsons of Rye, the widow of the late Thomas Rand of New York city, and the widow of the late Albert Berry of Greenland.

THE FISH-HOOKING DISPUTE.

Capt. Haven Fernald of Kittery, master of the schooner Daniel C. Baker, in answer to the "rejoinder" of Capt. Hiltz and crew of the schooner Sylph, says he has nothing to retract or alter as to his first statement regarding the Sylph's men being detected in robbing the Baker's trawls, and threatening him with violence when he attempted to board the Sylph alone, the entire crew of the Daniel C. Baker having witnessed the affair from the deck of their vessel.

As to Capt. Hiltz's insinuation that the Sylph's trawls, or the trawls of the Iris on "Kettlebottom," were interfered with by Capt. Fernald's men, it is simply a falsehood; and no man whom he knew to be guilty of such acts would be allowed to sail with him. On the day when Capt. Hiltz says the Baker took 2100 lbs. of fish with five dories, she in reality took but 500 lbs. with six dories; and they were all taken off the Baker's own trawls, too. As to the Iris not getting much fish on her trawls on "Kettlebottom," but little could in reason have been looked for, after the trawls had been set two or three days while the schooner was lying in port; but the gear was not touched by the Baker's men.

As the dispute has become simply a question of veracity, Capt. Fernald is entirely willing to leave the decision as to which of the two (himself or Capt. Hiltz) has the best reputation for honesty and truthfulness, with the people of Kittery and York, and the river men in general, to whom both are well known.

A GOOD TRIP.

The schooner Cocheco, commanded by Capt. Richard H. Seaward of Kittery Point, arrived at Philadelphia on the 11th inst., six days from Wilmington, N. C., with 187,000 feet of yellow pine lumber on board; the run from Smithville, N. C., to Cape Henlopen, was made in four days. The Cocheco went to Wilmington from Baltimore with a cargo of corn in bulk, discharged, loaded with lumber, and was back to Philadelphia in twenty-four days from the time of leaving Baltimore. Her stock on the corn was $610, and on the lumber $1215, a total stock on the round trip of $1825.

AN "OLD LANDMARK" GONE.

The U. S. S. Plymouth, which has swung at her anchors in the lower harbor for so long a time that the fishermen say the water in the vicinity has been shoaled several fathoms by the beef bones and tomato cans thrown overboard by the watchmen in charge, was brought up to the navy yard Tuesday.

Just how long the Plymouth had occupied that anchorage we cannot say; but it is a long while—ever since she came into this port for the second time with the yellow fever on board. The circumstances connected with her being laid up here are still well remembered; how her commander, Capt. Harmony, and her officers, got as mad as wet hens because the health officer, Dr. Wentworth of Kittery, would not consent to her being brought up to the navy yard from the quarantine ground, she having previously been infected with yellow fever; how through their representations to the navy department the ship was sent to Boston, lying there all winter "freezing out" the infection; how she started for the West Indies early in the spring, had another outbreak of the fever and several deaths as soon as she got into warm weather, and hurried back to northern waters as fast as steam and canvas could drive her, the officers who had been so enraged at Dr. Wentworth's intimation that infection still existed on board being as anxious as anybody to get north; and how she was at length ordered to this port to lie up, this being the naval station where, according to a congressional report, "the people of the city seem to care least for the presence of a national quarantine station, only demanding that all reasonable precautions shall be observed." Stripped to her lower masts, and her battery and stores removed, she was towed from the quarantine station to a point between Clarke's island and Kittery point, and there anchored, to remain for years.

The old ship will be missed from her long-filled station by all the crafts that have lately had frequent occasion to pass up and down the river, to the crews of which she had become as familiar an object as Fort Constitution or Mount Agamenticus; and none will miss her more than the Humbug Yachting & Fishing Association, who for several seasons, (three at least,) when caught in a fog have always confidently shaped a course for the Plymouth, with a certainty that her bell would be heard clanging through the obscurity as soon as within hearing distance, the faithful watchmen never being caught napping. But the Humbug's crew have forgiving dispositions, and if the noble old Plymouth is only extensively repaired on the yard, so as to give employment to a large number of working men, the government will be forgiven for removing from the river the association's only guide in a fog.

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass., permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

MILK CRUST,

Mrs. Bowers, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

FALLING HAIR,

Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine 6, Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said that he would lose it.

TREATMENT,

The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

OUTFIT Remedies are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. A GOOD DIVIDEND-PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES. PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a pegged one, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 1,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay large royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Greene County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of consumptive persons in advanced stages of the Disease. For Sale by all Druggists.—Price, 25 cents.

The Rights of Express Companies.

The decision of Justice Miller, of the United States supreme court, sitting in the United States circuit court at Keokuk, Iowa, recently, in the suits against several western railroads by the Southern and Adams express companies, has been awaited with great interest by express company managers. The suits involved questions vital to the existence of the express companies. Their business would virtually have been destroyed had the decision of the court been adverse to them, and had it been confirmed by the supreme court.

The litigation arose from the efforts made a few years ago by several prominent railroad companies to exclude all express companies from operating over their lines. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. was the first leading company to undertake its own express business, about six years ago. In the New England states a number of small express companies had been compelled to withdraw from some of the small roads. About two years ago the Pacific Express Co. was established on the lines of the Union Pacific & Wabash railroad system, and the result, combined with the action of several large western railroads against the Adams, the Southern and the American express companies, was to force a legal issue between the roads and the express companies to determine the rights of the latter. The railroads claimed the right to exclude all outside express business from their lines, which claim was stoutly resisted by the express companies, and which is denied by Justice Miller's decision.

The express business is more than forty years old. There are 464 express companies at present in existence in the United States. The three principal ones are the Adams, operating over the Pennsylvania railroad system; the American, which is favored particularly by the New York Central; and the United States, whose arrangements are specially made with the New York, Lake Erie & Western. The Southern Express company is another of the leading companies. In the suits at the west it was put in evidence, for the purpose of proving the magnitude of the business, that in 1879 the property transported by the four express companies named above was valued at more than $3,000,000,000. This amount, it was testified to, was greater than the value, at the place of production, of the products of the soil—such as grain, coal, iron ore, cotton, etc.,—which were transported in that year by all the railroads in the country. It was shown that the express companies paid to the railroads more than the latter received for carrying the United States mails.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; worse if warm; if worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. As a pleasant, economical and effective cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps. 3 oz. $1.50. Address, Dr. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by serious infection or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have found it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SHAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. S. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—J. O. FORD, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—MILTON LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. HOUTS, Liberty Mills, Ind.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. ROOPER, Washington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: YOUR PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving. G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE -F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

C. V. Dearborn, Esq., of Nashua, has received an invitation from Post John G. Foster to deliver the memorial address, and has accepted. Mr. Dearborn is an ex-editor and a graceful writer, and although he has not in times past given his attention to public addresses there is no reason why he should not fill the bill in a manner satisfactory to himself and to the public.

The extensive mill property of the old Wilton Manufacturing company has been sold to the Colony brothers of Keene, who are also proprietors of cotton mills at Harrisville. The price paid is understood to be about $10,000.

It is reported that the Rockland mills, recently burned at North Weare, are to be rebuilt, and that woolen goods instead of cotton will be manufactured therein after completion.

Large quantities of pine lumber are being hauled to the different mills in Wilton to be cut into cooperage stock, and this branch of business will be the heaviest for many years.

Mr. William H. Gorham, formerly of Exeter, has presented Phillips academy with a photograph of the famous statue of Augustus, found in 1683 in the Viamus Flaminis about eight miles from Rome, and now in the Vatican, and a picture of the Sitting Mars, found near the portico of Octavia in the ruins of ancient Rome, and supposed to be a part of the group of Mars and Venus.

The memorial day oration at Exeter, under the auspices of Moses H. Collins Post, will be delivered by Hon. Henry H. Huse of Manchester.

Foundations for additions to the foundry belonging to the Exeter Machine Works, are being laid. The old buildings have long been too small for the wants of the company.

Robert Morris, LL. D., the distinguished Masonic lecturer of Kentucky, is still at Lake Village, and threatened with paralysis.

At Rochester, on the 14th inst., the regular republican ticket was beaten by a combination of democrats and dissatisfied republicans. The three selectmen chosen are democrats, and the town clerk and treasurer republicans. It was a defeat of what has been called the "Greenfield police court ring." It was voted to abolish the police court, and to make of the whole town one school district.

James M. Camfill was arrested in Peterboro on the 14th inst., on a charge of embezzling $700 from a Boston firm.

Three Conquered.

Three seems to be the number of fortune and progress. The third effort wins, and the following as related by Mr. M. E. Hodge, Belfast, Me., is no exception: I had a person in my employ last winter who was badly afflicted with acute rheumatism. He applied many different remedies without obtaining any relief, until I bought for him a bottle of the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. After applying three bottles of the Oil, he was completely cured and has never been troubled with rheumatism since. It beats all the remedies I ever saw or heard of.

A rare instance of filial devotion to the memory of the dead has occurred in the town of Atkinson. Several years ago one of the citizens becoming poor was obliged to call on the town for aid. At his death his funeral expenses were paid by a daughter, which was the most she could do at that time. Recently she has paid to the town all bills contracted for the support of her father, nearly $200 in the whole.

ELY'S CREAM BALM CO., Owego, N. Y. —Please send us at once two gross Ely's Cream Balm. We take pleasure in congratulating you on the success you are having with the "Cream Balm" catarrh and hay fever cure. Its sale is steadily increasing with wonderful rapidity as you can see by our frequent orders. It is evidently an article of great merit. Very truly, JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., 602 Arch st., Philadelphia. March 19, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—I have had catarrh for a number of years in its worst form. Before I had used one bottle of your Cream Balm droppings into my throat had entirely ceased, pain and soreness in my head was entirely removed, as well as deafness. I have used a great many remedies, but nothing that equals yours. It also gives immediate relief for cold in the head. MRS. J. D. HAGADORN, Union, N. Y., Dec. 7, 1878.

Price fifty cents.

In tearing down the old state prison at Concord, a letter written in blood was found in the walls of one of the cells. It was written on the leaves of a small Bible, and was addressed to the governor, pouring out a serious complaint against the prisoner's treatment. In the cell occupied by La Page, the murderer of Josie Langmaid, was found a small bit of lace secreted in the wall, which is supposed to have come from some clothing.

Benjamin Stevens, an old resident of Manchester, died on the 13th inst. at the age of sixty-six years. He was a member of Louis Bell Post, G. A. R., and served through the war in the Eleventh regiment. Two of his sons in the same regiment were killed.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit, A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teeth g; poi-onous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

An incendiary attempt to burn the unoccupied Cushing steam mill in Dover was made on the night of the 13th inst., but failed through being promptly discovered.

Nursing mothers gain strength by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It acts like a charm in restoring to health and strength overstrained nature.

In the Manchester police court, on the 13th inst., fine costs were imposed amounting to $176.44, of which $140.88 were collected.

It is reported that Abbott Littlefield of Dover falls heir to $55,000 by the death of his mother, which occurred recently.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1882.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.]

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa arrived in Boston on Wednesday, the 15th inst., having in tow the fishing schooner Willie Erdix, in a disabled condition, by reason of the steamer striking her while at anchor on Nantucket Shoals, on the 14th inst.

Commodore W. G. Temple brought a suit in the court of claims to recover eight cents per mile for mileage travelled by him while on government business in foreign waters and in foreign vessels. The supreme court of the United States has affirmed the judgment given in favor of the commodore by the court of claims.

The Boston Traveller of the 15th inst. said: "Ensign A. W. Grant, Surgeon J. W. Ross, Passed Assistant Paymaster James E. Cann, Passed Assistant Engineer Harris Webster, Assistant Engineer C. E. Kleckner, and Assistant Engineer John D. Sloane have been detached from the navy yard at Portsmouth, N. H., and ordered to the Tallapoosa."

Representative Martin, of Delaware, has introduced in Congress a resolution (which is referred to the naval committee of the house) to the effect that the President be asked to send to the house his views as to the propriety and economy of abolishing the marine corps of the United States.

Afflicted Bethlehem.

A despatch of the 14th inst., from Reading, Pa., says: "Telegrams from South Bethlehem this morning state that over 100 cases of virulent smallpox have developed since Sunday, and the excitement continues unabated. On Saturday but three very light cases were known to the health authorities. On Sunday, within five hours, fourteen houses were quarantined, and by Sunday night fifty cases suddenly broke out. This morning the cases are increasing in the most alarming manner. The air is thick with the fumes of tar. Twenty barrels are burning at as many different points. Special police are sworn in to compel the strictest quarantine, and the fire department is on duty constantly."

News and Notes.

The sale of seats for the Patti opera season at Mechanics' building, Boston, opened on Monday, the 15th inst., with over 200 people in line, the receipts averaging over $1800 an hour for ten hours.

The Edmonds anti-polygamy bill passed the house on the 14th inst. as it came from the senate, the vote being yeas 199, nays forty-two.

The report sent from Panama regarding the destruction of four cities in Costa Rica by an earthquake, and the loss of thousands of lives, was a gross exaggeration, nothing serious having occurred there.

All the men imprisoned in the Lumley coal mine at Durham, Eng., by the caving in of the main shaft, escaped up another shaft.

The coroner's jury on the death of Mr. Wall, the Brooklyn lawyer recently shot by his wife, returned a verdict that the shooting was accidental.

Mrs. Marion Thompson of Bradford, Mass., eighty-four years old, has not taken any food or nourishment, except water, for the last twenty-one days.

The body of A. F. Warren, of Lowell, Mass., drowned on the 14th of December, was washed ashore at Amesbury on the 13th inst. Warren's brother, accompanied by a daughter ten years old, went to Amesbury on the 14th and had the body placed on the cars for Lowell, but before the time to start arrived, he was so drunk that the police had to lock him up.

Prince Buaki, father of the king of Ashantee, denies the story recently published that two hundred young girls had been massacred for the purpose of using their blood to mix mortar with which to repair one of the state buildings.

James Pyett, an American engineer, with six Mexicans, while going down a steep grade on a hand car on the National railroad in Mexico, turned suddenly upon a bridge on which were two men. One man jumped, and the car striking the other was thrown into a chasm. Pyett and three Mexicans were instantly killed, and the other four men, including the one struck, were fatally injured.

Judge Blatchford has accepted the position of associate justice of the United States supreme court.

The president, on the 14th inst., transmitted to congress a communication from the national board of health calling attention to the necessity for additional legislation to prevent the introduction and spread of small-pox, and other contagious and infectious diseases, into the United States from foreign countries.

One hundred and twenty ring spinners (women and girls) of the Pacific mills at Lawrence, Mass., struck against a reduction of wages on the 14th inst., causing a stoppage of 64,000 spindles.

At Waterbury, Vt., on the night of the 12th inst., Michael McCaffrie, aged fifty years, killed his wife, aged fifty, and his mother, aged eighty, and threw their bodies into the cellar. As the family lived four miles from the village the tragedy was not discovered until the 14th, when McCaffrie drove to Waterbury with his seven children, the oldest of whom told of the crime. Among the children are twins a year old. McCaffrie has several times been in insane asylums. He is a well-off farmer.

At Paterson, N. J., on the 14th inst., W. H. Rosenstrauch, a wholesale notion dealer of Newark, was arrested on a charge of blasphemy, and abusing the mother of Christ by calling her improper names. The accused gave $250 bail. The complainant is a German Catholic. Blasphemy is a crime in New Jersey, punishable by fine or by imprisonment for one year.

At Bennington, Vt., a few days ago, a girl of fourteen, unmarried, became a mother, the father of the child being aged sixteen years.

"Peterson's Magazine," "the ladies' favorite," as it is generally called, for April, has been received, and is even better than usual. Among other embellishments, it has a "Colored Pattern for a Table-Cover." The steel engraving, and the double-sized colored fashion-plate, are also exceptionally fine. There are about fifty illustrations for the fashions and for the work-table, giving the latest styles and patterns for both. Among the stories in the present number we have "Love in Tangle," by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, and "The Story of a Storm," by Mrs. J. G. Austin, both powerful novelets, besides stories by Frank Lee Benedict and numerous others; and several of the stories are illustrated. The price of "Peterson" is but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs, and handsome premiums to the person getting up the club. It is never to late too subscribe, for back numbers can be supplied. Every lady ought to take this magazine. Specimens are sent, gratis, to those wishing to get up clubs. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A Likely Story.

A sensation was created at a meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association at Philadelphia on the 13th inst., by a speech by Colonel J. G. Bryant of Atlanta, Ga. He said the "Lost Cause" was still alive in the southern states, and being pushed systematically. The Southern Historical society at Richmond was a nucleus around which its adherents are now rallying. The Methodist Episcopal church of the south, who are trying to organize the colored men out of their ranks into a separate body, would go to war to-morrow if they thought they could succeed. Consequently the two bodies of Methodists in the south—one about 80,000 loyal, the other representing rebellion, about 700,000 strong, can no more unite than oil and water. The leaders are to-day as busy preparing for another rebellion as they were before the last, and when the northern influences have given out in the south it is only a question of time when the whole colored population, as well as the white, will be a unit against the north.

AROUND HOME.

The extensive repairs on the schooner Active, under the superintendence of Mr. Daniel Littlefield, are nearly completed. She has received several new beams and a number of hanging knees, had her decks thoroughly repaired, and has been otherwise improved. She has also been calked, Mr. Jesse Wilson doing the deck work.

Capt. Ellery A. Garland, of the schooner D. K. Ham, was floor manager of the annual "town-meeting dance" at Newington on the evening of Tuesday, the 14th inst. Mr. Turner of Portsmouth, and Messrs. Drew and Hoyt of Newington, furnished the music, Mr. Turner acting as prompter.

Martin V. Fogg, a prominent citizen of Epping, fell dead on Tuesday morning, the 14th inst., at about six o'clock. He was previously supposed to be in perfect health. He probably died from apoplexy or heart disease. He was a candidate for selectman of the town, to be voted for on the day he died.

F. S. Goodwin, formerly ticket agent at the Eastern railroad station in this city, has accepted a position on the Boston & Maine railroad.

The president has accepted the resignation of Col. Andrew H. Young as collector of internal revenue for this district, and the New Hampshire delegation have recommended H. M. Putney of the Manchester Mirror as his successor.

William Randall and mate came in from the Shoals on Wednesday, the 15th inst., in a whaleboat, bringing in 1700 lbs. of cod-fish.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1300 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessments. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of GOVERNMENT IMPROVEMENTS.

Collector Young, Col. Sawyer and Capt. Wallingford, of Dover, paid a military visit to Gen. Thom at Portland on Tuesday of this week. These gentlemen, two of whom are directors of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, want the government to widen and deepen the upper Cocheco, so that large vessels, coal-laden, may come to the wharves near the mills.

It is little singular that Dover can, through a little knowledge of scripture, avail itself of the teaching "Ask and ye shall receive," while across the river, in Congressman Reed's district, we see Mr. Keen, who runs a steamer to Kittery Point, at his own cost dredging a channel in the lower harbor where it will be needed several times a day all the year round, while the Cocheco will not be traversed under any circumstances more than six months in a year, and should the proceeds of the coal fields come by rail, as is now so frequently predicted, it would hardly ever be utilized.

But the Board of Trade of Dover, ever on the alert, is quite willing that the government should expend liberally to widen the river, and we doubt not that the military committee from the board, which included a representative of the army in the late war, of the governor's staff, and of that famous military company the Strafford Guards, had such a weight with the general that their request will be heeded.

It is wrong that Mr. Keen should be compelled at his own cost to deepen a channel at Kittery Point. It is of public utility that a proper approach to the wharf at that point should be afforded, and we trust that Congressman Reed, or some one who resides in his district, will see that Mr Keen is reimbursed for his outlay, as he could not delay until the government should appropriate a sum for this purpose. Contrasted with some of the expenditures on rivers and harbors this is a most needed outlay, and it ought to have been made by the government long since.

Hampton Falls—Moderator, Frank P. Cram; clerk, George C. Healoy; treasurer, Charles F. Brown; selectmen, Matthew S. Pike, James D. Brown, George S. Merrill; collector, Orrin D. Green; board of education, Charles T. Brown, Miss Helen M. Sanborn, Miss Mercia W. Saborn.

Rye—No election, owing to an informality in the warrant.

THE CAVALRY BALL.

The first annual concert and ball of the Portsmouth Cavalry, Co. B, N. H. N. G., Capt. Edward D. Coffin commanding, was given in Franklin hall on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., and was the success of the season in that line.

At 8:00 o'clock an instrumental concert was given by Harlow's orchestra, the programme including Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," a potpourri of popular airs by Mullaly, and the "Amusement Polka" by Cox, Mr. Reinewald performing the cornet solo.

The grand march commenced at 9:00 o'clock, and was participated in by 83 couples, the tasteful dresses of the ladies and the showy uniforms of the military men, set off by the more sober costumes of the many prominent citizens present, making the scene a brilliant one. The attendance was very large, the floor being filled with dancers, and the gallery and all other available points with spectators, and the dancing was kept up until a late hour.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Mch. 15; Batchelder, J.

Walter Rice and Edward Weeks, two boys, were sentenced to three years each at the reform school, for stealing.

Another boy, named Hall, was before the court on a charge of playing truant, but was allowed to go on his promise to behave better in future.

NEWINGTON TOWN MEETING.

At the town meeting at Newington on Tuesday, Henry H. Downing, Joshua B. Pickering, jr., and Robert H Pickering were elected selectmen; two democrats and one republican. James Pickering was elected town clerk. The other town officers elected were democrats.

In the evening the usual town meeting dance was held at which there was a large attendance, including quite a number from Durham, Greenland, Dover Point and other places.

A very pleasing and successful entertainment was given by the Woodbury school at Gravelly Ridge on Friday evening, the 10th inst., and was largely patronized. The entertainment opened with twenty-five scenes displayed by means of the magic lantern; this was followed by declamations, violin duets, etc., and the lights were then obscured and twenty-five more magic-lantern pictures given, to the great amusement of the older portion of the audience as well as of the young people. This was the second entertainment given this winter by the school, the proceeds to be devoted to procuring a parlor organ or other suitable musical instrument for use in the schoolroom.

Buffalo Bill was given a royal reception last evening upon the occation of his appearance at the Academy of Music. The theatre was packed full, and even standing room was at a premium No larger audience ever assembled in the Academy, nor have we ever seen a more enthusiastic and better pleased audience. For several years Buffalo Bill has been playing with marked success throughout the east, and we were glad to see him receive such a warm welcome last evening upon his appearance in Omaha, the metropolis of the state on whose borders he acquired much of his fame as a scout, guide, hunter, Indian fighter and frontersman. He has become quite an actor, and looms up brilliantly as a star in the theatrical firmament.—Omaha Republican.

At Music hall Monday evening.

A survey is to be had on the U. S. S. Plymouth, at this navy yard, to decide as to the advisability of repairing her.

The schooner Satellite, Adderton master, came down the river on Wednesday, the 15th inst., with a load of brick,—the first outward cargo reported to us this season,—and the schooner Chilion, Call master, went up river the same day to get a load. Capt. Freeman, of the Triton, another bricker, made a start with her on Wednesday; Capt. Coleman, of the Emily A. Staples, and Capt. Garland of the D. K. Ham, leave for Boston on Monday, the 20th inst., to bring down their respective vessels, which have wintered at that port.

Mr. Augustus Stevenson has sold to Mr. Theodore Keen the steamer "James Sampson," and she will run between this city and Kittery Point during the coming summer, in conjunction with Mr. Keen's other steamer, the "Fearless." The James Sampson will be commanded by Capt. Fred Duncan of Kittery, who has for some time past had charge of her to general acceptation, and will continue on the line between this city and the navy yard, besides supplementing the work of the Fearless.

The proposed new railroad, if it is constructed on the route as selected by the Eastern railroad's surveyors, it is said will go directly through the new house of Mr. Albert R. Junkins on Middle street.

The "pinque" Lucy, owned by Mr. Lemuel B. Caswell, of the Shoals, has been fitted with a new bowsprit by Mr. Warren Keen, and extensively repaired otherwise. The schooner Wingaersheek, at Pier wharf, is being calked by Mr. Oliver Adams, preparatory to her commencing the season's work.

Another elegant new passenger car, No. 18, has been placed on the line by the Eastern railroad. It was built at the Salem car shops. The interior finish is cherry, handsomely polished, and the seats are richly upholstered and furnished with nickel-plated arm-rests. The car is heated by the Johnson patent steam heater, and is lighted by twelve lamps arranged in a novel manner.

GREAT BOOK SALE.

A large publishing house in New York has consigned an immense stock of books to Messrs. Morse & Ilsley, which will be sold in the store No. 5 Daniel street, opposite the Western Union Telegraph office. The stock consists in part of single volumes and sets of the works of standard authors, in nearly every department of literature, and it will be sold at retail during the day at prices never before known, and at auction in the evening without reserve. Call during the day, and look over the largest the best stock of books ever seen in Portsmouth, and go in the evening and see an honest auction sale. First sale this (Thursday) evening, March 15th. A Memorable St. Valentine's Day.

On St. Valentine's day the 141st Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery took place with its usual regularity under the solemn management of Gens. G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va. The first capital prize, $30,000, was sold in halves and drawn by Mr. No. 25,753—one half to Hermann D. Harjen, No. 100 Raymond Street, Brooklyn, L. I.; the other half by a worker here, also of Brooklyn. Mr. Michael Doyle, of 269 Kent ave. The second capital prize, $10,000, also sold in halves, drawn by ticket No. 79,861—one half collected by F. G. Bush & Co., of Mobile, Ala.; the other by a party whose name is withheld. The third capital $5,000, also sold in halves, drawn by No. 18,759 held by Mr. M Michaelis, 345 Blue Island Ave., Chicago, Ill., the other by Henry Hamilton, also of Chicago, Ill. The two fourth capital prizes of $2,500 each were drawn by No. 29,968, in halves also—one to Edgar Ackerly, of 368 Second St. Newark, N. J.; the other half owner's name withheld; the other prize by No. 2,968, sold to parties (whose names are withheld) at Galveston, Texas, and Chapel Hill, N. C. There were also many others. The next Drawing (the 142d) will occur on April 11th, of which all information can be had by communicating with M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

A GOOD-DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL - $200,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove. Inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock at cost only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

Now shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Mearse, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a singular completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try she 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

A Perilous Occupation.

The reports that come of the probable loss at sea of several Gloucester fishing vessels, with their officers and crews, are a continuation of the wonderful stories with which the sea-faring people of that thriving town are already too familiar. These vessels were staunch and true, but those who know the force and perils that abound at this time of year, have little hope, after the terrific gales that have prevailed on Georges banks, that they will ever again see the schooners or those who manned them. When we consider how men persist in going to sea in spite of all the warnings given every season affords, we must admit that it is a brave town that has such fearless sons, for the pursuits of peace for them are about as full of danger as those of war. What a pity it is that we have not an ocean carrying trade worthy of such daring seamen, instead of this petty, but steady battling with the sea on such dangerous missions. How easy it would be, under proper conditions, to build up the finest merchant marine that the sun ever shone upon. Providence has bountifully provided the material and pointed out the way, but our blind guides cannot see it. They prefer, rather, to accept the explanations of those idiots who say there are such substantial inducements on land that our young men have no impulse or desire to go to sea.—Boston Post.

The Clam Industry.

Few people are aware of the extent of the clam industry in this city. Some sixty or seventy men are regularly employed, the work of digging being done in about four hours, at low water time. The clams are then brought to town, where each gang has a little shanty, they are opened, dressed, and sent away in tubs, precisely as oysters are shipped. These shell fish are forwarded to Boston mostly; but, as well, to nearly all the principal cities of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. From one hundred and fifty to two hundred and fifty gallons are daily shipped by the various express lines running out of this city, and with home consumption the daily product of the Newburyport clam flats may be set down as about three hundred gallons. They sell at forty to fifty-five cents a gallon, and the men employed in the business average as good day wages as in any other calling.—Newburyport Herald.

A Chicago despatch of Monday says that Sydney B. Breyans of New York, who was one of the visiting statesmen sent to Florida to save the Tilden vote, passed through that city, Sunday, and said that the scheme which was recently floated connecting Mr. Blaine's name with the presidential candidacy on the democratic ticket was originated by Mr. Tilden. The New Haven Palladium understands from a New York politician that the Garfield-Rosecrans embroilment may be traced directly to the shrewd manœuvering of your Uncle Sammy Tilden, who is anxious to split the republican party into two factions, Garfield and stalwart, and uses every means at hand to stir up strife in its ranks." How about the floods in the south, and the earthquake in Costa Rica? —Bos on Post.

Oh! the floods and the earthquake were the direct results of republican ascendency in national affairs. The earthquake did not occur, it is true, but if it had occurred it would unquestionably have been owing to the baneful influence of republican politics. Anybody who has read the Post for ten years past would know this without being told.

Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia, is afflicted with cancer of the tongue, and his friends have no hope of his recovery.

"I would not live always, I ask not to stay." We do not wonder, with such a cold as yours, but there is a bright side to everything, and sunshine even for those racked with pain. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup never fails to cure the most stubborn cough.

Messrs. Oscar G. Barron and C. H. Merrill have leased of the Barron estate, for a period of five years, the three mountain houses, Fabyan, Crawford and Twin Mountain, and they will be managed the coming season under their direction.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

As a remedy for the above and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. stamps, 3 doz. $1.50. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila. Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended, it can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this inestimable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. H. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. G. FONDE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—R. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. F. ROTH, Liberty, Md.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: YOUR PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

MRS. ELLEN B. MASON writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all disease of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 13, 1882.

I HAVE this day disposed of my Job Printing Office, located in the Chronicle Building, to MR. RICHARD I. WALDEN, who has been for a number of years Foreman and Job Printer in the office of the Portsmouth Journal.

Mr. Walden is well known to the public as a careful and skillful printer, and I can conscientiously recommend him to my patrons and to the public generally as a good mechanic and a worthy young man.—As such, I bespeak for him the patronage that has been so generously accorded to me.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to oversickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

The United States Supreme Court.

The bench of the United States supreme court is again filled, by the appointment of Judge Samuel Blatchford. The members composing the full bench are Chief Justice Morrison R. Waite, of Ohio, appointed by President Grant in 1874; Associate Justices Samuel F. Miller, of Iowa, appointed by President Lincoln in 1862; Stephen J. Field, of California, appointed by Lincoln in 1863; Joseph P. Bradley, of New Jersey, appointed by President Grant in 1870; John M. Harlan, of Kentucky, appointed by President Hayes in 1877; William B. Woods, of Ohio, appointed by Mr. Hayes in 1880; Stanley Matthews, of Ohio, appointed by Mr. Hayes in 1881, rejected by the senate, and reappointed by President Garfield; Horace Gray, of Massachusetts, and Samuel Blatchford, of New York, appointed by President Arthur in 1882. The salary of the chief justice is $10,500, and of the associate justices $10,000.

Naval Affairs.

The Essex arrived at St. Vincent, Cape de Verde islands, March 1st.

The senate on the 15th inst. confirmed Asst. Naval Constructor Wm. H. Varney to be a constructor, to rank next after Naval Constructor Steele, and above Naval Constructor Samuel Seabury. Passed Asst. Paymaster H. T. Harris was confirmed as paymaster.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. Oscar Barron, the widely-known hotel proprietor of the White mountain region, was on the 14th inst. elected first selectman of the town of Carroll, Coos county, by a good majority, though Mr. Barron is a republican, and Carroll is democratic more than four to one. It appears that Mr. Barron is popular with the people who know him best.

John Nash of Nashua, who had his feet badly crushed on Saturday, the 11th instant, still persists in his refusal to have them amputated, though the physicians say there is but one chance in a thousand that the bones will ever grow together again, and that death will probably be the result.

—Pianists are not always a bejeweled set, but did you ever see one who did not like to display his finger-ing?—Musical Pec, le.

—The Dorchester young lady who badly wounded her arm with a pin while embracing a female friend, a few days ago, has no doubt been taught a wholesome lesson. Girls might embrace gentlemen friends all day without scratching their arms with pins. Men don't wear pins about their necks—except, perhaps, old bachelors, who, when a real collar button flies off, are obliged to utilize a pin instead. But girls are not expected to hug old bachelors.

Terrible Loss of Life.

Millions of rats, mice, cats, bed-bugs, roaches, lose their lives by collision with "Rough on Rats." Sold by druggists, 15cts.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Stinging, smarting, irritation of the urinary passages, diseased discharges, cured by Buchupaiba. Druggists. Depot at Thacher's.

Ruell Durkee of Croydon is the owner of two yoke of cattle that weigh 7100 pounds, one yoke weighing 3,580, and one 3,520 pounds.

Excessive use of alcoholic drinks cured by Wheat Bitters, prepared by solution and not by fermentation.

John Perkins, while attempting to board a freight train at the Boston & Maine railroad station in Dover recently, had his left foot badly jammed and cut.

No Doctors Need Apply

To me to get their living. The only doctor I have is sulphur Bitters. They cured me of dyspepsia when the doctors all failed.—George Paige, Rochester.

The next annual state convention of the New Hampshire Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at Milford on the last week in September.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much admired for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

John P. Hall, of Lebanon, was hit in one eye by a chip, while chopping, some two months ago, and is still totally blind, with small prospect of being able to see again.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

The new town hall building at Farmington is completed, and is an elegant structure. The committee chosen to take entire charge of the enterprise, Hon. James Cloutman, Hon. Alonzo Nute, and Hon. James E. Fernald, kept the cost inside of the appropriation, which was $20,000.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

Ex-Senator Joseph Cilley, now ninety-one years of age, lies dangerous ill at his residence in Nottingham, with but slight hopes of recovery. He served in the war of 1812-15, and entered the United States senate in 1846—thirty-six years ago—as the successor of Levi Woodbury; and with the exception of Ex-Senator Yulee, of Florida, is the oldest ex-senator now living. Col. Cilley was a brother of Hon. Jonathan Cilley, who was murdered in a duel near Washington city, Feb. 24th, 1838, while a member of congress from Maine, by W. J. Graves, member from Kentucky.

A Happy Young Gentleman.

Mr. E. H. Rhoads, residing at No. 214 N. N th street, says he knows more about the law of contrast than he did last winter. He did not know then what inflammatory rheumatism was. He has since been thoroughly initiated into all its mysteries, and there is a very steep contrast between the feelings of a man when he is dosed with rheumatism and enjoys immunity from it. During the Christmas holidays he was aroused from his sleep about two o'clock in the morning by a terrible pain in his right hand and wrist. He felt as if his arm weighed a ton and had been crushed by an elephant. He never did have anything to hurt him so badly in his life. He didn't sleep any more that night, for the pain grew rapidly worse until eight o'clock, when he applied St Jacobs Oil. His hand had grown so stiff by the time the first application was made that he could not move a finger, and even St. Jacobs Oil could not induce the disease to loose its grip until it had been used two days. At the end of that time, however, the famous old pain annihilator drove out the last vestige of pain and he was all right again and ready to eat, sleep and enjoy himself like other men. He has not had any sign of it since and does not care to make its acquaintance.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful indiscretion causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will SEND FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. cod&wtyr

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teethi g; poi-onous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Seven men, while crossing the Ohio river near McKee's Rock, Pa., in a boat, capsized it. Two of the men, William Murphy and Nick Moran, are mis-ing.

Nursing mothers gain strength by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It acts like a charm in restoring to health and strength overstrained nature.

Eugene Stephenson, aged twenty-two, shot himself through the heart in Indianapolis, Ind., because his parents would not allow him to get married.

Wheat Bitters have received the endorsements of medical men of the highest standing. These can be shown.

A Working Member.

Hon. Ossian Ray is one of the most industrious and painstaking representatives New Hampshire has sent to Washington for many years. He is a member of the committee on claims, and the reports of cases referred to him show that his legal training and unflagging industry induce him to thoroughly investigate the cases he has assigned to him. The reports are of such a convincing nature that few, if any, of the bills recommended fail of passage after the exhaustive examination which Mr. Ray makes of claims submitted for his opinion as to law and fact.

Mr. Ray is also a member of the committee on invalid pensions. A member of either of the committees named, if inclined to hard work, can always find enough to do, but Mr. Ray seems to perform double duty, and he is not only "up" in his committee work, but he finds time, by aid of a stenographer, to answer promptly his immense correspondence. Mr. Ray is a valuable man to have in Congress. He is of the type of representative of whom so many have in late years been taken from the house, where their influence has been potent, and transferred to the senate chamber, in recognition of a fitness for the position of senator.

The Concord Fight.

It is formally announced that at a meeting of the directors of the Concord and Lowell railroad companies, held in Boston on the 14th inst., it was voted to modify the contract between the two roads to meet the views of the New Hampshire decision recently made that the contract was not in accordance with the laws of New Hampshire. The changes necessary to meet the views of the court will be submitted to it for approval.

News and Notes.

The boiler in Goodwin Brothers' shoe factory at Lynn exploded early Wednesday morning, the 15th inst., and shattered the building (a three-story wooden one) to atoms, a piece of the boiler weighing 1580 lbs. being thrown more than a thousand feet; the neighboring buildings were considerably damaged. The disaster if is said was due to the low water in the boiler; as the engineer was killed, he is the best one to lay the blame upon, though the boiler is said to have been very old, and long considered unsafe. Fortunately the ruins did not take fire, and two men who were buried were taken out alive, though one one of them was supposed to be fatally hurt. Had the explosion occurred after seven o'clock, when the hands would all have been at work, the loss of life must have been great.

A regular prize fight occurred recently between two students of the Mount Anthony seminary, Bennington, Vt. They fought thirteen rounds, occupying thirty-five minutes.

A much decayed dead body of a man was found a few days ago in a hay mow at Woodstock, Vt., by a Newfoundland dog. It is supposed to be that of a canal man. The rats had eaten nearly all the flesh from the man's body.

The warden of the jail at Washington says that Guiteau is as sane as any other of the prisoners confined there.

Collector Morrill of Portland has received from Secretary of State Frelinghuysen an elegant field-glass, presented by the king of Sweden and Norway to Captain G. J. Getchell, master of the ship "Sea King," of Richmond, Me., with instructions to transmit the same to its destination. The occasion for this present is not known, but it is supposed to be a recognition of Captain Getchell's services in rendering assistance to shipwrecked Norwegian sailors.

Judge Butler of the United States district court, at Philadelphia, Pa., on the 14th inst., sentenced Wm. Coates to eleven months imprisonment. Coates was convicted of making a false pension claim, wherein he swore he was Wm. Ingraham of the first Vermont cavalry.

At Essex Junction, Vt., on the 13th inst., Charles L. Hayes of St. Albans, freight conductor on the Central Vermont, caught his foot in a frog and it was run over by a locomotive, the consequent injuries being so severe as to render amputation necessary.

It costs Boston $80,000 a year to have the streets swept.

Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, has been lecturing in India, and Capt. Bannon of the Bengal army says he is a coward and a slanderer.

The will of Sarah Burr, of New York, recently offered for probate in the surrogate's office, disposes of nearly three million dollars in charity, the various institutions of the Episcopal church being the principal beneficiaries.

An eight-year-old son of Eugene Pomeroy was buried in a tumbling lumber pile, and killed, at Lewiston, Me., a few days ago.

A woman named Carter, in Sedgewick, Me., gave birth to three children a few days ago. A boy, born in the evening, weighed eight pounds, and two girls born the next morning weighed seven and six pounds respectively. All are living and doing well.

A. Mayfield of Bangor, Me., has sold 140,000 pounds of wool to a Boston party, the largest single sale ever made in Bangor.

Eugene M. Hersey is to introduce the electric light in Bangor, Me. Four lights of 2,000-candle-power will be put to start with.

Miss Belle Harlan has been elected police magistrate at Washington, Ill.

Zerah Hall, a fifteen-years-old boy, was shot and killed on the 12th inst. near Lisbon, Kendall county, Ill., by Gordon Lord, a farmer who employed him. Lord afterward committed suicide by cutting his throat. The rest of the family were at church at the time.

A difficulty arose in the county court room at Dallas, Tex., a few days ago, between Judge J. M. Thurmond, ex-mayor of that city, and another lawyer named Cowart. Thurmond advanced upon Cowart with a revolver in one hand and a heavy gold-headed cane in the other, whereupon Cowart, drawing a revolver, sent a bullet through Thurmond's brain.

Books, Magazines, Etc

Madame Ragozin's paper on "Russian Jews and Gentiles," in "The Century" for April, will be, it is said, a forcible presentation of the Russian view of the Jewish question. It will probably be the most noteworthy defense of the Russians that has yet appeared in English. The May "Century" will contain a spirited answer, from the Hebrew point of view, by Miss Emma Lazarus, who, in the April number, discusses interestingly the question, "Was the Earl of Beaconsfield a Representative Jew?"

"James A. Garfield" The eulogy on President Garfield delivered by Hon. George N. Hoar, at the request of the city government of Worcester, Mass., in December, has been published in book-form, and from the excellent character of this, one of the noblest of the many noble tributes to the martyr President, it doubtless will be treasured by all who appreciate the prominent traits of the lamented Garfield. Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co., publishers; sold by booksellers generally, at sixty cents per copy.

The "Mysteries of Mormonism," just published by Richard K. Fox, of the "Police Gazette" Publishing house, New York, is a startling expose, by the ex-wife of a leading dignitary of the Mormon church, of the secrets and practices and hidden crimes of that creed. The book embodies a history of Mormonism and its founders, together with a fearless exposure of the mummeries and crafty devices by which converts are made and proselytes confirmed to Latter-Day Saintdom. The book is copiously illustrated.

"Mrs. Mayburn's Twins," by John Habberton, author of "Helen's Babies," is a book that will go straight to the heart of every mother. The action covers a single day, but what a busy day it is, and how crowded with important and realistic household events. The story is in brief the diurnal experience of Mrs. Mayburn, whose husband is loving, but thoughtless, and whose children are real flesh and blood youngsters, at once the joy and the torment of their mother's life. No one who likes to read about children, their mothers and the home circle, should miss this fascinating story. It is published in a large square duodecimo volume, paper cover, uniform with "Helen's Babies," price fifty cents, and will be found for sale by all booksellers, at all news stands and on all railroad trains, or copies of it will be sent to any one, to any place, at once, post-paid, on remitting the price in a letter to the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.

M. Roustan's achievements in Tunis, as French resident, have a new interest for American readers, in view of his appointment as French minister to this country. The interesting facts about his diplomatic seisure of Tunis, and a picturesque description of high and low life in the regency, will be given in the April "Century" by Ernst von Hesse-Wartegg, the German traveller, in a richly illustrated paper entitled "Tunis and its Bey."

—It is said that "coal is king." Perhaps some of it is, but the last lot that came into this office was dust.—St. Louis Hornet. Well, all kings that are not dust are going to be dust sooner or later.—Texas Siftings.

Hon. Wm. F. Cody with his company and band of Sioux Indians, appeared to a crowded house last evening in "The Prairie Waif." The play is from the pen of the well-known John Stevens, and avoids as much as possible the sensational element which has heretofore characterized Indian drama. There are plenty of sensational situations in the play, of course, but throughout there is an interspersion of scenes which would be a credit to a production with a title less suggestive of bowie knives and scalps. The scene of the second act representing the happy hope of the buffalo hunter in Utah, is a charming picture of western home life which appeals to every heart. The play on the whole is a decided improvement on modern frontier literature, and we think Mr. Cody deserves credit for encouraging an author's innovation on a field which has heretofore been sacred to the pen of the blood-and-thunder writer. Mr. Cody of course assumes the leading part, but the rest of the company are given plenty of opportunity, and some really meritorious acting was done.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette.

THE
Mutual Life Insurance Co.
of New York,
F. S. WINSTON, President.
The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.
It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.
It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.
It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.
Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.
No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.
Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.
Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)
It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.
It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.
Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.
ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00—cheapest. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, March 16th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

Present, the full board.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Walter H. Page asked leave to put a sign post opposite the steam laundry on State street. Referred to the committee on streets, with power.

Dr. A. B. Sherburne tendered his resignation as a member of the board of instruction. The resignation was accepted, and Jerome C. Butler was unanimously elected by ballot to fill the vacancy.

The mayor announced that the city accounts were audited, and ready for the printer.

Ald. Caswell asked for the reading of the total expenses of each department.

The mayor said the bills for building the Vaughan street extension were not yet all in.

Ald. Caswell enquired in how many of the departments the expenditures exceeded the appropriations.

The mayor replied that nearly all of them had overrun, to a total amount of two or three thousand dollars.

Ald. Green enquired as to the difference in the gas bills between the year just ended and the previous year.

The mayor read the total for the last year.

[The common council here announced a quorum present.]

Ald. Green said he could not see why there should be so much expense, and Ald. Caswell asked what was the difference between the two years, the answer being $899.99 more in 1881 than in 1880.

Ald. Stavers asked if all the street lights were included in this bill of expense, or only the gaslights; and how many more lights there were last year that the previous one, that the cost should be $900 more. He was informed that that there were two more gas lights.

The committee on printing were authorized to call for bids for printing 1000 copies of the city accounts.

A message was received from the common council, asking if the board would concur in the request previously made by the council, for joint consideration by the several committees of the two bodies upon the appropriations needed; and stating that otherwise the council would refer the matter to the supreme court

Ald. Caswell moved that a committee be appointed to confer with the council at once; agreed to, and Aldermen Caswell, Noyes and Stavers were named.

A recess of ten minutes was taken, to enable the committee to confer; but after consulting together the committee concluded to stop in their own room, and no conference was had.

The mill-pond nuisance was discussed, but no action was taken.

Voted that the heads of the departments tender estimates of the amounts needed in their several departments for the year.

The mayor called up the unfinished business from the common council, laid over from last week on motion of Ald. Noyes. The alderman said he had forgotten what the business was; the clerk's records showed that it was concerning the joint action of committees. No action was taken.

Adjourned.

The common council, before adjourning, appointed a committee to consider and report what course of action it is proper the council should take, Messrs. Robinson, Shillaber and Clough constituting the committee.

HE DIDN'T SHOW UP.

A large number of the grocers, provision dealers and market men of the city met in Mechanics' hall on Thursday evening last, to form a Grocers' Association, with the object of securing "pure goods, and honest weights and measures." It had been announced that Mr. J. C. McCready, of the "New England Grocer," would be present to address the meeting and explain the working of similar associations in other cities; but he failed to put in an appearance, and consequently nothing was done.

SUPREME COURT--LAW TERM.

The court was in session at Concord on Thursday, the 16th inst.

In the quo warranto case as to the election of directors in the Concord railroad last May, it was decided that the cumulative-voting law was not a legal enactment, by reason of its submission to the people, and that Francis B. Hayes was legally chosen a director, and Mr. John H. Pearson was not so chosen.

In the case of heirs of Joseph Amazeen, late of this city, concerning certain deposits in the Portsmouth savings bank, sent up from the October term in this city, it was held that the claimant was a competent witness at the hearing, and the deposit was hers and not a part of the assets of the estate.

In case of Mrs. Pickering, action for dower in certain land in Newington, it was held that the widow was entitled to dower or a sum of money as a share of the estate of her husband.

Fourteen applicants for admission to the bar were examined, of whom five were successful in passing the ordeal, and were admitted to practice.

PIGEON SLAUGTHERING.

About thirty or forty shooters belonging to the Tremont club, coming from Boston, Salem and Lynn, arrived in this city by the 10:30 A. M. train on Thursday of this week, and went to Eliot, Me., for a day's shooting. On arriving at Eliot they alighted with their guns and traps, and repaired to the building east of the railway station, in the field near by which five hundred pigeons were let loose and aimed at, and some of them killed and others wounded, while many flew away unharmed. The party returned to Massachusetts by the train which left this city at 5:30 P. M.

DAVID D. BADGER.

David D. Badger died at his residence in Newington on the 16th inst., aged fifty-three years and eight months.

Mr. Badger was a native of Brunswick, Maine, learned the shipwright's business on the Kennebec, moved to this city when twenty-one years of age, and engaged as foreman for Fernald & Pettigrew, then building ships on Badger's island. Subsequently he built several vessels for Hon. Daniel Marcy. When the rebellion broke out and ship-building declined, he moved to Connecticut, and was for several years engaged in bridge-building in that state. He returned to this city in 1870, and again built ships for Mr. Marcy; and in 1876 bought a farm in Newington, where he has since resided. He was again employed by Mr. Marcy to build a ship in 1878, at Neal's shipyard in Kittery, riding a distance of six miles every day to his work. Mr. Badger was an industrious, conscientious man, and it was a standing remark in every shipyard where he was employed that he always "did two men's labor." He filled many offices of trust in this city, and was one of the selectmen of Newington at the time of his death. He was a member of Piscataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows, and of the Rockingham Mutual Relief association.

The funeral will take place at the village church in Newington, Sunday afternoon.

The tug "Farnsworth" arrived at this port on the 16th inst. from Newburyport, to tow around to that place the schooner John Pillsbury, with a part cargo of southern yellow pine. Capt. J. C. Hoyt of Kittery has charge of the schooner, her master, Capt. Pitcher, having gone to his home in Rockland, Me., on a visit.

The fishing arrivals on the 16th inst. were as follows: Schooners—News Boy, 1200 lbs; Grace Choate, 1500; Eldorado, 1600; Ev. Nichols, 4700; Norma, 700; Addie & Hattie, 1000; Nettie Adams, 1000; Young Selim, 1500; Rover's Bride, 2000; Daniel C. Baker, 500; Lydia A. Davis, 1000. Small boats—William Randall, 1300; Ephraim Downs, 500; Samuel Randall, 500; Orrin Hall, 500 I. Moses Perkins, 900; James B. Adams, (boat Fannie T., new,) 1500; the two latter from Ogunquit, Me.

Wilbur F. Warren of Rochester has been appointed mail agent between Portsmouth and North Conway.

The Concord correspondence of the Boston Journal, under date of March 15th, had the following: "The mercantile block which Messrs. Jones, Winchester and Walker of Portsmouth are to build immediately at Dover, will have a frontage of 170 feet on Central street, and ninety feet on First and Second streets. It will be three stories high, with a flat roof, and constructed of brick. The trimmings will be of granite, and the store fronts will have iron lintels. The structure will probably be finished by November, and will be one of the most elegant business blocks in the state."

A commandery of the United Order of the Golden Cross will be instituted in Eliot on Monday evening. The steamer Mystic will make a trip up the river from this city to accommodate the Portsmouth brethren, returning after the conclusion of the ceremony.

The Nashua Gazette, democratic, says that the democratic state convention of New Hampshire, at its meeting towards the end of the coming September, will again put in nomination for governor Hon. Frank Jones of Portsmouth, if he will accept; and that should he decline, Hon. J. F. Cloutman of Farmington is talked of as the democratic candidate.

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL - $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, insuring to the wearer a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is a Physician for all who wish to live for good health.—Toledo Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Sun Francisco Herald.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

The Stinging Tree.

Though the tropical shrubs of Queensland, Australia, are very luxuriant and beautiful, they are not without their dangerous drawbacks, for there is one plant growing in them that is really deadly in its effects—that is to say, deadly in the same way that one would apply the term to fire, as if a certain proportion of one's body is burnt by the stinging tree, death will be the result. It would be as safe to pass through fires as to fall into one of these trees. They are found growing from two to three inches high up to ten and fifteen feet; in the old ones the stem is whitish, and red berries usually grow on the top. It emits a peculiar and disagreeable smell, but is best known by its leaf, which is nearly round, and having a point on top, is jagged all round the edge like the nettle. All the leaves are large—some larger than a saucer.

"Sometimes," says a traveller, "while shooting turkeys in the scrub, I have entirely forgotten the stinging tree, till warned of its close proximity by its smell, and have then found myself in a little forest of them. I was only once stung, and that very lightly. Its effects are curious; it leaves no mark, but the pain is maddening, and for months afterward the part, when touched, is tender in rainy weather, or when it gets wet in washing, etc. I have seen a man who treats ordinary pain lightly, roll on the ground in agony after being stung, and I have known a horse so completely mad, after getting into a grove of the trees, that he rushed open-mouthed at every one who approached him, and had to be shot in the scrub. Dogs, when stung, will rush about, whining piteously, biting pieces from the affected part. The small stinging trees, a few inches high, are as dangerous as any, being so hard to see, and seriously imperiling one's ankles. The scrub is usually found growing among palm trees."

Shark's Fins.

Shark's fins, dried, are sold in every Chinese shop in New York. They are imported from China. There are three kinds, of which the best are the fins of the white shark. These are worth $3.50 a pound. The poor sit kind, which are known as black shark fins, are sold for half as much, and even less. Shark's fin is a popular dainty among Chinamen. It is salted and dried for export, and looks like a section of whalebone when raw, but boiled in water a gelatinous substance is extracted which is esteemed very savory.

A species of stew made of shark's fin, dried oyster, rice and peppers is a champion Chinese dish. Dried oysters are ordinary bivalves, extracted from the shell, dipped in salt and strung on strings to dry in the sun. They come from China and look for all the world like figs. John Chinaman infinitely prefers them to the freshest of fresh oysters he can buy here. Mussels, clams and clams are preserved by him in the same way.

—It is said that in some parts of the south if any one shouts "Colonel" even the mules will halt and look around to see what is wanted.

—"A very fine sermon, Mr. Jones," said Deacon Brown to the parson at the close of service, Sunday; "several laps ahead of anything you ever gave us before." "Yes," replied Parson Jones, blushing slightly, "I think myself that I made a pretty good score." Thus doth the virus of the walking match permeate and pervert all classes of society.

This is a free country! sure, but you can't get Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup free of charge, it costs you a quarter every time.

The senate on the 15th inst. confirmed John Russell Young to be minister to China, and C. A. Logan to be minister to Chili.

Almost Killed.

I was almost killed by the doctors, who treated me for bleeding piles. It cost me over $100 without relief. I took Sulphur Bitters for two months, and now I am well.—Gus Hall, Troy.

Henry Lion, a Chinaman resident seven years in Philadelphia, was naturalized on the 14th inst.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

The secretary of the Cotton Exchange in New Orleans estimates the damage to the cotton industry alone by the flood to be $15,000,000. The live stock in the overflowed region are being stung to death by myriads of buffalo gnats.

Barque Bulwark, Seaton, from Yokohama, Japan, for Burrard Inlet, Oregon, went to the bottom on the 1st inst., and twenty persons were drowned. A boat with three sailors reached the Oregon coast on the 13th.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Peakes, and probably half a dozen others but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track! However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT

AN UNFAILING REMEDY FOR ALL SKIN DISEASES

SUCH AS TETTER, ITCH, SORES, PIMPLES, ERYSIPELAS, RING WORM, ROTCHES, &c.

THE GREAT CURE FOR

ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching, worse at night; seems as if pin-worms were creeping about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. As a remedy, economical and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps. 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, Dr. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail to effectually a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEARLE.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider Your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FOSCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—SAMUEL LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—E. W. DYER, Dryden, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. ROUTS, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine extant.—GEORGE WHITE, Washington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow my food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—J. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. MANGS writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails. Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical—

ELY'S CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Those who buy and wear their prints will, they feel confident, find them superior in durability, artistic style and finish. Be sure and ask for their goods, and see that their marks and tickets are on them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

50 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving. G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and efficacious medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as curealls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Daily Chronicle.

A Tale of Royalty.

M. Florian Pharaon tells an amusing anecdote about King Humbert of Italy, who is as fond of shooting as was his royal father, Victor Emmanuel. From time to time King Humbert, oblivious of all royal customs and court etiquette, separates himself from his suite, and gun in hand goes out alone in search of game, accompanied by his two favorite dogs. During one of his excursions he was met by a peasant, who looked on with admiration at the havoc the king had made among a covey of partridges. He did not know the monarch, and seeing him in the dress of an ordinary sportsman could not recognize him. He went up to him, complimented him on his skill with his gun, and then told him that if he would come to his farm on the following morning at daybreak and kill a fox which had made several raids on his hen roost he would not mind giving him a couple of francs for his trouble.

King Humbert kept the appointment, and was fortunate enough to kill the fox. The delighted peasant welcomed him on his return, called his wife and children out, and insisted on the king sharing their breakfast with them. At the end of the repast the peasant took leave of his visitor, pressing a two-franc piece in his hand, which the king tossed up in the air and caught, declaring it was the first money he had ever earned. Two days afterward the peasant was surprised to see an officer in uniform ride up in open carriage with presents from the king for his wife and children. He then learnt to to whom he owed his obligation, and was confused at the familiar manner in which he had hobnobbed with royalty.—London Globe.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; Parsons' Exterminator. Barns, granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

—A fashion writer says: "Short skirts are de rigueur for dancing." By this a girl will know how to regueurself for a ball.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet, balsamic specific.

—It is one of those unexplainable things of moral ethics how people decide so promptly as to how little rain and bad weather it takes to keep them away from prayer-meeting, and how much is required to keep them away from a good show.

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

—Alphonse Karr said: "You can prove nothing to a woman. They believe only with their hearts or their imaginations." Alphonse had evidently been trying to make his wife believe that the billiard chalk on his coat was whitewash from the office wall.

ELY'S CREAM BALM CO., Owego, N. Y.—Please send us at once two gross Ely's Cream Balm. We take pleasure in congratulating you on the success you are having with the "Cream Balm" catarrh and hay fever cure. Its sale is steadily increasing with wonderful rapidity as you can see by our frequent orders. It is evidently an article of great merit. Very truly, JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., 602 Arch st., Philadelphia. March 19, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N Y.—I have had catarrh for a number of years in its worst form. Before I had used one bottle of your Cream Balm droppings into my throat had entirely ceased, pain and soreness in my head was entirely removed, as well as deafness. I have used a great many remedies, but nothing that equals yours. It also gives immediate relief for cold in the head. MRS. J. D. HAGADORN, Union, N. Y. Dec. 7, 1878.

Price fifty cents.

—Lord Dufferin relates with great gusto that when he came home from India to get married he found no carriage awaiting him at the little Irish railway station, and he had to hire a common jaunting car. Going along, he asked the driver if there was any news. "Nothing," said he, "except that pretty Kate Hamilton is going to marry that one-eyed Dufferin."

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

—When Hattie was five years old, her sister married a farmer who owned a large sugar orchard. Soon after a generous package of maple sugar was sent home, and the little girl exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, I'm so glad we've married into such a nice family!"

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chest disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

For sale by all druggists.

—"Is he a good German scholar?" they asked of the Washington belle concerning her lover. "Splendid!" she replied. He holds a lady beautifully, and knows all the figures."

A New Use for Cork.

The want has long been felt of a floor covering combining the durability and comfort of a carpet, with the cleanlines of oil-cloth. This desirable end is obtained in the patent Linoleum, and, being composed of cork, is never cold under foot. The goods are made in a variety of handsome patterns, suitable for every part of a dwelling house, as well as stores, offices, etc. See that the word "Linoleum" is on the back of every square yard. This is the only genuine article. Kept by all carpet dealers.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic, editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED!

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, Seeking to find in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Edward F. Bickford and Mrs. H. C. Cross of Brandon, Vt., have been arrested for sending obscene postal cards through the mail.

Nursing mothers gain strength by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It acts like a charm in restoring to health and strength overstrained nature.

New Hampshire Items.

Charles H. Bell, a very respectable and popular resident of Exeter, received one vote as a candidate for collector of taxes at the town meeting in that town on the 14th inst.

Manchester wants a train to bring its morning mail from Boston at an earlier hour. Manchester, when it grows a little larger, may desire a train which shall take passengers from the state of Maine and the eastern part of New Hampshire some time between an early hour in the morning and a late hour at night. Manchester dines at twelve o'clock at noon, because the Boston factory owners fix upon that hour, and the people there might as well be content that the Boston railroad managers will also fix a time for the receipt of mail matter at our great manufacturing centre.

"Major" George L. Wentworth, of Salmon Falls, who was recently sentenced to pay a fine of two hundred dollars and costs for an aggravated assault on E. S. Nowell, is now an inmate of the Strafford county jail, refusing to pay the fine and costs. Unless he has been much maligned, jail is the place where he ought to be.

Charles G. Conner has been elected as a trustee of the Robinson Female Seminary at Exeter.

The new Farmington town hall was opened on the night of the 16th inst., by Col. Smith Russell and his company, in "Edgewood Folks."

Mrs. Richards of Biddeford, Me., was attacked by three men near Manchester, on the evening of the 16th inst., and outraged.

At Exeter, last Thursday, Deputy Sheriff Frank P. Cram sold at public auction, in front of the town hall, an immense dog, taken on attachment. The animal was a cross of St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds, about eight months old. It was purchased by George W. Hilliard, for $7.

News and Notes.

The city of Rahway, N. J., has a total debt of $1,990,333. The assessed value of real estate is $2,188,560. The debt was the result of the operations of a ring which has been turned out of office.

The sale of the Alvin Adams collection of paintings was begun in Tremont Temple, Boston, on Thursday, when about half of the collection was sold for $27,800. The highest price was paid for "Words of Comfort," by Meyer von Bremen, which brought $3000.

The property of a former resident of Newark, N. J., has been attached in payment for an assessment made on stock held by him in the Bank of Scotland, which failed about two years ago.

A portion of a boat has been washed ashore on the coast of county Kerry, Ireland, bearing the name "City of London," also some wreckage supposed to belong to the British barque "City of Dunedin," which sailed from Pensacola Oct. 26th for Cardiff.

Samuel S. Gaines, hotel keeper at Vergennes, Vt., has been arrested for liquor selling, and given bail. The prosecution claim to be able to prove 1,000 offences.

The doctors at Bethlehem, Pa., are charged with being largely responsible for the scourge of smallpox that is raging there, going from infected houses to those where no smallpox existed, without changing their clothing or taking any precautions against carrying the contagion.

Frank D. Millet will contribute to "The Century" for April a carefully-illustrated article on the Chelsea (Mass.) tiles, which mark a new and original movement in American art; and Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell offers her third paper on ancient sculpture, dealing with "The Age of Praxiteles." This article is profusely illustrated, and is said to exhibit some of the best specimens yet seen of American wood-engraving.

AROUND HOME.

A free clam chowder will be served at M. Garrity's, Daniel street, this evening.

Mr. D. Oscar Marr of Kittery, engineer of the tug Naumkeag, has been offered a similar position on board a steamer in New Bedford, Mass.

Dr. Daniel W. Jones of this city has been appointed an examining surgeon under the pension laws.

A fore-and-aft ship, by courtesy called a three-masted schooner, arrived at the Concord railroad wharf on the 17th inst. with over a thousand tons of coal on board for J. Albert Walker.

Hon. John D. Lyman, bank commissioner, arrived in town on Friday to make his annual examination of the Portsmouth savings bank.

At the recent town election in North Hampton Albert Batchelder was elected first selectman, John Batchelder town treasurer, and Abbott Norris collector, all the gentlemen named being republicans. Once or twice before within the past twenty-five years the republicans of North Hampton have managed to elect one of the town officers, but the election to office of three republicans has not occurred within the period named. The town debt is down to about $3700.

Some person at present unknown several days ago telegraphed to New Bedford, Mass., to a brother of Mr. James Boyle of this city, that the latter was dead; and the brother, and Mr. Boyle's mother and sisters from Newport, R. I., immediately came here, to find on their arrival that their relative was in good health, and the telegram a heartless hoax by some one who is either an ass or a malicious scoundrel. If the sender's identity is discovered he will find his "joke" to be less funny than he perhaps thought it was when he perpetrated it.

Messrs. C. E. Walker & Co. have had a stairway built from the wharf to the top of their new coal-pocket at the foot of State street, and have given orders for chairs to be placed on the roof for the accommodation of ladies and gentlemen who may wish to view the river scenery from there, and get a breath of salt air, during the summer.

Mr. John Ford, of Dover Point, on the 13th inst. killed a sow twenty months old and which had produced two litters of pigs, which weighed over 600 lbs. when dressed.

The entertainment of Buffalo Bill (Hon. W. F. Cody) at Pope's began yesterday evening under the most auspicious circumstances. When the handsome scout-legislator first made his appearance as a dramatic star, his success surprised the critics, who affected to be puzzled over the fact that a man fresh from the prairie should pretend to dramatic ability. Since that time, however, Mr Cody has studied carefully, and he is now able to bring considerable histronic ability to bear upon his part in the drama of the Prairie Waif, which is used as the medium of presenting a very interesting and at times engrossing picture of border life. The play has been to supply a realistic representation of the perils passed by the pioneers of civilization, and in order to do this successfully several real Indians are introduced in the cast in all the glory of war-paint, feathers, scalps and tomahawks, whose terrible appearance is offset by the beauty of a remarkably handsome and intelligent Indian maiden. There is abundance of action in the piece. Mr. Cody does lots of good work in his line, appearing in three different characters, and giving an exhibition of fancy rifle shooting, while the redskin braves indulge in their war songs and dances at different appropriate parts of the play.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SEABROOK TOWN MEETING.

Town meeting on Tuesday, the 14th inst., passed off quietly, republicans and democrats joining together in the selection of the town officers; party lines were not drawn, although caucuses were held Monday evening by the two parties.

Hon. John M. Weare, who was the republican nominee, was elected moderator, and to his tact and energy thetown owes much, for finishing up the business in one day.

David F. Boyd, William H. Walton and Jeremiah B. Green were elected selectmen. Messrs. Boyd and Walton have been on the board for several years.

Calvin Eaton was re-elected constable, and J. Monroe Tucker town clerk. Hon. J. M. Weare and Dr. D. W. Colcord were elected health officers.

Two hundred dollars were raised to buy a safe for the town records; and it was voted "that the highway tax be collected as other taxes are," instead of having the tax work it out, as has heretofore been the custom. There being 165 poll-tax payers on the list, and the tax amounting to but eighteen cents each, but little benefit has resulted to the highways from such small amounts being worked out.

It was also voted "that the selectmen be authorized to request the Eastern railroad to establish a freight and passenger station at the State-line bridge." The new station called for will be a convenience to the people of the neighborhood in the south end of the town, and of Salisbury Plains, Mass.,—in all a population of eleven hundred. More than half the population of the town of Seabrook will be thus accommodated, the neighborhood of South Seabrook alone containing a population of 718.

—Now Mr. Tennyson might ascertain whether a medium-weight brigade made a charge at Balaklavs, and do the square thing by them if they did.—Norristown Herald.

—The Christian Advocate, mentioning the case of an Irish girl who said she joined the Methodist church "on suspicion" for six months, says: "We don't know about the propriety of taking people into the church on suspicion, but we think a considerable number might be let out on that ground."

—A shrewd belle called on several rival beauties and made them believe that her father was going to have the house illuminated by electricity. Not to be outdone, they immediately persuaded their papas to get the electric light, and have it doubly strong. Now those beauties are covered with freckles and tan, while the originator of the plot continues to dazzle visitors beneath her gas jets.—Philadelphia News.

—A young friend of mine was dining with his father a few nights ago. "George," said the fond parent, when they next met, "you took my overcoat instead of your own; and I regret to say I found the pockets of your coat full of cigarets and matches." "I discovered my mistake, father," replied the son, "directly I got outside, for I found the pockets of the coat I had on contained chocolate creams and three pairs of ladies' gloves."—London Truth.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

NE of greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00.—assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

The Soldiers' Monument Association met in the mayor's room in the city building on Friday evening, and chose Col. Wm. H. Sise chairman, and A. F. Howard, Esq., secretary.

It was voted to appoint a committee, representing the citizens and the Grand Army of the Republic, to apply to Congress for a gift of condemned cannon for the proposed monument.

Col. J. Horace Kent was appointed to represent the Grand Army, and Mr Howard to represent the citizens; and they will leave for Washington early next week.

A NEW ROUTE.

A re-survey of a portion of the route of the proposed sea-shore branch of the Eastern railroad has been made. The latest-looked-at line runs between Mr. Joshua B. Johnson's house and barn on the south side of Middle street, and on the opposite side passes between the residence of George E. Hodgdon, Esq., and the house on the corner of Cass and Middle streets; then through the whole length of Mr. Hodgdon's garden, and along the circus field very near the wall, finally connecting with the side track leading from the main line to the Jones brewery.

THOSE GAS BILLS.

We are informed by the chairman of the aldermanic committee on street lights that there was a big error in the statement of the total expenditures in that department for the years 1880 and 1881, as made in the board of aldermen on Thursday evening last. Instead of the expenditures last year exceeding those of 1880 by $899.99, there is actually $95.21 in favor of last year, the totals for the two years being as follows:

1880	$ 2005.72
1881	1910.51
Balance in favor of 1881	$ 95.21

The error occurred through the carrying of the sum of $497.65 to the account for 1881, when it should have been charged to the last quarter of 1880.

The question naturally arises; "Why was not the $497.65 which belonged to the last quarter of 1880, put into the bill for that year, instead of being carried forward into 1881?"

DO IT, UNCLE SAM.

A petition is in circulation, and being numerously signed, asking Congress to appropriate the needed amount to remove the ledge which makes off from the western point of Badger's island. This is a work which should be done, as the improvement to the harbor would be very great, and the cost but a trifle compared with the amounts expended on some trout-brooks to make them navigable for gunning-floats. When the survey of the harbor was made several years ago, with a view to the removal of such obstructions to navigation as it should be found practicable to clear away, Gen. Thom recommended the removal of this ledge, and estimated the cost at only $35,000. The improvement would be cheap at several times that sum.

RICE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Rice Public Library of Kittery, Me., was held on Friday, the 17th inst.

The report of the treasurer was submitted, giving the following as the condition of the finances on Jan. 1st, 1882:

The principal fund with accretions is $31,625, and is invested as follows:

Bonds at par	$ 8,200 00
Notes receivable	17,300 00
Cash on deposit in savings banks, etc	6,125.00
	$31,625.00

Income for year ending Dec. 31, 1881:

Income from bonds	$ 720.00
Interest on loans and deposits	1,024.95
	$1744.95

Expenditures for same period:

Insurance	$ 68.00
Books	76.04
Papers and periodicals	40.63
Expenses for rooms	30.16
Salaries	375.00
Catalogues	72.00
Trustees' expenses	8.00—667 43

Net income for the year	$1,117.52
Balance from previous year	3,207.95
Balance of principal fund	6,115.00
Total	$10,450.47
Deposit in savings bank	$5,873.33
Deposit First National bank	4,384.30
In treasurer's hands	41.74
	$10,450.47

Of this sum an investment of $5000 is recommended, which would still leave a balance of over $5000 on deposit in the savings bank. The amount

Loaned on notes Jan. 1, 1880, was	$12,777.60
Paid during the year	1,277.60
	$11,500.00
Loaned during the year	5,800.00
Amount on loan Dec. 31, 1881	$17,300.00
Invested in bonds Jan. 1, 1881	$10,200.00
Paid Dec. 9, 1881	2,000.00
Invested in bonds Dec. 31, 1881	$ 8,200 00

Since making up the account, an investment of $5000 has been made in bonds by a vote of the trustees.

All interest due on notes and other securities has been promptly met.

A considerable amount of the sum now to the credit of unexpended income can safely be carried to the permanent fund.

The report of the secretary shew that the number of books at the time of the last examination by the committee on the conduct of the library was: Bound volumes, 2071; purchased during the year, thirty-one; total, 2102. The total expenditure for books has been as follows:

1875-6	$686.21
1876-7	347.10
1877-8	110.30
1878	467.76
1879	369.81
1880	301.96
1881 (part bought in 1880—bought in 1881 $48.25	82.62
Total	$2,565.76

From this amount is to be deducted an item charged to periodicals, etc., now credited to bank account	$5.28
For book lost and cost refunded	1.00
Books sold to Sunday School Library	9.02
Error in Hall & Whitney's bill refunded	.70—16.00
	$2,549.76

The officers of last year were re-elected, viz.: I. Goodwin president, E. C. Spinney treasurer, William H. Hackett secretary.

It is said that there is a possibility of the shoe manufacturing business being again started up in the old Nowell shoe factory on State street, a gentleman of large experience in the business offering to put money into the scheme, and personally superintend affairs. It is to be hoped the plan may be carried out, and soon.

The senate on the 16th inst. confirmed the nomination of Mr. H. M. Putney, of the Manchester Mirror, to be collector of internal revenue for this district.

Stephen W. Dearborn, formerly of Exeter, once high sheriff of this county, and United States marshal during Buchanan's administration, died at St. Louis on the 14th inst. His funeral will be held from the Unitarian church in Exeter at three o'clock P. M. to-day.

It was reported on Friday that Capt. Thomas Jameson had bought the fishing schooner Christie Campbell, and that Capt. Edward Jameson, late in command of that vessel, had gone to Gloucester, Mass., to get another one.

Captain Horatio W. Trefethen, of the Mystic, has recently adorned the cabins of the steamer with some handsome advertising cards from some of the principal dealers in this city, among whom are Ayres & Locke, Pryor & Matthews, Willis G. Myers, George W. Butler, J. M. Tebbetts, Mercer Goodrich, A. P. Wendell & Co., John P. Sweetser, Andrew P. Preston, E. S. Fay, M. M. Collis and others.

The fishing fleet sailing from this port is now in a somewhat demoralized condition, the preparation for going into spring fishing makes changes in the crews, and several of the vessels have been hauled up for the past week.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa, Lieut. Merry commanding, arrived at the navy yard on Friday afternoon, the 17th inst., from Boston. During a fog on the 14th she ran foul of the fishing schooner Willie Erdix, Capt. Whalen, at anchor off Nantucket shoals, and stove her bulwarks, carried away her jibboom and parted her cable, the schooner losing an anchor and sixty fathoms of cable. The Tallapoosa took her in tow, and arrived at Boston with her on Wednesday. Commodore Badger appointed Capt. Ralph Chandler, Lieut. Commander Wilde and Assistant Constructor Hanscom as a board to examine and report on the extent of the injury to the schooner.

The Dover Democrat of the 16th inst. announced the Cocheco river clear of ice, and navigation free from Portsmouth to that city. The schooner Loella, Amee master, is expected to arrive at Dover shortly from Boston, with a cargo of phosphate.

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story—A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country."

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

The "Fleeting Shows."

The New York Ledger makes the following remarks, the truth of which is self-evident to all who have noticed the working of things in the show line for a few years past:

We are requested to drop a hint where it may be picked up by parties concerned.

This great country is over run at present by companies of actors and singers. Ten years ago, people were capable of being amused by lectures, even without the addition of a stereopticon. They have grown past the old-fashioned lecture, and nothing seems now to have any great attractive power except plays, minstrelsy and other "shows."

The consequence is that there are a large number of performers "on the road" whose power to entertain is extremely slight; which is bad for the public, but much worse for themselves. Companies drag their way wearily from town to town, the manager getting poorer and poorer, and his unhappy troupe getting farther and farther from their base, until on some stormy day the receipts are nil, and the manager takes to flight, leaving men, women and children to face a frowning landlord, and get home, if they have a home, as best they can.

But this is not the hint we are desired to drop.

We are requested to inform the managers of travelling companies that people who live in the country are not so entirely destitute of sense and discrimination as managers seem to think they are.

They know a good thing when they see it, and a bad thing when they see it. They do not, it is true, hiss and hoot a poor play or a bad actor, because such is not the custom of the country, and they are, moreover, too good-natured to do it. They simply telephone to the next town, and the company soon finds its receipts dwindling toward the point of starvation.

In brief: A performance which would not pay expenses in New York, Boston or Philadelphia, will not long continue to pay expenses in the rural districts. There are no longer any "countrymen," in the old-English comedy sense. The clodhopper is gone; the country bumpkin has disappeared; the metropolis is—everywhere!

Webster and Hayne.

The following anecdote is vouched for by Mr. Webster: When he had finished his speech a southern member approached him cordially and said: "Mr. Webster, I think you had better die now, and rest your fame on that speech."

Mr. Hayne was standing near and heard the remark, and said: "You ought not to die. A man who can make such a speech ought never to die."

Webster and Hayne met at the president's reception that same evening, and as they shook hands Mr. Webster asked pleasantly, "How are you to-night?"

"None the better for you, sir," was the general's humorous reply.—Bang r Whig.

—Scene: Balcony of lodgings overlooking the sea. German band strikes up round the corner. She—"Oh, Edwin, listen. I think I hear strains of music." He—"A most confounded lot of strain, and uncommon little music, I should say." And such is the want of soul in man.—Judy.

—Mrs. Scharz, in a suit for damages against the barkeepers who persistently sell drinks to her husband in Cincinnati, swears that she has endured $5,000 worth of misery by smelling whiskey in his breath every night for a year.

—"I'll make a note of this," as the sharper said when he got a farmer to write his name on a piece of paper.

General Grant has visited every civilized country, yet in all his travels he has never seen a more effectual remedy for coughs and colds than Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Sold by druggists and dealers at 35 cts. Trial size, 10 cts. Large bottles, 75 cts.

—A graduate of Dartmouth is obliged to surrender a professional engagement on account of personal injuries recently sustained. He was under contract to play base ball.

Paralytic strokes, heart disease, and kidney affections, prevented by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

—A New Jersey farmer set an old straw stack on fire to scare out a fox, and three tramps crawled out of the smoke and upbraided him for his carelessness in not first jubbing around with a pitchfork to see if any one was there.

It cannot be said that St. Jacobs Oil, the great German remedy, is ever demonstrative over a case of rheumatism; quietly he performs his mission, leaving the relieved one to tell of its result. Mr. Carl Siegmund, cor. Congress and Washington sts., Ypsilanti, Michigan, writes: My daughter had suffered from rheumatism to such an extent that it crippled her, rendering her unable to walk at all. We consulted many physicians and used all kinds of remedies, but in vain. At last we decided to try the St. Jacobs Oil, and this wonderful remedy effected the happiest results. It cused my daughter and the little girl is now well and strong. Such facts, plain and incontrovertible, are always in order and are convincing; and it gives us no small pleasure to add our indorsement of this article which has accomplished such results.

—The modesty of musical composers sometimes equals that of painters. The other evening one of them had played an unpublished piece, and as the company paid him the conventional thanks, he remarked simply: "I ought not to be complimented. We should thank God, as the gift of genius is from Him."

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and it promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—A. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. E. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail.—RANSOM LEWIS, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using PAIN KILLER in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—E. W. DYER, Dryville, Oneida, N. Y.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. F. BOURN, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used PAIN KILLER for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. The fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. ELLEN B. KEAN writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails.

Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saurgerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physician for what they called stricture of the urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the Bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseperable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and it costs only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. tmch21

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

Marriage in the Navy.

Many a young officer's professional reputation has been ruined and his prospects killed by an unfortunate alliance, or by constant application and wire-pulling to avoid the service that belongs to him by right, for family considerations, and many a man whose ambition has never been aroused, by reason of an early resignation to domestic life, will hear with sluggish blood the music of the guns, or by reason of lack of fit experience be rendered valueless.

Recently a man-of-war was ordered unexpectedly to winter in an ice-bound and isolated port, where mail facilities were of a meagre nature. The number of married officers who suddenly became ill and unfit for duty was astonishing. Their ship was turned to ridicule, and her efficiency must have been impaired by their departure. An officer should by law be made to remain a bachelor until such a time as will insure his considering properly the significant question, "Will this woman do me honor?" and if his reason tells him yes, then will he know that she will do honor as a representative of his countrywomen in foreign and perhaps rarely visited lands.

One Gubbins, for instance, takes his wife to Belengarie, and the wives of the residents call to give her a cordial welcome. The German women, judging from the narrowness of her views, her lack of knowledge of books and authors, and extreme frivolity, think she must be a little wild Indian, and examine her closely to see if she isn't red; the French women shudder at her style of dress, and the wife of the English governor pronounces her decidedly bad form. Then they unite in a tranquil species of wonderment as to whether all American women are like this one, eventually arriving at the sagacious conclusion that she is perhaps a trifle superior to the rest, as she does not wear feathers and a blanket. The mortified officers of the ship consider themselves powerless. No man among us all has the moral courage to go up to Gubbins and say, "Your wife, by her unbridled tongue and singular actions, has made herself disagreeably conspicuous. She is doing us all a great deal of harm socially, and you ought to send her home!" Gubbins adores his wife, and with a happy unconsciousness of the fact that we are struggling to bring our faltering courage up to a point that will result in Mrs. Gubbins' banishment, tells us that she's a most remarkable woman (wherein we heartily agree with him,) and refreshes our drooping spirits with a little anecdote of how last night at the dinner at the French consul's she sat upon Lady Carraway, who was moving out to dinner ahead of her. "What if she is the governor's wife?" my wife said. "In America we don't have any such nonsense; and, anyhow, the cat may sit down with the king, if it comes to that," etc.

What other naval officers than our own have their wives and babies and nurses chasing round the world after them? Is it dignified and proper? Their presence on a station often lights the tinder of discontent in a vessel, that is to burst some day into a furious flame and make that pandemonium of the sea,—an unhappy ship. At the ball at the prefecture, just as I've found out that the loveliest woman in the room, just arrived from the capital, has no partner for the cotillion, and am on the point of asking the honor, etc., a note is handed me. I know its meaning, and, furious at this continued persecution, vow a stern refusal. I am doubly indignant that it should be handed me just at this time, for the lovely eyes of this woman, over whom I have already become a driveling idiot, spy the feminine character of the writing, and she draws her own conclusions as to the cause of my agitation and speedy withdrawal from the scene. I rush to the buffet, toss off a bumper of champagne, and then with a vast amount of mental swagger fiercely tear open the note.

Dear Apemantus.—The baby is dreadfully ill. Frank and I are in despair. The doctor has told us so many things to do I am almost crazy. Do, like the dear, considerate fellow that you are, take Frank's midwatch to-night, and he'll be down the first thing in the morning.

Yours anxiously, HELEN GRAY.

How my resolutions vanish! I leave my fellow victims to fancy. I go, and the recording angel is kept busy until five minutes past four next morning dropping tears upon the words he had just written down. Frank Gray confesses, when he comes off in time to take half his afternoon watch next day (I am standing it for him), that the innumerable things the doctor had told him to do for the baby consisted in working a small bellows, the nozzle of which was inserted in the baby's mouth, until its little stomach was distended, then to treat it for wind on the stomach. Gin and water in equal parts, sweetened to the taste, with a dash of Angostura bitters, and a bit of the rind of a lemon squeezed in. Dose, a spoonful every time the baby cries.

In the Italian service an officer cannot marry unless either the lady or himself possess sufficient fortune to keep up the dignity of his position.

When an officer of the French navy wishes to marry it is necessary to ask permission of the minister of marine, and at the same time to state the lady possesses a fortune of at least twenty-five thousand francs. This official then satisfies himself that the statement is correct by communicating with the civil functionary, who is familiar with the financial condition of her family, and this information has to appear in writing at the time of the civil marriage.

In the Russian navy an officer cannot marry under the rank of sub-lieutenant, nor under the age of twenty-three years. If he marries before he is twenty-five he must show that he possesses a capital of five thousand roubles.

Up to the grade of captain-lieutenant in the German service an officer must have a capital of twelve thousand thalers before he can marry, and must show certifi-

—New York uses 125,000 gallons of milk per day, but it doesn't seem possible to a Michigan man who sits down to dinner in one of her restaurants.—Detroit Free Press.

The Inconsistency of Man.

Scheming, diverse, and manifold advertisements of worthless goods, will never attract profitable customers; only meritorious articles such as Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, are recognized and sought after by the people. Real worth always receives its just merit. A man may profit for a while by imposing upon the public, but it is only a question of time when he will reach the end of his rope. Man has never dared to doubt the efficacy of this great vegetable Ointment.

—"Well," said an Irish attorney, "if it plaze the court, if I am wrong in this, I have another point that is equally conclusive."

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of early indiscretion causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having lost his health, after every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

By the loss of the fishing schooner Bellerophon, which left Gloucester on the 23d of January for a banks halibut trip, and was seen just previous to the great gale of Feb. 5th with her windlass broken, but has not since been seen or heard from, fourteen men perished, leaving four widows, each with children. The loss of this crew swells to seventy-five the number of men lost in Gloucester fishing vessels since the year came in.

Nursing mothers gain strength by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It acts like a charm in restoring to health and strength overstrained nature.

The schooner David A. Osier, of Gloucester, one day last week carried into Rockport, Mass., a fare of cod-fish 228 in number and weighing 6500 lbs., an average of 28 1-2 lbs. to a fish. One of the fish weighed ninety-six lbs., and another one ninety-eight lbs. They were taken in nets.

If you feel oppressed, discouraged, or out of sorts, Wheat Bitters will relieve 99 out of 100 cases. It is the great brain, blood and nerve food.

The barque Plymouth, which arrived at New York last week from Antwerp, reports that on the 11th inst., on Georges bank, she "sailed through about fifteen miles of dead cod-fish, floating on the water, and some wreckage." This indicates with only too much certainty that another appalling disaster must be added to the long list of accidents that have befallen the fishing fleet since the 1st of February.

General Grant has visited every civilized country, yet in all his travels he has never seen a more effectual remedy for coughs and colds than Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Sold by druggists and dealers at 35 cts. Trial size, 10 cts. Large bottles, 75 cts.

Green B. Raum, commissioner of internal revenue, pays Col. Andrew H. Young of Dover, the late collector of internal revenue in this district, a compliment. He says that during Col. Young's incumbency he collected about $4,000,000, every copper of which was received by Uncle Sam.

A Canadian Speaks.

When anything worth saying is spoken in that terse and pointed way that bears the impress of honest conviction, we like to have people know the nature of the communication. Of such a nature is the following from Mr. W. F. Haist, Campden, P. O., Lincoln Co., Ontario. Mr. Haist says: With great joy over my restored health, I would write a few line concerning that wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. For the last six years I have been using various medicines internally and externally, but nothing would help me. Finally I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured me after a few applications. My mother-in-law, who has always been a great sufferer from rheumatism, was also instantly relieved by the use of the great German Remedy St. Jacobs Oil is a great blessing to suffering humanity, and I shall do all in my power to spread its merits.

Fast Day Proclamation.

In conformity with a long-established and approved practice, I, Charles H. Bell, Governor, with the consent and by the advice of the Council, do hereby appoint Friday, the seventh of April next, an anniversary associated by tradition with an event most memorable to Christendom, as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer to God throughout the State of New Hampshire; and I recommend that it be observed by public religious exercises, as is customary on the occasion of our annual Fast.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, this 9th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixth. CHAS. H. BELL.

By His Excellency the Governor, with advice of the Council:

A. B. THOMPSON, Secretary of State.

Bethlehem's Pestilence.

The small-pox plague at Bethlehem, Pa., grows worse and worse. In the village of South Bethlehem, across the river from the main town, fully 150 cases existed on the 16th inst., all developed within a few days; and eighty-five houses had yellow marks on the doors. All the barber shops were closed, nearly all the students in the Lehigh university and the Bishop Thorpe seminary for ladies had gone to their homes, and five puddling furnaces in the Bethlehem Iron Co.'s works were idle. Two hospitals just erected were already filled, and the Bethlehem Iron Co. were putting up a third one. The health officers had been given full police power. Up to the night of the 17th inst. the health committee had not heard of a single case in which the pestilence had attacked any person previously vaccinated.

AROUND HOME.

Spring, beautiful spring, begins this day. Look—out—for—a—storm.

This evening, at Music hall, Buffalo Bill and his company of actors, white and red, will perform the Prairie Waif, a frontier drama written expressly for Buffalo Bill. There will be a big audience.

The schooner Constitution, from St. Andrews, N. B., for Gloucester, with 90,000 frozen herring, put into Portsmouth lower harbor on Saturday afternoon, to wait for more favorable weather before completing her trip.

One of the firm of Elvin S. Newton & Co., fish dealers, will start for Canada this morning with 50,000 herring and 20,000 lbs. of haddock and cod, packed in boxes, and preserved with ice.

In another column will be found a notification by Mr. John Laighton, of his intention to devote his time and personal attention to the grocery business, at the old stand of the late firm of Butler & Laighton, No. 1 Market square. Mr. Laighton has had large experience in the business, and will cater to the best class of patronage by keeping for sale a large and varied stock of the very best qualities of goods, at prices as low as the state of the wholesale markets will permit.

The fishing schooner Annie Sargent, belonging in Portland, arrived in Portsmouth lower harbor on Saturday morning last from LaHave banks, with 40,000 lbs. of cod and haddock. She fishes out of Portland, and attempted to enter that port on Friday night, but the strong gale and heavy sea prevented, and she was compelled to bear up for this harbor.

The schooner Thomas R. Pillsbury, which arrived at this port from Wilmington, N. C., with a cargo of yellow pine lumber, and sailed for Newburyport on the 17th inst. with part of her original cargo on board, in tow of tug Farnsworth and under command of Capt. Hoyt of Kittery, arrived at Newburyport all right on the same date.

The schooner Clyde, which came into this port some days ago with frozen herring, left on Sunday for Gloucester, finding no satisfactory market here.

Prof. Gardner, the well known vender of soap, is out in a new role, and gave an able and interesting discourse on temperance, Sunday evening, from the pulpit of the North church.

The schooner Satellite, Adderton master, was at the draw of Portsmouth bridge on Sunday, the 19th inst., brick laden, waiting for a chance to run to Boston; she went up the river for her cargo just two weeks before. The schooner Triton was up the river, loading bricks, on the same date. The schooners D. K. Ham and Emily A. Staples leave Boston today for this port, to take their first loads of brick for this season.

Capt. Edward Jameson has secured the schooner Joseph O. Procter, of Gloucester, and will leave this city on Wednesday for that place, to fit out the vessel for the Grand banks.

The Eastern railroad is overhauling and repairing the overhead bridge near the Kittery station, the abutments and woodwork of which had become somewhat out of repair.

There is a considerable movement in real estate, just at this time, though it is fair to state that it is mostly confined to the wheels and bodies of vehicles, which have passed over the muddy roads in the country.

The committee on railroads of the Massachusetts legislature has reported a bill authorizing the Eastern railroad company to issue preferred stock to the amount of $5,000,000, to be exchanged for its certificates of indebtedness, which certificates upon being received for this stock, (on which is to be paid from the net earnings of the company not more than six per cent per annum,) are to be cancelled.

It is stated on good authority that Hon. Frank Jones of Portsmouth will not allow his name to be used at the coming democratic state convention for the gubernatorial nomination. His health was improved by his European tour, but he is not so robust as formerly, and is carrying on, as usual, an immense business. He is one of the wealthiest four men in the state. The names most prominently mentioned in connection with the selection of a democratic candidate for governor are Hon. John W Sanborn of Wakefield, superintendent of the Great Falls division of the Eastern railroad, and Hon. John F. Cloutman, the well-known shoe manufacturer of Farmington.—Boston Post.

WEEKLY FISH REPORT.

A summary of the receipts of fresh fish at this port during the week ending March 18th, shows seven arrivals (including small boats) with 85,600 pounds, mostly of cod, against thirty-five arrivals the week before with 140,800 pounds. Fish generally have been of extra size and quality, the average wholesale price paid being $2.50 per hundred weight, dealers finding ready sales. No receipts of halibut or smelts. Several of the winter fishing fleet have hauled off, preparatory to fitting for the spring fishing business, which it is proposed to increase and vigorously prosecute. The new and successful enterprise which has been in operation here during the winter, in preparing and packing boneless fish for the wholesale and retail market, will be enlarged, the superior quality of the product having caused large demands.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Lieut. Nathan E. Niles is detached from the Portsmouth navy yard, and ordered to the Iroquois on the 10th of April.

Chief Engineer Ezra J. Whittaker is ordered to duty in charge of engineers' stores at this yard.

Asst. Engineer John D. Sloane is detached from this yard, and ordered to the Tallapoosa.

MATTERS IN RYE.

C. L. Brown, of Portsmouth, has finished cutting ice from Foye's pond, and has a large stock ready for shipment. It is of good thickness and excellent quality.

The new road at Wallis' sands was covered with water to such a depth as to be impassable, during the high tide of Saturday.

About three hundred bales of pressed hay and a considerable quantity of wreck stuff came on shore between Odiorne's point and Rye harbor, Saturday forenoon. Several knees, pieces of plank-sheer, etc., which came ashore at Wallis' sands and were dragged above highwater mark by the finders, were hauled off during the day by parties said to be from Portsmouth.

The wreck of the schooner which was lost on the rocks off the Dow farm some time ago, has been sawed and chopped into firewood by Capt. Albert Dow.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. cod&wljan29

NOTICE.

Having decided to give my time and personal attention to the continuance of the GROCERY BUSINESS of the late firm of Butler & Laighton at the old stand, No. 1 Market Square, I take this method of so informing my friends and the late patrons of the firm as well as the public generally. It is my purpose to cater to the wants of the best class of trade, and with my experience in the business, combined with a personal acquaintance with the best merchants in Boston and New York, I shall hope to merit and receive a large share of the patronage of the city and vicinity. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

ONE of greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—non assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. A FEW HINTS.

Mr. Editor: The fiscal year of the city is from January 1st to December 31st, and the appropriations are made for that time. It has formerly been the custom, (and is now, but we hope it will be changed next year) for the appropriation bill to be considered and passed about the first of April, and as the appropriations for one year cannot be used in another, all expenditure is illegal from the first of January to the time the appropriation bill is passed. The remedy for this is very simple, namely, to pass the appropriations before the first of January, the same as the national government is now at work on the appropriations for the fiscal year which begins June 1st, 1882.

Chap. 2, Sec. 12, of the city ordinances reads: "Whenever any appropriation shall have been exhausted, the city clerk shall give notice of the fact to the mayor, the president of the common council and the committee on accounts, and said committee shall pass no more claims on said accounts until the city councils shall have provided the means of paying the same." In direct opposition to this ordinance and against the protest of the councilman who is a member of the committee, the committee on accounts have passed bills, and the board of mayor and aldermen have ordered the bills to be paid, although their attention has been called to the above ordinance, and the city clerk has not complied with his duty so far as to notify the president of the common council.

In regard to hiring money on the city's credit, the joint rules of the city councils say: "No city debt shall be created except by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole number of each branch of the city councils voting by yea and nay;" therefore as the common council have never been consulted, and have never voted on any question in regard to hiring money on the credit of the city, all money which may have been hired has been hired without proper authority and contrary to law.

It is very, very seldom that any of the council members of the different joint committees have been considered and notified of the meetings of their committees, but all business has been done by the aldermanic part of the committee, and then carried out by the board of mayor and aldermen, when if the whole committee had been consulted the members would report to their respective boards and the business be done properly and lawfully.

The common council, in the measures of reform which they have proposed, consider that they are obeying the state statute, as follows: Chap. 48, Sec. 6. "The city councils shall take proper care that no money be paid from the city treasury unless previously granted and appropriated, and shall secure a just and prompt accountability from all persons entrusted with receipt, custody or disbursement of the money or funds of the city, or the care of its property."

The council have no wish to obstruct the business of the city, but desire to have the municipal affairs conducted according to law, and to be recognized as part of the city government.

It has been said by many that the common council ought either to be abolished or given more power by the legislature, but the law is sufficient and very plain, and only needs to be observed to give the common council their place in the government of the city's affairs. C. C.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

Still another route into city was surveyed on Saturday, and a good deal of talk resulted. By this route the proposed line will cross Sagamore creek some distance below the highway bridge, and pass the south cemetery close to its eastern side; through the old gravel pit, and under South street; across the field and marsh to the eastward of Richards avenue, running nearly parallel with the highway; through the N. K. Walker estate on Middle street, and across Middle street at grade; through the land of A. H. Ladd, (by tunnel in part,) touching the Lyman estate, and thence through the Treadwell estate; under State street near the house of Aaron H. Hill; between the houses of James M. Carr and Oliver M. Knight on Islington street; under Islington street, (to allow which the grade of the street will have to be raised four or five feet;) passing between the jail and the house of George T. Vaughan; and from that point making a gradual curve to the eastward so as to strike the main track at or near the old Kearsarge mill lot. None of the several routes looked over have been definitely decided upon, and the railroad managers say the interests of the city and the wishes of the citizens will be heeded to the greatest possible extent in the locating and building of the proposed branch.

Mr. Editor: Allow me to say, in reference to the letter from this place in the supplement of Saturday's Boston Journal, that if the one who wrote (in alluding to the contemplated branch railroad) "Behind the surveyor may there speedily come the man with the shovel, and may the engine-bell soon be jingling all along the sandy beaches from Portsmouth to Newburyport," could realize its coming with a few feet of his house, (which he had by strict economy built as a home for himself and children, and which was his all,) as the survey in this case does in several instances, his "æsthetic" soarings might rise in another direction, as he in another part of his letter speaks of the district as the "new and popular quarter" where the new Christ church is located, —and justly, too, for it is the only section free from the stench of ponds and breweries. For myself and neighbors, I can only enter protest, and express my indignation at such an outrage as is contemplated by the route surveyed through Union and other streets on Thursday last, while others are more feasible.

FRONT DOOR.

Mr. Editor: Without discussing whether the railroad now being surveyed will ever be built, why not take it for granted that a railroad will at some time be built by somebody, and use our influence as a city to have it located where it will help us. Let us have a competent committee appointed by the citizens to look after our interests, and urge upon whoever may build the road, such measures as will prove of greatest benefit to the city. If this road is built it ought to enter the city at the south end, and run along our wharves to the north end.

BUSINESS MAN.

WRECK AT GERRISH'S ISLAND.

The schooner E. A. Elliot, of one hundred and twenty-one tons register, of and from Winterport, Me., loaded with hay and bound for Boston, went ashore on the rocks in front of the Burnham farm at Gerrish's island, Kittery, at one o'clock in the morning on the 18th inst., and went to pieces. The crew, five in number, consisting of Ashley Dean, master, William Carlton, mate, A. D. Downs and Elmer Larrabee, seamen, and John Scoville, steward, managed by lines and other contrivances to save themselves, though some of them were badly cut and bruised by the rocks, and all were thoroughly drenched. Our informant, who with a friend was at the Burnham farm on business, gleaned the following information from the shipwrecked crew:

The E. A. Elliot left Winterport at nine o'clock on the morning of the 17th inst., loaded with hay, empty oil-barrels, shooks, etc., consigned to parties in Boston. A smart breeze was blowing from the north-east, and a quick run was made to Seguin light, when the wind suddenly hauled more to the eastward and commenced blowing a hurricane, the sea also running very high, the spray shrouding everything in ice within thirty feet of the deck. Twice Capt. Dean hauled his vessel to, and shaped his course for Portland harbor, but each time deemed it more prudent to run for Portsmouth.

About midnight the light at the Nubble was sighted, the gale at this time being at its height, with a tremendous sea running. The schooner's course was now shaped south-west by half south, but hardly was this done when the roar of the breakers on the Eastern Sister was heard, and in another moment the vessel was on this dangerous reef. At this juncture a heavy sea boarded her over the quarter, knocking the mate away from the wheel, by which he received a severe cut over the left eye. The schooner's head was swung towards the shore, and her sails jibed; another sea lifted her over the ledge, and she was in a few moments driven with great force upon Cod rock, almost within a gun-shot range of the Burnham farm buildings.

Elmer Larrabee, the youngest of the crew, was the first to land. Carrying a line he attempted to leap to the rocks, but was caught by the waves and dashed senseless and bleeding high upon the ledges. Regaining his senses he struggled to his feet and hallooed to his companions, but hearing no response save the roar of the waves he supposed his shipmates had been washed overboard and drowned, and being almost benumbed with cold he turned inland to find shelter, and soon was attracted by the barking of a dog to the hospitable door of Mr. Porter R. Emery, manager of the Burnham farm, where his cries were heard and he was taken in and kindly cared for.

On hearing the story of the supposed lost of Larrabee's companions, the other inmates of the house were aroused and proceeded to the wreck, where were found safely landed the remainder of the ship-wrecked crew. These were conducted to the house, where Mrs. Emery and her mother had prepared warm clothes and a luncheon for the wet and hungry men.

Several attempts were made by the sailors during the night and early hours of the morning to board the wreck and save their personal effects, but it was impossible, the sea making a clean breach over her. The vessel went to pieces at six o'clock on Saturday morning. About sixty bundles of hay came ashore before our informant left the island at seven o'clock A. M., while large numbers were being drifted by the wind and tide in the direction of Odierne's point, Rye. Both cargo and vessel were uninsured; the former belonged a lady named Wilson, in Winterport.

The E. A. Elliott was built at Madison, Conn., in 1854, and her managing owner was W. T. Fogg of Winterport.

A GOOD DIVIDEND PAYING INVESTMENT.

The Gifford Compo Shoe Machine Co.

CAPITAL $100,000. 1000 SHARES.
PAR VALUE $100.

Thomas J. Gifford, President;
Aug. J. Archer, Treasurer;
Wallace Hackett, Secretary.

Organized and Incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing and leasing their Patent Hydraulic Compo Shoe Press.

This is the most perfect machine yet invented for attaching soles to Boots and Shoes by the Compo process. The shoes made on them are as easy and pliable as a glove, inasmuch as they have a perfectly smooth and flexible sole of solid leather, having no nails, pegs or objectionable fastenings, attached by a process which renders it strong and durable, and impervious to dampness.

The capacity of the machine is fifteen cases per day. More than 2,000,000 pairs Misses' and Children's Shoes were made on these machines the past year, and we are now supplying machines for making Men's and Women's Boots and Shoes, which pay larger royalties. Its success is assured; and as the machines multiply, largely increased earnings and dividends will be realized.

Dividends are paid quarterly from Royalties collected on every pair of Boots or Shoes made on the machine.

We confidently offer the stock as not only a safe, but profitable investment, promising larger returns in the near future.

A few shares paying 8 per cent. per annum are offered for sale at par.

TO GRATIFY HIS WIFE.

An Interesting Story--A Hopeless Case Cured. A Good Reason for Happiness.

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Cassill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of consumptive persons in advanced stages of the Disease. For Sale by all Druggists.—Price, 25 cents.

cates as to the respectability of his fiancee, and also of his own moral character.

Happily, it is not an American custom to make a business matter out of so sacred a contract as matrimony, so that we could not were we so inclined, propose so indelicate a step as the regulation of marriage in the navy by the wealth of the contracting parties; but we can, nevertheless, see the evil working of a system that allows a boy to be entrapped in some unfortunate hour into chains that are to be hung around his neck as long as he lives, unless a sympathetic and discriminating Providence sees fit to rid him of his incumbrance.

A lieutenant in the navy has, in his pay, the equivalent of sixty thousand dollars in government bonds. With so much more from his wife, he can maintain an establishment and social status commensurate with his position under the government, which is one of high trust and confidence. We can, however, readily dispense with the question of fortune if we can secure legislation that will result in the establishment of regulations forbidding officers to marry until they are lieutenants, or thirty years of age.

By that time they will have seen something of the world, and be able to judge wisely of the gravity of the step. The service will not then be hampered by young officers whose duty it is to go to sea and learn their profession, but whose lofty ambition seems to be to remain on shore and coddle their babies. Service feeling will receive a new impetus. The young and aspiring, bound by no stronger ties than are born of the idle flirtation of an hour, will give their fine abilities and splendid energies to the profession they have chosen, and whose glory will become their own.—The United Service.

Hilarious "Mourners."

The most astounding disclosures have been made before the house committee which is auditing the funeral expenses of President Garfield. It appears that the expenses of the representatives who accompanied the remains to Cleveland, exclusive of the railroad fare, were $7,000. Those included hotel expenses at Cleveland and an item of $1,700 for brandies, whiskey, cigars and a lunch obtained in Washington. In the liquor account there is one specified account of $300 for "cocktails," that term being used. Many members put in individual bills for expenses on reaching Cleveland, and were paid. The committee of arrangements was so exclusive that no representatives of the press were allowed to accompany the train, the agent of the Associated Press even being excluded. It, undoubtedly, has been expected that these facts would not come to the knowledge of the public.

At St. Joseph, Mo., on the 16th inst., five boys were buried in a tunnel which they had dug in a hill side, and were all dead when gotten out.

The publisher of the Beaver Falls, Pa., Courier, Mr. John F. Porter, some time ago contracted a severe cold. He says: "I tried half a dozen remedies ineffectually and upon recommendation of a physician I gave Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup a fair, square trial. It relieved me immediately and cured my cold and catarrh entirely. It is a remedy that should be used in every household."

—To correct an evil which exists is not so wise as to foresee and prevent it.

Paralytic strokes, heart disease, and kidney affections, prevented by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

—A lady of Oil City calls her husband Water, because he is drunk so often.

Almost Killed.

I was almost killed by the doctors, who treated me for bleeding piles. It cost me over $100 without relief. I took Sulphur Bitters for two months, and now I am well.—Gus Hall, Troy.

—Action may not always bring happiness, but there is no happiness without action.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominie advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy day."—A poor man's wife.

—A lady was singing last week at a charity concert, and the audience insisted upon hearing her song a second time. Her daughter, a little child, was present, and on being asked afterwards how her mamma had sung, replied, "Very badly, for they made her do it all over again."

"Wheat Bitters." A powerful invigorator in cases of weakness and debility, and is unequalled in female complaints. Price $1.00 per bottle.

—Somebody threw a red light on the falls at Niagara the other night, and the folks thought the cataract was blushing at the way the hackmen round there charge folks.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

—It is said that in some parts of the south if any one shouts "Colonel" even the mules will halt and look around to see what is wanted.

Why We Have So Few Good Riders.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a jockey takes great care of himself, constant exposure in the saddle will superinduce piles of the most aggravating character, that itch intensely, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However, if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of itching piles would be speedily cured.

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT

Symptoms are moisture, stinging, itching; worse at night; sometimes little tumors were gathering about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. As a speedy, economical and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps. 3 boxes, $1.35. Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.

For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. S. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your PAIN KILLER, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. S. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.
